Res. 599—Congratulating the UConn men's and women's basketball teams.

HONORING THE 100TH BIRTHDAY
OF ITCHE GOLDBERG CELEBRATED ON APRIL 25, 2004

HON. JERROLD NADLER

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 5, 2004

Mr. NADLER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate my constituent, Itche Goldberg on the occasion of his 100th birthday. Itche is at once a leader, scholar and educator, yet he still remains a student. It is rare to encounter a man who has achieved as much as Itche has, but that is not what truly makes Itche unique. What sets Itche apart from those few who can match his accomplishments is his continued passion to learn, explore and delve further into the subjects he studies. The greatest beneficiary of Itche's work has never been Itche himself, but rather those who have had the pleasure of reading his works and the work he has translated and for the important role he has played in preserving the Yiddish language.

Itche began his path of scholarship in Canada, where he studied philosophy, political economics and German. At the age of twenty, he was already teaching in the Toronto Workmen Circle Folkshul, the first step onto a path of instruction that extended to Philadelphia and New York as well. His lectures have been in both Yiddish and English, covering Jewish culture and literature. From 1970 to 1985, Itche was professor of Yiddish language and literature at Queens College of the City University of New York.

From 1936 to 1951, Itche edited Yungvarg, a Yiddish children's magazine, and others for both parents and teachers. During that time, he wrote many children's stories in Yiddish. Also among Itche's work are numerous Yiddish textbooks he authored, and even more he edited. As Director of the Service Bureau for Jewish Education and the Zhitlowsky Foundation, Itche's mission was to make sure these books were not only produced, but also provided to their target audiences in Jewish secular schools. Itche was also recently awarded the prestigious Raoul Wallenberg medal.

Today, Itche goes to the office every day to ensure that the journal he is editor-in-chief of, Yiddische Kultur, sees continued life. Even after forty years on the job, he remains tirelessly devoted to the endurance of one of the few surviving quality journals published in Yiddish language worldwide.

In a society such as ours, which values hard work, education and culture, Itche Goldberg is priceless. A child wishing to study Yiddish culture can turn to Itche's work at every stage of life; whether it is his children's stories, textbooks, journals or upcoming second volume of essays. Itche is an asset to us all, and I feel privileged to honor him for his profound contributions towards the preservation of Yiddish, and for doing so with such an inspiring passion. Mir shatsn op ayer vunderlekhe arbet l'toyves der yidisher kultur vos hot baraikehert dem gontsn Yidishn yishev. (English Translation "We honor your wonderful work for the benefit of Yiddish culture which enriches all of Yiddish heritage.")

RECOGNIZING LALO ALCARAZ

HON. HILDA L. SOLIS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 5, 2004

Ms. SOLIS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to recognize Lalo Alcaraz, a leader and political activist in the Latino community who exemplifies the best in American journalism today.

For almost 10 years, Mr. Alcaraz has touched the lives of millions of newspaper and magazine readers here in the U.S. and in Mexico. Born in San Diego, CA, in 1964, he grew up near the U.S.-Mexico border with his Mexican immigrant parents—each day sharing two different cultures. He began his journalism career as student at San Diego State University by drawing politically and culturally driven editorial cartoons for the university newspaper. As he gained notoriety among readers across campus, Alcaraz also grabbed the attention of top publishing media syndicates in southern California.

An award winning editorial cartoonist, screenwriter, and journalist, Alcaraz continues to entertain his readers today by skillfully capturing the essence of our country's changing cultural and political landscape. He is the creator of nationally syndicated and hardhitting editorial cartoons that depict pressing issues affecting the Latino community. Published in English and Spanish in publications such as the New York and Los Angeles Times, La Opinion, and Hispanic Magazine, his cartoons include the Latino-themed daily strip La Cucaracha, and Migra Mouse, a satire on Latinos and immigration. Alcaraz is also the co-editor of the satirical magazine Pocho and he is the illustrator of the book Latino USA: A Cartoon History.

Throughout his illustrious career, Alcaraz has been honored and recognized for his exceptional journalistic work. He has received four Southern California Journalism Awards for Best Cartoon in Weekly Papers between 1994–1999. He is also the 1998 winner of the Los Angeles Hispanic Public Relations Association's Premio Award for Excellence in Communications; the 2000 Rockefeller Foundation Multi-Media Fellowship; the 2003 Center for the Study of Political Graphics and the Keep

On Crossin' Awards; and, most recently, the 2004 Interfaith Communities United for Justice and Peace Award.

Lalo Alcaraz is a loving husband, father and a devoted member of the Writers Guild Union, West. I commend him for his numerous contributions to the Latino community through his journalism career and political activism.

THE PASSING OF ILLINOIS STATE SENATOR RALPH DUNN

HON. JOHN SHIMKUS

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 5, 2004

Mr. SHIMKUS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the life of Illinois State Senator Ralph Dunn on May 3.

Senator Dunn had a long list of accomplishments during his years as a State Senator, a State Representative and as a member of the Illinois Constitutional Convention—which he described as "the greatest thing I've ever been involved with."

Illinois State Representative Mike Bost said, "He gave me some tremendous advice, even after he left office. He was well-respected and he served his district and his state well. Everybody knew Ralph was a square shooter. I never got in trouble if I followed him."

Du Quoin Mayor John Rednour said, "I always knew the best way to get something done for my town was to call Ralph. He was not only a gentleman, he was a gentle man."

Mayor Rednour, Representative Bost and many others will join together on Friday, May 7th to celebrate the life and legacy of this Southern Illinois giant. There is little doubt that Ralph and his wife Ellen will be watching with their typical mix of pride and humility.

They have earned this moment of recognition as well as our thanks for a lifetime of service to all of us.

TRIBUTE IN HONOR OF LYNDSEY
LEA TELLER, 2004 LEGRAND
SMITH SCHOLARSHIP WINNER OF LITCHFIELD, MI

HON. NICK SMITH

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 5, 2004

Mr. SMITH of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, it is with great respect for the outstanding record of excellence she has compiled in academics, leadership and community service, that I am proud to salute Lyndsey Lea Teller, winner of the 2004 LeGrand Smith Scholarship. This award is given to young adults who have demonstrated their true commitment to playing an important role in our Nation's future.

As a winner of the LeGrand Smith Scholarship, Lyndsey is being honored for demonstrating the same generosity of spirit, intelligence, responsible citizenship, and capacity for human service that distinguished the late LeGrand Smith of Somerset, Michigan.

Lyndsey is an exceptional student at Litchfield High School. Aside from being at the top of her class academically, she possesses an outstanding record of achievement in high school. She is the Secretary for the National Honor Society and the Treasurer for her graduating class. Lyndsey has run cross country and track for four years. She is also very active with her church.

On behalf of the United States Congress, I am proud to join with her many admirers in extending our highest praise and congratulations to Lyndsey Lea Teller for her accomplishments and selection as winner of a LeGrand Smith Scholarship. This honor not only recognizes her efforts, but it is also a testament to the parents, teachers, and other individuals whose personal interest, strong support and active participation contributed to her success. To this remarkable young woman, I extend my most heartfelt good wishes for all her future endeavors.

RECOGNIZING THE ALTAMED HEALTH SERVICES CORPORATION

HON. HILDA L. SOLIS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 5, 2004

Ms. SOLIS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to recognize the AltaMed Health Services Corporation (AltaMed). For 35 years, AltaMed has exemplified exceptional leadership in America by providing increased access and award-winning quality health care to the medically underserved multi-ethnic communities of Los Angeles County.

Established in 1969 at a modest storefront in East Los Angeles, AltaMed has never strayed from its commitment to serve medically underserved and uninsured individuals. First known as El Barrio Free Clinic and later as La Clínica Familiar Del Barrio, the AltaMed organization was first managed by doctors, nurses, and social workers, who generously volunteered their non-working hours to treat individuals and their families with the best-available medical care. Spurred by a federal government measure known as the Urban Health Initiative and a federal grant in 1977, La Clínica Familiar Del Barrio managed to increase its services and the organization officially changed its name to the AltaMed Health Services Corporation.

Thirty-five years after its inception, AltaMed continues to provide quality medical service to over 46,000 patients at 19 service outlets, six stand-alone health care clinics, two mobile health care units, and 11 social service sites throughout Los Angeles County. Proudly serving predominantly low-income and underrepresented communities, AltaMed continues to be at the forefront of quality health care service. Its extensive services provide individuals of all ages with state-of-the-art medical and dental clinics, geriatric care, home safety, HIV/AIDS prevention, youth support groups, and substance abuse prevention and treatment programs.

With an annual operating budget of $55 million, AltaMed is the largest nonprofit health care agency in the greater East Los Angeles area—serving 46 Zip codes in Los Angeles County. With support from various grants, AltaMed works to enroll uninsured individuals into low cost or no cost insurance programs such as Medi-Cal, Healthy Families, California Kids and Healthy Kids. In addition, AltaMed continues to promote economic and community development and is the second largest employer in the greater East Los Angeles area, with over 900 racially diverse and multi-lingual staff members.

I want to commend the work of AltaMed's President and CEO Cástulo de la Rocha, the Board of Directors, its nine senior management professionals, and its generous supporters for their tireless and excellent leadership efforts. Their hard work made AltaMed's 35th Anniversary Gala a reality.

May this historic event be an opportunity for everyone to commemorate the vision, compassion, and commitment that the original AltaMed founders had for their community 35 years ago. And may today's AltaMed leadership and medical team carry their mission forward into the future.

THE PASSING OF ILLINOIS STATE SENATOR VINCE DEMUZIO

HON. JOHN SHIMKUS

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 5, 2004

Mr. SHIMKUS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the life of Illinois State Senator Vince Demuzio who passed away on April 27. Senator Demuzio, or Vince as most people knew him, lived a life dedicated to public service. While committing himself to the public good, Vince still found time for his family—his wife, Deanna, their two children and their four grandchildren.

In central Illinois, Vince Demuzio is remembered as a champion for education, a fighter for good jobs and roadways, and a tireless advocate for the needs of his constituents.

Illinois Senate Minority Leader, Frank Watson, said of Vince, "If we all emulate the concerns that Vince Demuzio had for the people he represented and the people of this state . . . we would all be better off and be better people for it."

I couldn't agree more. Illinois has lost a great leader with the passing of State Senator Vince Demuzio.

2004 LEGRAND SMITH SCHOLARSHIP FINALISTS

HON. NICK SMITH

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 5, 2004

Mr. SMITH of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, it is with my sincerest pleasure that I rise to recognize the finalists of the 2004 LeGrand Smith Congressional Scholarship Program. This special honor is an appropriate tribute to these remarkable young adults for their academic accomplishments, demonstration of leadership and responsibility, and commitment to social and civic involvement. We all have reason to celebrate their success, because our future rests in their promising and capable hands.

The finalists are being honored for showing the same generosity of spirit, depth of intelligence, and capacity for human service that distinguished the late LeGrand Smith of Somerset, Michigan.

They are young men and women of character, ambition, and initiative, who have already learned well the value of hard work and commitment.

These exceptional students have consistently displayed their dedication, intelligence and concern throughout their high school careers. They stand out among their peers not only because of their many achievements, but also the disciplined manner in which they meet all challenges. Although they have already accomplished a great deal, these young people possess unlimited potential.

On behalf of the United States Congress, we join the many admirers in extending our highest praise and congratulations to the finalists of the 2004 LeGrand Smith Congressional Scholarship program:

Tinsley Hunsdorfer of Albion, Michigan; Renee Gaudreau of Albion, Michigan; Benjamin Wilson of Battle Creek, Michigan; Heather Taylor of Homer, Michigan; Michael Schneider of Litchfield, Michigan; Lacey Ferro of Jonesville, Michigan; Joshua Robare of Hillsdale, Michigan; Amy Sanford of Reading, Michigan; Elysia Berry of Reading, Michigan; Kimberly Emens of Waldron, Michigan; Zachary Risk of Jonesville, Michigan; Ryan Cherry of Brooklyn, Michigan; Amanda Jones of Michigan Center, Michigan. Tiffany Lambert of Jerome, Michigan; Eric Palmer of Jerome, Michigan; Amy Nemeth of Jackson, Michigan; Kathryn Gillen of Jackson, Michigan; Zachary Kanaan, Jr. of Clark Lake, Michigan; Susan Hammond of Jackson, Michigan; Benjamin Stafford of Parma, Michigan; Rachel Osborne of Hudson, Michigan; Lyndsey Banks of Adrian, Michigan; Olivia Rawson of Onsted, Michigan; Leanna Pelham of Onsted, Michigan; Sara Worsham of Onsted, Michigan; Blythe Crane of Chelsea, Michigan; Ashleigh Doop of Dexter, Michigan; and Elizabeth Parker of Dexter, Michigan.

RECOGNIZING MR. SERGIO RASCÓN

HON. HILDA L. SOLIS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 5, 2004

Ms. SOLIS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to recognize Mr. Sergio Rascón, a labor union leader who exemplifies the best in American leadership today.

Born in 1953 in Sonora, Mexico, Mr. Rascón grew up and graduated from high school in the San Fernando Valley region of Los Angeles. Possessing a strong passion for labor union politics, in 1979 he was named Labor Foreman of the Laborers' International Union of North America LIUNA Local 300, a powerful subdivision of the American Federation of Labor.

In 1984, he was named an official agent of the LIUNA Local 300, while becoming a naturalized U.S. citizen that same year. Demonstrating a natural ability to lead, motivate, and organize workers, he earned the highest honors by his peers and was promoted to the executive board of the Labor Council for Latin American Advancement LCLAA in 1989 and later to Business Manager and President of the LIUNA Local 300 union throughout the 1990s.

Currently holding politically influential positions as First Vice President of the LCLAA State Chapter and as Los Angeles Commissioner on the Convention and Exhibition Center Bureau, Rascón is regarded as one of the most powerful and youngest political activists in the United States. Under his direction, the LIUNA Local 300 is involved in more political races than any other in its history.
