

duty service over a period of 5 continuous years. It will apply to Reservists activated between 9/11 and the end of 2006, in order to accommodate those who are serving honorably in Afghanistan and Iraq.

I truly thank the Marine Corps Reservists of Fox Company for bringing this issue to my attention, and for their service to this great Nation.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. CHARLES A. GONZALEZ

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 13, 2004

Mr. GONZALEZ. Mr. Speaker, on rollcall no. 153, 154, 155, I was not present due to inclement weather in Texas which delayed my arrival in Washington. Had I been present, I would have voted "yea."

PAYING TRIBUTE TO JACK SELWAY

HON. SCOTT MCINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 13, 2004

Mr. MCINNIS. Mr. Speaker, it is my honor to rise before this body of Congress and this nation to pay tribute to Jack Selway for his admirable service and dedication to his Pueblo, Colorado community. I would also like to congratulate him on receiving the 2004 Robert Hawkins award by the Mental Health Association of Pueblo. The award is named in honor of Robert Hawkins who served as Superintendent of the Colorado Mental Health Institute-Pueblo, and is presented to an individual who has made an outstanding contribution in heightening the awareness of mental health in the Pueblo area. This award is a well-deserved testament to his achievements.

Jack and Victoria Rosser co-founded the Mental Health Association of Pueblo in 1999 with the purpose of trying to eliminate the stigma of mental illness and to increase patient access to treatment through education, advocacy, and research development. A public relations professional, Jack is a well-known and dedicated member of the community. He has emceed numerous public events, including the ceremonies for the 2000 convention of the Congressional Medal of Honor Society held in Pueblo, where he performed our National Anthem. Jack also is a member of The Greater Pueblo Chamber of Commerce and The Pueblo Economic Development Corporation. He is a member of the Rotary Club of Pueblo Number 43, and has established an organization that is collecting the history of the first 100 years of Rotary International. In addition to co-founding the Mental Health Association of Pueblo, he founded the local chapter of the Depressive and Manic Depressive Association of Pueblo, and created a website with information on mental health resources.

Mr. Speaker, it is clear that Jack Selway has a strong commitment to the community of Pueblo and to improving the quality of mental health care in the Pueblo area. His efforts to strengthen his community are truly remarkable, and his receiving the 2004 Robert Hawkins Award is a well-deserved testament to his tireless efforts. It is my privilege to recognize the accomplishments and service of Jack Selway before this body of Congress and this nation. I sincerely thank him for his service and wish him the best in his future endeavors.

A TRIBUTE TO SHEILA PEMBERTON

HON. EDOLPHUS TOWNS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 13, 2004

Mr. TOWNS. Mr. Speaker, I rise in honor of Sheila Pemberton in recognition of her contributions to her community and dedication to providing quality health care to all people.

As a young adult growing up in St. Vincent and the Grenadines, it was always Sheila Pemberton's dream to pursue a career in nursing which would enable her to serve humanity. In her nursing career, which spanned over 40 years, Sheila has always advocated for her clients to receive quality health care. As a young nurse, Sheila joined a small, elite group of Public Health Nurses within the City of New York Department of Health.

As a Public Health Nurse, Sheila worked in various capacities in the Bedford Stuyvesant community. She was passionate about the quality of care provided to both adults and children. She worked in child health clinics, which covered a wide range of health problems and was truly an advocate for children. As a School Nurse, she worked tirelessly with children from elementary to high school in both public and parochial schools. During her tenure she interacted with students, parents and teachers to promote health in the community with emphasis on the family as a unit. She is a strong voice for the physically and mentally challenged and whenever there is a call for help, Sheila will answer it.

She is a lifelong member of Chi Eta Sorority, Theta Chi Chapter. From her inception in this sorority, Soror Pemberton, as she is called, has lived up to the motto "Service for Humanity." She works diligently to carry out the goals of the sorority and always makes herself available to provide assistance in any capacity.

Sheila is an ardent member of her church and has served as co-chairperson of the health organization. These activities include organizing health fairs, visiting the sick, shut-ins, accompanying patients to the doctor and providing childcare on occasions for parents.

She has always advocated for the helpless, less fortunate and at present, she advocates for a physically challenged individual who lives in a special residence. She visits him on a regular basis and attends meetings on his behalf.

Ms. Pemberton has been recognized with many awards for her extensive and varied experiences, including: certificates of achievement and recognition from the NYC Department of Health for 25–30 years of service; a Proclamation from the Office of the Mayor, City of New York; the Bureau of School Children and Adolescents for Contributions to the Bureau; District 21 Board of Education for Staff Development; and for participating in the Developmental/Delayed and Disability in Children program in New York City. Many sorority honors have also been bestowed on Sheila including: The Marguerite Creth Jackson Sisterhood Award for Service for Humanity of Chi Eta Phi Sorority; for Outstanding Co-chairperson of the Hospitality Committee of Chi Eta Phi Sorority in 1990; and for serving as Dean of Pledge Chi Chapter June 1992 to June 1997.

Mr. Speaker, Sheila Pemberton has dedicated her life to providing quality health care to her community. As such, she is more than worthy of receiving our recognition today and I urge my colleagues to join me in honoring this truly remarkable person.

RECOGNIZING CHRIS HAUCK, PRESIDENT AND CEO OF SUNFLOWER ELECTRIC POWER CORPORATION

HON. JERRY MORAN

OF KANSAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 13, 2004

Mr. MORAN of Kansas. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to an outstanding businessman, and a man who is proud to be a "Kansan by choice," Chris Hauck.

On June 1, Chris will retire from his position as president and CEO of Sunflower Electric Power Corporation in Hays, Kansas. His retirement feels like the end of an era, but if I know Chris, it is only the beginning of a whole new chapter in his life, a chapter that will be full of time spent with loved ones, and time given to the community.

Although Chris is not a native Kansan, he soon realized that Hays is a place where he could raise his family, be active in the community, and put his business talents to good use. I have known Chris Hauck since his arrival in Hays. As soon as he took charge, Chris began leading Sunflower Electric into a new era of financial success. Through an intensive reorganization of the company's debt structure and an aggressive marketing campaign, Sunflower Electric has seen a 152 percent increase in sales to member electric systems.

Chris has been active in his industry, aside from his formal duties at Sunflower Electric. He is a past president of the Western Fuels Association, and is still a member of its board of directors. He is also a past president of the Greening Earth Society. Chris co-founded the Western Power Producers, a regional coalition of western cooperative utilities, and served as its president for a time. He has also been involved in both the MOKAN and Southwest Power Pools, and the National G & T Manager's Association Technical Advisory Committee.

This man's influence and expertise has influenced his industry on the global level as well. Chris served on the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association's Global Climate Task Force. During his time on the task force, Chris was part of a committee that, in 1993, influenced the United National Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change.

Apart from his professional life, Chris is deeply involved in prison ministry. He travels weekly to Ellsworth Correctional Facility along with his wife, Rita. Rita and Chris recruit inmates to participate in the Prison Fellowship Ministries' Inner Change Freedom Initiative. The Haucks believe wholeheartedly in the prison ministry, and I commend them for their devotion to bringing God's word to the inmates in Ellsworth.

Not only has Chris brought Sunflower Electric to new heights, and not only has he spent countless hours giving the gift of faith to Kansas inmates, but Chris Hauck is also a great family man. Chris and Rita are the proud parents of two remarkable sons, Les and Christian. Both of these young men are graduates of the United States Air Force Academy. Les, now a captain, has returned from the Persian Gulf and continues to serve his country at Luke Air Force Base in Arizona as an F-16 instructor pilot. Christian, a first lieutenant, is based in Atlanta, Georgia. In addition to serving as a hospital facilities engineer, Christian plays on the United States Combined Armed Forces Rugby Team. Later this year, Chris will be joining his son, and the team, to travel with them as a videographer.

Chris Hauck has been many things to many people. At one time, he was a big-city guy. Now, he is a self-proclaimed "Kansan by choice." In his words, Kansans, "have much to be thankful for, and little to complain about." I know I am certainly thankful for Chris—for his contributions to the western Kansas economy, for his commitment to ministering, and for his friendship. Thank you, Chris, for your service. I wish you all the best in your retirement.

CONGRATULATING CLARK METAL PRODUCTS COMPANY ON ITS 50TH ANNIVERSARY AND THANKING THE COMPANY FOR ITS CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE COMMUNITY

HON. BILL SHUSTER

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 13, 2004

Mr. SHUSTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Clark Metal Products Co. on its 50th Anniversary and to thank the company for its numerous contributions to the community.

Now a third generation family business, Clark Metal Products Co. has maintained a strong commitment to improving the quality and integrity of its product while exceeding the expectations of its customers. The company was founded by J.W. Clark, Sr. in 1954 upon the principle of providing efficient, top quality work at a reasonable cost, and the progress that it has made in the past fifty years confirms the company's dedication to this principle. Since that date, the company has expanded its capabilities and heightened its goals tremendously as it strives to become a world-class organization.

In the last fifty years the company has come closer to reaching this goal. Clark Metal Products Co. was recently named to the Pittsburgh Technology Council's Tech 50 list, which is comprised of the 50 best technology-related companies in the Pittsburgh region. Centrally located in the heart of the northeast, the company has been able to continue a steady growth rate since its inception.

As one of Pennsylvania's leading technology companies, Clark Metal Products Co. offers complete fabrication services such as, CNC punching and laser cutting, CNC forming, CNC machining, MIG and TIG welding, paint and powder coating, silk screening and mechanical assembly. Regardless of the task at hand, the experience and expertise of each and every employee guarantees every project to be completed with the best possible results.

For its incomparable generosity, service to the community, and unabated commitment to excellence, Clark Metal Products Co. deserves the highest recognition. The company continues to grow and maintain a high level of quality, providing an example that all businesses should follow. I congratulate the Clark Metal Products Co. on its 50th Anniversary and eagerly await its future progress.
