

young scholars have worked conscientiously to reach the national finals by participating at local and statewide competitions. As a result of their experience they have gained a deep knowledge and understanding of the fundamental principles and values of our constitutional democracy.

The students are Nate Allen, James Berry, Andrew Brown, Ryan Buescher, Susan Creighton, Patrick Cunningham, Ashley Eppler, Kari Fulton, Joseph Garvin, Steve Harlor, Russell Hedman, Alex Home, Ali Kimmell, Eimear Lynch, Suzanne McCartney, Jacob Pearson, Emily Schulman, Joseph Tabano, Marta Thompson, Maria Velazquez and Trevor Wolfson. Kudos to them and their leader, East High teacher Edna Sutton. I would also like to recognize the State Coordinator Jackie Johnson and District Coordinator Loyal Darr whose hard work and dedication helps make it all possible.

The three-day We the People national competition is modeled after hearings in the United States Congress. The hearings consist of oral presentations by high school students before a panel of adult judges on constitutional topics. The students are given an opportunity to demonstrate their knowledge while they evaluate, take and defend positions on relevant historical and contemporary issues. Their testimony is followed by a period of questioning by the judges who probe the students' depth of understanding and ability to apply their constitutional knowledge.

The We the People program provides curricular materials at upper elementary, middle, and high school levels. The curriculum not only enhances students' understanding of the institutions of American constitutional democracy, it also helps them identify the contemporary relevance of the Constitution and Bill of Rights. Critical thinking exercises, problem-solving activities, and cooperative learning techniques help develop participatory skills necessary for students to become active, responsible citizens.

Independent studies by the Educational Testing Service (ETS) revealed that students enrolled in the We the People program at upper elementary, middle, and high school levels "significantly outperformed comparison students on every topic of the tests taken." Another study by Richard Brody at Stanford University discovered that students involved in the We the People program develop greater commitment to democratic principles and values than do students using traditional textbooks and approaches.

The class from East High School is currently preparing for their participation in the national competition. It is inspiring to see these young people advocate the fundamental ideals and principles of our government, ideas that identify us as a people and bind us together as a nation. It is important for future generations to understand these values and principles which we hold as standards in our endeavor to preserve and realize the promise of our constitutional democracy. I wish these young "constitutional experts" the best of luck at the We the People national finals.

PAYING TRIBUTE TO ELIZABETH
GUYTON GIRCH

HON. SCOTT McINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, May 19, 2003

Mr. McINNIS. Mr. Speaker, it is with a solemn heart that I rise today to pay tribute to the life and legacy of Elizabeth Guyton Girch of Rocky Ford, Colorado. Elizabeth gave selflessly of her time and her money in order to help the developmentally disabled. Elizabeth also distinguished herself and made Colorado proud as one of the first women in the state to become an attorney. Several years ago, Denver University honored Elizabeth's achievements, presenting her with the first Mary Lathrop Trailblazer Award for excellence and accomplishment by female attorneys.

It is not Elizabeth's accomplishments as a woman that I wish to extol here today; though they are a testament to her tenacity. Instead, I wish to honor a life that helped protect some of the most disadvantaged members of our society, the developmentally disabled. Elizabeth was instrumental in establishing the Arkansas Valley Community Center, which serves people in the counties of Otero, Bent and Crowley. This was the culmination of her many years advocating for the developmentally disabled.

Mr. Speaker, we are all terribly saddened by the loss of Elizabeth Guyton Girch, but we take comfort in the knowledge that Elizabeth's legacy of compassion, courage and selflessness overshadows our grief. Elizabeth's life embodied both the resolve and the empathy that makes this country great, and I am deeply honored to be able to recognize Elizabeth's life before this body of Congress.

NATIONAL TRANSPORTATION SAFETY BOARD REAUTHORIZATION
ACT OF 2003

SPEECH OF

HON. CAROLYN B. MALONEY

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 15, 2003

The House in Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union had under consideration the bill (H.R. 1527) to amend title 49, United States Code, to authorize appropriations for the National Transportation Safety Board for fiscal years 2003 through 2006, and for other purposes:

Mrs. MALONEY. Mr. Chairman, I rise to express my deep frustration with the Majority's refusal to bring legislation to the Floor that will extend unemployment benefits for the nation's unemployed workers.

Two point seven million jobs have been lost in the first two years of this Administration. Millions of working men and women are facing difficult budget decisions in their own homes everyday. Parents are wondering if they will be able to send their children to college. They are wondering how they will pay their bills without spiraling further into debt. Yet the Republican Majority and this White House insist on more tax cuts. Mr. Chairman, our constituents have to balance their checkbooks each month. We could learn a lot from their example.

New York City has faced especially difficult times during the past two years. I have heard countless stories from my constituents who cannot find jobs in this uncertain economy. The effects of 9/11, especially on New Yorkers, cannot be ignored.

Why can't the House leadership bring to the Floor legislation that will actually help workers? It's time to help thousands of New York families and families across the country keep their homes, put food on the table, and avoid a devastating financial crisis.

It's time for the leadership to get serious about unemployment relief and to give us the opportunity to vote for legislation that will make a difference in the lives of workers.

I wholeheartedly support legislation introduced by Congressman RANGEL which would extend Temporary Extended Unemployment Compensation for an additional 6 months. We must provide this necessary relief to America's unemployed.

Mr. Chairman, I urge a "no" vote on the previous question.

CONVEYANCE OF DECOMMISSIONED
COAST GUARD CUTTER

SPEECH OF

HON. DAVE CAMP

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Teusday, May 13, 2003

Mr. CAMP. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to support H.R. 517, and to honor the U.S. Coast Guard Cutter Bramble and her crew for its many years of faithful service. Commissioned in 1944, the Bramble began her service in San Diego providing navigational assistance.

In 1957, the Coast Guard Cutters Spar and Storis joined the Bramble for a historic journey around the northern coast of Canada from the Pacific to the Atlantic. This trip lasted 64 days and made the trio the first surface ships to circumnavigate the continent of North America.

After her historic and successful mission, the Bramble was relocated to Detroit in 1962, and Port Huron in 1975, where the Bramble would finish her career. Through her primary mission of aiding navigation, the Bramble has assisted merchant and private vessels as they navigate the Saginaw Bay, Lake Huron, and Lake Erie. The Bramble has also provided much needed assistance with law enforcement operations, ice breaking, and by serving as the Patrol Commander for the Port Huron to Mackinac Sailboat race.

The Bramble will now be placed in the Port Huron Museum of Arts and History, and will open its doors to allow the public a glimpse of history. On behalf of the 4th Congressional District of Michigan, I would like to again honor the BRAMBLE and her for her many years of service in the Great Lakes.

TRIBUTE TO ARMY SGT. JOE GARZA

HON. SOLOMON P. ORTIZ

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, May 19, 2003

Mr. ORTIZ. Mr. Speaker, I rise to pay tribute to another fallen soldier who gave the last full measure of devotion to his nation while serving in Iraq: Army Sgt. Joe Garza of Robstown, Texas.

Robstown, my hometown also, is the biggest little town in Texas and we all felt this loss deeply. Army 1st Sgt. Joe Garza, 43, died on April 28 in Baghdad while serving in the war with Iraq.

He was a role model for young people growing up in Robstown, serving even as a surrogate father to others in his family and his community. He enjoyed his family and his friends. He made them laugh, and played games with them.

He left Robstown and Texas to make a life in the military, where he served honorably in Ft. Stewart, Georgia. So the memories of Joe in Robstown were as a student, a classmate, a son and a Cotton Picker, the mascot of Robstown High School.

The memories of Sgt. Garza in Robstown were that he was a good man that fought for justice all of his life. His service in the military was just one more step in this lifelong philosophy. He wanted to bring justice to the world. We find some level of comfort knowing he died bringing peace to the people of Iraq.

We also know that our way of life in the United States and the free world is possible because of our military and those who comprise it—men like Sgt. Joe Garza.

Sgt. Garza is survived by—and lives on in the minds of—his family: his wife of 24 years, Mary Garza, their children, Joe, Jr., John Paul, and Myra Ann, and his mother, Enes Garza, of Robstown.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me today in commending the life and service of Sgt. Joe Garza, and in expressing the condolences of the House of Representatives to his family.

TRIBUTE TO THE 110TH FIGHTER
WING OF THE MICHIGAN AIR
NATIONAL GUARD

HON. FRED UPTON

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, May 19, 2003

Mr. UPTON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate the brave men and women of the 110th Fighter Wing of the Michigan Air National Guard as they returned this past Saturday from a successful completion of Operation Iraqi Freedom. Often overlooked, our National Guard personnel provide an invaluable service to our country and to our Armed Forces. The men and women of the 110th Fighter Wing have shown the utmost courage, traveling a world away to help remove a threat to civilization. These folks made a great sacrifice, departing from families, careers, and livelihoods to preserve our way of life. Because of their sacrifices, the Hussein regime is gone and our world is a more secure place. Freedom isn't free; it comes at a price—and individuals like these are the ones who bear the cost. I wish them well as they are reunited with their families and loved ones.

IN HONOR OF FATHER FLOYD
LOTITO

HON. NANCY PELOSI

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, May 19, 2003

Ms. PELOSI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to a very special friend of the City of San Francisco Reverend Floyd Alfonso Joseph Lotito. Father Lotito is being recognized by the San Francisco Forum as the "San Franciscan of the Year" for his lifetime of service and advocacy for poor and homeless people. A devoted educator, social activist, and spiritual leader, Father Lotito epitomizes San Francisco's most cherished values.

Born and raised in Southern California, Father Lotito began his theological training in 1949, eventually becoming an ordained priest at Old Mission Santa Barbara in 1960. He earned Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Sacred Theology degrees before joining St. Mary's Parish of Stockton, California in 1961. He came to San Francisco in 1968, where he became Associate Pastor for St. Boniface Parish and St. Anthony Parish, the same position he holds today. Father Lotito later received a Master of Arts in Speech and Communication degree and a Lifetime California Standard Teaching Credential.

Father Lotito has kept learning his entire life, most recently conducting research in theology, psychology, sociology, education, speech, and counseling. He has taught many subjects at the high school, college, and graduate school levels. He excelled as a theatre director and forensics coach, taking his students to the state competition level.

Father Lotito served in a number of parishes in California, Oregon, and Wisconsin before coming to San Francisco, but it was at St. Anthony's that he found his home. The St. Anthony Foundation provides social services and resources in the neighborhood of St. Boniface Church, an area that is home to the poor, the sick, and a burgeoning immigrant population. St. Anthony's Dining Room serves 2,000 meals a day, 365 days a year. Father Lotito has served in many capacities at St. Anthony's including Deputy Executive Director, Director of Public Relations, Director of the Dining Room and Chaplain. His work there has earned him our eternal admiration and gratitude.

Father Lotito's efforts to combat poverty and homelessness have received local, national and international recognition. He has addressed numerous audiences, including President Clinton and members of Congress, concerning poverty at home and abroad. In 1984, he delivered the benediction at the Democratic National Convention in San Francisco. He has helped develop a number of charity and volunteer organizations through the church and the community and serves as spiritual advisor to many community groups.

A Franciscan friar, Father Lotito believes in blessing all of God's creations. Many look forward to the "Blessing of the Animals" he holds every year in our city of St. Francis. He also delights us with an annual blessing of the City's taxicab drivers. These wonderful rituals are just a small part of what make him a true San Francisco treasure.

I am proud to join the San Francisco Forum as well as his friends, family, and loved ones in saluting Father Lotito and to congratulate him on being named the "San Franciscan of the Year."

TRIBUTE TO REV. M. MASON
WALKER

HON. JIM DAVIS

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, May 19, 2003

Mr. JIM DAVIS of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise in honor of Rev. M. Mason Walker, a prominent civil rights activist in Florida and the beloved pastor of St. James AME Church, who lost his battle with cancer last week.

Raised in Dade City, Florida, Rev. Walker was only a teenager when he began speaking out for equal rights. In the mid 1960s, he joined other African-American students in integrating Pasco High School and was instrumental in organizing the Great Pasco County NAACP Youth Organization.

Unafraid to fight for his beliefs, in 1964, Rev. Walker walked into the segregated Crest Restaurant in Dade City and demanded service. When asked to leave, he bravely said "When I'm finished eating, I will leave."

After moving to St. Petersburg, Rev. Walker continued his leadership in the civil rights movement. In 1973, Rev. Walker went to court to contest a provision in the City of St. Petersburg's charter which denied him a slot on the ballot for St. Petersburg City Council because he was not a property owner. Thanks to his efforts, the provision was ruled unconstitutional.

Rev. Walker was an active member in the St. Petersburg chapter of the NAACP and a member of the executive board. He also served as Commissioner on the St. Petersburg Housing Authority Board, chairman of the Martin Luther King Commemorative Commission, board member of the Tampa Bay Holocaust Memorial Museum and Educational Center, as well as member of the Pinellas County Millennium Committee, the Community Alliance, Fair Housing Board, Southern Christian Leadership Conference, United Way advisory board, and the Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance.

However, the members at St. James AME Church and Moore's Chapel AME Church, where he served as pastor, will best remember Rev. Walker for his selfless dedication to his congregations.

On behalf of the entire Tampa Bay area, I extend my deepest sympathies to all his friends and family. Rev. Walker's fight for equality will never be forgotten.

L-1 VISA REFORM

HON. JOHN L. MICA

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, May 19, 2003

Mr. MICA. Mr. Speaker, today I have introduced a bill which seeks to close a loophole in immigration law by prohibiting the outsourcing of L-1 intracompany transferee visa holders, similar to a provision contained in the H-1B visa program.

The L-1 visa allows companies with subsidiaries abroad the ability to transfer employees
