Mr. REID. Mr. President, I wish to state how much I appreciate the cooperation of the ranking member and the chairman of the Energy and Natural Resources Committee. It took a few minutes to do this, but it has taken weeks to get to this point. I express my appreciation to all Senators involved. It was very hard to do.

COMMENDING THE UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA DULUTH BULLDOGS

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of S. Res. 104, submitted earlier today by Senator DAYTON and Senator COLEMAN.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report the resolution by title.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A resolution (S. Res. 104) commending the University of Minnesota Duluth Bulldogs for winning the 2002-2003 National Collegiate Athletic Association Division I National Collegiate Women's Ice Hockey Championship.

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the resolution.

Mr. DAYTON. Mr. President, I am proud to rise today with my colleague from Minnesota, Senator COLEMAN, to pay tribute to the University of Minnesota Duluth Women's Ice Hockey Team, who just won their third consecutive National Collegiate Athletic Association championship. The Bulldogs defeated an outstanding Harvard team, 4 to 3, in the second sudden-death overtime.

I was once a hockey goalie, back in the days when we used dinosaur bones for goalie sticks. So I have experienced firsthand the incredible intensity and pressure of overtime in hockey. It truly is "sudden death." For the Bulldogs to win their third straight national championship under that pressure, in front of their families, friends, and many fans in Duluth, is an extraordinary achievement.

I congratulate all the players on the University of Minnesota Duluth team, their head coach, Shannon Miller, who has spearheaded this incredibly successful hockey program, and UMD Chancellor Kathryn Martin. They have accomplished more than anyone could have imagined just 3 years ago, and they have made all Minnesotans exceptionally proud of them.

Senator COLEMAN, Representative JIM OBERSTAR, and I have written to President Bush and asked him to invite the team to the White House. Two years ago, after the Bulldogs' won their first national championship, I read that the NCAA men's championship team had been invited to the White House. We asked the President then that the UMD women's team be so honored. The President graciously extended that invitation to the Bulldogs team and personally hosted them at the White House.

Last year, we had the additional thrill of attending a White House ceremony honoring both the men's and women's NCAA hockey champions: the University of Minnesota Duluth women's champions and the University of Minnesota men's champions. Since the Gophers men's team is now in the semifinals of their national tournament, I am hopeful that we will experience that same thrill again this year. Regardless of that outcome, the UMD women's team are again the National Champions. A "Threepeat!" Awesome! Congratulations, Bulldogs!

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the resolution and preamble be agreed to en bloc; that the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table, without intervening action or debate; and that any statements relating to the resolution be printed in the RECORD.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The resolution (S. Res. 104) was agreed to.

The preamble was agreed to.

The resolution, with its preamble, reads as follows:

S. RES. 104

Whereas on Sunday, March 23, 2003, the two-time defending NCAA National Collegiate Women's Ice Hockey Champions, the University of Minnesota Duluth Bulldogs, won the National Championship for the third straight year;

Whereas Minnesota Duluth defeated Harvard University in double overtime of the championship game by the score of 4-3, having defeated Dartmouth College 5-2 in the semifinal;

Whereas sophomore Nora Tallus scored the game-winning goal in the second overtime, assisted by Erika Holst and Joanne Eustace;

EXECUTIVE SESSION

EXECUTIVE CALENDAR

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to executive session to consider the following nominations on today's Executive Calendar: Calendar Nos. 98, 99, 100, 101, 102, and 104. I further ask unanimous consent that the nominations be confirmed en bloc; that the motions to reconsider be laid upon the table; that the President be immediately notified of the Senate's action; and that the Senate then return to legislative session.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.
