Mr. MCINNIS. Mr. Speaker, it is my honor to rise and pay tribute to a remarkable man from my district. Pete Hautzinger of Mesa, Colorado was recently named "Prosecutor of the Year." As a District Attorney, Pete works tirelessly for the betterment of his community, and I am pleased to call his contributions to the attention of this body of Congress, and this Nation here today.

Pete graduated from the University of Colorado School of law in 1988, and upon graduation, he became a Deputy District Attorney for Adams County. Later, Pete took a position with the 21st Judicial District Attorney's Office in 1992, where he currently serves as a Chief Deputy District Attorney. Pete's experience is vast. He has tried 97 jury trials, 51 of which have been at the felony level.

Pete approaches his job with the best interests of his district's citizens in mind. As a leading advocate for the victims of domestic violence, Pete works tirelessly in conjunction with police and victims to assure that justice is achieved. Pete also works with various domestic violence organizations such as Men Against Violence, the Domestic Violence

Taskforce, and the Western Slope Center for Children. He is truly dedicated to protecting women and children from the terrors of domestic violence.

Pete's contributions reach far beyond the courtroom. Despite his untiring dedication to his work, Pete manages to find time to be a great father and is the volunteer coach for his children's soccer and basketball teams. Pete is also involved in passing along his knowledge and ethics to the next generation of prosecutors and police officers. Each year, he teaches a number of classes and supervises a number of young Deputy District Attorneys.

Mr. Speaker, Pete Hautzinger is truly a tremendous asset to his community. I know that the people of Mesa, Colorado feel safer as the result of his tireless dedication to the pursuit of justice. I am proud to join the people of Mesa in thanking Pete for his service and congratulating him for his achievements.

SENATE COMMITTEE MEETINGS

Title IV of Senate Resolution 4, agreed to by the Senate on February 4, 1977, calls for establishment of a system for a computerized schedule of all meetings and hearings of Senate committees, subcommittees, joint committees, and committees of conference. As an additional procedure along with the computerization of this information, the Office of the Senate Daily Digest will prepare this information for printing in the Extensions of Remarks section of the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD on Monday and Wednesday of each week.
