On rollcall No. 415, the Velázquez amendment to H.R. 3070, I would have voted “aye.”
 On rollcall No. 416, passage of H.R. 3070, I would have voted “aye.”
 On rollcall No. 417, passage of H.J. Res. 59, I would have voted “yea.”
 On rollcall No. 418, passage of H. Con. Res. 181, I would have voted “yea.”

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. HINOJOSA. Mr. Speaker, I regret that I was unavoidably detained. Had I been present, I would have voted “yea” on rollcall No. 417, “yea” on rollcall No. 418, and “yea” on rollcall No. 419.

□ 1923

So (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the resolution, as amended, was agreed to.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

The title of the resolution was amended so as to read: “Expressing the sense of the House of Representatives that the Federal Trade Commission should investigate the publication of the video game ‘Grand Theft Auto: San Andreas’ to determine if the publisher deceived the Entertainment Software Ratings Board to avoid an ‘Adults-Only’ rating.”

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. GUTIERREZ. Mr. Speaker, I was unavoidably absent from this Chamber today. I would like to the RECORD to show that, had I been present, I would have voted “yea” on rollcall votes 417, 418 and 419.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Ms. KILPATRICK of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, personal business prevents me from being present for legislative business scheduled for today, Monday, July 25, 2005. Had I been present, I would have voted “yea” on H.J. Res. 59, expressing the sense of Congress concerning the establishment of an appropriate day for the commemoration of the women suffragists who fought for and won the right of women to vote in the United States (rollcall No. 417); “yea” on H. Con. Res. 181, supporting the goals and ideals of National Life Insurance Awareness Month (rollcall No. 418); and “yea” on H.R. 2977, designating the “Abraham Lincoln Birthplace Post Office Building” (rollcall No. 419).

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. COOPER. Mr. Speaker, I was unable to be present for a series of rollcall votes occurring the morning of July 22, 2005. During that time I was attending a memorial service for my friend, Avon Williams III, held at the Pentagon. I was also unable to be present for a series of rollcall votes held on the evening of July 25, 2005. During that time I incurred an unavoidable transportation delay.

Had I been present, I would have voted as follows:

Abercrombie	Hastings (FL)	Paul
Berkley	Johnson, E. B.	Payne
Blumenauer	Jones (OH)	Serrano
Conyers	Lee	Stark
Flake	Lewis (GA)	Towns
Frank (MA)	McDermott	Velázquez
Grijalva	Owens	Woolsey

ILLEGAL IMMIGRATION AND THE REAL ID ACT

(Mrs. BLACKBURN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. BLACKBURN. Mr. Speaker, on Sunday the Chattanooga Times Free Press ran an op-ed that I wrote about the READ ID Act. They also ran an op-ed by a college professor who disagrees with the READ ID Act.

I want to thank the editors of that paper for being sure that both sides were represented on this issue. That is what every newspaper should strive for: equal time and let the readers decide.

As I pointed out in my op-ed, illegal immigration is clearly a matter of national security, and for too long States like Tennessee have known and done nothing about the ease with which illegal aliens are obtaining valid government IDs. I believe it is unacceptable. I think most Tennesseans agree with me.

When I was in the State Senate in Tennessee, I fought to fix the problem, and now I am pleased that Congress and this Republican leadership have supported the READ ID Act. We are taking critically important steps toward tightening our licensing and identification policies to fight illegal immigration and terrorism.

UNDOCUMENTED WORKERS

(Mr. KENNEDY of Rhode Island asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KENNEDY of Rhode Island. Mr. Speaker, I just want to respond to the previous speech, and that is to say I wish that we would call people “undocumented workers.” I do not think it is too much to call people “undocumented workers” because that is who they are. Many times people are working hard in our communities, with families, who are trying to get their families food at night, a place for them to sleep.

To call them aliens, I think, is degrading to them, and I think it is unfitting for this country to refer to people in that
