

I urge my colleagues to support my resolution and call on the President and Congress to support the policies that ensure that all workers are treated with dignity and respect.

NEWS WE DO NOT HEAR ABOUT FROM IRAQ

(Mr. KIRK asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KIRK. Mr. Speaker, I just returned from Iraq with 15 bipartisan colleagues, and I learned that 90 percent of Western reporters have left Iraq. Those who remain can only get their stories out if they report injuries to Americans. We are not allowed to learn what else is happening in Iraq.

The press does not like to report on other press, but that is a story here. Iraq had only one newspaper, Uday Hussein's newspaper. Now it has over 100, like Azzaman, Ashiraa, Ibn Al-Balad, Al-Nahdhah, Al Mutamar, and an English-language newspaper, Iraq Today. But today is also the first day of school in Iraq, and we have now bookbags given to children in Iraq. This is a bookbag filled with school supplies, notes, calculators, rulers, pens, papers, that went to 1.5 million Iraqi children for the start of school. These are also things that are happening in Iraq, but we are not allowed to hear about them from our newspapers.

THE NATIONAL DEBT

(Mr. MATHESON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. MATHESON. Mr. Speaker, I want to draw attention to the issue of national debt. It has been 874 days since this administration came into office. During that time, the national debt has increased by $1,142,246,097,598, and according to the Web site for the Bureau of the Public Debt at the U.S. Department of Treasury, yesterday at 4:30 p.m. eastern daylight time, the Nation's total outstanding debt was $6,782,571,483,957. Furthermore, in the current fiscal year we are in, 2003, which actually ended yesterday, interest on our national debt or what I call the "debt tax" is $304,978,878,641.

It is time for Congress to pay attention to this disturbing trend.

A SALUTE TO THE 495TH TRANSPORTATION COMPANY

(Mr. PUTNAM asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PUTNAM. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to welcome home the more than 100 men and women of the Florida National Guard's 495th Transportation Company from Lakeland, Florida as they arrive back in the United States and return to their families. I want to thank them for their courage, their service, their bravery, and I want to thank their families for their patience through this long ordeal. The 495th took small arms fire during its tenure in the desert, luckily without casualties.

Floridians should be proud of the service and tremendous accomplishments of the 495th Transportation Company. These men and women risked their lives and made sacrifices to keep our country safe and secure and secure those same blessings for the Iraqi people.

Mr. Speaker, the men and women of the 495th Transportation Unit have each played an invaluable role in their own communities for years. They are now home again to retake their place in businesses, schools, fire stations and farms. And I believe Staff Sergeant Stephanie Miller said it best: "I'm just glad to be home. Glad we made it back safe."

God bless Stephanie. God bless all her colleagues, and may God continue to shower his blessings upon this great land.

URGING CONGRESS TO VOTE AGAINST PAYMENT FOR RECONSTRUCTION IN IRAQ

(Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, let me associate myself with the words of the gentlewoman from California (Ms. SOLIS) to welcome the Immigrant Freedom Riders who will be coming to the United States Government to petition for equality and justice similar to the movement and rise made by those who fought hard in the Civil Rights movement.

As I think about civil rights and civil justice and liberty, I cannot help but be so very proud of the young men and women who stand on the front lines in Operation Iraqi Freedom. I say to the parents and friends and family members who have lost those who gave the ultimate sacrifice, we will never forget. I also want to make mention, Mr. Speaker, of those who lay wounded in our hospitals without eyes, without limbs, and that is why I rise today to point out to the American people and to this Congress that it would be unpardonable, it would be atrocious for us to randomly vote for $87 billion that is being asked by this administration without first bifurcating the vote, voting for the troops and the resources that they need, the armor that they need, but yet looking to distinguish between the reckless dollars that they are spending in this so-called reconstruction without allies.

I am glad the children of Iraq have bookbags. The children in Houston, Texas do not have any bookbags. It is time for this Congress to take up its responsibility and not vote for the $20 billion for reconstruction and support our troops.

UNFUNDED LIABILITIES AND THE DEFICIT

(Mr. SMITH of Michigan asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. SMITH of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, the good news is that there are indications that we are having an economic recovery. In both the third and fourth quarter, we are looking at economic expansion much greater than what was earlier predicted. But this still leaves a great obligation for this Chamber and the Senate and the White House to look at the reality of the situation where we are spending more money than what is coming into government. The Congressional Budget Office estimates that the last fiscal year of 03 we will have a deficit of $562 billion. This fiscal year for 2004, we are going to have a deficit, which means spending over and above revenue of $640 billion. That does not include the $87 billion for Iraq.

We need to start looking not only at the debt burden that we are leaving our kids and our grandkids, but the unfunded liabilities. These are promises that we have made in programs such as Social Security where we do not have enough money to pay promised benefits. We need to consider all of these unfunded liabilities and the deficit along with the mounting cost of servicing this debt. And I hope my colleagues will join me in sponsoring my Social Security bill, H.R. 3055.

THE FOX INSPECTING THE HENHOUSE

(Mr. MCDERMOTT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. MCDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to announce that the theater of the absurd is opening a new farce. The plots of the old one, the fox, Mr. Ashcroft, is inspecting the henhouse, looking for someone who broke the law by revealing an alleged CIA employee to the press.

Does anyone believe that they are going to use all the power of the Patriot Act, that they are going to go through the library records, the medical records, the visa records of everybody in the White House to find out who committed this crime? How can this Congress sit here with a straight face and allow that to be the way this issue is revealed? There ought to be an independent counsel. There is no way you can convince the American people that John Ashcroft, whose campaign manager was Karl Rove in the last election he lost, is going to do a real investigation of who broke the law in the White House.

This Congress cannot let that go by because no intelligence agent is going to be safe in the United States if the fox has his way.

PARTIAL-BIRTH ABORTION

(Mr. RYUN of Kansas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. RYUN of Kansas. Mr. Speaker, partial-birth abortion is a risky procedure. A doctor blindly stabbing scissors into a baby's skull leaves too much room for error. A small slip can have life-threatening consequences for the woman.

Women deserve better. They deserve better than being subjected to a procedure as horrific as a partial-birth abortion. They deserve better than enduring a painful 3-day process that puts their health in jeopardy.

But women usually do not choose to have partial-birth abortions. It is done to them because, as in the words of Dr. Martin Haskell he finds, "dismemberment at 20 weeks and beyond to be difficult due to the toughness of fetal tissues at this stage." It also spares the abortionist the messy task of counting baby body parts.

And contrary to what many Americans think, a partial-birth abortion may be legally performed up until the day a healthy baby is born for virtually any reason.

I oppose this violent procedure for many reasons, but everyone should oppose it for this reason alone, because women deserve much better. I urge my colleagues to join me in voting this week to ban partial-birth abortions forever.

VOTING AGAINST PAYMENT FOR RECONSTRUCTION IN IRAQ

(Ms. WATERS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. WATERS. Mr. Speaker, I am not going to support the President's request for $87 billion to continue the war in Iraq. We asked him to continue the inspections, he chose to do a preemptive strike. And now he is telling us that we have got to pay for the reconstruction of Iraq. I am not going to support that. They told us that the oil that they would get, revenues that they would get from Iraq, would support the reconstruction. Now, we have colleagues coming on the floor, telling us what a wonderful job they are doing and showing us bookbags that they have for the children of Iraq. I want the Members to know children in my district do not even have books to put in bookbags, and we have Members on the other side of the aisle who do not support more Federal funding to local school districts. They say it is a local school district problem.

Give me a break, Mr. President. The covers are off. He has mismanaged this war. He has made promises. The only one who is benefitting from this war is Mr. CHENEY's company, Halliburton, that is getting contracts that were not competitive. The President will not get a vote from me for $87 billion.

SUPPORT THE AMERICAN DREAM DOWN PAYMENT ACT

(Mr. BURNS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BURNS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to voice my support for a bill that will be on the floor later this afternoon, H.R. 1276, the American Dream Down Payment Act. Good quality housing is crucial to the strength of our communities and our Nation. Today more Americans own their homes than ever before; yet despite this success, the lack of homeownership in some of our low-income communities has become a crisis.

For everyone to be able to live the American dream, we should look at providing programs that address the unique housing needs of all people. The goal of H.R. 1276 is to increase the ownership rate among minorities and to revitalize and stabilize our communities. For many low-income households, the down payment is one of the major barriers to homeownership. The American Dream Down Payment Act will benefit these families by helping them realize the American dream of homeownership.

I urge my colleagues to provide hope by supporting the gentlewoman from Florida's (Ms. HARRIS) bill on the floor today. Support H.R. 1276, the American Dream Down Payment Act.

TAX CUTS AND OUR ECONOMIC SITUATION

(Mr. BROWN of Ohio asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. BROWN of Ohio. Mr. Speaker, the economy in my part of the country continues to drift; yet Congress and the President continue to fiddle. Three and a half million jobs lost since President Bush took office. Two and a half million manufacturing jobs have vanished, one out of ten manufacturing jobs in this country. It simply disappeared; most moved overseas in the last 2½ years. Plant closing after plant closing. Now, the President asks us for $87 billion with no accountability, $87 billion to Iraq.

□ 1030

Yet the President at home is cutting education, is cutting spending on health care, will not provide a prescription drug benefit, and even is cutting veterans benefits. Why? For the simple reason that he wants this war on the cheap and the simple reason that he wants to continue to give tax cuts to the most privileged people in this society.

Forty-two percent of the tax cuts have gone to the richest 1 percent of people in this country. That means a millionaire gets a $93,000 tax cut. Half of my constituents got nothing.

CELEBRATING FREEDOM FOR IRAQI CHILDREN

(Mrs. MILLER of Michigan asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. MILLER of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, today marks another watershed moment in the liberation of the Iraqi people. Today, the children of Iraq return to school. Only this year, things will be much different. When they enter their schoolroom, for the first time in their lives, they will not have their oppressor staring at them from a picture on the wall. Nor will they be subject to torture and prison for not swearing allegiance to that oppressor. For the first time they will be free to learn. They will be focused on reading, writing and arithmetic, not on hate, incitement, and brutality forced on them by the former dictator.

Operation Iraqi Freedom has brought freedom to the children of Iraq. They will now be free to learn, free to achieve, and free to help build a new society based on freedom, which is now a reality.

For all of those who question whether we have been successful in Iraq, I ask that they look at the faces of the Iraqi children who will be tasting freedom for the first time in their young lives and ask if they would be better off with Saddam staring at them from a wall.

Today is a day to celebrate the freedom of Iraqi children and the hope for a new generation.

NOW IS NOT THE TIME TO DESERT OPERATION IRAQI FREEDOM

(Mr. KINGSTON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, we are about half way, maybe not half way, but we are at a critical juncture in our mission in Iraq; but the Democrats want to bail out now. They want to pull the rug out from under the President of the United States so badly that they are willing to strand the people in Iraq and even endanger our soldiers. I think it is outrageous.

If we listen to the Presidential debates on the Democrat side, Dean, Kerry, Clark, it does not really matter what they say today, because tomorrow they will be saying the opposite thing. It is like a jam session of the first amendment without any responsibility to what your words are.

But let us look at the situation in Iraq. We have a very successful military operation that is on balance. I do not want another American soldier or any soldier or any citizen to get killed, obviously. But we have done a remarkable job, and we have secured the country.
