

PROGRAM

Mr. SESSIONS. Mr. President, tomorrow, the Senate will resume consideration of the Homeland Security bill. Under a previous order, at 10 a.m., the Senate will proceed to a series of votes on five pending amendments to the bill.

Following those votes, we will continue working through the remaining amendments. There are currently a dozen pending amendments, and more are expected to be offered tomorrow.

We will complete action on the bill this week. Therefore, Senators should expect a very busy day with votes throughout.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 9:30 A.M.
TOMORROW

Mr. SESSIONS. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 8:44 p.m., adjourned until Thursday, July 14, 2005, at 9:30 a.m.
