Whereas the health and well-being of the family is crucial to the functioning of the Nation and to providing adults and youth with the necessary skills and knowledge to help them achieve the best quality of life possible;

Whereas psychologically, socially, and emotionally strong families provide strength for future generations;

Whereas Extension is a nationwide educational network through the land-grant universities, funded cooperatively through the Department of Agriculture, State governments, and local county, city, and parish governments;

Whereas Extension provides non-biased, research-based information through informal education to help adults, youth, families, farms, businesses, and communities;

Whereas Extension education programs are developed at the grassroots level to meet local needs, and are available in nearly every county and parish in the United States and its territories, from the biggest to the smallest;

Whereas information offered by Extension is provided by scientists and researchers at land-grant universities, and is made practical and relevant by Extension educators working at the local level;

Whereas Extension Family and Consumer Sciences educators are advocates for education for families so that the families might gain skills for a full and productive life; and

Whereas the designation of the second week of March 2005 as "Extension Living Well Week" is a fitting tribute to the National Extension Association for Family and Consumer Sciences professionals who provide education that is critical to the quality of life of adults, youth, individuals, and families, including food preparation, food safety, nutrition, financial management, healthy lifestyles, home and work environment and safety, relationship and parenting skills, and much more: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate—

(1) designates the second week of March 2005 as "Extension Living Well Week";

(2) encourages the people of the United States to take advantage of the educational opportunities that Extension Family and

Consumer Sciences educators provide, education that can help them in raising kids, eating right, spending smart, and living well; and

(3) encourages the people of the United States to conduct appropriate ceremonies, activities, and programs to demonstrate support for Extension Family and Consumer Sciences educators as they teach adults and youth and promote optimum health and wellness of families in the United States through the "Living Well" campaign.

Whereas reading is a basic requirement for quality education and professional success, and is a source of pleasure throughout life;

Whereas the people of the United States must be able to read if the United States is to remain competitive in the global economy;

Whereas Congress, through the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 (Public Law 107-110) and the Reading First, Early Reading First, and Improving Literacy Through School Libraries programs, has placed great emphasis on reading intervention and providing additional resources for reading assistance; and

Whereas more than 40 national associations concerned about reading and education have joined with the National Education Association to use March 2, the anniversary of the birth of Theodor Geisel, also known as Dr. Seuss, to celebrate reading: Now, therefore, be it

ORDERS FOR TUESDAY, MARCH 1, 2005

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it adjourn until 9:45 a.m. on Tuesday, March 1. I further ask that following the prayer and pledge, the morning hour be deemed expired, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, the time for the two leaders be reserved, and the Senate then proceed to a period for morning business for 1 hour, with the first 30 minutes under the control of the majority leader or his designee, and the second 30 minutes under the control of the Democratic leader or his designee, and that the Senate then resume consideration of S. 256, the Bankruptcy Reform Act. I further ask consent that at 12:30 p.m., the Senate recess until 2:15 p.m. for the weekly party luncheons.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, tomorrow, the Senate will resume consideration of the bankruptcy bill. Today we were able to accommodate several opening statements on the bill, and I hope that we can make real progress in the amendment process tomorrow. We anticipate that amendments will be offered prior to the policy luncheon recess. However, as I mentioned earlier today, I do not anticipate a vote on any amendment until after the policy luncheons. Again, I encourage all Members who may have amendments to the bill to contact the cloakrooms.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The minority leader.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, at approximately 11 o'clock tomorrow, when we finish morning business, Senator DURBIN will be here to offer the first amendment. We have had good opening statements by the two managers of the bill. I do not know if Senator HATCH will be managing the bill or Senator SPECTER. It was good to see him here. A long statement by Senator LEAHY, the ranking member of the committee, was given today.

We are going to start offering amendments, and if people want to make statements, there will be time during this bill—there will be quorum calls and they will be able to do that. We are going to try to limit those as much as we can and move forward. Senator DURBIN's amendment will be one relative to bankruptcy.

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, in terms of scheduling a vote—we will have more information on that tomorrow—again, it will be after the policy luncheon on the first amendment.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 9:45 A.M. TOMORROW

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 4:37 p.m., adjourned until Tuesday, March 1, 2005, at 9:45 a.m.
