COMMENDING MICHAEL J. MCGHEE, KEEPER OF THE STATIONERY

Mr. DEWINE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of S. Res. 218, which was submitted earlier today.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report the resolution by title.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A resolution (S. Res. 218) commending Michael J. McGhee, Keeper of the Stationery, United States Senate.

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the resolution.

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I wish to take a moment to recognize a faithful, long-serving member of our Senate family. Mike McGhee—our Keeper of the Stationery—retired this past 29th day of August, after serving the Senate for almost 30 years.

Mike began his Senate career in July 1974 as a sales clerk when the stationery room operation was located in the basement of the Russell Building. He worked his way up in the stationery room to become the 17th Keeper of the Stationery. It is interesting to note that the Senate Stationery Room has been in existence since the very first Congress assembled in Federal Hall in New York City. Since that time—a period of 230 plus years—there have only been 16 other Keepers of the Stationery, a very exclusive group of people indeed!

During Mike's almost three-decade career, he has developed life-long professional relationships with many Senate employees. Indeed, most Senate staff and members know him and know that they can count on Mike to provide the help they need.

Of special note is Mike's "beyond the call of duty" response to the anthrax attack and related closure of the Hart Building, including the Stationery Room. Under Mike's leadership, the Stationery Room continued operations throughout the response period, fulfilling the countless requests for supplies under a most challenging atmosphere. Mike and his staff helped keep the work of the Senate rolling.

Mike's family—his wife Kathleen, son Luke, and daughter Molly—are justly proud of their husband and dad, respectively, for his many tireless efforts and the significant contributions he has made to the Senate and our country.

As Mike leaves the Senate family, the Senate will miss him. On behalf of all my colleagues and our entire Senate family, I thank Mike for his dedicated service and wish him and his family God-speed in retirement.

Mr. DASCHLE. Mr. President, I wish to add my congratulations to Mike McGhee on his career here in the Senate and to wish him well on his retirement. His rise, over nearly a 30-year span, from clerk in the Stationery Room to become the 17th Keeper of the Stationery shows the dedication and hard work that everyone has come to expect from Mike. The stationery office serves the entire Senate community and involves managing over a $4 million budget. He has accomplished this task both efficiently and effectively. His commitment to public service has been exemplary. I wish him and his family all the best in the years to come, and I congratulate him on a job well done.

Mr. DEWINE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the resolution be agreed to; that the preamble be agreed to; that the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table; and that any statements relating to this resolution be printed in the RECORD.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The resolution (S. Res. 218) was agreed to.

The preamble was agreed to.

The resolution, with its preamble, reads as follows:

S. RES. 218

Whereas the Senate recognizes that its Keeper of the Stationery, Michael J. McGhee, retired on August 29, 2003;

Whereas Michael J. McGhee became an employee of the Senate in August 1974, and since that date has ably and faithfully upheld the high standards and traditions of the Senate for a period that included 16 Congresses;

Whereas Michael J. McGhee has served with distinction as Keeper of the Stationery, and at all times has discharged the important duties and responsibilities of his office with dedication and excellence; and

Whereas Michael J. McGhee's exceptional service and his unflinching dedication have earned him the esteem and affection of the Senate: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate—

(1) commends Michael J. McGhee for his exemplary service to the Senate and the Nation;

(2) wishes to express its deep appreciation for his long, faithful and outstanding service; and

(3) extends its very best wishes upon his retirement.

SEC. 2. That the Secretary of the Senate shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Michael J. McGhee.
