

I ask my colleagues to join me in commending the efforts of the U.S.-Mexico Border Health Commission and all those involved with Border Binational Health Week, and in wishing them a productive and successful week of events.

PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION
OF H.R. 10, 9/11 RECOMMENDA-TIONS IMPLEMENTATION ACT

SPEECH OF

HON. SHEILA JACKSON-LEE

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, October 7, 2004

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to support the National Defense Authorization Act which provides almost $450 billion to support our troops. I want to start by thanking and congratulating the Ranking Member of the Armed Services Committee, Mr. SKELTON who worked so hard for so long to make this legislation beneficial to our men and women of the Armed Forces. While I will vote for this legislation it is truly unfortunate that a more bipartisan approach was not taken in order to include numerous important Democratic provisions which would have further benefited our fighting men and women. I am also saddened that this Defense Authorization comes at a time of such great need for our Armed Forces because they have been pushed into a war that could have been avoided and has been so poorly managed from the start. It is truly unfortunate that the brave men and women of our Armed Forces are fighting around the world while the Department of Defense is in the current state it is in. The Administration must be accountable for the actions of the Armed Forces; the unfortunate events taking place in Iraq have caused our nation irreparable harm. I only pray that the provisions in this legislation that will help protect our fighting men and women in Iraq are not the only step we take to alleviate their burden.

I am heartened by the fact that Democrats have worked so hard to put pieces of our ideas into this legislation. As I stated earlier, too many vital Democratic proposals that would have given our Armed Forces the equipment and support they need to successfully complete their dangerous missions, were denied based simply on partisanship. However, the few Democratic principles that were put into this legislation will greatly help our soldiers past and present and their families.

Because of Democrats insistence this conference report provides additional funds for force protection measures, including additional body armor, countermeasures for improvised explosive devices, and armored Humvees. It also includes a Democratic proposal that would reimburse families who purchased body armor or other protective equipment for a loved one serving overseas. Sadly, before today many families had to take the safety of loved ones serving overseas into their own hands. Those kinds of practices make it seem as if we are running a civilian militia as opposed to the greatest Army in the history of mankind. According to a report commissioned by DOD, as much as 25 percent of U.S. combat deaths might have been prevented if there had been sufficient supplies of body armor and armored vehicles. These facts are astounding and yet truly saddening, yet another indication that this Administration sent our young men and women to fight in Iraq and never gave them the proper plan or the proper support.

This conference report also provides long overdue retirement benefits for our service men and women that Democrats have been demanding for years. Because of Democratic pressure, Republicans finally included bipartisan provisions to end the Widow's Tax, and Democrats were successful in adding provisions that would immediately end the disabled veterans tax for the most severely disabled veterans. This conference report also ensures that every member of the Guard and National Reserve called up to serve in Iraq or Afghanistan can purchase TRICARE coverage for their families after they return home. Members would be eligible for one year of coverage for every 90 days of service after they have been called up. TRICARE, the military health program is an essential need for every member of the Armed Forces, especially those with families. It seems so intolerable to me that we would allow even one member of our Armed Forces to go without proper health coverage.

This conference report also includes a 3.5 percent across-the-board pay raise for members of the Armed Forces. It permanently increases the rate for imminent danger pay from $150 to $225 per month and increases the family separation allowance from $100 to $250 per month. It also ensures that construction of new family housing for almost 50,000 military families will proceed without delay. Again, it sickens me to think that we left these brave and proud military families out in the dark for even the shortest possible period. This conference report finally ensures that these families will receive some justice for the sacrifice they make everyday to keep our Nation protected.

I must also add that it is truly unfortunate that this Defense Authorization continues this Administration's policy of having misplaced priorities. Instead of directing more money for proper planning in Iraq, or for greater protection equipment for our troops, or maybe for greater pay raises for our troops; this Administration has decided to budget $10.2 billion for missile defense next year—twice the request for any other weapons system. Missile defense systems are not new; in fact they have been discussed for decades. The truth is that missile defense systems have proven to be overly complex, unreliable, and often been little more than pipe dreams. Why in good conscience, in this time of budget constraints and increased need, would we allocate even more money for failed programs? There are more responsible ways to budget this money. Money from the Defense Authorization should go to our men and women in the Armed Forces who actually defend our nation instead of into programs that just waste needed funds. Also, once again Democrats have been able to restore some sanity to this issue. Because of their efforts the Pentagon's Office of Testing and Evaluation regains an oversight role and there will be some controls over this dubious program. OT&E is tasked with devising a realistic test regimen for the Ballistic Missile Defense system.

While I will support this legislation because of the support and protection it provides to our men and women in the Armed Forces, I sincerely hope in the future that such significant legislation as this will involve the debate and full consideration of all necessary and relevant provisions from both sides of the aisle. The men and women of our Armed Forces and indeed the American people as a whole deserve as much. It is our duty in Congress to serve the interests of the people, it is the duty of the Armed Forces to protect and serve our national interests; one can only hope we can serve our mission as well as the members of the Armed Forces have served theirs.

Oakwood Community, and earlier this year became its Director. Of Oakwood she said "I continue to discover each day the deep roots of the love of God, the Society and the Community. I believe it is these bonds which make Oakwood a home of joy, understanding, reconciliation and celebration. I see my responsibility to find new ways of keeping this spirit alive and visible as we celebrate the end of our journey together in love."

Sister Salisbury was a holy woman, devoted to her RSCJ community and their mission, and deeply committed to living her life loving and serving the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Her wisdom was recognized by anyone who met her. Her wisdom was more than being smart . . . it came not from a busy head but from a deeper well . . . her peaceful heart. Her leadership skills lifted people to new heights and she emulated Jesus by gathering, teaching, and loving the children and she contributed mightily to the future well being of our nation, preparing generations of young women for leadership roles. I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring this good and great woman, paying tribute to her, the life she lived and the lives she shaped. How blessed I am to have known her and benefited from her love, counsel and wisdom.

CELEBRATION OF THOMAS JAMES OWENS

HON. NORMAN D. DICKS

OF WASHINGTON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Saturday, October 9, 2004

Mr. DICKS. Mr. Speaker, Tom Owens was my friend; he came to Washington, DC, almost weekly until he retired in 1996. Tom always wanted to play tennis and go to the best restaurants for dinner. Tom was a very effective lobbyist. He worked both sides of the aisle very skillfully.

His friends and family were all shocked when he suddenly died on September 16th.

I wanted to include in the RECORD a recent article about Tom and his family. Tom Owens was a tremendous human being who will be missed by all who knew him.

THOMAS JAMES OWENS

Thomas James Owens—Born June 2, 1928, in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Tom died suddenly and unexpectedly in his north Capitol Hill home early in the morning, September 16th. He was preceded in death by his parents, Helen Reese and Edward Addison Owens, and brother J. David Owens. A graduate of Amherst College and Michigan Law School, he moved to Seattle in 1955 where he began a law practice and eventually met and married his wife of 44 years, Angela (Pellegrini). A lobbyist, he worked on both the state and federal levels, retiring from a successful practice in 1996. A masterful communicator and intermediary, he was liked and respected by Democrats and Republicans alike. Impeccably dressed, with his unmistakable trench coat, he was a fixture in political circles in both Olympia & Washington D.C. Tom was also an accomplished racquets man. After a successful tennis and squash career in the Ivy League, he went on to become one of the more dominant amateur players in the area, winning numerous titles in the Pacific Northwest and British Columbia, including the Pacific Coast Championship in 1964, ranking him among the best amateur players in the country. His true passions, first and foremost, were his loving family and dear friends. A particular joy in his life was the time he spent together with his children and their friends. A gracious host, he loved to surround himself with friends, family, wonderful meals prepared by Angela, and fine wine, most often a robust cabernet made by his late father-in-law, Angelo Pellegrini. Loud, boisterous and laughter filled evenings, roast pork, roast potatoes, hot peppers and greens from the garden were the norm in the Owens home, with Tom at the head of the table, wine glass in hand, belaboring the occasional anecdote or joke. To hear him tell a story was an experience in and of itself. In Tom's case, punch line were an irrelevant detail, as the delivery, often scrambled and confused were what made his diatribes so unforgettable. He also loved travel, particularly to Italy, working out, playing the piano, cigars, spending time with his children and grandchildren, bullmastiffs, trees, and golf. He is survived by his loving wife, Angela, two children Tom (Dena) and Sarah (Scott Lindblad), five grandchildren, Olivia, Evan, Reese, Cameron, Lauren and surrogate granddaughter Gabriella Pellegrini. He is also survived by a brother, Dr. E. Reese Owens (Betsy), of Pittsburgh, PA. We will miss your thoughtful generosity, your wit, love of family and friends, and your frank and honest emotional support. For now we say to the man clad in the trademark blue blazer, see you again someday, somewhere, as we lift a glass in fond farewell to our beloved patriarch: Salute! e Addio, caro Tommaso. Sarai sempre nel nostro cuore e nei nostri pensieri. There will be a celebration of Tom's life at 4 p.m., Friday, October 1st at the Seattle Golf Club.

IN REMEMBRANCE OF MICHAEL ANDREW MITCHELL

HON. JIM DAVIS

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Saturday, October 9, 2004

Mr. DAVIS of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise in remembrance of Michael Andrew Mitchell, a loving family man who nobly served his community as a Tampa Police Officer.

A natural athlete, at Tampa Bay Technical High School Michael excelled in football, track and basketball and earned a football scholarship to Miles College. After graduating from the police academy, Michael went on to serve in the Tampa Police Department, for 25 years.

During his career, Michael earned the praise of his colleagues and superiors. He was twice awarded the Tampa Police Department Commendation Award, as well as earning a Special Award of Recognition from the Department of Justice. But more important than any award, Michael earned the trust of his fellow officers. As Jose Feliciano, Michael's former partner said, "I never worried when I was with Mike. I always knew he had my back."

Michael's dedication to serving his community extended beyond his role as a police officer. A lifetime member of First Baptist Church of College Hill, Michael was active in nearly every aspect of the church. He was a member of the Youth Choir, Youth Usher Board, Young Adult Choir, Tape Ministry, Breakfast Ministry, Security Ministry and Deacon Board Ministry. And Michael always had time for young people. His patient, calm and caring demeanor drew people of all ages.

However, Michael may best be remembered for his devotion to his family. In June, he gave up his career at the Police Department so he could take care of his mother. His brother Pat remembers how "if the family needed him for anything, he'd be there." Michael was never one to miss the weekly family dinners on Friday or the family get-togethers at church on Sunday.

On behalf of the entire Tampa Bay community, I would like to extend my thanks to Michael for his dedication to serving others and offer my deepest sympathies to his many loved ones.

9/11 RECOMMENDATIONS IMPLEMENTATION ACT

SPEECH OF

HON. SHEILA JACKSON-LEE

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 8, 2004

The House in Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union had under consideration the bill (H.R. 10) to provide for reform of the intelligence community, terrorism prevention and prosecution, border security, and international cooperation and co-ordination, and for other purposes:

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Chairman, I rise in support of the amendment offered by the Gentleman from Indiana designated as #29. This amendment directs the Secretary of Homeland Security to "ensure that all appropriate personnel engaged in security screening of individuals have access to law enforcement and intelligence information maintained by DHS." It also calls for the submission of an overview of all the agencies, databases, and other capabilities that exist within the Department involved in intelligence relating to terrorism, drug trafficking, illegal immigration, screening, investigations, and inspection of goods or individuals entering the United States. Furthermore, this amendment would require the submission of a report to Congress within 180 days on actions taken and plans in place to improve access and the flow of information.

Proposals that seek to ensure that DHS is functioning efficiently, effectively, and in accordance with the U.S. Constitution with respect to individual rights and liberties should be supported fully because the function of DHS is a bi-partisan issue. Protecting the American people is a bi-partisan issue.

Similar to this amendment, I would have offered a proposal that would make the "Next Generation Airline Passenger Prescreening" provision (Section 2173) more effective while taking active measures to protect individual rights and liberties.

The existing language in Subsection (i) of Section 2173(a)(C) assigns the task of testing the next generation passenger prescreening system against automatic selectee and no-fly lists and records in the consolidated and integrated terrorist watchlist maintained by the Federal Government to the "Assistant Secretary or designee." This is a very loose assignment of a very important task. Moreover, the duties of the Assistant Secretary would hardly allow for the time and effort that is necessary to perform the functions of this provision to address the needs of the American public.

The Jackson Lee Amendment would have assigned this task rather to the "Civil Liberties
