HONORING JOANNE GLAUSER

HON. MICHAEL N. CASTLE

OF DELAWARE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, March 29, 2004

Mr. CASTLE. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pleasure that I rise today to honor and pay tribute to Joanne Glauser upon her nomination as a Jefferson Award finalist. Mrs. Glauser is the co-founder of the Delaware chapter of Shoes That Fit and truly exemplifies the American spirit. After reading an article about children who were too poor to have clothes that fit properly, Joanne decided to take action. Five years later, she was named "top volunteer in the nation" by the executive director of Shoes That Fit.

In only the last 4 years, Mrs. Glauser's chapter has provided over 35,000 items to needy children in Delaware. Her selflessness and dedication have touched the lives of thousands who may otherwise have gone without.

Mr. Speaker, I commend and congratulate Mrs. Glauser upon her nomination as a finalist for the Jefferson Award. May she continue to serve as an example to us all.

CHILD NUTRITION IMPROVEMENT AND INTEGRITY ACT

SPEECH OF

HON. FRED UPTON

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 24, 2004

Mr. UPTON. Mr. Speaker, obesity and poor nutritional habits are growing problems in our Nation, particularly among our children and adolescents. Health costs alone will be stratospheric in the near future due to the poor eating habits of our youth.

The very foods children need for good nutrition are often grown in their own communities. Farm to Cafeteria projects across the country link farmers with local schools to serve students the freshest possible foods as part of the National School Lunch Program. When combined with nutrition education, farm visits, and school gardens, children learn to enjoy and even get excited about eating healthy—and at the same time family farmers strengthen their markets and community ties. While Farm to Cafeteria projects have proven cost-effective over time, schools often need assistance to cover the initial staff resources, training, and equipment required for a successful project.

To respond to this need, our colleague RON KIND and I have introduced the bipartisan Farm to Cafeteria Projects Act (H.R. 2626) that is now a part of this bill. The Farm-To-Cafeteria provision establishes a $10 million competitive grant program to provide schools with up to $100,000 to cover these costs and garner long-term benefits for children, farmers, and their communities during the term of the reauthorization.

I ask my colleagues to vote for this piece of legislation, to show the country that we care about what our children are eating.

TRIBUTE TO THE NORTHWEST BRONX COMMUNITY AND CLERGY COALITION ON THEIR 30TH ANNIVERSARY

HON. JOSÉ E. SERRANO

OF NEW YORK

Monday, March 29, 2004

Mr. SERRANO. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pleasure that I rise today to pay tribute to the Northwest Bronx Community and Clergy Coalition as they celebrate their 30th anniversary.

Formed in 1974, the NWBCCC is a 501(c)3 organization with the mission of uniting area residents to identify common problems and empowering them to work together to solve them. The NWBCCC unites nine neighborhood organizations and a youth organization, Sistas and Brothas United, in an effort to improve the neighborhoods of the Bronx. They seek to influence the most important decisions that are made within their community, such as private investment patterns, the delivery of government services and major land use considerations.

This important organization is engaged in several initiatives aimed at improving housing and education. The NWBCCC Housing Committee provides tenant organizing assistance to over 75 tenant associations, resulting in hundreds of repairs and reinvestments to buildings each year. NWBCCC has also worked extensively to reduce overcrowding in schools. In 1999 and 2000 the organization's efforts led to the construction of over six new schools and annexes.

Mr. Speaker, what impresses me the most about this organization is its commitment to youth. Sistas and Brothas United, the youth organization within NWBCCC, has made great strides to help develop the minds of the youth in my community. SBU organizes hundreds of neighborhood youth to build youth leadership in order to identify local problems and work to bring about solutions. SBU's work currently focuses on school reform, campaigns to renovate abandoned buildings to become schools and youth centers, and efforts to improve parks and traffic safety.

In an effort to raise the consciousness of people within their community, some of the members of SBU have begun to compose and perform thought provoking and insightful poetry. The following is a poem that was written by Jorman Nunez and Jacklyn Torres, active members of SBU.

JN: Jacky And I are going to tell ya something from our prospective so listen to our lyrics

JT: Jorman got something to tell yall now, so Jorman let em hear it

JN: Asthma rates have been going up and all I do is gasp and pant

What are they doing to fix this? They're building another filtration plant

And what amazes me is in the Bronx they want to do it

Using the excuse of in a couple of years our water's going to be polluted

Trying to take the Bronx down well we don't want to destroy her

Besides . . . the only reason it's going to get polluted is cause they're constantly letting development be done over our water

so they're basically polluting our water and trying to fix it later as a solution

And build a plant to put smoke in there air and cause more pollution

There's something else I want to say ladies and gents

Check this out look at this environmental statement

Planning to build it in our low class area cause the statement say they should

And rejected putting it in another place just cause it was a white upper class neighborhood

We have to do whatever in our power to stop this by all means

Cause I'm tired of seeing all this atrocious disappointing scenes

JT: Attention every one, ladies and gentlemen gather round

The other night I'm writing a poem and my ceiling's fallin down

Now yall must be wondering if my landlord is a clown

Well his name's * * * * *, so how does that sound

Since the landlord don't wanna help with the infestation of rats

I guess the only solution is to buy 10,000 cats

And as the funds for us go up, the neighborhood's still in strife

Unfortunately, because of this, a small child lost his life

Even after this, we remain on the same path

How many more casualties will we have, you do the math

So until these the problems are solved, don't even think of us relaxin

Cuz I still can't understand why a slumlord lives in a mansion

So I've said what yall need to know until we see better days

But my turn is over so Jorman say what you gotta say

JN: This has been keeping me up and I can't even rest

I just need to get a couple of things off my chest

the Governor is probably annoyed and thinks he's being mistreated

Shouldn't we be angry whenever he says education is vital and doesn't even mean it

Politicians get angry when we get so mad we shiver and shudder

But don't we have a right to be angry when we have books older than my grandmother

Governor I got something to tell you only once there won't be a sequel

We never are going to stop bothering you until all education is equal

Governor when I see you I'm going to be mean with my salutation

You're going to hear all of the angry voices of the minorities that you said only need an 8th grade education

I think you and the position of governor should start doing its separation

Cause the last time I checked governors aren't suppose to gamble with our education

They're suppose to help with problems that come along until they see no

But I guess he just rather be gambling with our future in one of his casinos

But listen I'm done I don't want to waste more of your time

Jacky it's your turn give them a piece of your mind

JT: Soldiers of society trying to keep their eyes on me

In their hands is my education

And I blindly search for academic salvation

Though I have no books to read, no chairs to sit in, no room to breathe

And yall say keep your head up

Well, to tell you the truth, I'm fed up

Even the Governor says we don't need college

All we need is an eight-grade education?

Yeah, that's enough knowledge

Though my sarcasm seems amusing, It's dripping with the truth

Why does the government fail to realize the importance of our youth?
 Governor, I have some things I'd like to say
 But they would be inappropriate
 So Jorman, it's your turn to play
 JN: Jacky ya kind of mad ya need to rest
 At least both of us got that stress off our chest
 So that's just a part of what we know I hope this wasn't a loss
 I just want to let ya see a couple of our points get across
 JT: Yo Jorman look at their faces, don't they look kind of stunned?
 JN: And that was just us two imagine all of us as one anniversary
 JT: Man, if they only knew the power they hold in their hearts and in their voices
 JN: Together they have the power to move mountains its all up to there choices
 JT: So Jorman don't you think it's about time they get involved?
 JN: Yeah cause if all of us unite all out problems would be solved
 JT: Yeah, we should follow the examples of Rosa Parks, Malcolm X, and Dr. King
 JN: Cause they all fought for what they believed in and now they're letting freedom ring
 JN & JT: You have power in a lot of things, don't listen to all their lies
 Cuz no one can ever take away your right to organize

This powerful poem demonstrates the level of awareness these youth possess and their strong commitment to empowering their community.

Mr. Speaker, through housing and education initiatives as well as youth empowerment programs the NWBCCC continues to provide invaluable service to the people of the Bronx. For their 30 years of service, I ask that my colleagues join me in honoring this remarkable organization.

HONORING MEGHAN PASRICHA

HON. MICHAEL N. CASTLE

OF DELAWARE

Monday, March 29, 2004

Mr. CASTLE. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pleasure that I rise today to honor and pay tribute to Meghan Pasricha upon her nomination as a Jefferson Award finalist. Ms. Pasricha is founder of the successful Anti-Tobacco Action Club at Sanford School in Hockessin, Delaware. As a 10th grader, Meghan started her organization with 12 members and a goal: raising teenage awareness of tobacco-related health hazards.

Her hard work has paid off and today Meghan is the State chairwoman of the Kick Butts Generation, an anti-tobacco organization with over 4,000 local members. Ms. Pasricha's dedication to educating people about the dangers of tobacco is limitless. She recently gave a presentation at the World Conference on Tobacco in Heis, Finland, and has reached out to groups of children in places as far away as Mahau, India.

Mr. Speaker, I commend and congratulate Ms. Pasricha upon her nomination as a finalist for the Jefferson Award. Her determination and drive to educate and empower others serves as an example to us all. She is truly worthy of this honor.
