

years than any other current member of the Illinois State Senate. Senator Demuzio is credited with rebuilding the infrastructure of the Illinois Democratic Party and the Illinois delegation stands united today as a result of his superb leadership.

PAYING TRIBUTE TO VIRGINIA HOWEY

HON. SCOTT MCINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 5, 2004

Mr. MCINNIS. Mr. Speaker, it is a great pleasure to stand and recognize Virginia Howey for receiving the Southwest Colorado Not-for-Profit Director of the Year Award. Virginia has spent twenty-two years starting early childhood and family support programs in Montezuma County, and this award is a well-deserved testament to her dedication to her community and the State of Colorado.

Virginia's extensive involvement with community organizations comes from her firm belief that one person can make a difference, but it takes a whole community to make a lasting impact. As the current Pinon Project executive director, she has implemented 12 programs for prenatal moms, infants and toddlers, preschoolers, school-age youth, families, and individuals, serving roughly 900 families in Montezuma and Dolores counties. She also has served as chair of the Family Resource Association's state board of directors, on the United Way of Montezuma advisory board, as fiscal agent for the Montezuma/Dolores Community Summit, and as Southwest KIDS coordinator for four years. She also was responsible for securing a Department of Transportation grant for a seat belt campaign and implemented the Montezuma-Cortez school district's Early Reading First Program for 300 preschool children.

Mr. Speaker, it is my honor to recognize Virginia Howey on receiving the Southwest Colorado Not-for-Profit Director of the Year Award before this body of Congress and this nation. The award is a testament to her hard work and great skill as an organizer building programs that benefit individuals, families, and communities throughout Southwest Colorado. I wish her all the best in her future endeavors.

CONGRATULATIONS TO AMADOR VALLEY HIGH SCHOOL CIVICS TEAM

HON. RICHARD W. POMBO

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 5, 2004

Mr. POMBO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate the students of the Amador Valley High School civics team, from Pleasanton, California. The 19 seniors and their coach, social studies teacher Matt Campbell are here in Washington to represent California in the "We the People: The Citizen and the Constitution" civics competition. This weekend, these bright young men and women will face 49 other teams from around the nation, demonstrating their knowledge of the Constitution of the United States of America and how it has shaped the history and institutions of this land. I am extremely proud of these students, the future leaders of the 11th district of California and the Nation and I wish them the best of luck in the competition.

This is not the first time the Amador Valley High School team has been to the National competition. Since 1992, the team has made it to this level four times, and in 1995 they were crowned National Champion. This record of accomplishment is truly a testament to the talented, dedicated teachers of the Amador Valley High School.

Mr. Speaker, please join me in congratulating these fine young scholars, and all the students from around the country whose dedication to civics and the history of this great Nation brings them here this week.

HONORING THE SHARP HEALTHCARE VICTORIES OF SPIRIT EVENT

HON. RANDY "DUKE" CUNNINGHAM

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 5, 2004

Mr. CUNNINGHAM. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the 14th annual Sharp Healthcare Victories of Spirit event. This event is a celebration of all that is right in health care and the value of community ties. For over 40 years, the Sharp model of rehabilitation care provides innovative services that assist individuals impacted by catastrophic injury or illness in reaching their greatest potential—at home, at school, on the job and in recreational and sports activities. Their success is demonstrated through the achievements of those who are privileged to serve within Rehabilitation Service. Victories of Spirit showcases great work and partnerships that lead to even greater patient outcomes and achievement.

This special evening is dedicated to honoring incredible people who have played a hand at turning tragedy into triumph. The Eagle Spirit Award represents the symbolism of the Eagle Spirit, a Navajo sign of the most potent healing power, one that elicits images of soaring, of conquering and of excelling. Victories of Spirit is a night that celebrates triumphs and those who make them possible. Year after year it demonstrates to our community just how powerful the human spirit is and inspires each one of us to be the best we can be. I would like to individually recognize each of the recipients of the Eagle Spirit Award:

Josephina Everett is a mother and a teacher for deaf children in need. Josefina and her husband, Luke, live in Mexico and run a free Christian home and school for deaf children in Mexico. Josephina, who became deaf at the age of five, has dedicated her life to helping deaf children learn and appreciate their gifts. Following a burst aneurysm that almost took her life, Josephina learned to sign again using one hand and eventually learned to write and to walk. Josefina and her family have shown great strength against all odds. Their love and faith have brought them all back to the deaf children of Valle de Guadalupe.

DeShon Mitchell knows he's not defined by his paralysis, and that his dreams before his injury continue on. He's just altering how he plans to accomplish them. This athletic teen went back to school and graduated with his class. He then went on to San Diego State University and completed his degree in Economics just four years later. Through his work with Sharp On Survival he is rediscovering his confidence. He is still playing sports and enjoying music, and he's added public speaking to his talents, working as a Voice of Injury Prevention (VIP) for Sharp On Survival.

Juan Solis was diagnosed at the age of 37 neurocysticercosis and hydrocephalus with which required multiple surgeries and shunting to drain the fluid on his brain. He spent months in the hospital followed by several years in a nursing home. With the help of the patients and staff of Sharp Cabrillo Skilled Nursing Unit, Juan is forever grateful he's got a second chance on life. He is finally home with his family and working two jobs after being away for five years. He hopes to return to coaching the neighborhood kids in "futbol-soccer" this year.

Mathew Sparks was temporarily sidelined from his dream of service to his Country by a spinal cord injury at the age of 23. While Matt may not be able to fly with the Marines, he is now telling his story as a Voice of Injury Prevention (VIP) for Sharp On Survival. Through Matt's work in the program, he's able to serve by speaking at the Marine Corps and Navy safety stand-downs, helping to protect the men and women who protect our country.

Christine O. Timmins is an educator who hasn't let a 1978 spinal injury change her. She is full of capability, dedicated to serving, and dedicated to her students. Christine's courage has benefited teens for more than 30 years now. Her colleagues will tell you, "She can no longer leave footprints in the sand, but she leaves imprints on the hearts and minds of all whom she has taught and touched with her ability for so many years."

The San Diego Brain Injury Foundation has been serving brain injury survivors and their loved ones since 1983. The foundation started as a grass roots effort by families of survivors who knew they needed help and that many others would too. Over the last 20 years, those initial seeds have blossomed into a regional not-for-profit organization that has raised over $700,000 to provide support, resource and information, networking opportunities and service referral to 11,000 people affected by brain injury each year in San Diego County. Their mission is to improve the quality of life for brain injury survivors and their families and promote public awareness and social advocacy.

More than 500 guests including business, government and educational leaders, physicians and health care executives, rehabilitation providers, the media and honored community members from the San Diego area will join in the celebration. I would like to thank the Honorary chair of the event, Donnie Edwards of the San Diego Chargers. Donnie will be joined by Bree Walker, a producer/broadcaster, who has hosted the celebration for more than a decade.

This inspiring evening will benefit Sharp On Survival, Sharp's Institute for Injury and Violence Prevention, the recognized model chapter of the Think First National Injury Prevention Foundation. All proceeds raised from this event benefit Sharp On Survival and help to bring vital prevention education to more youth throughout San Diego County. I ask my colleagues to join me today in recognizing the Victories of Spirit event, the recipients of the Victories of Spirit award, and all those who assisted in making this event a success.

INTRODUCTION OF H.R. 4262, THE SOLVE ACT OF 2004

HON. JOE BACA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 5, 2004

Mr. BACA. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of H.R. 4262, the SOLVE Act of 2004, that reforms our nation's immigration laws. This legislation was introduced yesterday by Congressman GUTIERREZ and I am proud to be one of its many original cosponsors.

This bill reunites families by reducing the years or decades of family separation caused by backlogs and harsh restrictions.

Under this bill, immigrants waiting more than 5 years will be given a visa outside the per-country limits. In addition, immediate relatives would no longer count against the 480,000 limit on family-based visas. If we truly value the family unit, we cannot keep in place policies that tear it apart.

We must reward work by granting immigrants who work hard and pay taxes the opportunity to earn a green card.

This bill will allow immigrants who have lived in the U.S. for 5 years and worked for 2 years to be eligible for legalization, including spouse and children.

Also, immigrants who have lived in the U.S. for less than 5 years would be eligible for a 3-year visa. The visa will allow immigrants to live, work, and travel legally in the U.S., and apply for a green card after two years of work history.

Congressman GUTIERREZ' bill respects workers by protecting wages and working conditions for U.S. workers.

This proposal creates a new visa for low-skilled workers, such as agricultural farm workers. These workers will be paid a prevailing wage so that Americans do not suffer from lower wages, and the bill makes sure companies hire American workers first.

The confusing system we have today is so difficult to navigate that it encourages many to immigrate illegally as a first resort.

According to the Department of Labor, our economy will need a stable supply of legal immigrants to maintain our economy.

Hospitals in California are importing nurses from South East Asia and Latin America because of a nursing shortage. Restaurants and other service jobs are hiring immigrants to fill in thousands of vacancies.

The fact is that we can reduce illegal immigration by having fair and reasonable immigration laws.

Our government must work hard to prevent people and businesses from violating our laws. That is why we must support comprehensive immigration reform.

Our current system loves immigrants one day and hates them the next. We need a system that is logical, orderly and sympathetic to human needs. This system forces the average Mexican and Filipino to wait over ten years before being reunited with their spouse.

Some people will claim that this bill opens our borders. That is false. The SOLVE Act simply brings order to an immigration system that is broken.

I urge my colleagues to support passage of this legislation.

INTRODUCTION OF A RESOLUTION
RECOGNIZING THE 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF BROWN V. BOARD OF EDUCATION

HON. JOHN CONYERS, JR.

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 5, 2004

Mr. CONYERS. Mr. Speaker, today I am pleased to introduce a resolution recognizing the 50th anniversary of the Brown v. Board of Education decision.

This month we honor and celebrate the 50th anniversary of Brown v. Board of Education, a landmark decision that not only desegregated public schools, but led to the desegregation of every segment of our society. Half a century ago, on May 17, 1954, the Brown decision advanced the Constitutional principle that every American should be guaranteed equal protection of the laws.

In this decision, the United States Supreme Court declared, "in the field of public education, the doctrine of 'separate but equal' has no place." It was Brown that reversed Plessy v. Ferguson, the case that established this "separate but equal" doctrine, which stamped Africans Americans with a badge of inferiority as articulated by Judge John Marshall Harlan, the lone dissenter in Plessy.

Brown commenced an era that began to strip African Americans and other minorities of this badge of inferiority. With Brown, millions of minorities and women would be afforded educational opportunities. This decision also provided momentum to the Civil Rights Movement and this nation would come to realize change not just within the realm of education, but in other segments of society as well.

The Brown decision helped lead to the Civil Rights Act of 1964, which advanced the idea that discrimination in the workplace and in public establishments would not be tolerated. The decision also helped lead to the Voting Rights Act of 1965, which promotes every American's right to participate in the political process and the Fair Housing Act of 1968 which promotes equal and fair access to housing for every American.

Fifty years after Brown, however, the pursuit for equal rights and equal opportunity for every American citizen continues. This notion can best be evidenced by statistics that reflect the socio-economic disparities within the African American community:

In March 2004, the Department of Labor reported that 10 percent of African Americans were unemployed, compared to 5 percent of white Americans.

In 2003, the National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP) or "the nation's report card" indicated that 60 percent of African American fourth graders were not reading at a fourth grade level, compared to 25 percent of white American fourth graders.

In 2003, the Kaiser Family Foundation estimated that 20 percent of African Americans were uninsured, compared to 12 percent of white Americans.

In 2003, United for a Fair Economy (UFE) reported that 24 percent of African Americans live in poverty, compared to 8 percent of white Americans.

It is because of such disparities that this resolution calls upon Congress to do more than celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the Brown decision by noting its historical significance. This resolution asks Congress to renew its commitment to continuing and building on the legacy of Brown with a pledge to acknowledge and address the modern day disparities that perpetuate a separate and unequal society.

PAYING TRIBUTE TO RUTH SUMMONS

HON. SCOTT MCINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 5, 2004

Mr. MCINNIS. Mr. Speaker, it is with a heavy heart that I rise today to pay tribute to the life and memory of Ruth Summons. Ruth's long life of one hundred years saw many changes, and her kind soul touched many lives. Her journey ended in Colorado, a place that she loved dearly, and where she chose to spend her retirement. As her family and friends mourn her passing, I believe it appropriate to call to attention her legacy before this body of Congress and this nation today.

Ruth was born to a family of eight children in Louisiana, where she attended a one-room schoolhouse. Her adventurous spirit carried her to Texas for business school, and then on to Denver, where she worked as a secretary in a law firm for forty-seven years. Ruth met her husband Harold at a singles dance for seniors in Denver, and they married and moved to Grand Junction to enjoy their retirement. Ruth lived her life in such a way that her husband will forever remember her, saying: "there wasn't a better woman on Earth."

Mr. Speaker, Ruth Summons lived a long and full life, and she will be sorely missed by those fortunate to have known her. It is my honor to recognize her life before this body of Congress and this nation. I would like to extend my heartfelt respects to her family and friends during this difficult time of bereavement.

HONORING NORA BUTLER OF CHICAGO

HON. RAHM EMANUEL

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 5, 2004

Mr. EMANUEL. Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to rise today to honor the contributions that Ms. Nora Butler, one of our most active community members, has made to the 36th Ward in the 5th Congressional District and Chicago's North Side.

At 91 years young, Ms. Butler still is going strong. She is an instrumental volunteer at Alderman William J.P. Banks' service office, and still serves as a precinct captain for the ward. Her boundless energy and enthusiasm during this past March's primary election would have been remarkable for someone even half her
