IN HONOR OF THE 100TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE GREEN BAY EAST—GREEN BAY WEST HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL GAME

HON. MARK GREEN

OF WISCONSIN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 15, 2005

Mr. GREEN of Wisconsin. Mr. Speaker, today I would like to recognize Green Bay East and West High Schools as they prepare to celebrate their 100-year-old football rivalry this weekend.

The seed for this historic gridiron contest was planted a century ago, on November 30, 1905. Football fans from across the region came out in droves to support their teams, and their enthusiasm quickly spilled out into the surrounding communities. Now, one hundred years later, it is one of the most intense and emotional high school sporting events in the state of Wisconsin and the nation.

For many years the football game between East and West High School was the largest public event in the city, with only Green Bay Packer games drawing a larger crowd. The celebration in Green Bay this weekend is one of community and pride, where friends and family can come together to reflect on the traditions of school spirit, kinship and community.

Mr. Speaker, it's my pleasure to recognize this historic football game and pay tribute to the one hundred years of tradition surrounding it. On behalf of the residents of Wisconsin's 8th Congressional District, I say congratulations and best of luck to both teams this weekend!

CONGRATULATIONS TO MR. GEORGE MARTI

HON. CHET EDWARDS

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 15, 2005

Mr. EDWARDS. Mr. Speaker, George Wesley Marti was born in Oak Grove, Texas in southern Tarrant County, the son of John and Lula Bell Marti. Driven by the great influence of his grandmother and fascination with radio, George Marti had a vision and developed a business plan at the young age of thirteen that involved establishing a radio station in the city of Cleburne, Texas.

In 1937, three years after the original formulation of his business plan for a Cleburne radio station, George Marti earned his Radio Telephone 1st Class Operator's License and Amateur Radio License, at the age of sixteen. Entering the United States Marine Corps in 1942, George Marti later enrolled in the Radio Material School of the Naval Research Laboratory in Washington, DC. George Marti graduated from this training, in 1943, the first in his class, and proceeded to serve on the maiden voyage of the USS Freland, later taking command of the communications for Marine Air Group 13 in American Samoa.

After being discharged in 1945, George Marti realized his vision of opening a radio station in Cleburne, Texas, with the on air debut of KCLE in April of 1947. Marti Electronics began to manufacture full time the Marti Remote Pickup System of his own invention that allowed reporters to broadcast remotely for the first time without the installation of telephone wires. By 1994, "The Marti," was operating in more than 80 percent of the world's radio stations.

George Marti established the Marti Foundation in 1988 in order to provide college scholarships to students of Johnson County that could otherwise not afford to go to college. The Marti Foundation has provided 551 scholarships in its 17 year history, and is currently supporting over 100 students at this very moment. Marti Foundation scholarships enjoy a 95 percent graduation rate.

In addition to his many accomplishments as Mayor of the City of Cleburne, Texas from 1974 to 1986, George Marti has been named the National Association of Broadcasters' 1991 Engineer of the Year, in 2002 the first inductee to the International Charolais Association Hall of Fame, in 2002 the first inductee to the Texas Association of Broadcasters' Hall of Fame.

George Marti continues a long history of service and devotion to his home of Johnson County, and is a most valued and regarded citizen of Cleburne, Texas.

I am proud to call George Marti my friend.

MARKING THE 100 YEAR CELEBRATION OF THE CITY OF AMMON, IDAHO

HON. MICHAEL K. SIMPSON

OF IDAHO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 15, 2005

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to join with the community of Ammon, Idaho, in celebrating the city's 100th anniversary. This important milestone has been reached through the hard work and tenacity of the early settlers as well as the vision and spirit of today's citizens.

The City of Ammon is located to the east of the City of Idaho Falls in Bonneville County. It is one of east Idaho's fastest growing communities. Early settlers would hardly recognize the flourishing business district and the numerous residential developments. The population of Ammon now exceeds 10,000, with a median age of only 28 years for its residents. Many young families are enjoying the ambience of a small town as well as the convenience of living within a few miles of a large metropolitan center. Their enthusiasm and willingness to volunteer time and energy are helping the community to grow and prosper. A multitude of new businesses are joining the older more established ones of Ammon's early years to develop a vibrant, thriving economy.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to congratulate all those who have been involved in the "100 year celebration of the City of Ammon". I know many of the citizens of Ammon and have enjoyed their friendship over the years. I have worked with Mayor Ard on projects to better the City of Ammon, and I wish him and all the members of the community well as they begin an exciting second hundred years.

IN HONOR OF THE LIFE OF DR.
VANG POBZEB

HON. MARK GREEN

OF WISCONSIN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 15, 2005

Mr. GREEN of Wisconsin. Mr. Speaker, today I would like to commemorate the life of Dr. Yang Pobzeb, an extraordinary man who recently passed away on August 23, 2005 after a life of passionate service to human rights and Hmong people across the globe.

Dr. Pobzeb began his activism in the mid-1970s and was among the first to achieve national recognition in the Hmong American Community. In 1987 he founded the Lao Human Rights Council—an organization devoted to improving the living conditions of Hmong people both in Laos and the U.S. Dr. Pobzeb was a tireless advocate for a people and culture that faced tremendous persecution, and he took every opportunity to remind the international community of the plight of the Hmong people in Laos. I was proud to work together with him, time and time again, in this fight.

Mr. Speaker, it is my distinct honor to commemorate the life of such an incredible man. Dr. Pobzeb was truly an exemplar of compassion and dedication, and on behalf of the citizens of Wisconsin's Eighth Congressional District, I offer my condolences to his family, and pay tribute to his life of activism and sacrifice.

A TRIBUTE TO ROSEMARY
CHILDREN'S SERVICES

HON. ADAM B. SCHIFF

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 15, 2005

Mr. SCHIFF. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Rosemary Children's Services of Pasadena, CA, upon its 80th anniversary.

In 1920, Mrs. Emma Spear and the women of the Pasadena Shakespeare Club established a shelter program for abused, neglected or abandoned teenage girls in Pasadena, because the only alternative at that time was juvenile hall. Rosemary Cottage opened in April of 1920 and could house 10 girls and a housemother. Their name came from William Shakespeare's "Hamlet" "There's Rosemary, that's for remembrance; pray you, love, remember."

In 1928, a new "Cottage" was built and made available to 19 teenage girls. In the 1940s, Rosemary Cottage introduced treatment services, improved their property and hired social workers to meet the United Way standards. Rosemary's group home program was launched in 1967 by the generous donation of a home from Robert Romberger. The group homes program was the first step in teaching independent living skills to teenage girls in placement situations. Since then, three other group homes have been acquired and can house up to 43 at-risk girls.

Rosemary Children's Services help hundreds of children of all ages. Along with their excellent residential program, they provide foster care to nearly 400 girls and boys in Southern California, many of whom have been the victims of neglect, sexual, or physical abuse. They sponsor a school that provides specialized education in a small structured environment and their mental health program includes out-patient services for teenage girls, individual and group therapy, exercise programs, artistic activities and training in various life skills.

I am greatly honored to recognize Rosemary Children's Services for its 80 years of loving care and support to countless children in our community, and I ask all Members to join me in congratulating Rosemary Children's Services for their remarkable achievements.

COMMENDING THE GENEROSITY OF GALENA PARK,
CHANNELVIEW, AND SHELDON
ISD

HON. GENE GREEN

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 15, 2005

Mr. GENE GREEN of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to commend the generosity three school districts in our Congressional District have shown to our neighbors in Mississippi.

Galena Park ISD, Channelview ISD, and Sheldon ISD have united and adopted Pascagoula public schools in Mississippi. Twenty-three Galena Park Schools, eleven Channelview Schools and seven Sheldon ISD schools are collecting donations to provide school supplies clothing and other necessities to students in Pascagoula.

Pascagoula serves almost 9,000 students at 16 campuses. Reports indicate that two schools were completely destroyed by Hurricane Katrina. The rest of the Pascagoula campuses sustained severe roof and window damage.

In addition to sending badly needed resources to Pascagoula, Galena Park, Channelview and Sheldon ISD have also enrolled hundreds of students from Louisiana and Mississippi.

I'd like to thank the leadership and staff at these three school districts for opening their doors to the children who have been affected by Katrina. I wish the best to our neighbors in Mississippi, Louisiana and Alabama as they rebuild their lives.

TRIBUTE TO MS. REEVES DIXON

HON. JOSÉ E. SERRANO

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 15, 2005

Mr. SERRANO. Mr. Speaker, it is with deep sympathy that I rise today to give a final goodbye to a wonderful woman who dedicated her life to helping others live well. Ms. Reeves Dixon passed away on September 2, 2005. She was a fine woman and will be sorely missed by all who knew her.

This daughter of the Bronx life's resume is long and impressive but I want to take a moment to highlight the important contributions she made to the people of my community.

Since 1980 Reeves worked with the 163rd Street Improvement Council, serving first as the Assistant Executive Director and later as its President and CEO. As CEO of the 163rd Street Improvement Council Reeves pushed the organization to plan, design, develop and implement affordable housing and support services that focused on meeting the housing and human services needs of the residents of the Southeast Bronx.

Most of the Council's clients have incomes below the median level. In an effort to help empower these low income families the council offers an integrated program which provides quality and affordable housing through
