TRIBUTE TO RON ZIMMERMAN

HON. MIKE PENCE

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, May 19, 2006

Mr. PENCE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to the life of Ron Zimmerman of Connersville, Indiana. He died this week in Afghanistan when a suicide bomber hit his vehicle while he was working as contractor on a U.S. State Department police training project.

Ron was working in Herat, Afghanistan, near the border with Iran and Turkmenistan. Among other things, he was training local police forces in methods of combating the illicit drug trade of opium poppies. He was in a convoy going to work to continue these training efforts when the vehicle he was traveling in was attacked by a suicide car bomber. He had been in Afghanistan since early April of this year.

Ron graduated from Connersville High School. Before going overseas, Ron served in the Fayette County Sheriff's Department, volunteered as a local firefighter, and most recently worked as a police officer in Brookville, Indiana. He left the police force in December 2004 to become a contractor. Prior to going to Afghanistan, he had worked for 1 year as a contractor training police forces in Kosovo.

Ron's courage and selfless dedication to others are shown through his willingness to travel to dangerous areas of the world in an effort to help those areas become safer and more secure. His wife Marla stated, "He was the type of person that felt like he had to do what he had to do. He was a very giving person."

I offer my deepest condolences to his wife, Marla; his two daughters, Mel Walker and Cheyenne Zimmerman, his son, Matt Walker, and all other family and friends who loved and admired this fine man.

STRONG WOMEN STAND TALL

HON. SHELLEY MOORE CAPITO

OF WEST VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, May 19, 2006

Mrs. CAPITO. Mr. Speaker, the week of May 14 thru 20, 2006 is designated by the Department of Health and Human Services as National Women's Health Week, an effort to raise awareness about women can take to improve their health.

One disease that disproportionately affects women is osteoporosis. Often called a "silent disease" because bone loss occurs without symptoms, bones become fragile and are more likely to break with age.

Osteoporosis is a major public health threat for millions of Americans. Ten million individuals are estimated to already have the disease and almost 34 million are at risk of developing osteoporosis. Eighty percent of those affected by osteoporosis are women.

One program that is helping to spread awareness about osteoporosis is Strong Women Stand Tall—a new program to motivate women to join together and take action to protect their bone health. Friday, March 12, 2006 was declared as "Fuchsia Friday" to show solidarity among women and to raise awareness of bone health.

When women take even the simplest steps to improve their health, the results can be significant. It is important to action to find out your risk for developing osteoporosis. We need to stay informed and take responsible actions to improve our health.

Reducing our risk for this disease is a life-long process—it is never too early or too late to protect bone health. Women must recognize their risk for osteoporosis, educate themselves about how to stay strong and healthy, and empower other women to take charge of their bone health. I encourage all women to see their physician and have an osteoporosis screening.

DENOUNCING ANTI-IMMIGRANT HATE MESSAGES

HON. JOE BACA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, May 19, 2006

Mr. BACA. Mr. Speaker, it's been 4 years since 9-11, yet the Republicans in Congress and this President have failed to secure our borders and protect this country against future terrorist attacks.

Americans want and deserve better.

The country is depending on us to take action but this Administration and the Republicans in Congress have let us down over and over again.

The Democrats' plan offers real security that will protect America from harm.

It's time for Republicans to put politics aside and enact real reforms now.

It's time for Republicans to stop playing politics with our security.

Just take immigration reform, for example.

Instead of recognizing the need for real, comprehensive reform Republicans have used the border security issue to play on people's fears and exploit the debate for their political gain.

They've hijacked the debate to incite xenophobia in the minds of the American people!

I want my colleagues to be aware that this rhetoric can provoke extremists to commit violence against immigrants.

Remember that words have consequences and set the tone for public debate.

Unfortunately, all over America racists are taking advantage of the immigration debate to voice their message of hate.

And they are using the media—which our Constitution protects—to do so.

Several years ago, I founded the Congressional Sex and Violence in the Media Caucus because I was disturbed by the messages our children were receiving.

As co-chair of this caucus, I have led the effort to help parents protect their kids from harmful and inappropriate content such as graphic sex and violence.

Now we must be on the lookout for racist content in the media.

On March 29, 2006, a New Jersey radio talk show host Hal Turner exclaimed, "... It is time to fight. To kill such invaders. ... If you don't fight AND don't support those of us who do, when we're done with them, we can come for you."

I recently learned about a racist game distributed freely on the Internet called "Border Patrol" that encourages Players to shoot at Immigrants as they cross into the United States.

The game first surfaced in 2002, but has come up once again amid the immigration debate.

This is obscene and crosses the line!

For years, White supremacists have used the Internet to get their messages out to as many people as possible.

But the use of computer video games is new.

They are deliberately targeting our children and recruiting them into their hate groups!

The fact that the national immigration debate is fueling their efforts is downright scary.

It just takes one individual with hate in his heart to act on these notions!

Border Patrol is one of several racist computer games that hate groups are currently for sale or download on the Internet.

Other games like "Ethnic Cleansing," "DriveBy 2" and "African Detroit Cop" were created to further racist, anti-Semitic or homophobic opinions.

Already, the National Alliance, a violent neo-Nazi group, is selling "Ethnic Cleansing" and is promising to market and sell similar games.

As the issue of comprehensive immigration reform has moved to the forefront of national policy debate, these hate-messages have grown more radical.

As the Aryan Nation's Web site puts it, "We now have another game animal to add to our list of available targets for our favorite pastime, hunting, and we'll declare permanent OPEN SEASON on these dirty wetbacks! From what I've heard through the grapevine the Skinheads and Klans across the country are more than prepared for this type of action. I say let's play by state and see which state can claim the most kills and let the jewsmedia whores keep score!"

This is a big real concern especially as the debate continues.

These extremist groups are going to gain momentum.

A report by the Anti-Defamation League shows that hate groups have organized numerous assaults against immigrants within this month alone.

As members of Congress, our first responsibility is the security of every American and of that means securing our borders.

But the outcome of this debate will speak volumes about how we embrace diversity in our communities and welcome foreigners in our society.

We cannot have this debate at the expense of the safety of immigrants in our communities.

I understand that not everyone in Congress agrees with a more inclusive vision of the American family.

But regardless of your position on immigration and border policy, I call on you to join me in condemning all the extremists who are hijacking this debate for their hateful agendas.
