

Trust, an organization that gives scholarships to inner-city children to attend private schools.

Fred has also worked hard to reposition the state Republican Party and is still Republican National Committeeman for the State of Indiana.

Once again, my congratulations to 2006 Central Indiana Business Hall of Fame Laureates Dick Johnson and Fred Klipsch.

INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT FOR
H.R. 4843, VETERANS' COMPENSA-TION COST-OF-LIVING ADJUST-
MENT ACT OF 2006

HON. JEFF MILLER

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 2, 2006

Mr. MILLER of Florida. Mr. Speaker, as chairman of the Subcommittee on Disability Assistance and Memorial Affairs of the Veterans' Affairs Committee, I am proud to introduce H.R. 4843, the Veterans' Compensation Cost-of-Living Adjustment Act of 2006.

The Subcommittee's Ranking Member, SHELLEY BERKLEY, as well as full Committee Chairman STEVE BUYER and Ranking Member LANE EVANS, join me as original cosponsors of the bill.

H.R. 4843 would provide a cost-of-living adjustment to veterans' benefits effective December 1, 2006. This would affect more than 2.9 million service-connected veterans and survivors of service-connected veterans.

The VA Committee periodically reviews the service-connected disability and dependency and indemnity programs to ensure that the benefits provide reasonable and adequate compensation for disabled veterans and their families. Based on this review, Congress acts annually to provide a cost-of-living adjustment in veterans' compensation and survivor benefits.

Mr. Speaker, Congress has provided increases in these rates for every fiscal year since 1976. The Administration's fiscal year 2007 budget submission includes funding for a projected 2.6 percent increase.

I urge my colleagues to support this bill.

THANKING JUANITA CONKLING
FOR HER SERVICE TO THE HOUSE

HON. VERNON J. EHLLERS

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 2, 2006

Mr. EHLLERS. Mr. Speaker, on the occasion of her retirement in April 2006, I rise to thank Mrs. Juanita Conkling for over 40 years of outstanding service to the U.S. House of Representatives.

Juanita began her career with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). After a year of service with the FBI, Juanita joined the U.S. House of Representatives on May 1, 1965, and has worked for the House Sergeant at Arms and the Chief Administrative Officer as the Payroll/Benefits Administrator in the Office of Members' Services. In this position, she has provided payroll and benefits guidance and counsel to countless Members of Congress and their families. Over the past 40 years, Juanita has assured that the Members of Congress were paid accurately and on time each month. Additionally, she has provided current and former Members of Congress with advice and counsel about their ongoing options relative to their compensation and benefits.

Juanita has been instrumental in assisting both new and departing Members of Congress—orienting new Members about their pay and benefits issues as well as counseling departing Members about their options for continuation of benefit programs. During her 40 years working for the House, Juanita's career has given her the opportunity to have many long-lasting relationships with current and former Members of Congress, their families and congressional staffs.

On behalf of the former and current Members and the House community, I extend congratulations to Juanita for her many years of dedication and outstanding contributions to the Members and the U.S. House of Representatives. We wish Juanita many wonderful years in fulfilling her retirement dreams.

TRIBUTE TO RITA J. BOARD

HON. SHELLEY MOORE CAPITO

OF WEST VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 2, 2006

Mrs. CAPITO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in recognition of Rita J. Board, Governmental Liaison for the Internal Revenue Service. Ms. Board's career extends over a 30 year period in Parkersburg, West Virginia, serving not only the taxpayers of the Second Congressional District of West Virginia but the entire State of West Virginia. The positions she held include Taxpayer Service Specialist, Taxpayer Education Coordinator, Management Analyst in the Taxpayer Advocate Service and most recently Governmental Liaison. Ms. Board has received numerous awards in recognition and appreciation of her superior effort, dedication, and personal contribution to accomplishing the goals of the Internal Revenue Service as Congress intended.

It is impossible to estimate the enormous number of lives positively impacted by Ms. Board—small business individuals, volunteers, low income families, educational institutions, and exempt organizations.

Ms. Board played a large part in establishing an extremely successful Taxpayer Advocate Office in West Virginia that aims to work cooperatively with Congressional Offices. Ms. Board also successfully led in the establishment of an excellent relationship between the State of West Virginia and the IRS. I commend her for these contributions to the West Virginia public.

Ms. Board's family is service-oriented. Her husband, Gerald, is a retired police officer. Her daughter, Leslie, and her son, Matthew, are currently serving the public as police officers. Ms. Board has been a role model to everyone she meets.

I urge my colleagues to join me, as Rita J. Board retires from the Internal Revenue Service, in celebrating her tremendous achievements during her career and in her personal life.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. DAVID G. REICHERT

OF WASHINGTON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 2, 2006

Mr. REICHERT. Mr. Speaker, on March 1, 2005, I missed roll call vote #17, honoring the contributions of Justice Sandra Day O'Connor. I was unavoidably detained chairing a subcommittee hearing on the state of interoperable communications. If I had been present, I would have voted "yes."

HONORING AND PRAISING THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED PEOPLE ON THE OCCASION OF ITS 97TH ANNIVERSARY

SPEECH OF

HON. ELIOT L. ENGEL

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 1, 2006

Mr. ENGEL. Mr. Speaker, I rise to honor an organization that has been more than a guiding force but, in fact, a leader in advancing civil rights for nearly a century. The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People continues its mission to ensure the political, educational, social, and economic equality of rights for all people. As the oldest and largest civil rights organization in the nation, the men and women working for the NAACP have sought to remove all barriers of racial discrimination through their use of legal and moral persuasion.

The NAACP won one of the nation's greatest legal victories; that was the 1954 Supreme Court decision Brown v. Board of Education. The NAACP was also a prominent power that lobbied for the passage of the Civil Rights Acts of 1957, 1960, and 1964. The Voting Rights Act of 1965 and the Fair Housing Act were also achievements of this longstanding organization. In 2005, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People launched the Disaster Relief Fund to help Hurricane Katrina survivors in Louisiana, Mississippi, Texas, Florida, and Alabama rebuild their lives.

The NAACP was built and grew from the collective courage of thousands of people and continues to inspire the high standard of full equality to ever younger generations. As grandfather of all civil rights organizations, it has been persistent in its commitment to non-violence, even in the face of overt and violent racial hostility. Today, on the 9th anniversary of the NAACP, it is important to celebrate how these men and women advanced their mission through reliance upon the press, the petition, the ballot, and the courts. Their premise has been that people of all races, nationalities and faiths, men and women, are created equal. All Americans must continue to uphold these standards of morality and justice.

I congratulate the NAACP and look forward to celebrating their centennial in 3 years.

RECOGNIZING THE PEACE CORPS VOLUNTEERS FROM OREGON'S 3RD DISTRICT

HON. EARL BLUMENAUER

OF OREGON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 2, 2006

Mr. BLUMENAUER. Mr. Speaker, President Kennedy once stated that "Peace is a daily, a weekly, a monthly process, gradually changing opinions, slowly eroding old barriers, quietly building new structures." As we celebrate the 45th anniversary of the establishment of the Peace Corps, the truth of that statement is confirmed every day by the outstanding group of men and women promoting international understanding and progress across the globe.

During this National Peace Corps Week, I want to honor the service and commitment of the Peace Corps Volunteers from Oregon's 3rd Congressional district and express my pride in my fellow Oregonians who have chosen to devote years of their lives in service to others.

In particular, I want to recognize the current Peace Corps Volunteers whose service began in the past year: Ethan Choi (Bulgaria), Katie Conlon (Mali), Nancy Davis (Mexico), Rebecca Inman (Madagascar), Michael Lemmo (Ecuador), Cara McCarthy (Madagascar), Chris Pexton (Namibia), Jonathan Ruff (Costa Rica), Patrick Schmidt (Namibia), Candace Watson (Swaziland), Delores Watts (Malawi), Kimberly Wells (Malawi), and Malia Wetcher (Mozambique).

Their work to empower people and communities in developing countries is a crucial contribution to creating a safe and prosperous world, building bridges between America and the world, and establishing a better future for people everywhere.

CONGRATULATING MR. JIMMY FAULKNER, SR. ON THE OCCASION OF HIS 90TH BIRTHDAY

HON. JO BONNER

OF ALABAMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 2, 2006

Mr. BONNER. Mr. Speaker, it is with both pride and pleasure that I rise this week to honor a great man, as well as a true friend, Mr. Jimmy Faulkner, on the occasion of his 90th birthday.

Few people have enjoyed a more wonderful life than "Mr. Jimmy."

As an Air Force pilot, young Jimmy Faulkner answered his nation's call to serve and serve he did, always with distinction, valor and honor.

Upon completing his service in the Air Force, Jimmy Faulkner set out to blaze a trail of success in the world of business, spanning 42 years as the owner and publisher of a chain of south Alabama newspapers, as well as serving as president of seven radio stations. At the same time, he continued to find a way to serve his community, state and nation, first by being elected the youngest mayor in America in 1941, when he was elected mayor of his beloved Bay Minette.

Years later, Mr. Jimmy would go on to serve Baldwin, Monroe and Escambia Counties by becoming one of Alabama's most respected and influential state senators. Twice he also ran for governor of Alabama.

Still later, Mr. Jimmy's entrepreneurial talents would give him the confidence to start Loyal American Life Insurance Company. And during most of the past 50 years, he has also been associated with Volkert & Associates, one of the top engineering, architectural, planning and environmental firms in the United States.

One of Jimmy Faulkner's passions has been his lifelong dedication to improving education. He has served as a member of the Board of Directors for the Alabama Christian College in Montgomery, which was renamed Faulkner University in his honor, and Chairman of the Advisory Board for James H. Faulkner State Community College in Bay Minette. Mr. Jimmy holds seven honorary doctorate degrees in law and humane letters, and he has served on several commissions that worked to improve Alabama's secondary education system.

Jimmy Faulkner was named the North Baldwin Chamber of Commerce "Person of the Century" in 2000. In 2003, he was awarded the Alabama Press Association's "Lifetime Achievement Award" and received the Volkert Chairman's Award in 1994.

Mr. Speaker, there has been no other individual more important to south Alabama or to the life of his local community than James H. "Jimmy" Faulkner, Sr. He is an outstanding example of the quality individuals who have devoted their lives to public service, and I ask my colleagues to join with me in congratulating him on reaching this milestone. I know Mr. Jimmy's colleagues, his family and his many friends join with me in praising his significant accomplishments and extending thanks for his many efforts over the years on behalf of the First Congressional District and the entire state of Alabama.

TRIBUTE TO THE 415TH CIVIL AFFAIRS BATTALION FROM KALAMAZOO, MI.

HON. FRED UPTON

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 2, 2006

Mr. UPTON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to the members of the 415th Civil Affairs Battalion from Kalamazoo, MI who have bravely served our Nation overseas in Iraq. This Sunday, March 5th, the entire Battalion will be honored for its distinguished service in Iraq, receiving the prestigious Meritorious Unit Commendation that is bestowed upon battalions that are particularly meritorious and exceptional in their services against an armed enemy during Operation Iraqi Freedom.

In addition to the Battalion's group recognition, 100 members of the unit will also be personally awarded the Combat Action Badge, which provides special recognition to Soldiers who personally engage the enemy, or are engaged by the enemy during combat operations.

I am so proud of the 415th Battalion because they represent all of the many and diverse jobs that our troops have set out to accomplish in Iraq. For example, this Battalion has administered over 1000 reconstruction projects, implemented and managed 43 separate school reconstruction projects, provided medical screening to Iraqi citizens, even helped forge a relationship between Harvard University's medical school and Iraq's Tikrit University of Medicine.

The work of these men and women represents the positive progress that is actually going on in Iraq. The stories and accomplishments of the 415th Battalion are the ones that should truly be grabbing the headlines back home. Once again, I would like to congratulate the 415th Battalion for their much-deserved recognition and thank them on behalf of all the folks in Southwest Michigan for their great service. We are safer as a nation for your service—you make us all proud.

PUERTO RICO DEMOCRACY ACT OF 2006

HON. LUIS FORTUÑO

OF PUERTO RICO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 2, 2006

Mr. FORTUÑO. Mr. Speaker, today, Puerto Ricans celebrate the 89th Anniversary of being granted United States citizenship by an Act of Congress. It is on this historic occasion that I, as Puerto Rico's sole representative in Congress, am proudly introducing on their behalf the Puerto Rico Democracy Act of 2006.

Since 1917, we have cherished that citizenship, and the principles of freedom and democracy for which our Nation stands. Hundreds of thousands of Puerto Ricans have fought valiantly in all wars since then to defend those principles that we so strongly value, with 50 of our own making the ultimate sacrifice in our Nation's current War on Terrorism in Iraq and Afghanistan. The bill I am introducing today honors the life and sacrifice of these heroes . . . heroes who have left their loved ones behind to defend our democratic values even as they themselves are unable to vote for their Commander in Chief.

After 108 years of being a territory of the United States, Puerto Rico's status dilemma remains unresolved. Over the years, many in Congress have expressed their willingness to respect the right of self-determination for the U.S. citizens residing in Puerto Rico yet, during that time, there has never been a federally sanctioned self-determination process.

On December 22, 2005 the President's Task Force on Puerto Rico's Status issued a comprehensive and balanced report providing options for the Island's future status and relationship with the United States. This Task Force, created by Executive Orders from President Clinton and President Bush, clearly outlines in its report a process to address Puerto Rico's century old status dilemma.

The bill that I am introducing today simply implements the recommendations of the Task Force Report in order to preserve the guiding principles found in that report, which avoid prejudice towards a particular status option, and develops alternatives that are compatible with the U.S. Constitution and basic policies of the United States.

Some will argue that Puerto Rico's status should be determined by a select few, however, I sustain that, after 108 years of waiting, the four million U.S. citizens of Puerto Rico deserve nothing less than a direct and meaningful vote. The Puerto Rico Democracy Act of