

Clearly, VA needs to do more in the area of long-term care. On May 22 of this year, at the request of the Senate and House Committees on Veterans Affairs, the General Accounting Office (GAO) issued the report VA Long-Term Care: Service Gaps and Facility Restrictions Limit Veterans' Access to Noninstitutional Care. GAO found that "VA's lack of emphasis on increasing access to noninstitutional long-term care services has contributed to service gaps and individual facility restrictions that limit access to care." The report made several recommendations to VA, including that they "refine current performance measures to help ensure that all VA facilities provide veterans with access to required non-institutional services."

In fiscal year 2002, VA served about 36 percent of its long-term care workload in non-institutional settings, yet, that same year, non-institutional care accounted for just 9 percent of VA's long-term care expenditures. Clearly a move from traditional institutional care is wise. The assisted living pilot program goes far in helping VA address these problems and meet the goals set out for them by GAO.

While the assisted living pilot in VISN 20 does not expire until October 2004, I am convinced that veterans in that part of the country are benefitting from the approach. The legislation I introduce today would expand the pilot program to three additional networks, for three additional years. Why should the rest of the Nation be prevented from reaping the benefits of such a practical, cost-effective program?

Both veterans and VA employees affiliated with the program have praised what it has to offer. They believe that it fills an important gap for those who require care but do not need nor want to go to a nursing home. We must expand this program that provides such deserved care to our Nation's veterans, allowing them to maintain both their health and their self-respect.

I ask unanimous consent that the text of the bill be printed in the RECORD.●

There being no objection, the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

S. 1572

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. EXPANSION OF PILOT PROGRAM OF DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS AFFAIRS ON ASSISTED LIVING FOR VETERANS.

(1) by striking "LOCATION OF PILOT PROGRAM.—" and inserting "LOCATIONS OF PILOT PROGRAM.—(1)"; and

(2) by adding at the end the following new paragraph:

health care regions of the Department selected by the Secretary for purposes of this section.

"(B) Notwithstanding subsection (f), the authority of the Secretary to provide services under the pilot program in a health care region of the Department selected under subparagraph (A) shall cease on the date that is three years after the commencement of the provision of services under the pilot program in the health care region."
