Mr. CUELLAR. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the important contributions of San Marcos City Councilman John Thomaides, of my Congressional District.

In 2003 John Thomaides was elected to San Marcos City Council. Mr. Thomaides was chosen to represent the Council on the Convention and Visitors Bureau Board of Directors. He has been active in city affairs since he came to San Marcos ten years ago. John has served on the City's Drainage Advisory Board, the Citizen Review Commission, and as chair to the Transportation Advisory Board.

After arriving in San Marcos John opened Alpha Pure Water Company, and has quickly become a leader in business and community organizations. In January 2003 the Area Chamber of Commerce awarded him "Small Business Person of the Quarter" and in October 2003 he was honored again with "Small Business Person of the Year."

John Thomaides has consistently worked to improve the quality of life for his constituents, and is a 2003 graduate of the Leadership Academy of Public Service. He has served as president of the San Marcos Tennis Association, and as Ambassador for the Area Chamber of Commerce.

A TRIBUTE TO ADELE ANDRADE-STADLER, 29TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT WOMAN OF THE YEAR—2005

HON. ADAM B. SCHIFF

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 17, 2005

Mr. SCHIFF. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in honor of Women's History Month. Each year, we pay special tribute to the contributions and sacrifices made by our nation's women during the month of March. It is an honor to pay homage to outstanding women who are making a difference in my Congressional District.

I would like to recognize an outstanding woman in my Congressional District, the Honorable Adele Andrade-Stadler. For many years, Adele has brought an abounding spirit and energy to her service in the community. Those fortunate enough to meet and work with Adele instantly recognize her enthusiasm and commitment to education and children.

A native of Southern California, Adele was raised in Monterey Park. She attended Alhambra public schools, graduated from East Los Angeles College and attended California State University, Los Angeles. While attending college she worked part time for the Los Angeles Unified School District as a bi-lingual instructional aide. She also studied early childhood development at Pacific Oaks College in Pasadena.

Adele was the Director of the Foothill Developmental School, a non-profit pre-school that provided special services for disabled and non-disabled children in Monrovia, California. During the 1990s, she developed and implemented a curriculum for the Union Bank Child Care Center, one of the first centers in the San Gabriel Valley area to provide on-site childcare to its employees. In 1999, Adele became a Field Representative for then State Senator HILDA SOLIS, continuing on as a Field Representative and Caseworker, then District Director for Congresswoman SOLIS. In that capacity, Adele advocated for children, families, women, immigrants, senior citizens, veterans, and other constituents that needed federal assistance.

Ms. Andrade-Stadler's volunteer record in education is truly impressive. She has been in the Alhambra Parent Teacher Association (PTA) for nearly ten years, serving as PTA Council President. She has volunteered in the Alhambra Unified School District, at the Methodist Cooperative Preschool, and has been a long-time Sierra Club member and volunteer. Adele was a key organizer for the Alhambra School Bond Measures A and AA and led and coordinated the School Traffic Safety Plan at Fremont Elementary School. Currently, she is an advisor to the School Site Title I Council and Chair of the Traffic Commission for the City of Alhambra. In 2004, Adele was elected to the Alhambra Unified School Board.

I ask all Members to join me today in honoring an outstanding woman of California's 29th Congressional District, Adele Andrade-Stadler. The entire community joins me in thanking Adele for her success and continued efforts toward making the 29th Congressional District a more enjoyable place in which to live and work.

REMEMBERING THE LIFE OF JACK
HOLMES THOMAS

HON. CHARLES W. "CHIP" PICKERING

OF MISSISSIPPI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 17, 2005

Mr. PICKERING. Mr. Speaker, on March 11, Jack Holmes Thomas Sr. passed away after a short battle with acute leukemia at age 80. Jack was a man of God who served his family, community and country honorably and with distinction and I take this opportunity to remember his life.

Born on January 10, 1925 in Natchez, Mississippi, Jack was the husband of Helen Putt Thomas and the father of two sons: Jack H. Thomas Jr. and Robert Bryan Thomas. He had five grandchildren: Chris, Mallory, Chase, Tiffany and Heather.

Jack was part of "the greatest generation" and served in the US Marine Corps in World War II where he earned the Purple Heart. He graduated from Mississippi State University in 1951 with a bachelor of science in agricultural education and served the US Department of Agriculture for thirty-three years before retiring.

Jack was a past president of the Mississippi Federation of the National Association of Retired Federal Employees, an active life member of the Elk Lodge, a past president of the Starkville Shriners Club, and a strong Mississippi State University supporter and avid Bulldog fan.

Jack was a faithful member and deacon of First Baptist Church of Starkville and taught Sunday school and discipleship training while in Oklahoma.

Mr. Speaker, Jack Thomas has long been a blessing to his family and friends, but one that was felt beyond those people in the community at large. We mourn his passing, but we celebrate his life.

DEEPENING OUR RELATIONS WITH KAZAKHSTAN

HON. EDOLPHUS TOWNS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 17, 2005

Mr. TOWNS. Mr. Speaker, the current situation in our world prompts the United States to seek and deepen relations with countries who share our principles and values, one such country is the Republic of Kazakhstan.

In the course of its development, Kazakhstan has achieved tremendous results despite some ups and downs. In fact, the people of Kazakhstan have gained long awaited freedom thirteen years ago and have chosen the right path consistently moving towards their ultimate goal of building a democratic and civil society with a strong market economy. The recent state of the nation address by President Nursultan Nazarbayev of Kazakhstan is strong proof of that.

I have read this document and must note that it is indeed a milestone for the country. It provides an outstanding description of the state and perspectives of the development of Kazakhstan's society. It is a comprehensive address which I kindly ask, Mr. Speaker, to submit to the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD for those of my colleagues who follow the development of this young and promising country. Let me mention a few highlights.

It is amazing how this country, which for many years existed under a totalitarian regime without any idea of market reforms has managed to achieve tremendous results in a very short period. Average income has grown almost fivefold during the last ten years, monthly salaries have increased by about 6 times, the minimum wage has gone up 25 times, average monthly pensions have increased by 4.6 times, and personal and average per capita bank deposits by 35 and 37 times. Compared to 2003, state expenditures on guaranteed free health care have risen 1.7 times. The most impressive part of the message is the massive social component of the Kazakh leader's program aimed at significant improvement of wellbeing of all levels of society, especially the poor, elderly, disabled and children.

The President's annual address also reflects the desire of a young nation to become a bulwark of democracy in a vitally important region. Since gaining independence from the Soviet Union in 1991, Kazakhstan has become a leader in promoting political and democratic transformations in the post Soviet states. Most importantly, Kazakhstan is not going to stop half way to this goal, but is eager to deepen this process based on Western standards of democracy. I support President Nazarbayev's initiative to create a National Program of Political Reforms in which the key player will be the people. I strongly believe that the evolution of Kazakh society inevitably will lead to a triumph of democracy. It is dictated by the will and aspirations of the people. I also agree with President Nazarbayev when he said that today "Kazakhstan is regarded in the world as a regional power possessing a strong economy and a solid position in the international community".

I congratulate the people and the Government of Kazakhstan for their achievements and am sincerely happy for them.

I am very glad that the United States has been instrumental in aiding the development of Kazakhstan. Our bilateral relations have gained the status of a strategic partnership. I am absolutely convinced successful cooperation between the U.S. and Kazakhstan is the cornerstone of stability in a crucial region and it is in the interest of both our countries and the world as a whole.

Today, it is vital for America to demonstrate its gratitude to the people of Kazakhstan who stood side by side with us after 9/11 and is today living up to its commitment in helping to build a free Iraq. I urge my colleagues and the administration to render them assistance and support their endeavors to be among the truly democratic countries of the world.

CONGRATULATING MRS. MARIETTA MURRAY URQUHART ON RECEIPT OF THE MOBILE CITY COUNCIL OF BETA SIGMA PI INTERNATIONAL SORORITY'S 2004 "FIRST LADY OF THE YEAR" AWARD

HON. JO BONNER

OF ALABAMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 17, 2005

Mr. BONNER. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pride and pleasure that I rise to honor Mrs. Marietta Murray Urquhart on the occasion of her being honored by the Mobile City Council of Beta Sigma Pi International Sorority with the organization's 2004 "First Lady of the Year" Award.

Beta Sigma Pi International Sorority was founded in 1931 for the purpose of providing women with opportunities for community service and as an outlet for cultural and social activities. Seven local chapters of the organization are currently active in Mobile, and since 1945 one woman has been selected each year for the "First Lady of the Year" Award. This honor is bestowed to an individual based on her contributions to the business, cultural, and civic life of the community.

Mrs. Urquhart has been a distinguished and active member of the Mobile, Alabama, community for over two decades. In 1982, she and her husband, Bill, chose to make Mobile their home upon Bill's completion of medical school and his residency. Almost immediately, she took a strong role in the life of her city, with special emphasis on issues involving children and education.

Over the next 22 years, she became extremely involved in several local organizations. She has served as president of the board of directors of Leadership Mobile and as a member of the board of Volunteer Mobile. Additionally, she was selected to serve as president for the St. Paul's Episcopal Church Women of the Church. Her strong interest in the development and growth of the Mobile community also led to her service on the board of directors for the Providence Hospital Foundation, the Providence Foundation Flower Show, and for the Maritime Museum and the Mobile Tricentennial Commission.

Mrs. Urquhart has also devoted a tremendous amount of time and effort to expanding opportunities for children in the Mobile community. She has served on the Mobile Advisory Board for the Department of Human Resources, and has been actively involved with the Salvation Army. As president for the Junior League of Mobile, she was committed to establishing wide-ranging community goals for children and worked extensively with the Mobile County School System, the United Way, and the Greater Mobile Area Chamber of Commerce. Finally, she served with distinction on the UMS-Wright Preparatory School Board of Trustees and was the first woman ever selected to chair that organization.

Finally, Mrs. Urquhart has served on the boards of the Medical Alliance of Mobile County, Mobile 2000, and the Alabama State Commission for Volunteer and National Service. Most recently, she was nominated to serve as a member of The University of Alabama Board of Trustees.

The nomination submitted by the Medical Society of Mobile County for this award included the following passage: "Our Nominee lives by the philosophy: 'Commitment is what transforms a promise into reality. Words speak boldly of intentions. Actions speak louder than words. It is making time when there is none. It is coming through time after time, year after year. Commitment is the stuff character is made of, the power to change the face of things. It is the daily triumph of integrity over skepticism.'" Over the years, I have seen Marietta put this philosophy into action time and again and make one significant and meaningful contribution after another for her community. Our city and our state are richer because of her work, and I am proud and honored to call her my friend.

Mr. Speaker, there are few individuals more dedicated or more committed to helping their communities than Marietta Murray Urquhart, and I would like to offer my congratulations on both the "First Lady of the Year" Award and for her many personal and professional achievements. I know her husband, Bill, and her many family and friends join with me in praising her accomplishments and extending thanks for her many efforts on behalf of Mobile and the state of Alabama.

Mr. CALVERT. Mr. Speaker, my congressional district in Riverside, California is extremely fortunate to have a dynamic and dedicated group of community leaders who willingly and unselfishly give of their time and talents to ensure the well-being of our city and county. These individuals work tirelessly to develop voluntary community action to improve the community's economy, its education, its environment and its overall quality of life. One individual, who is a member of this group, is Captain Ray Cota.

On the 19th of March, Ray will be honored with the Ira. D. "Cal" Calvert Distinguished Service Award by the Corona-Norco Family YMCA. The award is given in memory of my father, "Cal" Calvert, and his enumerable philanthropic gifts to the community and his efforts to encourage others to serve their community in a similar fashion. The award recognizes Ray for his exceptional devotion to developing community volunteerism.

Ray has been a police officer with the Corona Police Department for over 25 years. Throughout his career, he has been involved in the community and specifically with youth service organizations.
