

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

IN TRIBUTE TO CORPORAL SHEILA
C. MIDDLETON

HON. DONNA M. CHRISTENSEN

OF THE VIRGIN ISLANDS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 20, 2006

Mrs. CHRISTENSEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to pay tribute to one of our Virgin Islands' heroines—Corporal Sheila Christina Middleton.

Born in Far Rockaway, Queens, she moved with her family to St. Croix, U.S. Virgin Islands in 1996.

After graduating the Virgin Islands Police Academy in 1981 she served the department as a patrol officer for 9 years. That was before she found her true calling—working with the children and youth of the Virgin Islands.

Sheila understood and loved our children, and they loved and respected her in return. Her emphasis in criminal justice was prevention, and she knew that effort had to begin as early in their lives as possible.

She was the D.A.R.E. coordinator for the territory. She taught the children about the negative effects of drugs and alcohol on their bodies and their lives. She counted among her greatest rewards the smiles on their faces, after they had completed their courses and marched to receive their certificates at the annual D.A.R.E. graduations.

Her passion for this work emanated from her deep religious faith. She was a devout member of Speak the Word Ministries from whose congregation and worship she also renewed her strength and received guidance. They and her family were her "rock."

Mr. Speaker and colleagues, I had the privilege of working with Corporal Middleton. She was as fine an officer and human being as you would ever want to know.

She left us early, but she gave much during her relatively short life. We are grateful for her life and service to the Virgin Islands community. Our children and our entire community call her blessed.

BANKER ALLEY TO RETIRE AFTER
50 YEARS OF SERVICE

HON. JOHN R. CARTER

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 20, 2006

Mr. CARTER. Mr. Speaker, I wish to congratulate Mr. Dale Alley of Hutto and Round

Rock, TX, for his retirement after 50 years in the community banking profession. Achieving 50 years in the community banking profession is a rare honor and Dale should be commended for having reached this milestone. On June 25, 2006, Dale will retire with grateful acknowledgment from his communities, customers, and friends. He leaves behind a legacy of tireless service, active community participation, and positive impact on local economies.

As community banks are merged and acquired at a rapid rate, it is important to note that there are still bankers who participate fully in their communities and strengthen those communities by their dedication to service and goodwill; Dale Alley is such a banker. Community bankers fuel the engine of small businesses and literally built Texas communities from the ground up. Dale Alley leaves a dynamic blueprint and a commendable legacy for those assuming his positions at Union State Bank and the other institutions where he has served.

In 1956, a young man nervous with anticipation walked into First State Bank in Denton, TX, for his first day of employment. He wasn't sure where this initial job might take him, but he knew that he wanted to be involved in the banking industry. Now, 50 years later, that same man is putting the finishing touches on a brilliant career in community banking.

Dale began his employment with First State Bank in Denton, TX, in 1956. During the next two decades, he worked both as an administrative assistant in the Texas State Banking Department and an executive vice president and loan officer with Farmers State Bank in Round Rock. Over the course of his distinguished career, Dale served as president and board chairman of the Hutto State Bank, which he opened in 1986. As president and board chairman, he achieved his ultimate goal of becoming the chief managing officer.

After the sale of that bank, Dale was approached by B.M. Beck, president and chairman of Union State Bank, in regards to opening a Union State Bank Branch in Round Rock. Dale accepted the offer and operated a service-oriented and profitable banking branch. In 2003, Dale accepted the position of executive vice president and chief lending officer for all five Union State Bank locations in Central Texas. Over the course of his career, Dale consistently emphasized the importance of customer service and making his clients feel appreciated.

Dale's career path has been filled with success, but he would tell you his proudest accomplishments come from the impact he has made on his community. In fact, Dale recently wrote, "My favorite part of working in the banking industry for 50 years has been the satisfaction gained from being a community banker and experiencing the economic growth and vitality resulting from the bank's activities." The efforts of Dale and his fellow community bankers are essential to the success of communities throughout America.

Small businesses come to community banks for financial help because they know and trust the banker they are working with. In turn, community banks realize their success revolves around the overall growth of the community. It's a reciprocal relationship in which the small business and the community bank depend on each other for future growth; neither can be successful without the other. Independent Community Bankers of America, ICBA, Chairman Terry Jorde explained the relationship well when he said, "Each of our nearly 5,000 bank members is a shining example of how community banks are still joined at the hip to our communities."

In addition to his many work contributions and other honors, Dale was responsible for establishing the Hutto Chamber of Commerce and also served on the Hutto School Board for many years. Having had the opportunity to witness firsthand his contributions to the Hutto and Round Rock communities, I am certain his impact will continue to be felt after his retirement.

Mr. Speaker, on behalf of myself, my constituents, Union State Bank, and the communities of Round Rock, Hutto, Georgetown, Florence, Liberty Hill, and Killeen, I would like to thank Dale for 50 years of distinguished service to the banking industry and the communities throughout Central Texas. Although his daily presence at Union State Bank will be sorely missed, I look forward to his continued contributions to the banking industry. I thank Dale for his service and friendship, and wish him the utmost happiness and success in all of his future endeavors.

IN RECOGNITION OF MR. MERRILL WORCESTER FOR HIS GENEROUS HOLIDAY CONTRIBUTIONS TO ARLINGTON NATIONAL CEMETERY

HON. JEFF MILLER

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 20, 2006

Mr. MILLER of Florida. Mr. Speaker, it is a great honor for me to rise today to extend my congratulations to Mr. Merrill Worcester, an American who believes in paying homage to the memory of veterans who gave all in the name of freedom.

As the owner of the Worcester Wreath Company of Harrington, Maine, Mr. Worcester oversees the workings of his holiday decoration company. Thirteen years ago, he could think of nothing better to do with his surplus of over 4,000 Christmas wreaths than bring them to Arlington National Cemetery. Mr. Worcester had visited Arlington at the age of 12 and dreamed of somehow honoring fallen soldiers.

Each year since 1993, Mr. Worcester has brought trucks holding over 5,000 Christmas wreaths to Arlington and has joined with hundreds of volunteers from all walks of military and civilian life in placing the wreaths on the headstones. The wreathlaying event continues to be one that carries a great message of thanks and gratitude to those who gave their lives as well as a reminder to their families during the holidays that they will never be forgotten.

Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the U.S. Congress, I would like to offer my sincere thanks to a man who truly understands the nature of giving and works to continually commemorate the giving of the ultimate sacrifice—life—in order to achieve freedom.

IN HONOR OF JEAN JOSEPH SIBILLY 1889-1997

HON. DONNA M. CHRISTENSEN

OF VIRGIN ISLANDS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 20, 2006

Mrs. CHRISTENSEN. Mr. Speaker, each year in mid-July, the French Community on St. Thomas, in my District, observes French Heritage Week, commemorating the storming of the Bastille on July 14, 1789 which marked the beginning of the French Revolution, with a week of French flavored activities.

This year, the French Heritage Week Committee is posthumously honoring Jean Joseph Sibilly, patriarch of the French community of Estate Elizabeth on St. Thomas.

I ask my colleagues to join me today to honor and acknowledge the innumerable contributions this great visionary made to the Virgin Islands in general and his community in particular.

Jean Joseph Sibilly was born on the French Caribbean island of St. Barthelemy on January 5, 1889, but grew up and received his education on the island of Guadeloupe. Trained in agriculture and animal husbandry, he emigrated to St. Thomas in 1912 and established residence on the north side of the island, an area predominantly occupied by other French immigrants.

At age 23, this agricultural entrepreneur purchased Estate Elizabeth and a few years later another 268 acres with 12 other north side families in nearby Estate Lerkenlund to be used for farming. This area has had a long legacy as until recently the French north side farmers were still the primary source for fresh produce.

He was a self taught skilled engineer and builder credited for planning and supervising the road system on the north side of St. Thomas, the construction of numerous homes and public buildings, and was legendary for his ability to draw a straight line without the aid of conventional instruments.

Above all else, he was a humanitarian and community leader. His generosity is exemplified by the large tracks of land he donated to the Catholic Church and the local government. The community's Catholic Church, Our Lady of Perpetual Help, and adjacent cemetery, as well as an elementary school, were made possible through his philanthropy. Not a politician or elected official, he was however influential in local elections and served as the guardian of good government in the particular interest of the people of the north side of the island.

On March 9, 1973, the Tenth Legislature of the Virgin Islands approved Resolution 3395 which renamed the Robert Herrick Elementary School the Joseph Sibilly Elementary School in honor of his great community spirit, generous donations, and good deeds.

A devout Roman Catholic, his religious beliefs were reflected in his daily life. In recognition of his humanitarian spirit, The Virgin Islands Daily News on his passing wrote, "Joseph Sibilly was in a sense an Old Testament man, a patriarch with vision and strength and generosity. He left for all of us a valuable legacy, the knowledge that ultimately a man serves himself best when he serves others".

Jean Joseph Sibilly's generosity, considerateness, wisdom, foresight, pride in and love for his fellow man deserve our recognition honor today.
