

CONGRATULATING
CAMPBELLSVILLE UNIVERSITY

• Mr. BUNNING. Mr. President, today I wish to congratulate Campbellsville University on receiving a $1 million challenge grant from the Kresge Foundation. This school merits the grant through the strengths of its teachers, the board of trustees, the administration and its student life.

Campbellsville University, a small private college of a little over 2,000 students, is situated in South Central Kentucky and affiliated with the Kentucky Baptist Convention. Its record of superb education has given it a place in U.S. News and World Report's, "America's Best Colleges" guide for 12 consecutive years. The Kresge Foundation cited the quality of the school's faculty, growing popularity, excellent facilities, fiscal responsibility, and effective leadership as determinants in the selection process.

A challenge grant is rewarded on the condition that the recipient will raise a certain amount of its own funds before receiving grant money. The Kresge Foundation requests that the University raise nearly $7 million before October 1, 2005 to be awarded the grant. I have no doubt that Campbellsville University will meet the challenge in the way that it has met all others: on time, on target, and with the money.

In considering the effort Campbellsville University puts into educating the future of America, I heartily agree with the Kresge Foundation that they deserve this grant. •
