PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Reverend Daniel P. Coughlin, offered the following prayer:

Lord God, giver of all good and lasting gifts, be with Your people today. Renew us in faith that by Your inspiration and bold holiness we may accomplish Your purpose for us in our day.

People of faith have laid the foundation of this democracy. May these same lasting values shape today both the private and public lives of all American citizens. Help Your people to focus on transcendent truths that will help them live and act as the free children of God, likely to reject any aspect of materialism or moral relativism that may undermine the common good of this Nation.

We humbly present ourselves and our needs to You, Almighty God, now and forever.

Amen.
