

September 16—the most recent information available—677,669 Tennessee phone numbers have been registered with the National Do Not Call Registry; over 187,000 of those registered by phone and over 490,000 by the Internet alone.

As for parents, it is, as we all know, one of those important interests, and we are committed to do something about that.

Yesterday, with the leadership of Chairman BILLY TAUZIN in the House, the House responded with legislation. Chairman MCCAIN, along with Senators ENSIGN and DORGAN and many others in this body, worked on legislation identical to the Tauzin bill. We passed that bill. The House passed their bill. We passed our bill. Yet we now have this Colorado ruling, from late yesterday, which goes counter to the will of the American people.

At this juncture we will have to review the decision to determine how best to proceed, and for telemarketers how we can put—and we will figure out some way to do it—some sort of permanent busy signal on the phones of families in Tennessee and indeed across the country.

Finally, earlier this week, we were able to schedule and give consent to Senator DEWINE's Video Voyeurism Prevention Act. Several important authorizations were completed this week, including the one we just did with the Small Business reauthorization, as well as the authorization for the Federal Maritime Commission. Senators MCCAIN and SNOWE guided passage of those measures.

We also successfully negotiated an agreement to allow for Senate passage of the U.S. Olympic Committee Reform Act. Senator CAMPBELL and MCCAIN engaged in that effort and pushed ahead. Just a few moments ago, we also confirmed formally a number of military nominations, including Gordon England to be Secretary of the Navy.

I would like to say, also, that we confirmed six district judges this week. Again, steady progress has been made with respect to these judicial nominations. Yet I very quickly have to remind my colleagues that we have an additional 12 judges that are now waiting on the Executive Calendar. I will continue to work with the Democratic leader to schedule Senate votes on those remaining nominations.

Let me close by saying—this is really to notify my colleagues—on the Executive Calendar we have a whole number of—too many, I think—nonjudicial nominations that are pending for floor action.

I know that individual Members may have specific concerns with some of these nominations, but I am also aware that Senators will hold these nominations so we cannot address them on the floor for unrelated issues. Because we are now coming down to the closing weeks of this session, I do hope and encourage each and every one of our Members to address, from their own perspective, these nominations, and if there is something holding up consideration from the floor, to work with us and to allow these individuals to be scheduled for votes. We have nominations, in fact, that have been on the Executive Calendar since March, again, waiting for us to act. I hope each of us will address this very important issue.

I do thank my colleagues in advance for addressing this over the coming days.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 1 P.M., MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 2003

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 2:12 p.m., adjourned until Monday, September 29, 2003, at 1 p.m.
