

A short account of Edie's service would include the time that Edie has donated to the Monterey Civic Club, Monterey Recreation Committee, Robinson Jeffers' Tor House, Alliance on Aging, Monterey Bay Symphony, State Theatre Preservation Society, and the list goes on. In addition, several years ago, Edie and her late husband, the former County Supervisor Sam Karas, traveled to Bosnia where they served as international election observers.

Mr. Speaker, today I rise to celebrate Edie's work on behalf of the Big Sur Health Center, which will recognize her service in a tribute on June 18, 2004. I became involved with the clinic in the late '70's as a member of the Monterey County Board of Supervisors. At that time the Big Sur Clinic had more certified EMTs per capita than any place in the U.S. and provided free emergency services and an ambulance maintained by the Red Cross. Today the Health Center serves many of the outpatient health needs of the rural Big Sur community in a modest facility made up of two 35 year old portable trailers and a treasury of heart, soul, and dedication supplied by its volunteers. For much of the last decade, Team Karas has been instrumental in its growth and success.

When they joined the Center's board in the late 1990s, the Center faced deep financial hardship. Sam took immediate action and began to contact the Pebble Beach Foundation and other funding sources outside the immediate Big Sur community. His efforts put the Center on the map for charitable foundations and government agencies. The Center soon regained its financial footing and was back on the path to fiscal health.

However, while Sam was out front making the initial calls and receiving the credit, I have always suspected that it was Edie who did the work. I see evidence of that in the fact that the Center will soon replace its venerable trailers with a new building, a development in which Edie has played no small part in seeing to fruition. Edie continues to be the spark of energy that animates the Center's fundraising efforts and every other cause that she embraces. So it is with true pleasure that I join with the Big Sur community and the people of Monterey County in recognizing Edie Karas for her service to the Big Sur Health Center. I wish Edie and the Center the best of health.

SALUTING JUDGE BRUCE EINHORN

HON. HOWARD L. BERMAN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 15, 2004

Mr. BERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to ask my colleagues to join in saluting my friend, Judge Bruce Einhorn, Chair of the Pacific Southwest Regional Board of the Anti-Defamation League (ADL). He is a remarkable man whose accomplishments are legion.

During Judge Einhorn's tenure as Regional Chair, the organization pressed law enforcement authorities for vigorous application of appropriate hate crimes laws, and successfully opposed the deceptively named "Racial Privacy Initiative." He helped the ADL prevent the spread of hatred and intolerance through the creation of new and ongoing programs designed to fight the defamation of the Jewish people and ensure justice and fair treatment for all. He also served as Chair of the ADL's San Fernando, Conejo and Antelope Valley Boards.

He is presently an ADL National Commissioner and is a member of both the League's Executive Committee for the Pacific Southwest Region and its Latino-Jewish Round Table. Also, he is a founding member of both the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington, DC and the Museum of Tolerance in West Los Angeles.

In addition to his work with non-profits, Judge Einhorn has developed an impressive legal career. He is a well-respected Los Angeles U.S. Immigration Judge. He also serves as Adjunct Professor of International Human Rights Law and War Crimes Studies at Pepperdine University's School of Law, where he received the 1997 David W. McKibbin Excellence in Teaching Award. For 11 years, Judge Einhorn served as a trial attorney and later as a Deputy Director and Litigation Chief for the U.S. Justice Department's Office of Special Investigations, the agency responsible for seeking the identification and prosecution of Nazi war criminals residing illegally in the United States.

Judge Einhorn's commitment to civil rights, justice and tolerance for all people has been repeatedly recognized. He is the proud recipient of the U.S. Attorney General's Special Commendation Award and the State of Israel Bonds Lifetime Professional Achievement Award. In October 1999, in the presence of President Bill Clinton, he also received the Ginsberg Prize for Leadership in Civil Rights from the Anti-Defamation League at its National Commission Convention in Atlanta, Georgia.

Please join me in honoring Judge Bruce Einhorn and thanking him for his outstanding contributions to our community and for his steadfast commitment to the ADL's critical mission.

PAYING TRIBUTE TO BOHN MUSGRAVE ON HIS 100TH BIRTHDAY

HON. MIKE ROGERS

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 15, 2004

Mr. ROGERS of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Mr. Bohn Musgrave, who will celebrate his 100th birthday on July 31, 2004.

Mr. Musgrave was born in 1904 in a log cabin in Michigan's rural Upper Peninsula. After graduating from high school and attending Central Michigan University, he taught in a two-room country school and then worked as a principal in the Sebawing School District. Following his marriage to wife Doris in 1926 and the birth of his two children, Bohn earned a degree in Agriculture from Michigan State University and worked as an Agricultural Agent for Kalkaska and Mecosta Counties. In 1954, Mr. Musgrave relocated to the Lansing area and worked as a supervisor in the Michigan State University Extension Service until his retirement in 1969.

Even after leaving the workforce and surviving a bout with bone cancer in his right leg, Bohn stayed active, traveling the world with Doris, visiting all 50 states and 41 countries. After his wife's death in 1988, Bohn took on the role of family historian, compiling and self-publishing five books of poems, personal anecdotes, and memories for his family and close friends. His fondness of history and love of Michigan led him to contribute heavily to A History of Columbus Township, published in 2000, and to an oral history compiled by Michigan State University about the logging industry. Ever eager to impress upon young minds the significance of days past, he has visited elementary schools in the Lansing area to share his knowledge of the history of the Upper Peninsula. Mr. Musgrave is also a charter member of Haslett Community Church, which celebrates its 50th anniversary this year.

Mr. Speaker, Bohn Musgrave has been a devoted father and dedicated worker. He is a master storyteller, poet, and artist. Today, he still resides in Haslett, Michigan. I would like to ask my colleagues to join me in celebrating Bohn Musgrave's 100th birthday.

IMPROVING ACCESS TO ASSISTIVE TECHNOLOGY FOR INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES ACT OF 2004

SPEECH OF

HON. RUSH D. HOLT

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, June 14, 2004

Mr. HOLT. Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to support H.R. 4278, the Improving Access to Assistive Technology for Individuals with Disabilities Act.

The bill reauthorizes the Assistive Technology State Grant Program, and the State Protection and Advocacy program. It also will help to ensure a larger share of the resources distributed under the program goes directly to individuals with disabilities. Assistive technology devices include a broad range of aids, such as wheelchairs, communication devices and computer hardware that help individuals compensate for living with a disability.

The Assistive Technology State Grant program was first enacted in 1988 as a program to provide states funds to establish an infrastructure for increasing access and distribution to assistive technology devices. Millions of Americans depend on assistive technology devices to remove barriers to education, employment, and even daily communication.

The bill also funds the State Protection and Advocacy programs. Its purpose is to assist individuals in overcoming barriers in the workplace and in the government and making assistive technology more accessible to individuals with disabilities throughout the state.

I would like to thank Representatives BUCK McKEON, JOHN BOEHNER, DALE KILDEE and their staffs for working with me to make changes to the bill regarding State Protection and Advocacy programs during the committee markup process. The bill now includes changes that would allow Protection and Advocacy systems to carry over "program income" for 2 additional years. These are funds generated by program activities, typically attorneys' fees reimbursements, for 2 additional years.

Under current law, Protection and Advocacy programs can carry over "program income" for one additional fiscal year past the year in which the program income was received. This can be very difficult, particularly for small states where the award could be sizes that they are not prepared to properly spend and can not budget for. I hope this change will enable Protection and Advocacy programs that receive "program income" to invest the funds back into the program. This will allow states to put the additional funding to the best use possible for people with disabilities without being constrained by time.

Speaker, I ask my colleague to support this bipartisan bill that will provide comprehensive technology-related assistance for adults and children with disabilities.

PAYING TRIBUTE TO MAC MYERS

HON. SCOTT MCINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 15, 2004

Mr. MCINNIS. Mr. Speaker, it is a privilege to rise today and pay tribute to Mac Myers and thank him for his outstanding commitment to serving the people of Colorado as District Attorney for the 9th Judicial District. His years of service have done much to enhance the safety of the community and the prestige of the District Attorney's Office. As Mac celebrates his retirement, let it be known that he leaves behind a wonderful and strong legacy of dedication to the District Attorney's Office and the citizens of Colorado.

Mac graduated from the University of Colorado with a bachelor's degree in English, and received his law degree from the University of Denver. He worked as a deputy district attorney in Colorado Springs and Breckenridge before being hired to serve the people of Pitkin, Garfield, and Rio Blanco counties as a deputy district attorney in the 9th Judicial District in 1986. In 1996, Mac was elected district attorney for the 9th Judicial District, and was subsequently re-elected in 2000. During his tenure as district attorney, he has worked to enhance the communication and relationship between his office and the local police departments. He has also raised awareness and increased prosecutions for sexual assault and domestic violence cases, as well as promoting drug abuse prevention programs.

Mr. Speaker, it is clear that District Attorney Frank Daniels has ceaselessly dedicated his time and efforts to serving his district and the people of Colorado as the District Attorney for the 9th Judicial District. I am honored to bring his hard work and achievements to the attention of this body of Congress and this nation today. Thank you for all your service Mac, and I wish you all the best in your future endeavors.

HONORING CHRISTOPHER CLARK

HON. JIM GERLACH

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 15, 2004

Mr. GERLACH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Christopher Clark, the President and Chief Executive Officer of Johnson Matthey Inc., on the occasion of his retirement after 42 years of dedicated service to the company.

Johnson Matthey is a global advanced technology company with operations in such areas as catalysts for chemical processes; emissions control catalysts for automotive, diesel and stationary source applications; pharmaceutical materials; and materials for medical and industrial products. In 1909, Johnson Matthey opened its principal operating company in Pennsylvania. Today, its North American corporate headquarters is located in Chester County, Pennsylvania.

Mr. Clark's career with Johnson Matthey is long and distinguished. Throughout his 42 years with Johnson Matthey, he had a wide range of experience with all aspects of the Company's operations. Mr. Clark joined Johnson Matthey in 1962 and soon after was appointed product manager in 1969. Six years later, Mr. Clark was promoted to product group manager and from 1979 to 1984, he was the marketing manager of Johnson Matthey's Metal Products Division in the USA. Mr. Clark went to the UK in 1984 as the general manager of the company's noble metals fabrication business.

Mr. Clark was appointed executive director of Johnson Matthey in March 1990 and then in October 1991, he assumed responsibility for the company's Materials Technology Division. In 1996 he was promoted to chief operating officer and, in 1998, Mr. Clark was appointed chief executive officer of the company.

During Mr. Clark's tenure as CEO of Johnson Matthey, the company's operations in Chester County have undergone significant expansion. For example, the Emissions Control Technologies operations in Wayne, Pennsylvania have produced more catalysts for the automotive industry than any other facility in the world. Johnson Matthey has also established remarkable gas-processing technologies in West Chester, Pennsylvania under the leadership and supervision of Mr. Clark.

In May 2002, Mr. Clark was awarded the Society of Chemical Industries' Centenary Medal and, in June 2003, he was honored again with the International Precious Metals Institute's Junichiro Tanaka Distinguished Achievement Award for his significant contribution to the advancement of the precious metals industry.

Mr. Speaker, I ask that my colleagues join me today in honoring a highly successful businessman and exemplary citizen, Christopher Clark, for his many years of contributions and distinguished service to Johnson Matthey and to his community, state, and nation. And I may ask that we wish him the very best of success and happiness with his retirement.

EXPRESSING SENSE OF CONGRESS THAT KATHERINE DUNHAM BE RECOGNIZED FOR HER
GROUNDBREAKING ACHIEVEMENTS
IN DANCE, THEATER, MUSIC, AND EDUCATION, AS WELL AS HER WORK AS AN ACTIVIST STRIVING FOR RACIAL EQUALITY THROUGHOUT THE

SPEECH OF

HON. CHARLES B. RANGEL

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, June 7, 2004

Mr. RANGEL. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pleasure that I rise today to salute Katherine Dunham, a woman who raised herself from her humble origins in East St. Louis through energy, determinism and formidable talent to become a world famous cultural icon and treasure. Having earned her bachelors, masters, and doctoral degrees at the University of Chicago with the help of the prestigious Rosenwald fellowship. She has worked tirelessly her entire adult life helping others. She continues to contribute actively to her community even though just recently celebrated her 95th birthday. Today I recognize Katherine Dunham for her groundbreaking achievements in the performance arts, education and for her contributions as an activist striving for racial equality.

Katherine Dunham propelled the civil rights movement and opened doors or opportunity through her personal achievements as she became the first African-American to progress in her many fields of expertise.

Katherine Dunham merged her studies in anthropology with Caribbean and Brazilian dance whereby creating a new discipline. She utilized her education to create her many dance, performance art and education centers. In 1931 Dr. Dunham founded Les Ballet Negre, the first black dance company in the United States. In the years that followed, Katherine Dunham revolutionized American dance by incorporating the roots of black dance and ritual, and by transforming these elements into choreography accessible to all through the Katherine Dunham Technique.

Les Ballet Negre later became known as the Katherine Dunham Dance Company, which successfully toured over 60 countries in the 1940s.

In 1945 Dr. Dunham founded the Dunham School of Dance and Theatre in Manhattan. The Dunham School provided a centralized location for students to immerse themselves in dance technique while also providing education in the humanities, languages, ethics, philosophy, and drama. The school educated and raised countless inner-city youth, youth who would go on and make great change themselves.

In 1967 Dr. Dunham established the Performing Arts Training Center in East St. Louis, Missouri, which enrolled high-risk youth into programs in fine, performing and cultural arts. Katherine's outreach to some of the toughest members of the East St. Louis community often put her in harm's way. She put her life on the line constantly by recruiting gang members and known troublemakers. Katherine's goal was to stop the violence in the black community through the arts. She set out to transform their lives, and did so.

In 1970, only three years after the founding of Performing Arts Training Center, Dr. Dunham brought more than 40 of her students to the White House to perform for the Conference on Children.

Katherine Dunham was also a pioneer with a significant impact on Broadway. She broke new ground by becoming the first African-American director at the New York Metropolitan Opera.

Even though Katherine Dunham carried out a significant amount of work in the United States, she was never limited to helping only those within our Nation's borders. Katherine Dunham is also a passionate humanitarian who has lived in Haiti and consistently fought for Haitian rights and a better relationship between the United States and Haiti.
