ate completes its business today, it adjourn until 12 noon, Monday, October 27. The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT AGREEMENT—EXECUTIVE CALENDAR

As in executive session, I ask unanimous consent that at 2 p.m. on Monday, the Senate resume consideration of Executive Calendar No. 405, Michael Leavitt, to be Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency. I further ask unanimous consent that the time until the scheduled cloture vote at 5:30 be divided with the chairman of the committee or his designee to control 1 hour and 15 minutes and the ranking member or designee in control of 2 hours and 15 minutes. I further ask unanimous consent that the final 20 minutes before the vote be equally divided with the last 10 minutes under the chairman's control.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. FRIST. Madam President, we will resume business on Monday afternoon. The two managers of the Foreign Operations appropriations bill will be here and available so that Members may come to the floor and offer amendments. As always, I encourage Senators to notify their respective cloakrooms if they intend to offer an amendment to this bill. At this time there are only a few amendments that have come forward that are known. Therefore, I hope the Senate will complete the bill by early next week. I do remind my colleagues the first vote of Monday's session will be at 5:30. Under the order, that vote will be on invoking cloture on the Leavitt nomination. I fully expect that cloture will be overwhelmingly invoked, and the Senate will then be able to have an up-or-down vote on the confirmation of this qualified candidate to the President's cabinet. We have provided time on Monday for Senators to speak prior to the vote. However, again, I hope once that vote is taken, we will be able to move quickly to a vote on the confirmation of Michael Leavitt.

I want to also mention once again the very important issues that still need to be addressed prior to the adjournment of this session. There are a number of issues, including Healthy Forests, the Internet tax moratorium, the CARE Act, going to conference, gun liability—that is, the Protection of Lawful Commerce in Arms Act—fair credit reporting, on which we reached consent to proceed yesterday. Hopefully this can be done quickly with no further delay. Obviously, we continue next week toward completing the appropriations process. I was encouraged with yesterday's pace on the Transportation-Treasury bill. With the cooperation of all Members, we were able to complete that bill over the course of the day. I hope we will be able to continue that trend and move expeditiously next week on the remaining bills.

This week we also finally finished with congressional action on the partial-birth abortion ban. That bill will be presented to the President for his signature to become the law of the land. The Senate expedited passage this week of the anti-spam act. The 97 to zero passage on that vote shows the importance and the need for this legislation for which the American people have called.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Democratic leader.

Mr. DASCHLE. Madam President, we have offered to go to the Healthy Forests legislation with no limitation on amendments. I hope we can work that out. We also have indicated we could send the CARE Act over to the House without going to conference and allow them to take it up immediately. I hope we can do that next week as well. Next week certainly can be a productive week.

I ask the majority leader if it is his intention to dual-track the schedule for the coming days to accommodate debate and hopefully resolution on appropriations bills for a certain period during the day and then the possibility that we could take up and debate some of the bills we have discussed as priority items later on in the day, to accommodate both authorizing and appropriations bills prior to the end of the session.

I yield for that purpose.

Mr. FRIST. Madam President, through the Chair, as we have discussed informally, it is our intention to address all of these issues and to do so and at the same time handle the tremendous challenge of addressing these appropriations bills will require us to, so called, dual track which in essence means take the necessary time on the appropriations bills each day, using that as the focus, but at the same time recognizing there is other very important business we will be doing over the course of that day. Generally we will try to do it in the evenings, but we can adjust that according to the schedules of the various managers.

Madam President, it will take patience on both sides of the aisle, in part because of the amount of time it will require all of us to be on the Senate floor, but also from an organizational standpoint.

The intention will be to try to keep things as organized as possible and focused on the appropriations bills. If it looks like any time can be spent more profitably on a dual track, we will do that.

Generally, I would like to do appropriations bills through the morning and very late in the afternoon, and at that juncture be able to dual-track with these other issues.

Mr. DASCHLE. Madam President, I appreciate very much the majority leader's reply. The bills he has mentioned and the appropriations bills left to be done are all bills that ought to accommodate a great deal of bipartisan effort. There is nothing on the list that he has proposed, if I can recall the list, that would generate divisive debate. There are going to be amendments.

I was just talking to my Governor, and he again expressed concern about the current form of the Internet tax bill as it relates to States and lost revenue they could experience because the bill has been changed. But on that bill and Healthy Forests, the fair credit reporting bill, and a number of other bills, I think there is ample bipartisan interest that could accommodate a very aggressive schedule, and I look forward to working with the majority leader to see how much we can accomplish next week.

I yield the floor.

Mr. FRIST. Madam President, one thing I did not mention over the course of the week is the vote on the Class Action Fairness Act. Although I was very disappointed in the outcome; that is, we were not able to proceed with that—I think it did focus the attention of both sides of the aisle. It was a bipartisan vote, but it wasn't bipartisan enough to be able to proceed to it this week. But I will add that on both sides of the aisle people have come forward and said we are very serious about doing this in a way that is appropriate.

I think there may well be an opportunity, at the appropriate time, to address that issue. The Democratic leader and I are both personally involved with asbestos. He has mentioned it and I have mentioned it. That should send a strong signal to people that we are seriously committed, in a bipartisan way, to addressing an issue that is affecting families, the economy, and jobs; and I do hope that those discussions will continue to be productive as we go forward.

Having said that, next week is going to be a very busy week. I look forward to it being a very productive week.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL MONDAY, OCTOBER 27, 2003

Mr. FRIST. Madam President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 2:14 p.m., adjourned until Monday, October 27, 2003, at 12 noon.
