Whereas the seven day period starting May 4 was designated Asian Pacific Heritage Week as it marks two historical dates—May 7, 1843, when the first Japanese immigrants arrived in the United States, and May 10, 1869, Golden Spike Day, when, with substantial contributions from Chinese immigrants, the first transcontinental railroad was completed;

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A bill (S. 1079) to extend the Temporary Extended Unemployment Compensation Act of 2002.

Mr. WARNER. Mr. President, I now ask for its second reading and object to further proceeding on this matter.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair, on behalf of the Vice President, in accordance with 22 U.S.C. 1928a-1928d, as amended, appoints the following Senators as members of the Senate Delegation to the NATO Parliamentary Assembly during the First Session of the 108th Congress, to be held in Prague, Czech Republic, May 23-26, 2003: Senator JEFF SESSIONS of Alabama; Senator GEORGE VOINOVICH of Ohio; Senator JOHN CORNYN of Texas; Senator ERNEST F. HOLLINGS of South Carolina; Senator CHRISTOPHER J. DODD of Connecticut.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT REQUEST—S. 1079

Mr. WARNER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate now proceed to consideration of S. 1079, Senator MURKOWSKI's bill to extend the Temporary Extended Unemployment Compensation Act of 2002; provided further the Senate proceed to its consideration, the bill be read a third time and passed, and the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table.

Mr. REID. Reserving the right to object.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Nevada.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, this is a step in the right direction. We are very fortunate there has been movement by the majority toward doing something about unemployment insurance benefits. The problem with this as it now stands is with those people who have been so long unemployed that they are no longer on the unemployment rolls. They have been off so long that under statute and regulation they are no longer part of the unemployed of this country.

We want to make sure they are helped also. They are in dire need of help. Everyone needs help. We hope in the next few days we could work something out so these people can also be covered.

As that is the case, I hope the two leaders can get together, as I have indicated, in the near future and work to have a bill both sides can agree on.

As a result of this statement, I object.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Objection is heard.

ORDERS FOR TUESDAY, MAY 20, 2003

Mr. WARNER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it stand in adjournment until 9:30 a.m. Tuesday, May 20. I further ask that following the prayer and pledge, the morning hour be deemed expired, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day, and the Senate then begin a period of morning business with the time until 10 a.m. equally divided between Senator CORNYN and the minority leader or their designees, provided that at 10 a.m. the Senate resume consideration of S. 1050, the Department of Defense authorization bill.

I further ask consent that the Senate recess from 12:30 p.m. to 2:15 p.m. for the weekly party lunches.

Mr. REID. It is my understanding the two leaders are going to attempt to arrange votes on the two matters now pending before the Senate; that is, the Daschle amendment and the amendment offered by the Senator from South Carolina, and we would like to see if that be can be arranged prior to the recess Tuesday. That is not done yet, but Members should contemplate two votes before our noon recess.

Mr. WARNER. I understand the representation is accurate.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection to the unanimous consent request?

Mr. REID. No objection.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. WARNER. For the information of all Senators, tomorrow the Senate will resume debate on the Department of Defense authorization bill. We have two amendments relating to TRICARE on the bill. I will be talking to the sponsors of those amendments and the ranking member, as stated by the distinguished minority whip.

We are encouraging other Members to come forward and work with the ranking member and myself in order to schedule consideration of amendments. Senators should expect rollcall votes on amendments throughout the day tomorrow.
