Wednesday, September 7, 2005

Ms. HART. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate Bill Straub and Debra Meade for their many years of hard work and support toward the game of shooting, throughout the entire State of Pennsylvania.

Bill and Debra have dedicated themselves to the game of shooting by holding several positions at the Pennsylvania Skeet Shooting Association (PSSA). Currently, Bill is the Shoot Manager of the PA State Skeet Championships and Debbie holds the office of Secretary/Treasurer at the PSSA.

The pair has also been very active in the National Skeet Shooting Association, both serving as Directors. Bill and Debra have left their mark on the sport in their own right. Bill has been named to the All American Skeet and PA State Skeet Teams, as well as earning an induction into the PA Skeet Shooting Association's Hall of Fame. Debra, who has shot nearly 100,000 skeet targets, has garnered numerous accolades and Lady Championship Victories throughout her career.

CONGRATULATING THE ORANGE LITTLE LEAGUE SOFTBALL TEAM ON THEIR TRIP TO THE 2005 LITTLE LEAGUE SOFTBALL WORLD SERIES

HON. ROSA L. DeLAURO

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 7, 2005

Ms. DeLAURO. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pride and my sincere congratulations that I rise today to join the community of Orange, Connecticut to celebrate the achievements of the Orange Little League All-Star Softball Team. The team and their coaches recently returned from Portland, Oregon where they went to the Championship game in the 2005 Little League Softball World Series. Though they did not win their final game, they represented Orange and the State of Connecticut well and I am honored to have this opportunity to extend my sincere congratulations to them for this wonderful effort!

The Orange All-Star Softball Team, made up of eleven- and twelve-year-old girls, were undefeated and won the State Championship for the opportunity to play in the World Series. Throughout their regular season, the girls not only defeated every challenger they faced, but, more importantly, they learned one of life's most valuable lessons—teamwork. Softball, like all sports, teaches us the value of teamwork, practice, camaraderie, and commitment to excellence. These skills will serve these young people well as they begin to make a difference in the world. Working together, they have already accomplished so much. I have no doubt that each of these young women will enjoy great success in all of their future endeavors.

At only eleven and twelve years old, each of these girls has demonstrated remarkable talent and a unique passion for the game. However, it has been under the guidance of their coaches that their skills have been developed and sharpened. It is with great pleasure that I also recognize Ken Slowik and the entire coaching staff—all of whom have worked hard to give these young people the chance to play! Without their efforts, the success of the Orange All-Stars would not be possible.

It was wonderful to see the Orange community come together in support of these young women and today's parade is yet another example of the excitement and enthusiasm that this community and its residents have shown the Orange Little League All-Star Softball Team. I am honored to stand with them today in extending my sincere congratulations to you for your outstanding team work and on your first-rate season. Win or lose, you have made us all proud!

TRIBUTE TO SPEAKIN' OUT WEEKLY NEWS

HON. ROBERT E. (BUD) CRAMER, JR.

OF ALABAMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 7, 2005

Mr. CRAMER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Speakin' Out Weekly News on its twenty-fifth anniversary.

Speakin' Out is published in my Congressional District and has become the longest running African-American owned newspaper in North Alabama and the Tennessee Valley.

Mr. Speaker, the story behind Speakin' Out is an inspiration to entrepreneurs in Alabama and across the country. In 1980, my friend William Smothers published the first issue of Speakin' Out. It was published on his kitchen table in the City of Decatur with a meager budget of $800.

Speakin' Out quickly grew from its humble beginnings. It soon moved out of the kitchen and into its first office located on the corner of Lee and Bank Street in Decatur, changing its format from a magazine to a tabloid newspaper.

In 1983, Speakin' Out News merged with The Weekly News, published by Professor L.C. Jamar, Sr., and changed the company name to Speakin' Out Weekly News. Following the merger, Speakin' Out Weekly News relocated its office to Huntsville, Ala. The format was again changed from a tabloid to a broad sheet newspaper and remains so today.

From its inception, Speakin' Out covered politics, the arts, business, and health issues. The editorial content was geared toward the African American community. Its unique opinions and balanced reporting has helped attract a large subscriber base. In fact, the newspaper currently boasts a weekly readership in excess of 80,000.

Furthermore, Speakin' Out has established itself as a community partner in North Alabama. It hosts and sponsors numerous events each year. Speakin' Out has also established the North Alabama Journalism Center, its non-profit entity, serving as an educational and professional haven for students with an interest in communications. The center collaborates with surrounding colleges and universities to provide a venue for students to gain practical instruction. The center also offers an after school tutorial program, Starting Smarter, for students K-12.

Mr. Speaker, Speakin' Out Weekly News has given a voice to African-Americans in my community and has established itself as a reliable source of community events, news, and opinions. I appreciate the publication's impartial reporting, the hard work of its reporters, and its strong commitment to our community.

Mr. Speaker, over the weekend of August 13th and 14th, Speakin' Out held a community wide celebration in honor of its silver anniversary. I rise today to join them in their celebration and to congratulate them on this exciting milestone.

Mr. CARDOZA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the contributions of my friend Jim Brazelton, who recently retired from his position as Stanislaus County District Attorney.

Jim began his career as a military policeman assigned to the White House Security Detail. In 1963, he joined the City of Bakersfield Police Department where he served as a patrolman, motorcycle officer and detective. Five years later, Jim accepted a position with the City of Orange's police department where he worked his way through the ranks of patrolman, detective, watch commander, SWAT Commander and Sergeant. the felony trial division. As Senior Deputy District Attorney, he was responsible for the prosecution of many high-profile homicide cases. In January of 1993, Jim was named Chief Deputy District Attorney for the Felony Superior Court Division. In August of 1995, he was named Chief Deputy District Attorney of Administration.

In March 1996, Jim was appointed by the Stanislaus County Supervisors to fill the unexpired term of the retiring District Attorney. District Attorney Brazelton ran unopposed in the 1998 and 2002 elections.

In addition to his duties as District Attorney, Jim is a member of the local Police Officer's Association, where he has served both on the board and as president, as well as the Stanislaus County Association of Law Enforcement Executives where he served as president in 2000. In 2001, he was appointed by State Attorney General Bill Lockyer to serve on his Blue Ribbon SWAT Team Practices Commission. He has served as a member of the Board of Directors for the California District Attorneys Association, was on their Capital Litigation Committee for several years, and often lectures at their conferences.

For the past several years, Jim has been an active and valued member of several worthwhile community organizations. He was an Executive Board member of Fight Crime-Invest in Kids and is on the board of the Carol Sund/Carrington Memorial Reward Foundation.

District Attorney James Brazelton has been dedicated to public safety and service for more than 40 years. For the past 20 years, he has vigorously and effectively sought to protect the citizens of Stanislaus County and to ensure justice for the victims of crime. I ask my colleagues in the House to join me in thanking Mr. Brazelton for his dedicated service to the public and wish him the very best in the years to come.
