

the past few decades, this act will provide greater protection for servicemembers and their families from being evicted during times of military service. Currently, servicemembers are protected from eviction if they have a monthly rent of $1200 or less. This legislation will raise the bar to $2,400, to be adjusted annually based on the annual increase in the Consumer Price Index, thus avoiding the future need for frequent amendments to the law.

Continuing the effort to make the SSCRA applicable to today's servicemembers' lifestyles, this legislation would allow servicemembers to be released from a lease for an automobile if they are deployed for an extended period of time or moved overseas. It was necessary to add this protection because auto leasing has become such a popular alternative to purchasing in recent times, yet many leases prohibit the removal of cars from the United States.

This bill would also look after the needs of small business owners who serve, particularly those in the Reserves and National Guard. If passed, the bill would preserve the assets of small business owners during military service if the servicemember is personally liable for trade or business debts.

I thank the leadership of my colleagues who serve on the House Committee on Veterans' Affairs, the Chairman of the Senate Committee on Veterans' Affairs, Senator SPECTER, and Senators BEN NELSON and ZELL MILLER, who have all worked together to provide a comprehensive and necessary set of benefits which will relieve many of the personal burdens some of our servicemembers face when they are called into duty. The benefits will allow them to continue focusing their efforts on their heroic duties for our Nation.

I urge my colleagues to support this critical measure and restore the fundamental justice due our veterans.

Mr. FRIST. I ask unanimous consent the committee substitute amendment be agreed to; the bill, as amended, be read a third time, and the Veterans' Affairs Committee then be discharged from further consideration of H.R. 100, and the Senate proceed to its consideration. I further ask all after the enacting clause be stricken, the text of S. 1136, as amended, be inserted in lieu thereof, the bill as amended be read a third time and passed, the motions to reconsider be laid on the table en bloc, S. 1136 then be returned to the calendar, and any statements relating to the bill be printed in the RECORD.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The committee amendment in the nature of a substitute was agreed to.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading and was read the third time.

The bill (H.R. 100), as amended, was read the third time and passed.

CHIEF JUSTICE JOHN MARSHALL COMMEMORATIVE COIN ACT

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Banking Committee be discharged from further consideration of S. 1531 and that the Senate proceed to its immediate consideration.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The clerk will report the bill by title. The legislative clerk read as follows:

A bill (S. 1531) to require the Secretary of the Treasury to mint coins in commemoration of Chief Justice John Marshall.

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the bill.

Mr. HATCH. Mr. President, I rise today in strong support of S. 1531, the Chief Justice John Marshall Commemorative Coin Act. I am the sponsor of this significant legislation and I believe its passage is indeed a tribute to the most important Chief Justice to serve on the Supreme Court of the United States since our nation’s founding.

John Marshall served as the fourth Chief Justice of the Supreme Court for over 34 years. He is the longest serving Chief Justice in our Nation’s history. Throughout his years on the Supreme Court, he authored over 500 opinions, many of which significantly impacted the operations and interpretations of the Constitution. He was a distinguished leader who made a lasting impression on the Supreme Court.

For example, probably Marshall’s most famous opinion, Marbury v. Madison, instilled in the Supreme Court the authority to review the constitutionality of congressional acts and instituted the doctrine of judicial review. Without judicial review, the Supreme Court and the lower courts of our great nation would not have the ability to uphold and sustain the Constitution and stop any unauthorized intrusion into the sacred freedoms that great document protects.

The Marshall Court decided numerous landmark and historically significant cases that have forever fashioned the Nation’s constitutional law and history—including McCullough v. Maryland, Cohens v. Virginia, Stuart v. Laird, Dartmouth College v. Woodward, and Gibbons v. Ogden, just to name a few. These cases are still cited today by our Federal courts and State courts as impressive precedents important to recognize that establish significant legal doctrines and relevant constitutional interpretations.

Chief Justice Marshall is not only the longest serving Chief Justice in the history of the United States, but he has authored more opinions for the Court than any other Chief Justice in the Supreme Court’s history. That impressive record remains in place today.

It is noteworthy to recognize that Chief Justice Marshall also introduced and implemented the practice of allowing one justice to speak for the Court while having the remaining justices either sign on to that opinion or issue their own concurring or dissenting opinion. Prior to Chief Justice Marshall’s tenure, Justices usually wrote their own opinions and a party in a case had to thoroughly study the particular nuances in each individual Justice’s opinion in order to discover which side prevailed.

Chief Justice Marshall was also a Revolutionary War veteran, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to France, Member of the United States House of Representatives, and Secretary of State under President John Adams.

I believe minting a coin is a fitting honor for the Great Chief Justice. This coin will commemorate the 250th anniversary of the birth of Chief Justice Marshall, which will take place in the year 2005.

This legislation will allow the Supreme Court Historical Society to receive the necessary revenue it needs for worthwhile endeavors. The Supreme Court Historical Society is an established national organization whose programs and endeavors benefit Americans in every State in the Union. The Supreme Court Historical Society operates a Summer Institute for Teachers, with brings teachers from across the nation to Washington to study the Supreme Court and the Constitution first hand. This particular program helps to improve public school education about the role and importance of the Court in our Government.

The Supreme Court Historical Society collects antiques and historical artifacts for the use of the Court Curator’s educational displays at the Supreme Court Building. There are still many artifacts and antiques that would preserve the precious history of the Court that the Society lacks the funds to acquire.

The Supreme Court Historical Society also holds public lectures at the Supreme Court Building and around the country which usually feature current Justices on the Supreme Court and other important leaders in constitutional and legal scholarship.

The Chief Justice John Marshall Commemorative Coin Act will allow for 400,000 coins bearing the likeness of the Great Chief Justice, John Marshall, in 2005, with a surcharge of $10 per coin. The sale of these coins has the capability to produce nearly $4,000,000 in direct support of the Supreme Court Historical Society’s programs and functions.

Furthermore, I put a provision in this bill to ensure that there is no net
