

RECOGNIZING THE RANCHO BUENA VISTA LITTLE LEAGUE ALL STAR TEAM AND THEIR COACHES

HON. DARRELL E. ISSA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 8, 2005

Mr. ISSA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in recognition of the Rancho Buena Vista Little League all star team and their coaches. I want to congratulate them on an outstanding performance at the recent Little League World Series in Williamsport, Pennsylvania.

I want to recognize Manager Marty Miller and Coaches Joe Pimentel and Randy Reznicek, whose years of service to the community through Little League Baseball at Rancho Buena Vista have inspired many young athletes throughout our community. It is through the dedication, strength of character, and devotion of men like Marty, Joe and Randy that these young men have flourished, not only in athletic skill but in character.

The Rancho Buena Vista Little League team won 25 of the 26 games they played last season and made it to the United States Championship game. They displayed exemplary sportsmanship throughout both the regular season and during the Little League World Series. From the first pitch of the season to the Little League World Series finals, they played the game with dignity and won our respect in the process.

Unquestionably, the players on the Rancho Buena Vista Little League team are not only exceptional athletes but also exceptional young men. They played with resolve and focus in the face of spirited competition and I am proud to be their Representative, and to stand in their honor today, Mr. Speaker. Their accomplishments serve as an example of the positive impact that Little League baseball has on its young participants.

Once again I would like to congratulate the players on the Rancho Buena Vista Little League Team—Royce Copeland, Daniel Gibney, Danny Vivier, Johnny Lee, Josh Gomez, Aaron Kim, Kalen Pimentel, Austin White, Dylan de Meyer, Ryan Gura, Nathan Lewis, Reed Reznicek and their coaches—on their remarkable achievement. I call upon my colleagues to join me in applauding these young men for their exceptional accomplishments and continued success.

HONORING THE JACKSON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA ASSOCIATION FOR 55 YEARS OF EXCELLENCE IN THE PERFORMING ARTS AND DEDICATION TO THE JACKSON COMMUNITY

HON. JOHN J.H. "JOE" SCHWARZ

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 8, 2005

Mr. SCHWARZ of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the Jackson Symphony Orchestra Association for 55 years of beautiful music and a commitment to community service in Jackson County. I commend the Jackson Symphony Orchestra for both its high quality performing arts programs and its outreach to the community through concerts, music education, and partnerships with area educators and community service providers.

For more than five decades, the Jackson Symphony Orchestra has brought outstanding artists and a wide variety of music venues to Jackson audiences. Over the years, there have been numerous world premieres; performances in ballet, opera, and jazz; and an emphasis on works by 20th century composers.

The Jackson Symphony Orchestra Association champions the arts through music education. It operates a community music school that provides private instruction on all orchestral instruments, early childhood music classes, home school orchestras, a string academy, and after-school string instruction for children at risk. The Jackson Symphony Orchestra educational programming directly reaches over 1,500 young people each year and reaches an additional 4,000 families each year through family concerts, in-school performances, and special events.

Beyond the concert stage, the Jackson Symphony Orchestra, through its presence in the community, has created an environment that has contributed to the development of many local arts organizations. These include the Jackson Chorale, the Michigan Shakespeare Festival, and the Jackson Youth Symphony. The presence of the Jackson Symphony Orchestra is also regularly credited as a factor in attracting new business and key employees into the community.

On behalf of the United States Congress, I am proud to honor the Jackson Symphony Orchestra for its 55 years of dedication in the performing arts, as well as to the community. I commend their use of innovative programs which has provided musical education for the Jackson community. I expect the Jackson Symphony Orchestra to continue their path of excellence for years into the future.

CONGRATULATIONS TO CHRISTOPHER V. SEXTON, RECIPIENT OF THE PRESIDENTIAL FREEDOM SCHOLARSHIP

HON. MICHAEL C. BURGESS

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 8, 2005

Mr. BURGESS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the superior academic performance of Christopher V. Sexton, a recipient of this year's Presidential Freedom Scholarship. Thirteen students in the 26th Congressional District are receiving this special recognition.

This award recognizes outstanding service and citizenship initiatives by the students, who were nominated, and provides an opportunity to acknowledge their leadership. Administered by Learn and Serve America, the scholarship provides $500 in Federal funds, matched with $500 from a community organization or business obtained for the student by their high school or Boys and Girls Club. Winners must have completed at least 100 hours of community service, either through a school-based service-learning program or independently through service at a nonprofit or faith-based organization.

Christopher is a member of the Boys and Girls Club of Greater Fort Worth—Panther

Branch. The organization graciously matched the federally funding with a $500 contribution.

Over 38,000 students to date have received this award and I extend my sincere congratulations to Christopher V. Sexton for being one of them. This student's contribution and services should serve as inspiration to those who wish to make a positive difference in the lives of others.

FREEDOM FOR JULIO CÉSAR
LÓPEZ RODRÍGUEZ

HON. LINCOLN DIAZ-BALART

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 8, 2005

Mr. LINCOLN DIAZ-BALART of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to speak about Julio César López Rodríguez, a political prisoner in totalitarian Cuba.

Mr. López Rodríguez is an independent librarian and pro-democracy activist in totalitarian Cuba. According to Human Rights First, Mr. López Rodríguez is Vice President of the Frente Línea Dura movement and Director of its independent library. He is a longtime activist for democratic change.

Independent librarians in Cuba, such as Mr. López Rodríguez, provide the indispensable service of circulating truth at a time when the tyrannical regime provides only propaganda. These heroic librarians circulate important works, including literature written by authors such as George Orwell, Václav Havel, and Dr. Martin Luther King, whose works are among the classics of anti-totalitarian literature.

As part of the tyrant's heinous July 2005 crackdown on peaceful pro-democracy opponents, on 22 July, Mr. López Rodríguez was arrested as he tried to participate in a peaceful demonstration outside the French Embassy in Havana, demanding the release of political prisoners in Cuba. As part of this vicious crackdown, approximately 30 brave opponents were arrested at home, on their way to the demonstration or on the sidelines of the gathering.

Mr. López Rodríguez is currently languishing in an abhorrent, inhuman cell in the totalitarian gulag. The State Department reports that police and prison officials beat, neglect, isolate, and deny medical treatment to detainees and prisoners, including those convicted of political crimes. It is a crime of the highest order that people who work for freedom are imprisoned in these nightmarish conditions.

Despite the regime's constant gangster style repression, freedom and democracy are on the march in Cuba. Courageous leaders like Mr. López Rodríguez defy the dictator's machinery of repression and, despite every threat and obstacle, demand liberty for the people of Cuba. Through their bravery, through their actions, and because of their unwavering commitment, and the works of thousands of other Cuban patriots, Cuba will be free again.

Mr. Speaker, it is completely unacceptable that, while the world stands by in silence, Mr. López Rodríguez languishes in the gulag because of his belief in freedom, democracy, human rights and the rule of law. My colleagues, we must demand the immediate and unconditional release of Julio César López Rodríguez and every political prisoner in totalitarian Cuba.

A TRIBUTE TO REVEREND RALPH
E. BLANKS

HON. ROBERT A. BRADY

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 8, 2005

Mr. BRADY of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Reverend Ralph E. Blanks for his installation to the Superintendence of the Central District. An inspirational member of our community and roll model to all, Reverend Blanks has served as the Senior Pastor of Janes Memorial United Methodist Church since July of 2001. Prior, Reverend Blanks served for more than 15 years as the Pastor of Mother African Zoar United Methodist Church—the Mother Church for African Americans in the United Methodistism.

Beyond his church ministry, Reverend Blanks also serves in leadership positions in several prestigious faith-based organizations. He is currently Chair of the United Methodist Metro Ministries of Eastern Pennsylvania Conference and Chair of the Resource Development Committee of the African American Interdenominational Ministries, Inc.

His religious involvement in the community is not the only extent to which Reverend Blanks gives so generously to others. He is also a current Mayoral appointee to the School District of Philadelphia Board and Chair of the City of Philadelphia's Fair Housing Commission. Among other honors, he serves as the Vice Chair of the North Philadelphia Health System, Chair of the Patient Services Committee of St. Joseph's Hospital and several community boards including the Korean Community Development Service Center and Greater Philadelphia Health Action, Inc.

Among the many awards given to Reverend Blanks, the Community Spirit Award from the African American Interdenominational Ministries; the Presidents award from the Black Clergy of Philadelphia and Vicinity; the Human Rights Award from the Philadelphia Commission on Human Relations; the Preacher of the Year Award by the Black United Methodist Preachers; the Outstanding Service to Community and Church Award from the City Council of Philadelphia; and the Liberty Bell Award from the City of Philadelphia.

I ask that you and my distinguished colleagues join me in congratulating Reverend Ralph E. Blanks, for his lifetime of service and dedicated commitment to the community, on his installation to the Superintendence of the Central District.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. JO ANN EMERSON

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 8, 2005

Mrs. EMERSON. Mr. Speaker, earlier this week I accompanied constituents of mine from West Plains, Missouri, as they delivered supplies to the people that have been affected by Hurricane Katrina. As a result I missed rollcall votes Nos. 454, 455, 456, 457, 458, and 459 on September 6, 7, and 8, 2005. Had I been present, I would have voted "yes" on all of the aforementioned rollcall votes.

TAIWAN PRESIDENT CHEN
SHUI-BIAN

HON. DAN BURTON

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 8, 2005

Mr. BURTON of Indiana. Mr. Speaker, today I rise to pay tribute to Taiwan President Chen Shui-bian. In late September he will be making a brief stop in Miami en route to Central America and later staying overnight in San Francisco on his way back to Taiwan. During his stopovers in Miami and San Francisco, I am hopeful that a few of my colleagues will have a chance to visit with him, and—more importantly—exchange views on Taiwan's future, Taiwan's relations with China and the United States, and Taiwan's bid to re-enter the United Nations.

In the last five years, President Chen has shown strong leadership in guiding his people through turbulent times. Despite worldwide financial challenges, Taiwan's economy has continued to grow and despite pressures from Taiwan's opposition leaders, Taiwan has been faithful to its route of constitutional reform and full democratization. Today, Taiwan continues to be a beacon of prosperity and freedom throughout Asia. Taiwan's 23 million people enjoy high standards of living and full rights of freedom and liberty.

President Chen has been deft in handling cross-strait relations. Despite China's passage of the anti-secession law last spring, China's positioning of 700 missiles along Taiwan's coast and China's many other unfriendly acts toward Taiwan, President Chen has insisted on a peaceful solution to the Taiwan issue and an early resumption of talks between himself and other Chinese leaders. President Chen fully understands that peace and stability within the Taiwan Strait are in global community's best interest.

As for Taiwan's relations with the United States, we have strong trade and cultural relations with Taiwan. Taiwan is one of our largest trading partners and cultural exchanges between our two countries are vibrant. Moreover, we are committed to defending Taiwan under the framework of the Taiwan Relations Act, and we are fully committed to a peaceful solution of the Taiwan issue—no military conflict should ever occur in the Taiwan Strait. Moreover, we appreciate Taiwan's full cooperation with us in combating terrorism, its monetary contributions to the Twin Towers Fund, Pentagon Memorial Fund and its offer of humanitarian assistance to victims of Hurricane Katrina.

It is regrettable that Taiwan has been excluded from many world organizations such as the World Health Organization and the United Nations. It has been a gross injustice to deny Taiwan's 23 million people their proper voice in the world. The United States should take more active steps in helping Taiwan re-enter the World Health Organization and the United Nations.

It is my hope that President Chen and the people of Taiwan will receive both proper and greater international attention as President Chen travels to Central America and hopefully to the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) forum in Busan, Korea, this November. The story of Taiwan, in the person of President Chen, needs to be told and heard around the world.

IN RECOGNITION OF THE TASK FORCE ON MENTORING OF MONT-
GOMERY COUNTY ON THE OCCA-SION OF ITS FOURTEENTH AN-NUAL CONFERENCE

HON. CHRIS VAN HOLLEN

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 8, 2005

Mr. VAN HOLLEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate The Task Force on Mentoring (TFM) of Montgomery County on the occasion of its fourteenth annual conference entitled "Saving Our Children—Compassionate Mentoring", which will be held on the Rockville campus of Johns Hopkins University on Thursday, October 6, 2005.

For more than fifteen years, the TFM has been a mainstay of support for at-risk youth in Montgomery County. It has been repeatedly recognized for the high quality mentoring programs it has implemented in partnership with many of our community's schools, civic organizations and, more recently, correctional facilities. Moreover, as if to underscore the spirit guiding its work, the TFM offers all of its recruitment assistance, training expertise and technical support free of charge.

Because of the Task Force on Mentoring of Montgomery County—and its legions of trained and dedicated volunteers—more and more of our youth are growing up to become active, positive participants in our community. They are making great plans to lead great lives.

Mr. Speaker, on the occasion of its fourteenth annual conference, I ask all of my colleagues to join me in saluting the Task Force on Mentoring of Montgomery County and in thanking the TFM for its consistent commitment to the children and youth of Montgomery County, Maryland.

A TRIBUTE TO JAMES EDWIN KUHN

HON. DUNCAN HUNTER

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 8, 2005

Mr. HUNTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor and pay tribute to the life and memory of a good friend and a great American, Mr. James Edwin Kuhn of El Centro, California. Jim died shortly after midnight on Monday, August 29, 2005, when his sports utility vehicle overturned on Evan Hewes Highway.

Those of us who knew Jim best remember a family man and an agricultural innovator who shared his passion for the outdoors. He is from a family of farmers that settled in Imperial Valley in the early years of the 20th century and helped build one of the strongest agricultural sectors in the country.

Jim was born April 21, 1964, spending much of his early childhood working on the family farm. In high school, he shined as a wrestler and a football player, demonstrating himself as a leader and making obvious his desire for success. Jim's father reinforced the importance of receiving a well-rounded college education, but also advised him to learn as much as he could about Imperial Valley, business, and agriculture. When he graduated
