

and great-great-grandchild (soon to be two) as he has been to the Rotary over many decades.

In true Rotary fashion, Alvin Shrader also kept the Rotary ideal alive in his business dealings. He became a chiropractor in the 1930s and helped change its image and acceptability as an active member and past treasurer of the California Chiropractic Association. He is also a lifelong gardener, tending to his vegetables with the same care that he tends to all life.

Rotary has been the social center of Alvin and Avis' life. Prior to joining Rotary in 1945, Alvin was a member of the 20-30 Club's Los Angeles Chapter, where he also marked perfect attendance. He is a former Rotary Club of Los Angeles Southwest president and Avis is a former Rotary Ann.

When on the road, Alvin Shrader makes it a point to make up meetings by visiting other Rotary Clubs. He has attended meetings at clubs in Florida; Salt Lake City; Crystal City, VA; Carson City; St. Louis; Puerto Rico and the Kingdom of Tonga. When he was recently hospitalized with a broken hip, his biggest concern was making up Rotary meetings.

Mr. Speaker, I am blessed to have Alvin and Avis as my in-laws. As patriarch and matriarch of the Shrader family, they set the standard for generations to follow. It is a high standard of love and dedication that any family would be proud to follow. I know my colleagues will join me in recognizing Alvin "Sam" Shrader for a lifetime of service to family, his profession and his community by upholding and living the Rotary ideal.

CONGRATULATING THE UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA-DULUTH MEN'S HOCKEY TEAM

HON. JAMES L. OBERSTAR

OF MINNESOTA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 2, 2004

Mr. OBERSTAR. Mr. Speaker, I want to congratulate the University of Minnesota-Duluth men's hockey team on reaching the 2004 NCAA Men's Frozen Four Hockey Tournament. This moment has been 19 years in the making, since the last UMD men's hockey team reached the Frozen Four in 1985. This is the second time the UMD men's hockey team has reached the Frozen Four, and the third NCAA trip for the men's hockey team.

I want to acknowledge, in particular, the accomplishments of Head Coach and Hibbing, Minnesota native Scott Sandelin. Scott has been awarded the 2004 Western Collegiate College Association's Coach of the Year award. He is one of the most promising young coaches in college hockey and has only 4 years behind the bench as head coach. He is not only a great coach, but also a superb instructor who has taught his players a great understanding of the game. The team has demonstrated that understanding of the game with their impressive 28-12-4 record. It is clear that the lessons learned on the ice will serve these student-athletes well after graduation, which is the hallmark of college athletics.

I also want to congratulate University of Minnesota Duluth Senior, Junior Lessard, who became the seventh Bulldog to be named a Hobey Baker finalist. Mr. Lessard was selected as 2004 Western Collegiate Hockey Association Player of the Year and helped the Bulldogs advance to the Frozen Four for the first time in 19 years. He leads the nation in scoring with 61 points and 20 assists in league play.

I want to commend Coach Sandelin, Junior Lessard and the entire UMD hockey team for their outstanding season and to wish them success in the NCAA Frozen Four tournament.

IN HONOR OF ANTONIA
HERNANDEZ

HON. XAVIER BECERRA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 2, 2004

Mr. BECERRA. Mr. Speaker, it is with utmost pleasure and privilege that I rise today to recognize and pay tribute to a great American and good friend, Antonia Hernandez, Former President and General Counsel of the Mexican American Legal Defense and Educational Fund (MALDEF). To me, Antonia is many things: a national leader on civil rights and public policy, a pioneer who has opened doors for countless underrepresented Americans in this country, and a wonderful friend and mentor who after 23 years with MALDEF, has embarked on another ambitious journey by leading one of this country's premiere charitable institutions, the California Community Foundation.

Born on May 30, 1948, Antonia was raised in Torreon, Coahuila, Mexico. At the age of eight, her parents, Manuel and Nicolasa Hernandez, emigrated, family and all, to the United States and settled in the Boyle Heights neighborhood of East Los Angeles. Growing up in the housing projects of East Los Angeles, Antonia learned her strong work ethic and core values from her parents. As the eldest of seven children (Maria, Guadalupe, Lisa, Mary Ann, Peter, and Manuel), Antonia demonstrated an incredible entrepreneurial spirit at an early age, going door-to-door in her housing project selling tamales to help support the family.

Antonia is a proud alumna of Garfield High School and East Los Angeles College. The first in her family to attend college, Antonia set her sights higher and went on to receive a Bachelor of Arts in history in 1970 and a Juris Doctorate in 1974 from the University of California, Los Angeles.

On October 8, 1977, Antonia married Michael Stern, and together they have become an indivisible team, blessed with a true partnership, friendship and love. Family has always been the top priority for these proud parents of three: Benjamin, Marisa, and Michael.

Antonia's illustrious career has taken her from the Los Angeles Center for Law and Justice to the Legal Aid Foundation, the United States Senate Judiciary Committee and of course MALDEF, where she quickly became an indispensable asset and emblematic of MALDEF's tenacity to prevail. Her collaborative style and incredible network of relationships have propelled MALDEF to the top of our nation's leading civil rights and public policy organizations. She served a remarkable and unprecedented 18 years as President and General Counsel of this preeminent organization. Under her guidance, MALDEF has gained long-term financial stability going from an organization that began in 1968 with a $2.2 million grant from the Ford Foundation to one that operates a $6.5 million annual budget and has offices in Los Angeles, Washington, D.C., Chicago, Houston, Atlanta, Sacramento and San Antonio.

What mark has this human being left on America? She heroically led the fight defeating the anti-immigrant Proposition 187 in the California courts in the 1990's. She courageously worked on the 1995 Edgewood case which held that the Texas legislature had the authority to require wealthier districts to share that wealth with less fortunate districts. Today, while still a work in progress, we are moving towards an educational system that provides a fair opportunity to all Texan children. And Latino families are forever indebted to Antonia for her instrumental role in pursuing accurate census counts in 1990 and 2000. Under her leadership, MALDEF took the lead in conducting nationwide census outreach campaigns and kept a vigilant watch over the complicated redistricting process so that Latinos would, for the first time, have a strong political voice throughout the country.

Antonia's years of demonstrated leadership led the California Community Foundation to name her as its new Chief Executive Officer and President. With this new position comes the opportunity to forge new paths and serve Californians in new ways.

Antonia's legal career has always embodied her passion for helping the Latino and other disenfranchised communities to "make sure that everyone has a place at the table." One of her former colleagues best characterized Antonia as someone who can interact respectfully with the most modest, humble immigrants and then translate their needs into action. As Antonia closes one chapter of her distinguished career and begins another, I would like to say "thank you" on behalf of the countless people whose lives she has changed by opening doors, leading by example and always holding firm to her convictions. Her innumerable contributions will be felt and appreciated for generations to come.

Mr. Speaker, as family, friends, and colleagues gather to pay tribute to Antonia, it is with great admiration and pride that I ask my colleagues to join me today in saluting this truly remarkable example of the American dream. Fortunately for all of us Antonia has much vigor and fight reserved for her new calling at the helm of the California Community Foundation. Antonia, you have earned the luck that will be with you.

TRIBUTE TO ANN SUNSTEIN
KHEEL

HON. CHARLES B. RANGEL

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 2, 2004

Mr. RANGEL. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Ann Sunstein Kheel who died in New York City on December 28 at the age of 88. Ms. Kheel was a woman as close to a saint as I have ever known. She dedicated her whole life to the fight for social and racial justice. Born in Pittsburgh in 1915, she went to Cornell University where she earned a degree in General Studies in 1936. She lived in New York City ever since.

Ms. Kheel's goal was to make the American society "inclusive rather than exclusive." It was her motto "never to entertain except interracially" and not to support organizations which were not integrated. She remained truthful to these ideas throughout her life. She served on the board of the New York Urban League for more than thirty years and initiated its Frederick Douglass Awards Dinner in 1966. For 25 years she was the chairwoman of this event, which honors leaders in the private and public sectors who try to eliminate race barriers and promote opportunities for the disadvantaged.

In the 1960s Ms. Kheel sponsored the purchase of books for students attending the Frederick Douglass Junior High School in Harlem who had completed research on individuals who had had a significant impact on African-American or Puerto-American history. In 1963 and 1964 she was a delegate to the President's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunities and, from 1971 to 1986, she served as a trustee of the Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture. The NAACP awarded her with the Unity Award in 1971.

Ms. Kheel was also deeply involved in campaigns for environmental justice. She served as chairwoman of the New York State Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation Commission from 1977 to 1986 and as trustee of the Rainforest Alliance. The promotion of better public education in New York City was another issue close to her heart.

Ms. Kheel ensured that her great contributions to the social life of New York City would not end with her death. In her last will, she asked her husband of 66 years, labor lawyer Theodore Kheel, to provide funding for charities. The Kheel family decided to create the Ann S. Kheel Charitable Trust and endowed it with $1 million. I am very honored that the Kheel family has asked me to chair this Trust which will provide funding for educational, civil rights and other organizations serving disadvantaged New York neighborhoods.

Ms. Kheel was an admirable woman and serves as a shining example in our society. Her death is a big loss for New York City, but she will always be remembered as a woman dedicated to achieving more social and racial equality in our society.

TRIBUTE TO CHRISTOPHER
DARDEN AND WILLIAM SCHAUB

HON. ROBERT E. (BUD) CRAMER
OF ALABAMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 2, 2004

Mr. CRAMER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Christopher Darden and William Schaub for receiving the 2003 Isaac M. Cline Award from the National Weather Service.

The Isaac M. Cline Award is presented each year to individuals and teams that have made significant contributions in support of National Weather Service strategic and operational plans. Mr. Darden and Mr. Schaub were awarded the Cline award for their work demonstrating exceptional meteorological skill and professionalism on May 6, 2003.

Mr. Speaker, Mr. Darden and Mr. Schaub are lead forecasters at the NWS Weather

Forecast Office in Huntsville, Alabama. On May 6th, North Alabama was experiencing extensive flash flooding and numerous reports of tornadoes throughout the region. Mr. Darden and Mr. Schaub issued a series of Tornado Warnings that had an average warning lead time of twenty-three minutes. In addition, they issued several Flash Flood Warnings with a lead time of up to forty-five minutes. Due to the timeliness and accuracy of these severe weather warnings, Mr. Darden and Mr. Schaub likely saved numerous lives.

Mr. Darden and Mr. Schaub are being recognized for efforts performed within mere months of the opening of the new Huntsville Weather Forecast Office. This is a testament to their knowledge and expertise that is critical to address the unique weather patterns and needs of North Alabama.

Mr. Speaker, the Isaac M. Cline Award is the highest honor the National Weather Service can bestow upon its employees. I rise today, to congratulate Christopher Darden and William Schaub on this honor.

HONORING MERLE KILGORE

HON. MARSHA BLACKBURN

OF TENNESSEE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 2, 2004

Mrs. BLACKBURN. Mr. Speaker, today I rise to honor a great Tennessean and a legend in country music. Merle Kilgore is a businessman who has bridged his early music experience with today's growing country music industry.

Merle began his career in Shreveport, Louisiana at the age of 14, carrying Hank Williams, Sr.'s guitar. Since then, Merle has risen as a leader in the country music industry. He co-wrote the "Ring of Fire" with June Carter-Cash, as recorded by Johnny Cash. That great hit sold more than sixteen million records. Merle didn't stop there; he continued to write hit after hit developing his catalog to over 300 songs. All together his song collection has sold close to fifty million records. Merle's first Top Ten record was self penned "Dear Mama," and he has accumulated several others since.

Merle moved to Nashville in 1962 and began his management career. Merle has been affiliated with Hank Williams, Jr. for more than thirty years. On April 7, 1986, Merle was named the Executive Vice President and head of management of Hank Williams, Jr. Enterprises.

In addition to managing Hank's career, Merle has served as Vice President of the Country Music Association and has served on the CMA Board of Directors since 1989. He has been President of both the Nashville Songwriter's Foundation, as well as the Nashville Songwriter's Association International. In 1987 he was named an honorary State Senator for Tennessee, and in 1998, Merle received the Legendary Songwriter's Award from the North American Country Music Association.

Merle is an accomplished singer, songwriter, and actor. He is a shining star in the nation's entertainment industry. However, Merle is definitely not just "resting on his laurels." For Singer-Songwriter-Manager Merle Kilgore, the best may be yet to come. Today I rise to recognize Merle and thank him for his dedication and his willingness to share his incredible talents with Tennesseans and country music fans worldwide.

HONORING CESAR CHAVEZ ON THE ELEVENTH ANNIVERSARY OF HIS DEATH

HON. KAREN MCCARTHY

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 2, 2004

Ms. MCCARTHY of Missouri. Mr. Speaker, I am proud to announce a celebration to honor Cesar Chavez on April 24, 2004, in Kansas City, Missouri. This celebration commemorates his legacy and the eleventh anniversary of his death, April 23, 1993.

Cesar has become a champion of working people everywhere. Born into Depression-era poverty in Arizona in 1927, he served in the United States Navy in the Second World War, and rose to become one of our greatest advocates of nonviolent change.

The farm workers who labored in the fields and yearned for respect and self-sufficiency pinned their hopes on this remarkable man, who, with faith and discipline, with soft-spoken humility and amazing inner strength, led a very courageous life. And in so doing, he brought dignity to the lives of so many others and provided inspiration for the rest of our Nation's history.

After achieving only an eighth-grade education, Cesar left school to work in the fields full-time to support his family. It was there that he noticed the labor contractors and the land owners exploited the workers. He tried reasoning with the farm owners about higher pay and better working conditions. But most of his fellow workers would not support him for fear of losing their jobs. Cesar's dream was to create an organization to protect and serve farm workers, whose struggles he shared. At the age of 35, he left his own well paid job to devote all his time to organizing the farm workers into a union. Cesar traveled from camp to camp recruiting workers, and the National Farm Workers Union was born.

With a strong leader to represent them, the workers began to demand their rights for fair pay and better working conditions. Without these rights, no one would work in the fields. In 1965, the grape growers didn't listen to the union's demands, and the farmhands wanted a strike. The workers left the fields, and the unharvested grapes began to rot on the vines. Union members, Cesar included, were jailed repeatedly. But public officials, religious leaders, and ordinary citizens from all across the United States flocked to California to march in support of the farm workers. In 1970, some grape growers signed agreements with the union. The union lifted the grape boycott, and its members began to pick grapes again. That same year, Cesar thought that even people who could not travel to California could show their support for his cause. Thus he appealed for a nationwide boycott of lettuce. People from all parts of the United States who sympathized with the cause of the farm workers refused to buy lettuce. Some even picketed in front of supermarkets.

By 1973, when Cesar inspired the people of Kansas City with his message of equality, justice and social change in an address at Penn
