ORDERS FOR MONDAY,
SEPTEMBER 12, 2005

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it adjourn until 2 p.m. on Monday, September 12. I further ask consent that following the prayer and pledge, the morning hour be deemed expired, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, the time for the two leaders be reserved, and the Senate proceed to a period of morning business, with the time equally divided until 3 p.m. I further ask consent that at 3 p.m., the Senate resume consideration of H.R. 2862, the Commerce, Science appropriations bill.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, on Monday, the Senate will resume consideration of the Commerce-Justice-Science appropriations bill. There are a number of amendments pending or in order to the bill, and I encourage Members to offer and debate those amendments on Monday afternoon so we can schedule votes for Monday night and Tuesday.

On Monday evening, at 5:30, we will have an hour of debate followed by a vote on the motion to proceed to S.J. Res. 20, a resolution of disapproval relating to mercury. That vote will occur at 6:30 p.m., and additional votes are possible into the evening.

Early next week, we expect to finish the Commerce-Justice-Science appropriations bill, and we will continue with other appropriations measures over the course of that week. Many of these appropriations bills do have disaster-related language, language that is important to our response to Katrina; therefore, we want to expedite their consideration.

We have been working to pass several freestanding measures in response to Katrina, and we will continue to do so as they become available. As I pointed out earlier this morning and yesterday, last night, we are working very aggressively to make sure all legislation which is of benefit to the victims of this hurricane are handled expeditiously on the floor of the Senate in their consideration and passage.

We have considered two emergency supplemental bills: the $51.8 billion we passed last night and the $10.5 billion we passed on Thursday of a week ago. We have considered bills regarding emergency court jurisdiction in response to Katrina and the courts' ability to continue their operations along the southern coast. We considered a resolution allowing for Senate offices to assist with noncash contributions with regard to relief in response to the hurricane.

We are currently working on a whole range of additional matters relating to flood insurance and TANF, which is the Temporary Assistance to Needy Families Program. Our committees, through their various jurisdictions, are working to see how and when we can take action to give that appropriate relief and make progress in helping all of those affected by this natural disaster. We will continue those efforts over the weekend and into next week.

ORDER FOR ADJOURNMENT

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order, following the remarks of Senator REID.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. In my capacity as a Senator from the State of Georgia, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.
