

NOTICE

Incomplete record of Senate proceedings. Except for concluding business which follows, today's Senate proceedings will be continued in the next issue of the Record.

ORDERS FOR THURSDAY,
FEBRUARY 13, 2003

Mr. TALENT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it stand in adjournment until 11 a.m., Thursday, February 13. I further ask unanimous consent that on Thursday, following the prayer and pledge, the morning hour be deemed expired, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day, and the Senate then return to executive session to resume the consideration of the nomination of Miguel Estrada to be a circuit judge for the DC Circuit.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. TALENT. Mr. President, on behalf of the majority leader, and for the information of Senators, tomorrow the Senate will once again resume debate on the nomination of Miguel Estrada. We have now spent 5 days, over 35 hours, debating this well-qualified and capable nominee. During this debate, every Senator should have had the opportunity to speak on the nomination of Miguel Estrada if they desired. We will continue consideration of this qualified nomination tomorrow morning.

In addition, the omnibus conference report will be filed in the House tonight. The House is expected to act on that conference report tomorrow. Therefore, it is the leader's hope that the Senate will be able to complete action on that measure on Thursday or Friday. Rollcall votes are therefore possible during Thursday's session.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Nevada.

Mr. REID. When this was prepared, it wasn't morning. I think the report is going to be filed in the next hour or two.

Mr. TALENT. That is correct. It would be in the morning.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 11 A.M.
TOMORROW

Mr. TALENT. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 12:45 a.m., adjourned until Thursday, February 13, 2003, at 11 a.m.
