

protests, other schools closed for safety reasons. Peak attendance of almost 12,000 pupils in 1953 was a thing of the past. By the 1970s, attendance dropped to about 7,000. Phoenix Elementary used this period as a time of innovation to improve programs for pupils. A student pilot breakfast program, Extended Day Kindergarten and a Parent Involvement Aide Program were implemented. Some were cited as national models.

By 2002, 15 schools were operating in the district. Under the current leadership of Superintendent Dr. Georgina Takemoto, all the district's schools are rated Performing or above by Arizona Standards. Four schools—Kenilworth, Magnet Traditional, Herrera and Lowell—have been dubbed A+ Schools of Excellence, an award given by non-profit Arizona Educational Foundation. Signature schools that specialize in dual language, performing arts, environmental science, electronic journalism, biotech and visual arts enhance the curriculums. Other newer programs include Academic Enrichment from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. for students of working parents; health, dental and asthma clinics; registered nursing staffs; parent classes; and social and community workers.

As the district grew, then declined in enrollment, and now expects to see some growth on the horizon, it has experienced many changes and adapted to meet the needs of its students. I applaud the Phoenix Elementary School District #1 for its leadership and innovation in serving our children. For these reasons, I ask my colleagues to join me on congratulating the district on the occasion of its 135th Anniversary.

SENATE COMMITTEE MEETINGS

Title IV of Senate Resolution 4, agreed to by the Senate on February 4, 1977, calls for establishment of a system for a computerized schedule of all meetings and hearings of Senate committees, subcommittees, joint committees, and committees of conference. This title requires all such committees to notify the Office of the Senate Daily Digest—designated by the Rules Committee—of the time, place, and purpose of the meetings, when scheduled, and any cancellations or changes in the meetings as they occur.

As an additional procedure along with the computerization of this information, the Office of the Senate Daily Digest will prepare this information for printing in the Extensions of Remarks section of the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD on Monday and Wednesday of each week.

Meetings scheduled for Thursday, May 11, 2006 may be found in the Daily Digest of today's RECORD.
