ORDERS FOR TUESDAY, MARCH 1, 2005

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it adjourn until 9:45 a.m. on Tuesday, March 1. I further ask that following the prayer and pledge, the morning hour be deemed expired, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, the time for the two leaders be reserved, and the Senate then proceed to a period for morning business for 1 hour, with the first 30 minutes under the control of the majority leader or his designee, and the second 30 minutes under the control of the Democratic leader or his designee, and that the Senate then resume consideration of S. 256, the Bankruptcy Reform Act. I further ask consent that at 12:30 p.m., the Senate recess until 2:15 p.m. for the weekly party luncheons.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, tomorrow, the Senate will resume consideration of the bankruptcy bill. Today we were able to accommodate several opening statements on the bill, and I hope that we can make real progress in the amendment process tomorrow. We anticipate that amendments will be offered prior to the policy luncheon recess. However, as I mentioned earlier today, I do not anticipate a vote on any amendment until after the policy luncheons. Again, I encourage all Members who may have amendments to the bill to contact the cloakrooms.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The minority leader.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, at approximately 11 o'clock tomorrow, when we finish morning business, Senator DURBIN will be here to offer the first amendment. We have had good opening statements by the two managers of the bill. I do not know if Senator HATCH will be managing the bill or Senator SPECTER. It was good to see him here. A long statement by Senator LEAHY, the ranking member of the committee, was given today.

We are going to start offering amendments, and if people want to make statements, there will be time during this bill—there will be quorum calls and they will be able to do that. We are going to try to limit those as much as we can and move forward. Senator DURBIN's amendment will be one relative to bankruptcy.

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, in terms of scheduling a vote—we will have more information on that tomorrow—again, it will be after the policy luncheon on the first amendment.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 9:45 A.M. TOMORROW

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 4:37 p.m., adjourned until Tuesday, March 1, 2005, at 9:45 a.m.
