

After almost 100 years, Mrs. Tompkins says she would not change a thing about her life if she had to live it over. When asked what advice she'd give to young people she said, "Work hard and go to church." She says the best thing about growing older is all of the memories from years past.

Mr. Speaker, and my colleagues, I ask that you join me in honoring Georgia Tompkins today. I hope we all have the good fortune to live as long as she has and the ability to live and love as she has. She is truly a great lady and someone with an appreciation for the importance of family and friends.

CONGRATULATING THE GAINESVILLE HIGH SCHOOL LEOPARDS

HON. RALPH M. HALL

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, January 21, 2004

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker, I am honored today to recognize the Gainesville Leopards for winning the Class 3A Division I state football championship on December 13, 2003.

The Leopards' marquee season was one for the record books. The team finished the season with a perfect 15-0 record, becoming the first Gainesville High School team to ever win a state football championship. They achieved this victory by defeating the No. 1-ranked Burnet High School Bulldogs—a team that boasted the state's top passer and receiver. Led by first-year coach Jeff Cordell, the Leopards fought off a formidable team with a blistering offense to win the game by a score of 35-24.

The game was punctuated by Gainesville's impressive rushing offense. Running back Terrius Purvey led the team with 26 carries for 232 yards, and quarterback Chris Brown scored two touchdowns late in the game. But the win was a team effort, as it had been throughout the season. The 22 seniors, 5 juniors, and 6 sophomores followed the lead of the 11 Leopard's coaches and overcame a season of challenges.

For the town of Gainesville, Texas, the mighty Leopard team brought the community together like never before. After a special sendoff in Gainesville, fans from all over north Texas traveled to Texas Stadium to cheer on the team. A supportive community that proudly displayed Leopard car flags and victory messages backed the united varsity team. On behalf of the players, coaches, and fans, I want to take this opportunity in the House of Representatives to congratulate the new state champions—The Gainesville Leopards.

HONORING THE MEMORY OF PERRY B. DURYEA, JR., FORMER SPEAKER OF THE NEW YORK STATE ASSEMBLY

HON. TIMOTHY H. BISHOP

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, January 21, 2004

Mr. BISHOP of New York. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Perry B. Duryea, Jr., the former Speaker of the New York State Assembly and a lifelong resident of New York's First Congressional District, who tragically lost his life last week after having sustained injuries from an auto accident near his Montauk home. Mr. Duryea was an outstanding public servant, successful businessman, and World War II veteran who dutifully served the people of Long Island and the State of New York with distinction for more than four decades.

Perry Duryea began what would become a legendary state political career in his hometown of Montauk, New York, having served as a member of the Montauk Public Board of Education and as president of the Long Island State Park Commission. He was first elected to represent the First Assembly District of the New York State Legislature in 1960, and remained a member of the body until 1978. During his time in the legislature, Mr. Duryea held the post of Minority Leader for 6 years and Speaker of the Assembly for 4 years. Although he was a leader of the Republican party's conservative wing, Mr. Duryea was known for his pragmatic bipartisanship, as he forged strong relationships with members from across the aisle and often supported legislative measures that were unpopular within his own party. Among his most noteworthy achievements was legislation that he initiated and passed to expand the state parks and the state university system. He also championed construction of the Long Island Expressway and the Sunrise Highway extension, and worked hard to promote environmental protection measures. Those who knew Perry Duryea remember him as an extraordinary leader who elevated the status of the New York legislature.

A prominent businessman within his Montauk community, Mr. Duryea also devoted much of his time to various community and civic endeavors which improved the lives of Long Island residents. Born and raised in Montauk New York, Perry Duryea took over the family wholesale seafood business, Perry Duryea & Son, after completing his service as a plane commander with the United States Naval Transport Service during World War II. After leaving politics following an unsuccessful bid for the governorship in 1978, Mr. Duryea returned to running his business and volunteering his time with numerous public and civic organizations, including Long Island Commercial Bank, where he served as Chairman of the Board.

In recognition of his many contributions and achievements, Mr. Duryea received numerous honors, including the distinction of "Man of the Year" by the Montauk Chamber of Commerce, and the naming of a state office building after him. Mr. Duryea is survived by his wife, Marie Therese Duryea, and two children—Lynne Duryea and Perry "Chip" Duryea III.

Mr. Speaker, I ask you and my other distinguished colleagues to join me in honoring the memory of Perry B. Duryea, Jr. Throughout his exemplary career in public service, Mr. Duryea enhanced the quality of life for residents of Long Island and the State of New York. The spirit of bipartisanship with which he conducted his public life garnered him the respect of his peers and served to inspire future generations of community leaders. Mr. Duryea's leadership and strength of character are qualities each of us should aspire to embrace as we carry out our duties in this distinguished body.

TRIBUTE TO CHRISTIAN HENDRICKS

HON. ROBERT W. NEY

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, January 21, 2004

Mr. NEY. Mr. Speaker, Mr. Christian "Chris" Hendricks, Deputy Inspector General of the House of Representatives will be retiring at the end of this year after a long and distinguished career in service to the United States government. His exemplary career spans twenty-seven years of service, including the last six years with the House of Representatives. Chris' considerable professional skills and credentials as a Certified Public Accountant, Certified Internal Auditor, and Certified Information Systems Auditor have enabled him to assist the House of Representatives in achieving its present standards of safety, security and accountability.

Chris' duties within the Office of Inspector General have ranged from the analysis of the House's financial controls to careful analysis of emerging technologies. His efforts have contributed to improved administrative functions for the House and improved services and security for individual Members. He has worked to ensure fire safety improvements in House facilities and has been critical to assuring the integrity of the House's information technology systems.

Chris will be missed by all of his colleagues, but he can take great satisfaction in the many efforts of his career. Chris' advice and counsel on matters of significant importance to the House will be difficult to replace. I wish Chris and his wife Nancy a joyful and exciting retirement, and I congratulate him once again for his long and distinguished career of service.

HONORING ELSA F. ANDERSON

HON. GINNY BROWN-WAITE

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, January 21, 2004

Ms. GINNY BROWN-WAITE of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Elsa F. Anderson, a resident of my fifth congressional district of Florida and a woman who has become something very few of us ever will. Elsa Anderson is a centenarian and at 102 she is a mother to 2, a grandmother to 2 grandchildren and a great-grandmother to 11 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Anderson was born in Stockholm, Sweden, but went to school in New York City. Following school, she worked as an assistant in a specialty shop, in an office and as a housewife. Obviously a dedicated mother, she describes her happiest moments as the births of her two daughters. To this day one of her favorite activities is spending time with them when they come to visit.

After 102 years, Mrs. Anderson says she wouldn't change a thing about her life—she says she enjoys everything she's been given. When asked what advice she'd give to young people she says, "Work hard, be honest, and be ready to enjoy good things." She says the best thing about growing older is that people respect you.

I respect that candor and I'm proud to be her representative in Congress.

Mr. Speaker, and my colleagues, I ask that you join me in honoring Elsa F. Anderson today. I hope we all have the good fortune to live as long as she has and the ability to impart wisdom as eloquently as she has. She is truly a great lady and someone with an appreciation for the importance of friends, family and happiness.

HONORING THE JOHN BOY AND BILLY RADIO SHOW

HON. SUE WILKINS MYRICK

OF NORTH CAROLINA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Wednesday, January 21, 2004

Mrs. MYRICK. Mr. Speaker, I would like to honor and recognize the John Boy and Billy radio show. I have known John Boy, Billy, their producer Randy, their guest coordinator Marci, and their entire staff for many years. In fact, I knew them long before they became famous. They have been a great help to me by informing their listeners about important issues that face Congress.

Recently, the John Boy and Billy "Big Show" has been keeping their listeners informed about the War on Terror and the status of our troops overseas. As their listeners know, John Boy and Billy are the two funniest guys you will ever meet, but they are very serious when it comes to supporting our troops. The "Big Show" deserves to be recognized because they set up a United Service Organization (USO) care package drive to help support our troops during the 2003 holiday season.

Through their efforts they helped the USO collect more than $75,000 from more than 1400 of their great listeners. I commend both the John Boy and Billy radio show, and the "Big Show" listeners, for supporting the troops and providing for them during the 2003 holiday season. Due to their efforts, our troops will receive care packages to let them know that they are supported back home, and that we appreciate what they are doing to protect us.

TAIWAN

HON. JOSEPH M. HOFFEL

OF PENNSYLVANIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Wednesday, January 21, 2004

Mr. HOFFEL. Mr. Speaker, Taiwan has been a close and valuable ally of our nation since its inception as the Republic of China in 1949. In contrast to the People's Republic of China, both democracy and capitalism have flourished in Taiwan, as demonstrated by its peaceful transition to a multi-party political system and its thriving free market economy.

I support the notion of a united China, but not if it means the assimilation of Taiwan into anything resembling the current People's Republic. Rather, I look forward to the day when both peoples are united in a truly democratic state, and are able to share in the political and economic freedoms of Taiwan. Until this is possible, the United States must use the tools at our disposal to maintain the status quo, guaranteeing the people of Taiwan the freedom they currently enjoy.

Taiwanese President Chen Shui-bian has called for a nationwide referendum in March regarding China's deployment of hundreds of missiles aimed at Taiwan. Asking the Taiwanese people whether Taiwan should purchase more anti-missile defenses in response to this obvious threat does not represent an escalation of tensions with China. On the contrary, this "defensive referendum" is an affirmation of Taiwan's democratic system. We must support this exercise of the right of free expression, which is consistent with our own values.

In this instance, China's inflammatory statements, not Taiwan's referendum, threaten to upset the delicate balance that exists in the region. The United States must remain firm in its support for the people of Taiwan. And until China is ready to adopt a democratic system of government and a free market economy, that means maintaining the status quo.

HONORING MYRA MACK

HON. GINNY BROWN-WAITE

OF FLORIDA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Wednesday, January 21, 2004

Ms. GINNY BROWN-WAITE of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Myra Mack, a resident of my Fifth Congressional District of Florida and a woman who has become something very few of us ever will. Mrs. Mack is a centenarian and at 101 has lived a full life.

Myra was born in London, Ontario and attended St. George's School. She left school to attend the Army, but joined the women volunteer services instead. She worked as a telephone operator. Following school, she worked as a box girl in a dry goods store. Myra said the happiest event in her life was when she married her husband Joseph. She is most proud of her eighty plus trophies she won over the years in dance competitions.

After 101 years, Myra says she enjoys sitting on her front porch and doing her sewing. Her best advice for young people is to enjoy themselves and play while they are young.

Mr. Speaker, and my colleagues, I ask that you join me in honoring Myra Mack today. I hope we all have the good fortune to live as long as she has. She is truly a great lady and someone with an appreciation for the importance of friends and neighbors.

HONORING THE 25TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF SAN BERNARDINO

HON. JOE BACA

OF CALIFORNIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Wednesday, January 21, 2004

Mr. BACA. Mr. Speaker, today I am pleased to honor the 25th Anniversary of the Catholic Diocese of San Bernardino and the leadership of Bishop Barnes.

In 1978, Pope Paul VI created the Diocese of San Bernardino. Serving over 1,000,000 Catholics in ninety-seven parishes, the Diocese has served as the moral compass and religious center to the citizens of San Bernardino.

Not only has the Diocese of San Bernardino served the Catholic citizens of San Bernardino, its thirty-four Catholic schools have provided quality education to 8,500 students of all faiths and its two Catholic hospitals continue to save lives and keep the residents of San Bernardino healthy.

Since 1996, Bishop Gerald Barnes has led the Diocese of San Bernardino. Always a devoted teacher and educator, Bishop Barnes has also dedicated himself to fighting against the injustices that people of all races and backgrounds face.

Under the guidance of the founding Bishop, Phillip Straling and then Bishop Barnes, the Diocese has worked tirelessly to improve the lives of all citizens of San Bernardino.

I am pleased to honor the 25th anniversary of the Catholic Diocese of San Bernardino and the leadership of Bishop Barnes.

NEW YEAR'S WISHES FOR FREEDOM FOR THE SIKHS

HON. EDOLPHUS TOWNS

OF NEW YORK
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Wednesday, January 21, 2004

Mr. TOWNS. Mr. Speaker, recently my friend Dr. Gurmit Singh Aulakh, the President of the Council of Khalistan, issued a New Year's message to the Sikhs. In it, he took note of the progress that has been made towards freedom for the Sikhs and other minority nations in South Asia. He also wrote that the effort to liberate the Sikh homeland, Khalistan, must continue.

As you may know, the Sikhs declared their independence from India on October 7, 1987. They named their country Khalistan. Since that time, tens of thousands of Sikhs have been murdered to suppress the Sikh freedom movement and tens of thousands more have been held as political prisoners.

Dr. Aulakh noted that seminars on Khalistan were held openly last year. He noted the ceremony honoring Sikh martyrs Satwant Singh, Beant Singh, and Kehar Singh. He wrote about recent initiatives by the Khalsa Panchayat to move the cause of freedom for the Sikhs forward.

Mr. Speaker, the right to self-determination is the cornerstone of democracy. It is time for the United States, founded on the principle of self-determination, to support self-determination for the Sikhs. We can do this by cutting off our aid to India until the Sikhs of Khalistan, the Muslims of Kashmir, the Christians of Nagaland, and all the minorities enjoy full rights and freedom and by putting the Congress on record in support of self-determination for Khalistan, Kashmir, Nagaland, and the other nations seeking their freedom in the form of a free and fair plebiscite on the question of independence.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to place Dr. Aulakh's letter into the RECORD at this time for the information of my colleagues.

NEW YEAR'S MESSAGE TO THE KHALSA PANTH
WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Happy New Year to you and your family and the Khalsa Panth. May 2004 be your best year ever.

The Guru gave sovereignty to the Sikh Nation. ("In Grieb Sikhin Ko Deon Patshahi.") The Sikh Nation must achieve it. We always remember it by reciting every morning and evening, "Raj Kare Ga Khalsa." Now is the time to act on it. Do we mean what we say every morning and evening?

The fire of freedom still burns strong and bright in the heart of the Sikh Nation. 2003
