

straight definition, which, by the way, the Committee on Rules did correctly, but which the Committee on the Judiciary did not, does the gentleman know whether that is being corrected?

□ 2045

Mr. CANTOR. Mr. Speaker, I tell the gentleman from Maryland that the chairman of the Committee on the Judiciary takes a position that everything was done correctly and in order and is looking forward to a debate on the floor on the resolution late Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. HOYER. Late Tuesday afternoon?

Mr. CANTOR. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know how late that will be? Of course, votes will not be scheduled until 6:30, so most Members will not be back.

Mr. CANTOR. Mr. Speaker, I think we can work that out, but I believe around 5 or 5:30 the debate will take place.

Mr. HOYER. I appreciate that information, Mr. Speaker. I will certainly notify the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. CONYERS) and the gentleman from Virginia (Mr. SCOTT), one of the sponsors; the gentleman from New York (Mr. NADLER), another one of the sponsors; and the gentlewoman from Texas (Ms. JACKSON-LEE), another one of the sponsors. I regret that we need to go ahead with the issue of the privileges of the House. I will tell the gentleman I do not know that I have seen an amendment as mischaracterized as this amendment was, and I was hopeful that we could simply resolve it. But if that cannot be done, then we will have to have it subject to debate.

I thank the gentleman for his information.

Mr. CANTOR. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. HOYER. I yield to the gentleman from Virginia.

Mr. CANTOR. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding to me. I will tell the gentleman, again, that the chairman feels that all was in order and we will debate the question on the floor Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for that information.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE HONORABLE ROB PORTMAN

(Mr. CANTOR asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. CANTOR. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pride and a little bit of sorrow that I rise this evening to recognize the fact that this may very well be one of the last nights for one of our very esteemed colleagues to serve on the floor of this great House.

I have gotten to know the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. PORTMAN) over the last several years. I have had the privilege of serving with him on the Committee on Ways and Means and at the Republican leadership table. I do not believe that there is a finer or more dedicated public servant to serve in this House. There is no question that he has the respect of all of our colleagues on both sides of the aisle for his seriousness of purpose, for his understanding of the issues, and mastery of the legislative process. It will truly be a loss for us in the House, but we are also fortunate as Americans that the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. PORTMAN) will go on to serve this great country and serve our President hopefully in the very near future.

So it is with a bittersweet good-bye that I do say and congratulate the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. PORTMAN).

Mr. EHLERS. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. CANTOR. I yield to the gentleman from Michigan.

Mr. EHLERS. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding to me.

I would just like to add my voice, and I know the Chamber is not as full as it should be for this occasion, but I have served in public office for approximately 30 years. I am relatively quiet, but I do a lot of observation. And I have noticed over the years that there are some people who are simply very outstanding by making a lot of noise but not doing much.

The people I prefer, whom I have observed also, are those who do a great deal but do not make a lot of noise about it. And the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. PORTMAN) is in the latter category. I have watched him over the years I have been here. An outstanding person, very hard worker, always behind the scenes, not asking for credit or bragging about what he has done. This is what makes the government work. This is what made the House work. And I want to express my appreciation to the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. PORTMAN) and wish him the best of everything in his new position. I am sure he will do equally well in that position and will continue to serve this country well.

Mr. CANTOR. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Florida (Mr. FOLEY), another fellow member of the Committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. FOLEY. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding to me.

I too want to commend the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. PORTMAN), particularly his family for willingly sacrificing him both to the service in this Congress as well as the endeavor he is about to undertake.

The President chose wisely. The gentleman from Ohio (Mr. PORTMAN) has been one of the most intellectually honest, sincere members of our committee. He has tackled the tough issues. He has faced them head on. He comes from a very important State. He understands the dynamics of trade. It is good to have a friend at Trade. I am particularly delighted.

But I honestly and sincerely wish him God's blessing as he proceeds to help our Nation, strengthen our economy, deal with our allies, create new opportunities. We are blessed with the fact that when trade is done mutually and satisfactorily, we open up democracies. We change patterns of behavior. We bring down the walls of communism by opening the hearts, the minds, and the wallets of the oppressed.

So his job is significant, it is important, and he is not only suitable to the task, but he is genuinely one of the best representatives our President could have chosen. And I wish him God speed.

HONORING OUR SERVICEMEN AND WOMEN

(Mrs. BLACKBURN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. BLACKBURN. Madam Speaker, this has been quite a week here in the House. And I think that so many of my colleagues have noted how we hear from constituents about how feistily we come to the floor and how we debate and how we discuss the issues and the policies of the day and even tonight as we have stood to honor one of our colleagues who is taking on a new challenge. And I think it is so appropriate, Madam Speaker, that we recognize the fact that we do this because we are free. We are a free people. And we do it because we live in a Nation where men and women choose to sacrifice their lives, their time, their talent to preserve that freedom.

I noticed in the Washington Post today there is a great article about the Iraqi Army, now over 150,000 strong, being trained by American men and women in uniform who have chosen, who have chosen, to serve their Nation.

Madam Speaker, in Tennessee we have the 278th regiment that is on the Iraq-Iran border training many of these new Iraqi military men. And I want to honor them in their service and all of our men and women and say "thank you" and God speed for the good work they do in preserving freedom.

LET US PASS A BUDGET THAT WORKS FOR ALL OF AMERICA

(Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Madam Speaker, we had quite a trying week.

Many of us see things from a different perspective. I am hoping that we will be able to correct some of the flaws that we found in the debate this week. And particularly I thought it was important to reflect on what kind of budget was just passed in a very close vote, 211 to 214, clearly a divided Congress on whether or not this budget helps any of the Americans that we try to uplift.

This is a budget that cuts Medicaid by $10 billion. This is a budget that protects over $70 billion in tax cuts. This is a budget that will see many veterans hospitals and their services cut. One of the more moving experiences I had was to hear a veteran ask the question, "Do you not care?"

Are we not concerned about the veterans coming back, many of them traumatized, many of them amputees, many of them who have experienced other soldiers or veterans in Afghanistan or Iraq that committed suicide?

We have a chance to do this over again. This conference report, frankly, does not answer the concerns of the American people. I am glad to have voted no. I hope we find it in our hearts to really stand up for the American people who count and pass a budget in the future that works for all of America.

DAVID WILKINS NOMINATED
AMBASSADOR TO CANADA

(Mr. WILSON of South Carolina asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. WILSON of South Carolina. Madam Speaker, last night President Bush nominated his long time friend South Carolina Speaker of the House David Wilkins as America's new Ambassador to Canada. While I have mixed feelings of the loss of Speaker Wilkins from public service in South Carolina, I am thrilled he will now serve all Americans as the representative to our sister nation, which is America's largest trading partner in the world.

David Wilkins and his wife Susan are the perfect team to represent America. Susan is competent and gracious and will establish the Ambassador's residence as a center of warm, Southern hospitality.
