

that time, Andre would go on to win two U.S. national championships along with several other major national tournaments.

The residents of the Ninth Congressional District of California, the entire State of California, and our Nation commend Andre Ward, not only for these extraordinary achievements, but also for the dedication and the perseverance he has demonstrated in working towards his goals. His commitment and determination have made it possible for him to realize this dream of winning an Olympic gold medal, and his success is truly an inspiration to all of us. We salute this phenomenal young man.

ECONOMY SUFFERING UNDER BUSH ADMINISTRATION

(Ms. WOOLSEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. WOOLSEY. Mr. Speaker, George Bush is running for reelection on a platform that our economy is in good shape. Well, this is a sham.

Today, 8 million Americans are looking for work; 8 million Americans are looking for work. The unemployment rate is 30 percent higher than it was when he took office.

So what is he doing about it? He continues to encourage and reward sending good jobs overseas, while creating low-paying jobs right here at home and, at the same time, changes overtime policies to cheat millions of workers out of overtime pay.

What he ought to be doing is investing in our infrastructure, making sure that our Nation gets roads, highways, bridges, sewer systems, waste water treatment plants; our clean water systems are upgraded, are enlarged, are made better. Because, I say to my colleagues, those jobs pay a livable wage. Those jobs leave behind improvements for our communities and our country. That would increase the jobs in this country.

BUSH ADMINISTRATION UNDERFUNDS HOMELAND SECURITY

(Ms. BERKLEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. BERKLEY. Mr. Speaker, it has been 3 years since the 9/11 attack on our Nation. Are we safer than we were before 9/11? Are we safe enough? The 9/11 Commission has done its job; now it is time for Congress to do ours.

Homeland security is still pitifully underfunded. Our police and firefighters are struggling to cope with the dual responsibilities of homeland security and traditional public safety in law enforcement.

The Bush administration has foolishly underfunded first responders and port security. The administration has failed to include a single dollar in its budget for rail or transit security.

First responders in southern Nevada tell me that we must direct more resources to those on the frontline on our war against terrorism: police, firefighters, hospital personnel. Given the President's plan to transport thousands of shipments of deadly radioactive nuclear waste across the country, it is imperative that the President plan to protect these proposed mobile Chernobyls from the possibility of a terrorist attack. Yet we have done nothing to ensure that our rail lines are safe.

Republican leadership has failed to come forward with a meaningful homeland security plan. They failed to address the recommendations of the 9/11 Commission, and they failed to provide for the needs of our first responders.

This Congress needs to act now in order to protect the people of this great Nation.

HEARTFELT SYMPATHY AND CONDOLENCES FOR RUSSIA

(Mr. BAIRD asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BAIRD. Mr. Speaker, we have a lot to do today in the House of Representatives, as we do every day; and we will undoubtedly talk about a number of matters of great importance. But as we do, we should not forget that thousands of miles from here, thousands of families are mourning the loss of their children, their husbands and wives in Russia to a brutal and horrible terrorist attack.

I would ask this House to think about that as we go about our business, to extend our heartfelt sympathies and condolences, and our steadfast determination to assist our friends in stamping out this horrific kind of attack. Whatever the political grievance, whatever the disagreement there can be, there must be no excuse for this sort of barbarity.

Our hearts go out to our friends, and we share in their profound sadness in Russia.

POLITICS OF HOPE VERSUS POLITICS OF FEAR FOR AMERICA

(Mr. LEWIS of Georgia asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LEWIS of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, the Vice President of the United States said yesterday, "It is absolutely essential that 8 weeks from today on November 2nd, we make the right choice, because if we make the wrong choice, then the danger is that we'll get hit again." The words of the Vice President, Vice President CHENEY.

That is absolutely outrageous. It is unreal. It is unbelievable.

My fellow Americans, I want you to know that this administration will say anything, even do anything to stay in power. They will deceive, they will mislead, and they will steal. They will not tell the truth. There should be a sense of righteous indignation all across America, in the American media.

The Vice President of the United States is preaching the politics of fear. He is trying to scare the American people. We can do better, much better, with the politics of hope. For we are one people, one America, one family, one House. The American family. The American House. Shame on you, Mr. Vice President.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. TERRY). Members should not address the Vice President in personally offensive terms.

EXPRESSING INDIGNATION RESULTING FROM COMMENTS OF VICE PRESIDENT

(Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I would make one announcement this morning before I begin my 1-minute and ask for the leadership of consciousness and fairness of this House, the Republicans, to bring the extension of the assault weapons ban to the floor of the House and allow democracy to prevail.

I too offer my sympathy to the people of Russia for the loss of their loved ones. That is why I stand this morning to claim outrageously my indignation over a most hateful comment, if you will, that has been offered by the second-in-command of the United States of America. To suggest that the American people will make a choice, and if they make a different choice from the present leadership of this government, then we are sure to have a terrorist hit, is something beyond my comprehension. It is beyond my comprehension to debate the very serious issue of lives lost on 9/11, now some few days away; to suggest that by voting that you are going to bring about a hit on the innocent American people.

I would hope that in the course of this debate, the American people will make the right choice, and that choice is to recognize that people who have dignity and respect for the Constitution, JOHN KERRY and JOHN EDWARDS, are really the ones that should be elected; and anyone who wants to play in the field of divisiveness suggesting that we be hit because you make an election choice should be unelected.

ARE WE SAFER NOW THAN 4 YEARS AGO?

(Mr. SHERMAN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. SHERMAN. Mr. Speaker, are we safer now than we were 4 years ago? We have spent billions and 1,000 of our best have died in Iraq. But spending blood and treasure without wisdom will not necessarily make us safer. And while we have as a unified Nation dealt with al Qaeda and Afghanistan, we have ignored the nuclear weapons programs of Iran and North Korea. Our policy toward those two greatest threats has been "hear no evil, see no evil."

□ 1030

The administration's idea on how to make us safe from those nuclear weapons as to North Korea is to beg and as to Iran is to beg the Europeans to beg on our behalf.

The Bush administration refuses to use economic sanctions on Iran and those who subsidize North Korea because they do not want to inconvenience corporate America. Our invasion of Iraq is as if in the wake of Pearl Harbor we invaded Fascist Spain while ignoring Imperial Japan and Nazi Germany.

VICE PRESIDENT CHENEY'S SCARE TACTICS

(Mr. MEEKS of New York asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. MEEKS of New York. Mr. Speaker, I rise this morning to denounce Vice President CHENEY's disgusting and inappropriate remarks yesterday while campaigning. The Vice President's consistent attacks have reached an all-time low, even for him, and that is saying a lot for the most polarizing, divisive Vice President in the history of the United States.

We were not attacked because we were Democrats. We were not attacked because we were Republicans. We were attacked because we were Americans, and the question is where is this administration leading us? Mr. CHENEY criticizes Mr. KERRY while he was defending this country, and he took five deferments.

To exploit 9/11 and play on the public fears of terrorism is an affirmation by this administration that their record is too dismal to stand on its own. Americans should be fearful, fearful of the Bush-Cheney policies that have recruited more terrorists who want to destroy us, fearful that the hatred for America is at an all-time high, thanks to the policies of Bush-Cheney.

Time and time again this administration has made the wrong choices for America. JOHN KERRY and JOHN EDWARDS will take America in a new direction. He will make America stronger at home and more respected around the world.

VICE PRESIDENT CHENEY REACHED A NEW LOW

(Mr. MCGOVERN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. MCGOVERN. Mr. Speaker, yesterday Vice President CHENEY reached a new low. The Vice President has a history of saying outrageous things, but yesterday takes the cake.

I hope everyone realizes what the Vice President is up to. He is desperately trying to change the subject from the tragic milestone of 1,000 American fatalities in Iraq.

Today we mourn with the families who have lost their loved ones.

He can try to change the subject, Mr. Speaker, but he cannot change the fact that over and over and over again this administration has made the wrong choices in Iraq. Here we are, no weapons of mass destruction, 1,000 American fatalities, thousands and thousands of wounded and $200 billion later.

Imagine what we could have done with $200 billion. We could have invested that in jobs, in health care, in education and veterans programs, and in ensuring that our military is the best-equipped, best-trained and best-housed in the world. Those should be our priorities, Mr. Speaker, and it is sad that after 4 years in office, DICK CHENEY still does not get it.

OUTRAGE OVER INCREASE IN MEDICARE PART B PREMIUMS

(Mr. PALLONE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I just want to reiterate again my sense of outrage over this 17 percent increase in Medicare Part B premiums, which is basically $11 a month for America's seniors that is soon to go into effect.

President Bush said, well, this is because health care costs have gone up, but what he does not say is it is actually the result of Republican policies. The Republicans passed their so-called Medicare prescription drug bill, which we know is a sham, does not even go into effect until the year 2006, but what that bill did was to give a lot more money to insurers, and, as a result, the cost of Medicare premiums are going up.

The fact of the matter is that this 17 percent increase that is unaffordable for many seniors is a direct result of Republican policy and the Bush administration's policy, and it has to stop.

We need a change of administration. We need a President, JOHN KERRY, who is going to worry about senior citizens, address their needs, address the rising costs of health care, address the Medicare concerns, provide a true prescription drug benefit.

This premium increase is just an indication of what we would see over the next 2-years if the Republicans continue in power in this House. It has got to stop. Seniors should wake up and see the result of the Bush policies and what it means for their Medicare program.

LOSS OF SOLDIERS' LIVES

(Ms. SLAUGHTER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. SLAUGHTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise this morning to discuss the issue of having lost 1,000 of our soldiers. How heart-breaking this is when we look at the ages and the numbers of those young people, many of them barely 19 years old, whose dreams for their lives and hopes for their future are gone, and our hearts break for them and for their families.

One statistic that we have not heard much about, and frankly I think have not been given the truth about, are the number of those who have been wounded and maimed. Again, 18, 19, 20, 21 years old.

We are told that the casualty statistics of people wounded amounts to 7,000, but we found out last week in my office, because I was curious about that number, that the Pentagon has sent home over 15,800. These are young people coming back to the United States whose lives are changed forever, many of them amputees. Many of them lost their eyesight, many of them again changed and future gone, coming back to an America where the Veterans Administration has been so decimated by the Bush administration that they will have to wait 6 or 8 months even to see a doctor at the VA.

The resources, the health care that they need, that they counted on and that we made a contract with them is not there. What a sad commentary on this country, with its wealth and its riches and where people go on living their lives, that we would allow our young people and a large part of our future to be maimed and to be killed for a war with no end.

PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 5006, DEPARTMENTS OF LABOR, HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES, AND EDUCATION, AND RELATED AGENCIES APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2005

Ms. PRYCE of Ohio. Mr. Speaker, by direction of the Committee on Rules, I call up House Resolution 754 and ask for its immediate consideration.

The Clerk read the resolution, as follows:

H. RES. 754

Resolved, That at any time after the adoption of this resolution the Speaker may, pursuant to clause 2(b) of rule XVIII, declare the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for consideration of the bill (H.R. 5006) making appropriations for the Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education, and related agencies for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2005, and for other purposes. The first reading of the bill shall be dispensed with. All points of order against consideration of the bill are waived. General debate shall be confined to the bill and shall not exceed one hour equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Appropriations. After general debate the bill shall be
