

the folks at the Department of Energy were saying, a lot of them questioned these conclusions that were being jumped to with respect to the presence of weapons of mass destruction. They questioned both those agencies, the fact that these aluminum tubes were somehow evidence of an Iranian nuclear program. They said they did not believe that. And yet in its selective use of intelligence, the administration ignored those. They relegated those opinions to mere footnotes and essentially put forward the other information.

And you mentioned today a very disturbing revelation has come to light with respect to the selective use of intelligence. And I just want to quote from the Los Angeles Times. This is in many other papers. It turns out, according to the information put forward by Patrick Fitzgerald, the special prosecutor, "President Bush personally authorized leaking long classified information to a reporter in the summer of 2003 to buttress administration claims, now discredited, that Saddam Hussein was attempting to acquire weapons of mass destruction for Iraq."

Before the war, they selectively leaked information in a way that misinformed the American public; and then when they were essentially caught doing that, they further selectively leaked information to try to hide that fact when revelations were brought to light.

This has very serious consequences for our security because our credibility around the world depends on people whom we go to believing that the information that we have is true and that it is solid. When Adlai Stevenson was at the United Nations in the Cuban Missile Crisis and he said the Soviets were putting missiles into Cuba and had the information to support it, our credibility as a Nation was enhanced. As a result of the failures and abuse of intelligence, our credibility around the world has been degraded. It makes it much harder to persuade others about the seriousness of the threats in Iran and North Korea.

Now, the 9/11 Commission made a number of recommendations as to how we could deal with this particular issue; and one of the recommendations they made was to bolster intelligence oversight reform. Let us hold people accountable for their decisions. Let us not reward failure because we will get more failure. Let us not reward and ignore mistakes; we will get more mistakes. But when it comes to intelligence oversight reform, what grade did they give to the Republican Congress and the administration? A "D." A "D."

We have said, we Democrats, as part of our proposal, we are going to strengthen the oversight process. We are going to hold people accountable, and we are going to implement all of the recommendations of the 9/11 Commission, including the recommendation to improve the oversight of intelligence so we can end the abusive intelligence, restore our credibility around the world, because that credibility is essential to the national security of this country.

I thank the gentleman from California for his leadership on this issue, and I hope we will continue to have this conversation that I think is so important to our country.

Mr. SCHIFF. I thank the gentleman for his leadership and his eloquence and the tremendous job that he also does as we serve together on the Judiciary Committee.

I am now pleased to yield to JAY INSLEE from the great State of Washington, who has been a pioneer in the area of energy independence.

Mr. INSLEE. Thank you. And I have a simple message. We Democrats want to strike a preemptive blow against our enemies in the Middle East. And the single, most effective preemptive blow we have is to starve them from resources with which to attack us. We know where the money came from to finance the attack on September 11. It came from our addiction to oil that must stop.

And we now have a President who said he wants to break our addiction to oil, and we welcome his language about this. But we cannot run our cars on rhetoric. We cannot run a national energy independence program on rhetoric. We need real policies. And we are offering them. We have offered to the country the New Apollo Energy Act, H.R. 2828. That is H.R. 2828. If folks want to look at it, they are welcome to see the most comprehensive plan that will really deliver a situation where we send less money to Middle Eastern sheiks and more money to middle-American farmers. That is a policy that we will embrace, and we will be more secure than we are today.

I thank you for letting me have my few words today.

Mr. SCHIFF. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank my colleagues this evening for all their comments and their leadership. Over the next several weeks, we will be unveiling in greater detail each of the pillars of security: how we intend, as Democrats, to rebuild the 21st-century military; how we intend to take the war on terror to Osama bin Laden and al Qaeda; how we intend to beef up our homeland security and repair a lot of the broken pieces of our homeland security policy that make us continue to be vulnerable; how we will make Iraq in 2006 a year of transition to full Iraqi sovereignty; and how, as Mr. INSLEE points out, we can achieve energy independence, something vital to the present and this Nation's future.

I want to thank my colleagues for their leadership, DAVID SCOTT for all his great work, CHRIS VAN HOLLEN, JAY INSLEE, all of the other speakers tonight. We look forward to continuing this dialogue with the American people.

JOINT EXPLANATORY STATEMENT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE

The managers on the part of the House and the Senate at the conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the amendment of the Senate to the bill (H.R. 889), to authorize appropriations for the Coast Guard for fiscal year 2006, to make technical corrections to various laws administered by the Coast Guard, and for other purposes, submit the following joint statement to the House and the Senate in explanation of the effect of the action agreed upon by the managers and recommended in the accompanying conference report:

The Senate amendment struck all of the House bill after the enacting clause and inserted a substitute text.

The House recedes from its disagreement to the amendment of the Senate with an amendment that is a substitute for the House bill and the Senate amendment. The differences between the House bill, the Senate amendment, and the substitute agreed to in conference are noted below, except for clerical corrections, conforming changes made necessary by agreements reached by the conferees, and minor drafting and clarifying changes.

As of April 6, 2006 (4:00)

Section 1. Short title

Section 1 of the House bill states that the Act may be referred to as the "Coast Guard and Maritime Transportation Act of 2005."

Section 1 of the Senate amendment states the Act may be cited as the "Coast Guard Authorization Act of 2005."

The Conference substitute states that the Act may be referred to as the "Coast Guard and Maritime Transportation Act of 2006".

TITLE I—AUTHORIZATION

Section 101. Authorization of appropriations

Section 101 of the House bill authorizes funds for the Coast Guard in FY 2006. It authorizes approximately $8.7 billion in funding for the necessary expenses of the Coast Guard in FY 2006. Paragraph (1) of that section authorizes a funding level of $5,586,400,000 for the Coast Guard's Operating Expenses Account including an amount of $39 million to establish a second Helicopter Interdiction Tactical Squadron (HITRON) on the west coast.

Section 101(2) of the House bill authorizes $1,903,821,000 for the Coast Guard's Acquisitions, Construction and Improvements Accounting including approximately $1.6 billion for the Integrated Deepwater Systems program (Deepwater). Of the funding authorized for Deepwater in FY 2006, H.R. 889 authorizes an amount of $1,316,300,000 for the acquisition and construction of new vessels, aircraft, facilities, and support systems and an amount of $284,369,000 for the sustainment of the Coast Guard's legacy vessels and aircraft.

Section 101(3) of the House bill authorizes an amount of $24,000,000 for the Coast Guard's program to research and develop technologies, measures, and procedures to enhance the Coast Guard's capabilities to carry out all of the Service's many missions.

Section 101(5) of the House bill authorizes an amount of $35,900,000 for the Federal share of costs associated with alteration or removal of bridges that have been identified by the Coast Guard as obstructions to navigation.

Section 101 of the House bill also authorizes $12,000,000 for environmental compliance and restoration at Coast Guard facilities and $119,000,000 for the Coast Guard Reserve program. Lastly, this section authorizes $1,014,080,000 for retired pay, a mandatory expenditure.

Section 101 of the Senate amendment is similar to the House provision except that the Senate provision authorizes funds for FY 2006 and 2007 and contains different authorization levels than those that are included in the House bill. Section 101 authorizes $5.594 billion for operating expenses for FY 2006 and $6.042 billion for FY 2007. The Senate amendment also authorizes $1.424 billion for Acquisition, Construction and Improvements for FY 2006 and $1.538 billion for FY 2007. As a reflection of its support of the Coast Guard recapitalizing its fleet of cutters and aircraft, the reported bill would authorize $1.1 billion for Deepwater in FY 2006, $134 million above the President's request. Deepwater is authorized at $1.188 billion for FY 2007.

The Conference substitute authorizes funds for the Coast Guard in FY 2006 as follows:

Operation and Maintenance	$5,633,900,000
Acquisition, Construction and Improvement	1,903,821,000
Research, Development, Test and Evaluation	24,000,000
Retired Pay	1,014,080,000
Bridge Alteration	37,400,000
Environmental Compliance and Restoration	12,000,000
Coast Guard Reserve Training	119,000,000
TOTAL	$8,744,201,000

Of the amount authorized for OE, the conferees direct the Coast Guard to dedicate $39 million for the creation of an additional Coast Guard Helicopter Interdiction Tactical Squadron (HITRON).

Currently, the only Coast Guard HITRON squadron is based in Jacksonville, Florida. The Coast Guard's HITRON squadron carries out illegal drug interdiction missions in concert with Coast Guard vessels in the Caribbean Sea and in the Eastern Pacific Ocean. HITRON helicopters enhance the capabilities of Coast Guard cutters and associated small boats to pursue and apprehend 'go-fast' vessels that attempt to smuggle illicit drugs into the United States. The Coast Guard has estimated that the HITRON squadron has prevented an estimated 8.5 tons, or $6 billion in illegal drugs from entering the United States.

The authorization for the Coast Guard's Acquisitions, Construction and Improvement account includes $1.6 billion for Deepwater which includes an amount of $1,316,300,000 for the acquisition and construction of new vessels, aircraft, facilities, and support systems and an amount of $284,369,000 for the sustainment of the Coast Guard's legacy vessels and aircraft. The Conferees remain concerned that these assets are deteriorating at a faster pace than originally projected and require a dedicated funding stream. The conferees recommend that the Coast Guard examine ways to decrease the costs of maintaining and sustaining the Services' legacy assets, particularly the fleet of 110-foot cutters, and HH-65 helicopters. The rapid deterioration of these assets is draining funding and resources from the acquisition of replacement assets and lengthening the time before new assets will be employed by Coast Guardsmen in our waters and in our skies. The authorized funding level would also accelerate the purchase of new Deepwater assets, making assets with enhanced capabilities available more quickly to carry out the Service's many important traditional and homeland security missions.

The authorization for the Acquisitions, Construction and Improvement account AC&I account includes $101 million for the upgrading of the Rescue 21 program. The conferees are very concerned that the funding for this critically important program has significantly decreased over the past year, and would like to see funding restored to at least this level for FY 2006.

The conferees note that the Coast Guard and the State of Hawaii have been working jointly pursuant to a Memorandum of Understanding to develop an emergency communications system for state and federal officials, known as the Rainbow (Anuenue) Digital Microwave Project, on a matched-funding basis. Rescue 21 in Hawaii will utilize the infrastructure provided by this project. Now that the State has its money in place, the conferees expect the Coast Guard to move forward with its obligations under the Memorandum of Understanding to complete the project.

The authorization for the Acquisitions, Construction and Improvement account also includes $8.7 million to be used for the construction of an Aquatic Training Facility for the Aviation Survival Technician "A" School located at Coast Guard Air Station Elizabeth City, NC. $10 million to complete the Vessel Traffic System upgrade for Puget Sound, and $3 million to complete the construction of the Sector Operations Building for Group Seattle.

With respect to the authorization of Research, Development, Test and Evaluation funding, the conferees strongly believe that this funding should remain under the Coast Guard's direct control and should not be transferred to any other entity within the Department of Homeland Security, as the President has again proposed. The Coast Guard's unique character as a military service with a wide scope of regulatory functions requires that this funding be available to support missions including defense readiness, search and rescue, marine environmental protection, providing aids to navigation and protecting America's maritime homeland security.

With respect to the funding for bridge alterations, the conferees recommend that $20 million of the total amount be utilized to make changes to the Galveston Causeway Railroad Bridge in Galveston, Texas to improve navigation safety and $2.5 million be utilized to continue work on the Chelsea Bridge in Boston, Massachusetts.

The conferees recommend that the Coast Guard re-evaluate the categorization of both the Leveille Bridge and the Kerner Ferry Bridge in Louisiana. The Leveille Bridge provides the only access to Port Fouchon and Grand Isle, and has been struck 11 times in the past year while the Kerner Ferry Bridge has experienced several vertical clearance problems. These bridges are currently categorized as non-hazards to navigation, therefore making them ineligible for funds under the Truman-Hobbs Act.

The conferees are aware of the efforts of the Institute of Marine and Coastal Sciences at Rutgers University to develop a High Frequency Radar network for U.S. coastal waters. This technology was used in local search and rescue demonstration projects funded by the Coast Guard Research and Development Center in 2004. The conferees urge the Coast Guard to work with Rutgers to establish a regional pilot project in the Mid-Atlantic. The goal of the project should be to make CODAR an operational search and rescue tool.

The conferees are aware that the Coast Guard Cutter ACACIA is scheduled to be decommissioned in 2006. The conferees urge the Coast Guard to replace the ACACIA with a vessel that has icebreaking capabilities in order to maintain commercial shipping in the Great Lakes and particularly northern Lake Michigan. The need to ensure the availability of a ship that can assist in icebreaking is particularly important because the Canadian government has decommissioned one of its buoy tenders, which will increase the demands on U.S. icebreakers. Therefore, the Coast Guard should ensure that an icebreaking tug shall continue to be home ported on northern Lake Michigan and shall provide the necessary funding for operations and maintenance of such vessel.

The conferees recommend that the United States Coast Guard Captains of the Port be made aware that vessels that use certain valves manufactured by TankTech have been banned in Denmark and Italy because of safety concerns with those valves. That ban has been upheld by the European Union Commission based on tests at EU-approved laboratories. The American Bureau of Shipping is also recommending that these valves be removed from all vessels that they class. Additionally, the conferees recommend that the United States Coast Guard work more closely with its European Union maritime counterparts with regards to testing and test evaluation of those valves to ensure uniformity of test results.

Section 102. Authorized levels of military strength and training

Section 102 of the House bill authorizes a Coast Guard end-of-year strength of 45,500 active duty military personnel for FY 2006. This level maintains the personnel level that was authorized at the end of FY 2005. The section also authorizes average military training student loads for FY 2006 at the same level as was authorized in FY 2005. At the end of FY 2005, 39,717 active duty personnel were serving in the Coast Guard. The section also authorizes average military training student loads for FY 2006 as follows:

Training	Student years
Recruit/Special	2,500
Flight	125
Professional	350
Officer Acquisition	1,200

Section 102 of the Senate amendment is substantively similar to the House bill, except that it authorizes these personnel levels for FYs 2006 and 2007.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision.

Section 103. Authorization of funding related to Katrina

Section 103 of the House bill authorizes $60,000,000 (above the amount authorized for the Coast Guard in Section 101) in FY 2005 for the Coast Guard's emergency hurricane expenses, emergency repairs, deployment of personnel, to support costs of evacuation, and other costs resulting from the immediate relief efforts related to Hurricane Katrina.

Section 702 of the Senate amendment similarly authorizes funding above the amount authorized in Section 101 in FY 2005. The Section specifically authorizes $200,000,000 for the operation and maintenance of the Coast Guard in responding to Hurricane Katrina, including for search and rescue efforts, clearing channels, emergency response to oil and chemical spills, and increased costs due to higher than expected fuel costs. Also, $300,000,000 is authorized for the acquisition, construction, renovation, and improvements of aids to navigation, shore and offshore facilities, and vessels and aircraft related to damage caused by Hurricane Katrina.

The Conference substitute adopts the Senate provision with an amendment that includes a supplemental authorization of $300,000,000 for the Coast Guard's Operating Expenses account and $200,000,000 for the Acquisitions, Construction and Improvements account for non-reimbursed expenditures associated with the Coast Guard's response to Hurricane Katrina and stipulates that amounts appropriated under this authorization are to remain available until expended.

Section 104. Web-based data management

The House bill does not contain a similar provision.

Section 104 of the Senate amendment provides an authorization of $1,000,000 for the Coast Guard to continue their development of a web-based risk management system that links occupational health and safety databases to reduce accidents and fatalities.

The Conference substitute adopts the Senate provision.

TITLE II—COAST GUARD

Section 201. Extension of Coast Guard vessel anchorage and movement authority

Section 201 of the House bill amends section 91 of title 14, United States Code, (relating to the Coast Guard's authority to establish security areas to ensure the safety and security of naval vessels) to redefine the term 'navigable waters of the United States' to include territorial waters out to 12 nautical miles from shore. This amendment updates existing law to reflect the expansion of U.S. territorial waters from 3 nautical miles to 12 nautical miles from shore that was made by Presidential Proclamation Number 5928 on December 27, 1988.

Section 201 of the Senate amendment is substantively similar to the House bill.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision.

Section 202. International training and technical assistance

Section 202 of the House bill authorizes the Commandant of the Coast Guard to conduct international training and to provide technical assistance to international navies, coast guards and maritime authorities during regular Coast Guard operations without requiring a specific request from a third party U.S. Government agency.

Section 207 of the Senate amendment is substantively similar to the House bill.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision.

Section 203. Officer promotion

Section 203 of the House bill authorizes the Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating to waive time in grade requirements for junior and midgrade officers to ensure that all officers are considered for promotion earlier than is currently possible under title 14, United States Code. This section would grant officers of the Coast Guard the same below grade promotion opportunity that is currently authorized for officers of the other military services. This change would allow the Coast Guard to have more flexibility in promoting the best qualified officers.

Section 406 of the Senate amendment is substantively similar to the House bill.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision.

Section 204. Coast Guard Band Director

Section 204 of the House bill authorizes the Secretary to appoint the United States Coast Guard Band Director at a rank commensurate with the person's experience and training, rather than requiring the Director to be appointed as junior officer. The proposal would also allow the Secretary to appoint a person who is not a member of the Coast Guard as the Band Director rather than being limited to only members of the Coast Guard.

Section 402 of the Senate amendment is identical to the House bill, except for minor technical changes.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision.

Sec. 205 Authority for one-step turnkey design-build contracting

Section 205 of the House bill authorizes the Secretary to award consolidated design-build contracts using a one-step turnkey selection procedure similar to the authority provided to the Department of Defense. One-step turnkey contracting authority would all the selection of a contractor on the basis of price and other evaluation criteria through a single proposal for both the design and construction of a facility.

Section 405 of the Senate amendment is identical to the House bill, except for minor technical changes.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision.

Section 206. Reserve recall authority

Section 206 of the House bill authorizes the Secretary to order Coast Guard Reservists to active duty, for not more than sixty days in any four-month period and not more than one hundred twenty days in any two-year period, to augment Coast Guard active duty forces.

Section 403 of the Senate Amendment is substantively similar to the House provision; however it also expands the ability to use recalls for a threat of a terrorist attack. The provision also requires that, for purposes of calculating the duration of active duty, a period of active duty shall begin on the first day that a member reports to active duty, including for training.

The Conference substitute adopts the Senate provision with a technical amendment.

Section 207. Reserve Officer distribution

Section 207 of the House bill amends Section 724 of title 14, United States Code, to link Coast Guard Reserve officer authorization levels to active duty officer authorization levels for junior and mid-grade officers in order to properly distribute the numbers of Reserve officers in those grades. The proposal would also make clear that Reserve officers in an active status are counted only against the Reserve component strength.

Section 401 of the Senate amendment is identical to the House provision, except for a minor technical change.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision.

Section 208. Expansion of use of auxiliary equipment to support

COAST GUARD MISSIONS

Section 208 of the House bill authorizes the Coast Guard to cover personal motorized vehicles of members of the Coast Guard Auxiliary, in limited circumstances, under Coast Guard claims procedures when an Auxiliary member is towing, under official Coast Guard orders and in support of Coast Guard missions, trailers that carry government owned boats and other equipment. Currently, an Auxiliary member is only eligible for liability coverage under Coast Guard claims procedures when the member uses his own vehicle to tow his own boat or Auxiliary equipment that has been designated for Coast Guard use.

Section 404 of the Senate amendment is substantively similar to the House provision.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision with a clarifying amendment.

Section 209. Coast Guard History Fellowships

Section 209 of the House bill authorizes the Secretary to develop regulations to award Coast Guard History Fellowships to graduate students who agree to prepare their doctoral dissertations on issues related to the history of the Coast Guard.

The Senate amendment did not contain a similar provision.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision with an amendment that limits the total amount of any fellowship to $25,000 per year and the number of fellowships awarded in each year to no more than two.

Section 210. Icebreakers

Sec. 210 of the House bill requires the Secretary to submit, not later than 90 days after the date of the enactment of the Act, to the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate a plan for operation and maintenance of Coast Guard icebreakers in the waters of Antarctica after FY 2006 that does not rely on the transfer of funds to the Coast Guard by any other Federal agency. The plan must be implemented after FY 2006, subject to the availability of appropriations.

Sec. 210 of the Senate amendment requires the Coast Guard to take all necessary measures to maintain, at a minimum, its current vessel capacity for carrying out icebreaking in the Arctic and Antarctic regions and for the long-term recapitalization of such vessels. It authorizes $100,000,000 for the Department in which the Coast Guard is operating to carry out this section.

The Conference substitute adopts a provision that requires the Coast Guard to submit to Congress not later than 90 days after enactment a plan to operate and maintain the POLAR STAR, POLAR SEA, and HEALY fleet after FY 2006 and for the long-term recapitalization of the Coast Guard's polar icebreaking fleet. The provision further directs the Coast Guard to take all measures necessary to maintain current operational capabilities to carry out icebreaking operations in the Arctic, the Antarctic, the Great Lakes and the Northeast. Lastly, the provision includes an authorization of $100,000,000 for FY 2006 to carry out these obligations with respect to the Coast Guard's polar icebreakers.

The conferees are extremely concerned by the Administration's continued proposals to divert funds to operate Coast Guard icebreakers from the Coast Guard's budget to that of another Federal agency. Such a transfer of funds from the Coast Guard's control could force the service to operate and maintain these vessels in the future without any reliable source of funding. The conferees strongly agree with the recommendations of the National Academy of Sciences' interim report that the United States retains icebreaking capabilities to assert significant geo-political, security, economic, and scientific interests in the Arctic and Antarctic.

Section 211. Operation as a service in the Navy

Section 211 of the House bill removes the automatic trigger in current law whereby the Coast Guard will operate as a service in the United States Navy upon the declaration of war. It retains the provision in current law whereby the Coast Guard will operate as a service in the Navy when the President directs.

The Senate amendment does not contain a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts language that clarifies that the Coast Guard shall operate as a service in the Navy only upon positive action by Congress or the President.

Section 212. Limitation on transfer to St. Elizabeths Hospital

Section 215 of the House bill provides that the Coast Guard may not move any of its personnel, property, or other assets to the West Campus of St. Elizabeths Hospital until the Administrator of General Services submits to the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation and the Committee on Environment and Public Works of the Senate plans to provide road access to the site from Interstate 295 and for the design of facilities for at least one federal agency other than the Coast Guard that would house no less than 2,000 employees at such location.

The Senate amendment does not contain a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision with an amendment that adds several items to the scope of the plans that are required to be submitted to Congress.

Section 213. Cooperative arrangements

The House bill does not contain a comparable provision.

Section 204 of the Senate amendment would require the Coast Guard to submit a report on opportunities for and the feasibility of co-locating Coast Guard assets and personnel at facilities of other Armed Services branches as well as entering into cooperative agreements for carrying out Coast Guard missions.

The Conference substitute adopts the Senate provision with a technical modification. The conferees direct the Coast Guard to examine Naval Station Everett and Naval Station Pascagoula for such potential arrangements.

Section 214. Biodiesel feasibility report

The House bill does not contain a comparable provision.

Section 209 of the Senate amendment would require the Coast Guard to submit a report on the feasibility of using bio-diesel fuel in both new and existing vehicles and vessels.

The Conference substitute adopts the Senate provision. The conferees expect the Coast Guard to identify and consider analyses on the use of biodiesel fuel conducted by other agencies as part of its study.

Section 215. Boating Safety Director

The House bill does not contain a comparable provision.

Section 408 of the Senate amendment would ensure that the individual who is assigned as the Director of the Coast Guard's Office of Boating Safety office will be a uniformed officer in the rank of Captain.

The Conference substitute adopts the Senate provision.

Section 216. Hangar at Coast Guard Air Station Barbers Point

The House bill does not contain a comparable provision.

Section 409 of the Senate amendment would require the Coast Guard to submit a report that includes a proposal and cost analysis for constructing an enclosed hangar at Coast Guard Air Station Barbers Point. The current station is not enclosed and is not 10 large enough to house a single C-130. Due to the resulting exposure, aircraft are experiencing corrosion.

The Conference substitute adopts the Senate provision.

Section 217. Promotion of Coast Guard Officers

The House bill does not contain a comparable provision.

Section 410 of the Senate amendment modifies the requirement for advice and consent of the Senate for officer appointments to the rank of Lieutenant (O-3) and below in both peacetime and wartime.

The Conference substitute adopts the Senate provision.

Section 218. Redesignation of Coast Guard Law Specialists as Judge Advocates

The House bill does not contain a comparable provision.

Section 407 of the Senate amendment would redesignate Coast Guard "law specialists" as "judge advocates." The Coast Guard is currently the only military service that does not use the title "judge advocate" for its military attorneys.

The Conference substitute adopts the Senate provision.

TITLE III—SHIPPING AND NAVIGATION

Section 301. Treatment of ferries as passenger vessels

Section 301 of the House bill amends the definition of "passenger vessel" and "small passenger vessel" to include ferries that carry passengers with or without charge.

The Senate amendment does not contain a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision.

Section 302. Great Lakes pilotage annual rate-making

Section 302 of the House bill requires the Coast Guard to review and adjust pilotage rates as necessary by March 1 of each year, which is in advance of the opening of the Great Lakes shipping season. Annual adjustments lend stability to the shipping system by avoiding the much larger increases that have occurred recently when multiple years lapse between adjustments.

The Senate amendment does not contain a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute includes a provision that requires the Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating to adjust Great Lakes pilotage rates annually based on an annual review of base pilotage rates that are required to be established not less than every 5 years following a full rulemaking process. It is not, however, the intent of the conferees that the adjustment of annual rates be subject to a full rulemaking process.

Section 303. Certification of vessel nationality in drug smuggling cases

Section 303 of the House bill amends the Maritime Drug Law Enforcement Act to strike the requirement that the United States receive a denial of a vessel's claim of registry from a foreign country before asserting jurisdiction over a vessel. The revised language requires only that the United States receive a response from a foreign government regarding the claim of registry. Therefore, this amendment would allow the U.S. to prove that a flag State, which the defendant alleged has jurisdiction, does not have such jurisdiction if the flag State, in response to a U.S. inquiry, responds that it can neither confirm nor deny a suspect vessel's nationality.

Section 210 of the Senate amendment contains a substantively similar provision with a technical change that clarifies that the response of a foreign nation may be made by radio, telephone, or similar oral or electronic means and is conclusively proved by certification of the Secretary of State or the Secretary's designee.

The Conference substitute adopts the Senate provision with a technical amendment.

Section 304. LNG tankers

Section 304 of the House bill requires the Secretary of Transportation to develop a program to promote the transportation of liquefied natural gas (LNG) by the maritime transportation sector. The provision also amends the Deepwater Port Act to direct the Secretary to prioritize the processing of licenses for LNG facilities that would be supplied by U.S.-flagged LNG vessels.

The Senate amendment does not include a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision with an amendment that amends the Deepwater Port Act to require an applicant for a deepwater port license to include, as part of the application, information regarding the vessels that are reasonably expected to service the port upon construction. The provision also requires the Coast Guard to provide the same information to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission as part of the Coast Guard's contribution to the Environmental Impact Statement for landside liquefied natural gas and liquefied petroleum facilities.

Section 305. Use of maritime safety and security teams

The House bill does not include a comparable provision.

Section 704 of the Senate amendment provides that the Secretary may use maritime safety and security teams to implement any mission of the Coast Guard.

The Conference substitute adopts the Senate provision with a technical amendment.

Section 306. Enhanced civil penalties for violations of the Maritime Transportation Security Act

The House bill does not include a comparable provision.

Section 704 of the Senate amendment would amend section 70119 of title 46, United States Code, to permit the Secretary to assess substantial separate and continuing civil penalties to compel owners and operators of vessels and facilities to comply with MTSA. The total fines per violation would not exceed $50,000 during FY2006, $75,000 during FY2007, and $100,000 after FY2007.

The Conference substitute adopts a provision that makes each day during which a violation of Chapter 701 of title 46, United States Code, a separate violation and caps a civil penalty for a violation at no more than $50,000. Additionally the conferees agree that the Secretary shall have the prerogative to take into account the nature, circumstances, and extent of the violation in assessing the penalty.

This section will add a dimension of enforcement flexibility for the Secretary to assess a civil penalty for each day an owner/operator remains non-compliant beyond the first day on which the violation was cited. Currently, the only alternative means of enforcement is for the Secretary to order cessation of vessel or facility operation until the owner or operator corrects the outstanding violation. This provision will expand the enforcement options available to the Secretary under MTSA, consistent with other statutes that provide for a separate violation for each day a violation remains outstanding.

Section 307. Training of cadets at United States Merchant Marine Academy

Section 406 of the House bill authorizes cadets at the Merchant Marine Academy to train aboard foreign-flagged liquefied natural gas (LNG) vessels if the Secretary determines that such training is in the interest of the United States.

The Senate amendment does not include a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision.

Currently, cadets at the Academy are prohibited from training aboard foreign-flagged vessels; however there are no U.S.-flagged LNG vessels in operation. Future national energy strategies will likely place increased emphasis on the transport of LNG to U.S. ports resulting in a high demand for merchant mariners with previous training and experience aboard LNG vessels. This authority will allow Merchant Marine Academy cadets to gain that training in the interim before U.S.-flagged LNG vessels come into operation.

Section 308. Reports from mortgagees of vessels

Section 411 of the House bill authorizes the Secretary to require reports from mortgagees in addition to those required of owners, masters and charterers. Section 12120 of Title 46, United States Code, authorizes the Secretary of the Department in which the Coast Guard is operating to require owners, masters and charterers of vessels engaged in the coastwise trade and the fisheries to submit reports to ensure compliance with vessel documentation laws. These reports may be in any reasonable form prescribed by the Secretary.

Section 206 of the Senate amendment is identical.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision.

Section 309. Determination of the Secretary

Section 413 of the House bill would prevent the Secretary from considering any felony conviction that occurred more than 7 years prior to the date of the Secretary's determination when evaluating whether an individual poses a terrorism risk for the United States for the purpose of obtaining a transportation security card. This provision also specifies that an appeal of a denial of an application for a transportation security card must include an opportunity for a hearing before an administrative law judge.

The Senate amendment does not include a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts a provision that requires the Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating to establish a review process before administration law judges to consider an appeal of a denial of an application for a transportation security card.

Nothing in this section provides authority for the Secretary or the Administrative Law Judge to make a separate determination as to whether an individual may be denied admission to the United States or removed from the United States under the Immigration and Nationality Act. Those determinations are to be governed by the Immigration and Nationality Act and not section 70105 of title 46, United States Code.

Section 310. Setting, relocating, and recovery of anchors

Section 415 of the House bill prohibits the use of a vessel that has not been documented under U.S. law with a registry endorsement to set or move anchors or other mooring equipment of a mobile offshore drilling unit located above or on the outer Continental Shelf.

Section 217 of the Senate amendment contains a similar provision that additionally prohibits the movement of merchandise or personnel to or from a point in the United States from or to a mobile offshore drilling unit located over the outer Continental Shelf that is not attached to the seabed or attached to the seabed but not actively exploring for oil and gas resources.

The Conference substitute adopts a provision that prohibits the use of a vessel that does not hold a registry endorsement to set or move anchors or other mooring equipment of a mobile offshore drilling unit located over the outer Continental Shelf or to transport merchandise or personnel to or from a point in the United States from or to a mobile offshore drilling unit located over the outer Continental Shelf that is not attached to the seabed. The purpose of subsection (c)(1)(A) is to require that only an American registered vessel can engage in any activity performed in connection with the mooring or unmooring of a mobile offshore drilling unit located over the U.S. outer Continental Shelf.

Section 311. International tonnage measurement of vessels engaged in the Aleutian Trade

Section 416 of the House bill would amend Chapter 33 of title 46, United States Code, to apply the current exemption from Coast Guard inspection for certain fish tender vessels that are 500 gross tons or less, as measured under the regulatory tonnage system, and engaged in the Aleutian trade to such vessels that are 2,500 gross tons or less, as measured under the International Tonnage Convention.

The Senate amendment does not include a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision.

Under current law, fish tender vessels that are not more than 500 gross tons, as measured under regulatory tonnage, or an alternate tonnage to be prescribed by the Secretary and engaged in the Aleutian trade are exempt from Coast Guard inspection requirements. However, the Coast Guard has never completed the rulemaking process to establish an equivalent alternate tonnage under the international measurement system. As a result, the Aleutian trade fleet has experienced confusion and complications as vessel owners seek to proceed with fleet modernization plans that call for the replacement of current vessels with new vessels that have been measured under the International Tonnage Convention. This provision will alleviate the delay in implementing regulations establishing alternate tonnages as part of the transition from traditional regulatory tonnage to the international measures system.

The conferees recommend that the Coast Guard and the Secretary take swift action to complete the regulatory process to adopt alternate tonnage systems for all vessel classes in the U.S. fleet.

Section 312. Riding gangs

Section 425 of the House bill would authorize foreign citizens who are not considered seamen and who do not carry out watchstanding functions aboard a vessel to carry out certain repair work on U.S.-flag vessels while underway. The provision also requires that any such foreign personnel must possess a valid transportation security card that is required for maritime workers under section 70105 of title 46, United States Code.

The Senate amendment does not include a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts a provision that would authorize the use of foreign citizens who are not considered seamen and who do not carry out watchstanding functions aboard a vessel to carry out certain repair work on U.S.-flag vessels while underway when U.S. citizens or residents are unavailable to complete the work and for not more than 60 days in each calendar year.

The conferees intend to allow for the employment of certain individuals on freight vessels on international voyages for extended periods qualifying as "riding gang members" without placing these vessels at a competitive disadvantage against similar foreign flag vessels. Under this section, riding gang members may only perform repairs consistent with the provisions of the section, as deemed necessary by the Master, acting on behalf of the vessel operator. This language in no way prevents or limits a vessel's Master from obtaining necessary personnel to perform unforeseen emergency repairs when such circumstances arise. Under the section, the Master, acting on behalf of the vessel operator, may utilize riding gang personnel, in addition to the 60 days allowed under this section, under certain situations when a riding gang member is necessary to perform warranty work.

This section requires each riding gang member to undergo a criminal background check and requires the vessel owner or operator to certify that these checks have been completed. New section 8106(a)(1)(A) of title 46 U.S. Code requires that such individuals possess a valid United States nonimmigrant visa for persons desiring to enter the United States temporarily if they are not a U.S. citizen or alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence.

The section also provides for chemical testing, as well as compliance with shipboard familiarization training in accordance with the International Convention of Training, Certification, and Watchkeeping for Seafarers, 1978, as amended. The Coast Guard is expressly authorized to order the removal of an individual found with probable cause to have committed certain criminal offenses or otherwise constitutes a threat to the safety of U.S. flag freight vessels.

The conferees do not intend to alter collective bargaining agreements that freight vessel owners or operators may have with U.S. maritime labor unions or their documented mariners through this section; nor is it intended in any way to derogate from the traditional maritime jurisdiction of any maritime labor unions. Owners and operators will be required to ensure that an agreement be entered into with each riding gang member that meets or exceeds the minimum international standards of all applicable ILO conventions to which the United States is a party, and shall, at a minimum, include all of the merchant seamen protection and relief provisions contained in the United States Code, including but not limited to those that are set forth in Chapter 103 of Title 46 of the United States Code.

Under this section, violations are punishable by a civil penalty of not more than $10,000 a day, and each day of a continuing violation constitutes a separate violation. The legislation further establishes maximum penalties for continuing violations. Moreover, in determining the amount of the penalty, the Secretary is authorized to take into account the nature, circumstances, extent, and gravity of the violation committed and, with respect to the violator, the degree of culpability, history or prior offenses, ability to pay, and such other matters as justice may require.

TITLE IV—MISCELLANEOUS

Section 401. Authorization of Junior Reserve Officers Training Program Pilot Program

Section 402 of the House bill authorizes the Secretary to carry out a pilot program to establish a Coast Guard junior reserve officers training program in Camden County, North Carolina.

The Senate amendment does not include a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision with an amendment to clarify that active duty officers and members of the Coast Guard, including reservists on active duty, may not be stationed as administrators or instructors as part of the pilot program.

Section 402. Transfer

Section 403 of the House bill authorizes the Secretary to convey the decommissioned Coast Guard cutter PLANTREE to the CAS Foundation, Inc., a nonprofit corporation in the State of Indiana.

The Senate amendment does not include a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision with an amendment that permits the vessel to be used for humanitarian purposes.

Section 403. LORAN-C

The House bill does not include a comparable provision.

Section 214 of the Senate amendment would authorize the Department of Transportation to transfer $25,000,000 in FY 2006 and in FY 2007 from the Federal Aviation Administration to the Coast Guard for recapitalization of the LORAN-C radio navigation system.

The Conference substitute adopts the Senate provision.

Section 404. Long-range vessel tracking system

Section 404 of the House bill directs the Secretary to carry out a pilot program to demonstrate long-range vessel tracking systems pursuant to 46 U.S.C. 70115. The section also authorizes an amount of $4 million in FY 2006 to carry out the pilot project.

Section 215 of the Senate amendment includes a similar provision with an additional requirement that the project be conducted with the assistance of an existing non-profit maritime organization that has a demonstrated capability of operating satellite communications systems able to transmit this type of data. In addition, it authorizes funding for each of FYs 2006, 2007, and 2008.

The Conference substitute adopts the Senate provision with an amendment to make the program subject to the availability of appropriations.

Section 405. Marine vessel and cold water safety education

The House bill does not include a comparable provision.

Section 216 of the Senate amendment requires the Coast Guard to continue existing agreements with organizations that provide marine vessel safety training and cold water immersion education to fishermen and children.

The Conference substitute adopts the Senate provision.

Section 406. Reports

Section 405 of the House bill requires the Secretary to review and report to Congress on the adequacy of Coast Guard air and surface assets at several Coast Guard stations and sectors to carry out the Service's traditional missions of search and rescue, drug and migrant interdiction, and marine environmental protection in addition to homeland security responsibilities.

The Senate amendment does not include a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts a provision that is similar to the House-passed provision.

Section 407. Conveyance of the Decommissioned Coast Guard Cutter MACKINAW

Section 408 of the House bill directs the Commandant of the Coast Guard to convey the USCGC MACKINAW to the City and County of Cheboygan, Michigan upon the vessel's scheduled decommissioning. The section requires that the cutter be used as a museum and be made available to the Federal Government if needed in time of war or national emergency.

Section 408 of the Senate amendment contains a similar provision but requires the Commandant to deliver the vessel to the City between June 10, 2006 and June 30, 2006.

The Conference substitute adopts the Senate provision with a slight modification to the delivery schedule to allow for a change in the date of decommissioning and an adjustment to convey the vessel directly to a non-profit museum.

Section 408. Deepwater reports

Section 409 of the House bill requires the Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating to submit a complete implementation plan for the Deepwater program not later than 30 days after the enactment of the Act. The plan was required to include a complete timeline for the acquisition of each new Deepwater asset and the phase-out of legacy assets for the life of the program, a projection of the remaining operational lifespan of each legacy asset, a detailed justification for each modification in each Integrated Deepwater Program asset that fulfills the revised mission needs statement for the program, and a total cost of the program that aligns with the revised mission needs statement for the program.

Sections 212 and 213 of the Senate amendment are substantively similar provisions. Section 212 of the Senate amendment would require the Coast Guard to submit a report on the status of their compliance with the GAO's recommendations in report GAO-04-380, "Coast Guard Deepwater Program Needs Increased Attention to Management and Contractor Oversight." Section 213 would require the Coast Guard to provide an acquisition time line and associated costs for each asset that reflects project completion in 10 years and 15 years. It also would require the Coast Guard to contract with an independent entity to analyze the plan and assess whether the mix of assets and capabilities selected as part of that plan will meet the Coast Guard's criteria of performance, minimizing total ownership costs, and whether additional or different assets should be considered as part of the plan.

The Conference substitute adopts a provision that require the Coast Guard to submit reports that include components from both the House- and Senate-passed provisions.

The conferees remain concerned that legacy assets are deteriorating at a much faster rate than was originally expected when the Deepwater plan was first developed. Coast Guard vessels and aircraft are increasingly unavailable to carry out the Service's missions due to unscheduled maintenance and repairs. The conferees again support acceleration of the Deepwater program to, in part, provide new assets to replace aging legacy assets that are jeopardizing the success of Coast Guard missions, putting at risk the lives of the men and women of the Coast Guard and siphoning away funding from the acquisition of new assets.

The conferees expect that the reports required under this section will contain a complete delivery schedule for each asset to be acquired, a projection of the remaining operational lifespan of each legacy asset, a detailed justification for each modification to the original Deepwater plan to meet the Service's revised mission needs statement, and an explanation of the costs that will be required above the estimated costs of the original Deepwater program resulting from such modifications.

Section 409. Helicopters

Section 410 of the House bill would limit the number of HH-65 helicopters that the Coast Guard may acquire to no more than four and prohibit the Commandant from acquiring such helicopters until 90 days after the submission to Congress of a determination that the cost of acquiring used HH-65 helicopters and the cost to modifying those helicopters or airframes to meet the same design, construction, and equipment standards that apply to the current fleet of HH-65 helicopters is more cost-effective than an acquisition or leasing of a similar number of MH-68 helicopters.

The Senate amendment does not include a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts a provision that requires the Coast Guard to study and report to Congress an analysis of the potential impacts, including costs and benefits, of a requirement that the Coast Guard only acquires helicopters or major helicopter components built in the United States. The conferees understand that some foreign helicopter manufacturers own U.S. manufacturing facilities capable of building helicopters and some helicopter components, but that some components of those helicopters are only manufactured outside the United States.

Section 410. Newton Creek, New York City, New York

Section 412 of the House bill requires the Coast Guard to carry out a study and report to Congress on the pollution of Newtown Creek in the city of New York, New York caused by oil seepage.

The Senate amendment does not contain a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision with a modification to require the Environmental Protection Agency to carry out the study rather than the Coast Guard.

Section 411. Report on technology

Section 414 of the House bill requires the Commandant of the Coast Guard to submit a report that includes an assessment of the availability and effectiveness of technologies that evaluate and identify inbound vessels and their cargo for potential threats before they reach United States ports, including technologies already tested or in testing at joint operating centers, as well as the costs associated with implementing such technology at all United States ports.

The Senate amendment does not include a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts a provision that is substantively similar to the House-passed provision.

Section 412. Assessment and planning

Section 417 of the House bill authorizes an amount of $400,000 to be appropriated to the Coast Guard to carry out an assessment of and planning for the impact of an Arctic Sea Route on the indigenous people of Alaska.

The Senate amendment does not contain a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision with an amendment to authorize the funding to the Maritime Administration to carry out the assessment and planning rather than the Coast Guard.

Section 413. Homeport

Section 418 of the House bill requires, subject to the availability of appropriations, the Commandant of the Coast Guard to homeport the Coast Guard cutter HEALY in Anchorage, Alaska.

The Senate amendment does not contain a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts a provision that requires the Coast Guard to conduct a study to assess the current homeport for the Coast Guard polar icebreaker HEALY and to assess whether that site or alternative homeporting arrangements would enhance the Coast Guard's capabilities to meet the recommendations of the Interim Report of the National Academy of Sciences (Polar Icebreaker Roles and U.S. Future Needs: A Preliminary Assessment), namely that the United States should maintain dedicated, year-round icebreaking capability in the Arctic. The provision further requires the Coast Guard to report the findings of the study to Congress not later than one year after the enactment of this Act.

Section 414. Opinions regarding whether certain facilities create obstructions to navigation

Section 419 of the House bill requires the Coast Guard to provide an opinion in writing that states whether a proposed wind energy facility would create an obstruction to navigation in any case in which a person requests the Secretary of the Army to take action to permit a wind energy facility under the authority of section 10 of the Act of March 3, 1899 (33 U.S.C. 403).

The Senate bill does not contain a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts a provision that prohibits the construction of an offshore wind energy facility in Nantucket Sound unless approved by the Commandant of the Coast Guard.

Section 415. Port Richmond

Section 424 of the House bill would prohibit the Commandant of the Coast Guard from approving a security plan under section 70103(c) of title 46, United States Code, for a liquefied natural gas import facility at Port Richmond in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania until the Secretary conducts a vulnerability assessment under section 70102(b) of such title.

The Senate bill does not contain a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision.

Section 416. Eligibility to participate in Western Alaska Community Development Quota Program

Section 426 of the House bill clarifies that the approval by the Secretary of Commerce of a community development plan for a Western Alaska Community Development Group does not constitute a major Federal action under Federal law.

The Senate bill does not contain a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute establishes the Western Alaska Community Development Quota program and lists the purposes of the program. It is the intent of Congress that all activities of the CDQ groups continue to be considered tax-exempt (as has been the practice since the program's inception in 1992) so that the six CDQ groups can more readily address the pressing economic needs of the region.

The Conference substitute requires that the CDQ program continue to receive the same annual percentage allocations of each fishery as it does now under existing Federal statute and regulation. It also requires that the percentage of a particular fishery allocated to the CDQ program shall be a directed fishing allowance if treated as such under existing practice and law (such as in the Bering Sea and Aleutian Islands pollock fishery), or in the alternative to include both directed fishing and non-target fishing allocation needs in fisheries where that is the current practice and law for the CDQ allocation. It is not the intent of the conferees to either change the current allocations to the CDQ program or create "squid box" problems where minor species such as squid inhibit any directed fishing under the CDQ program.

The Conference substitute provides that the allocation to the CDQ program of certain Bering Sea and Aleutian Islands groundfish species (including Pacific cod, mackerel, and flatfish species) be permanently increased to 10 percent (up from 7.5 percent) and treated as directed fishing allocations as soon as any quota-type programs are established in any sector of the applicable fishery or sector allocations are adopted in the fishery.

The Conference substitute requires that a directed fishing allocation of 10 percent be made to the CDQ program in any new fishery that is opened in the Bering Sea and Aleutian Islands.

The Conference substitute codifies existing practice with respect to processing and any other rights related to CDQ allocations. It specifies that the allocations to the CDQ program itself, as well as the allocations to each of the CDQ groups include the harvesting rights, the rights to process the fish, and any other rights or privileges related to the fish that are associated with the allocations as of March 1, 2006. This is not intended to give the CDQ program or the CDQ groups processing privileges that they do not already have. The language is also not intended to change the inshore/offshore split contained in the American Fisheries Act.

The Conference substitute requires that the harvest of the CDQ allocations be regulated in a manner no more restrictive or costly than for other participants in the applicable sector of the fishery. This section only applies to fisheries with individual quotas or fishing cooperatives.

The Conference substitute allocates to each CDQ group the same percentage of each species that it was authorized to harvest annually by the Secretary as of March 1, 2006. It codifies the existing allocations among the groups dating back to 2003 as well as allocations for new crab CDQ allocations which were approved by the National Marine Fisheries Service in 2005. This includes all species for which the CDQ groups receive an allocation. Additionally, the provision establishes a new system to reallocate up to 10 percent of a CDQ group's allocation if the group fails to meet goals and criteria weighted by the group itself and based on the needs of its region.

By eliminating short term changes in fishery allocations, the conferees intend for the CDQ groups to be able to more readily address the economic needs of western Alaska.

The Conference substitute clarifies existing law by naming the 65 communities and six entities eligible to participate in the CDQ program.

The Conference substitute establishes the requirements that each of the six CDQ groups must fulfill to maintain eligibility in the CDQ program. Each group must be governed by a board of directors, at least 75 percent of the members of which are resident fishermen from the CDQ group's member villages, and have at least one director from each of its member villages. Each CDQ group must select a representative to serve on the CDQ panel.

The Conference substitute allows each CDQ group to make up to 20 percent of its annual investments: (I) on non-fishery projects in its member villages; (II) on pooled or joint investments with other CDQ groups in their regions; or (III) for the purpose of matching Federal or State grants for projects or programs in its member villages. Any remaining investments must be in fishery related projects or for purposes consistent with the current practices of the CDQ groups. It also requires each CDQ group to submit an annual written statement to the Secretary of Commerce and the State of Alaska which summarizes its investments for the previous year.

The Conference substitute requires CDQ groups to comply with any excessive share limitations in the BSAI fisheries only to the extent of their proportional ownership in any other entities. This provision is intended to address the inherent conflict between excessive share limitations in the fisheries and the CDQ program goal to expand the economic base of the adjacent communities through investment in the fisheries.

The excessive share limitations imposed by the North Pacific Council, Secretary, and Congress are mainly intended to prevent for-profit entities and individuals from acquiring excessive shares of fishing privileges in the fisheries. The excessive share concept stems from National Standard Four of the Magnuson-Stevens Act. It pre-dates the CDQ program and fails to take into account the unique characteristics of the CDQ program.

The Conference substitute would therefore exempt CDQ groups from the "attribution" requirements of the American Fisheries Act, the crab quota program, and other federal regulations. Under the "attribution" rules, an entity is attributed with the entirety of another entity's harvesting or processing capacity even if the original entity only owns as little as 10 percent of the other entity. Under the substitute, if a CDQ group owns 25 percent of another entity, only 25 percent of the other entity's harvesting or processing capacity would be counted against the CDQ group in determining compliance with any excessive share limitation. Similarly, if a CDQ group owns 77 percent of another entity, only 77 percent of the other entity's capacity would be counted against the CDQ group. The provision is intended to allow the CDQ groups to continue to expand in the BSAI fisheries off their shores, while not completely exempting CDQ groups from excessive share limitations.

The Conference substitute requires each CDQ group to comply with State of Alaska law for the purpose of ensuring that the group provides an annual report to its member villages describing its financial operations, including its general and administrative costs and compensation levels. This provision ensures that the State of Alaska's role is to ensure adequate "transparency" to the member villages, particularly with respect to administrative costs.

The Conference substitute requires CDQ groups to additionally comply with State of Alaska banking and securities law to prevent fraud. This requirement removes the State of Alaska from the investment planning and decisions of the CDQ groups, but creates anew, narrower role, to assist the member villages in ensuring against any fraud by the CDQ group. The provision also Clause (iii) requires that the CDQ group and State of Alaska keep confidential from public disclosure any information the disclosure of which would be harmful to the entity or its investments.

The Conference substitute exempts CDQ groups from compliance with any State approval of financial transactions, community development plans, and community development plan amendments, however the provision requires CDQ groups to comply with the decennial review conducted by the State of Alaska.

The Conference substitute establishes a community development quota program panel. The CDQ Panel will consist of a member from each of the six CDQ groups.

The CDQ Panel removes the need for governmental oversight of the CDQ program and encourages the CDQ groups to work together. Decisions by the CDQ Panel require the unanimous vote of all six Panel members. The Panel may not act if there is a vacancy.

The Conference substitute requires a decennial review of the CDQ program by the State of Alaska. The first review will be in 2012. The CDQ Panel establishes a system to be used by the State of Alaska for purposes of the decennial review that allows each CDQ group to assign relative values to certain criteria in order to match the relative weights of the criteria to the specific needs identified by the CDQ group for its villages. The criteria are: (I) changes in the population, poverty level, and economic development in the CDQ group's member villages; (II) the overall financial performance of the CDQ group, including its fishery and non-fishery investments; (III) the employment, scholarships, and training supported by the CDQ group; (IV) the achievement of the goals of the entities Community Development Plan. Each CDQ group would weight these criteria to reflect the needs of its member villages.

The Conference substitute requires the State of Alaska to use the criteria as weighted by each CDQ group to determine the performance of each CDQ group under the decennial review. The State of Alaska is required to make each performance determination on the record and after an opportunity for a hearing. If the State applies the CDQ group's weightings and determines that a CDQ group has maintained or improved its overall performance, the allocations to the CDQ group are automatically extended for the next 10-year period. If, on the other hand, the State determines that a CDQ group has failed to maintain or improve its performance as measured under the weighted criteria, then at least 90 percent of the CDQ group's allocation of each species under is automatically extended, and the State may determine an appropriate reduction of up to 10 percent of each species for all or part of the next 10-year period. If State law prevents the State from making this determination then the Secretary may make the appropriate reduction. Any reductions imposed by the State of Alaska or the Secretary under shall be reallocated for the period of the reduction to the other non-penalized groups in proportion to each non-penalized group's allocation of the applicable species.

The Conference substitute eliminates the requirement that CDQ groups seek either the review or approval by the Secretary of community development plans or amendments to community development plans. The Conference agreement does not require the State of Alaska to approve community development plans and amendments.

Nothing in the Conference substitute should be construed or implemented in a way that causes any interruption to the CDQ program or to the opportunity of CDQ groups to harvest their allocations.

Subsection (b) would amend existing CDQ loan authority to set the upper limit for the total of the CDQ loans provided by the recent bill language, and paragraph (2) would clarify that CDQ loans under the 1998 CDQ program may be used for the purchase of vessels, processors, permits, quota, and cooperative rights.

Section 417. Quota share allocation

Section 427 of the House bill provides that a portion of the total crab processing quota shares equal to 1.5 percent of the total allowable catch for the Bristol Bay red king crab fishery and the Bering Sea C. Opilio crab fishery be made available to the vessel Blue Dutch, LLC in years when the total allowable catch for that fishery is more than 2 percent higher than the total allowable catch for that fishery during calendar year 2005.

The provision further provides that the Voluntary Three-Pie Cooperative Program for crab fisheries of the Bering Sea and Aleutian Islands implementing regulations shall thereafter be adjusted so that the total of all crab processing quota shares for each fishery referred to equals 90 percent of the total allowable catch.

The Senate bill does not contain a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts a provision that directs the Secretary of Commerce to modify the Voluntary Three-Pie Cooperative Program for crab fisheries of the Bering Sea and Aleutian Islands to provide 0.75 percent of the processor quota share units for the Bristol Bay red king crab fishery and the Bering Sea C. Opilio crab fishery to the vessel Blue Dutch, LLC in years when the total allowable catch for that fishery is more than 2 percent higher than the most recent total allowable catch for that fishery prior to September 15, 2005.

Section 418. Maine fish tender vessels

The House bill does not contain a comparable provision.

Section 211 of the Senate amendment would establish a waiver that would allow vessels not built in the United States to transport fish and shellfish within the coastal waters of the State of Maine if that vessel is ineligible for documentation under chapter 121 of title 46, United States Code because it measures less than 5 net tons and has transported fish or shellfish within the coastal waters of the State of Maine prior to December 31, 2004.

The Conference substitute adopts a provision that authorizes foreign-built vessels that are less than 5 net tons to transport fish or shellfish between places in the State of Maine if that vessel transported fish or shellfish between places in Maine prior to January 1, 2005; the owner, of such vessel owns a valid wholesale seafood license to conduct such transportation that was issued under the Revised Maine Statutes prior to January 1, 2005; the vessel is owned by a person or persons that meet U.S. citizenship requirements under section 2 of the Shipping Act, 1996; and the owner of the vessel submits within 180 days of enactment of this Act an affidavit to the Secretary in which the Coast Guard is operating that certifies that the owner and vessel meet the requirements of this section.

Section 419. Automatic identification system

The House bill does not contain a comparable provision.

Section 219 of the Senate amendment authorizes the Secretary to transfer $1,000,000 to the Department of Commerce for the purposes of awarding a competitive grant to design, develop, and prototype a device that integrates a Class B Automatic Identification System (AIS) transponder with an FCC-approved wireless maritime data device. The Senate-passed amendment also expresses the Sense of the Senate that the Federal Communications Commission should quickly resolve the disposition of its rulemaking on the AIS and licensee use of AIS frequency bands.

The Conference substitute adopts the Senate provision.

Section 420. Voyage data recorder study and report

Section 429 of the House bill would require the Secretary to prescribe regulations to require ferries that carry more than 399 passengers be equipped with a voyage data recorder and to establish standards, methods for approval of models, and procedures for annual performance testing.

The Senate amendment does not include a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts a provision that requires the Coast Guard to conduct a study that examines the costs and benefits of carriage of a voice data recorder aboard ferries that carry 400 or more passengers. The Coast Guard is required to submit the findings of the study to Congress not more than 1 year after enactment and to include a recommendation for proposed legislative language if it is deemed appropriate and necessary.

Section 421. Distant water tuna fleet

The House bill does not contain a comparable provision.

Section 218 of the Senate amendment would permit U.S.-flag purse seine fishing vessels that operate out of American Samoa and that fish exclusively for highly migratory species under a fishing license issued pursuant to the 1987 Treaty of Fisheries Between the Governments of Certain Pacific Islands States and the Government of the United States of America to utilize non-United States licensed and documented personnel to meet manning requirements for a 48-month period beginning on the date of enactment of this Act if, after timely notice of a vacancy, no United States-licensed and documented personnel are readily available.

The Conference substitute adopts a provision that would permit such U.S.-flag vessels to utilize foreign citizens that hold a valid license issued in accordance with the standards established by the 1995 amendments to the Convention on Standards of Training, Certification and Watchkeeping for Seafarers, 1978 (STCW 95) and under competency and training standards that are equivalent or exceed such standards, in the determination of the Secretary, that are required for U.S. licensed personnel. The provision maintains the requirement that the vessel's master be a U.S. citizen licensed by the Coast Guard and provides that this exemption applies only when no U.S. licensed and documented personnel are available. The substitute maintains the sunset and geographical restrictions that were included in the Senate amendment.

TITLE V—LIGHTHOUSES

Section 501. Transfer

Section 501 of the House bill transfers administrative jurisdiction from the Secretary of Agriculture to the Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating over several National Forest System lands in the State of Alaska upon which are located certain Coast Guard facilities, and over improvements situated on the lands, without requiring consideration and directs the Secretary of Interior to select an eligible entity under the National Historic Lighthouse Preservation Act to take custody of the structures and surrounding lands once the Coast Guard has determined that the land is excess property.

The Senate amendment does not contain a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision.

Section 502. Misty Fiords National Monument and Wilderness

Section 502 of the House bill permits the Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating to transfer to the Secretary of Agriculture all administrative jurisdiction over the Tree Point Light Station, without consideration, if the Secretary determines that the Tree Point Light Station is no longer needed for the purposes of the Coast Guard. The Commandant of the Coast Guard, however, may reserve rights to operate and maintain Federal aids to navigation at the site.

The Senate amendment does not contain a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision.

Section 503. Miscellaneous light stations

Section 503 of the House bill specifies that, for purposes of section 416(a)(2) of Public Law 105-383, the Cape St. Elias Light Station shall comprise approximately 10 acres in fee, along with additional access easements issued without consideration by the Secretary of Agriculture, as generally described in the map entitled 'Cape St. Elias Light Station,' dated September 14, 2004. That law authorized the Commandant of the Coast Guard, or the Administrator of the General Services Administration, as appropriate, to convey all right, title, and interest of the United States to Cape St. Elias Light Station to the Cape St. Elias Light Keepers Association; however, it did not clearly describe the property to be conveyed. This provision provides a description of this property.

The Senate amendment does not contain a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision with an amendment that amends Section 325(c)(3) of the Coast Guard Authorization Act of 1993 (Public Law 103-206; 107 Stat. 2432) to include several housing units and related structures with the property that was transferred in association with Point Wilson Lighthouse in the State of Washington under that Act.

Section 504. Inclusion of lighthouse in St. Marks National Wildlife Refuge, Florida

Section 504 of the House bill revokes the reservation of public land described in subsection (b) for lighthouse purposes by the Executive Order dated November 12, 1838, as amended by Public Land Order 5655, dated January 9, 1979, consisting of approximately 8.0 acres within the external boundaries of St. Marks National Wildlife Refuge in Wakulla County, Florida. Administrative jurisdiction over this land, and over all improvements, structures, and fixtures located thereon, is transferred from the department in which the Coast Guard is operating to the Secretary of the Interior, without reimbursement. However, any Federal aids to navigation located at the Refuge will continue to be operated and maintained by the Coast Guard for as long as they are needed for navigational purposes, and the Coast Guard may remove, replace, or install any Federal aid to navigation at the Refuge as may be necessary.

The Senate amendment does not contain a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision with an amendment that prohibits the transfer of the property until the Coast Guard has completed all response and restoration activities at the site.

TITLE VI—DELAWARE RIVER PROTECTION AND MISCELLANEOUS OIL PROVISIONS.

Section 601. Short title

Section 601 of the House bill states that the legislation may be referred to as the "Delaware River Protection Act of 2005".

The Senate amendment does not contain a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute states that this title may be referred to as the "Delaware River Protection Act of 2006".

Section 602. Requirement to notify Coast Guard of release of objects into the navigable waters of the United States

Section 602 of the House bill establishes a requirement to notify the Coast Guard of a release of an object from a vessel or facility that creates an obstruction to navigation. Individuals who fail to "promptly" notify the Coast Guard of a loss of such an object will be subject to existing civil and criminal penalties under the Ports and Waterways Safety Act.

Under Subchapter C of title 33, Code of Federal Regulations, owners of sunken or submerged vessels that could obstruct navigation in U.S. waters must mark and report the existence of the obstruction. However, there is no current statutory or regulatory requirement that an owner of an object, other than a vessel, notify the Coast Guard after the release of such an object into the navigable waterways of the United States. This provision will address that discrepancy and will improve the Coast Guard's capabilities to maintain safe and efficient navigation on U.S. waterways.

The Senate amendment does not contain a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision.

Section 603. Limits on liability

Section 603 of the House bill amends the Oil Pollution Act of 1990 (OPA) to adjust oil spill liability limits to reflect the change in the Consumer Price Index (CPI) since the Act's passage in 1990. The provision would increase liability limits to the December, 2004 CPI-adjusted level (approximately $1,700 per gross ton) over a three year period. The provision makes distinctions between single-hull vessels and double-hull vessels. Liability levels for double-hull vessels would be increased by $500 per gross ton over 3 years, while liability levels for single-hull vessels would be increased by $1,050 per gross ton over three years. This amount is equal to twice the adjustment (approximately $525 per gross ton) based on the increase in the CPI from 1990-2004. The provision also requires the President to adjust the liability limits within three years of the enactment of the Act and every three years thereafter.

OPA established liability limits for tank vessels at a level of $1,200 per gross ton. Under OPA, liability for cleanup costs and damages resulting from oil spills rests with a "responsible party" who is either the owner or operator of a vessel. In the event of a spill, the responsible party must pay removal costs incurred by the government or others and damages to claimants who are injured by the spill. Damages may include natural resources damages, damages to real or personal property, damages for loss of use of a natural resource such as a fishery, damages for lost revenue or profit caused by a spill, and damages for the cost of government response necessitated by the spill.

Under OPA, the President is required to adjust these limits every three years according to changes in the Consumer Price Index (CPI). Despite this requirement, no such adjustments have ever been made. The Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security has recently delegated this authority to the Coast Guard.

The Senate amendment does not contain a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision with an amendment to increase liability limits for single-hull tank vessels to $3,000 per gross ton; for double-hull tank vessels to $1,900 per gross ton; and for nontank vessels to $950 per gross ton. These adjustments are based on the projected increase in the end-of-year CPI figure for calendar year 2006.

The substitute also requires the Coast Guard to provide a report within 45 days of enactment of the Act on the extent to which oil discharges from vessels and non-vessel sources have or are likely to result in response costs and damages that exceed these new limits, the impact on the Oil Spill Liability Trust Fund, and recommendations on whether the liability limits need to be further adjusted. This report is to be updated annually.

Section 604. Requirement to update Philadelphia area contingency plan

Section 604 of the House bill requires the Philadelphia Area Committee to annually update its area contingency plan to include the most recent environmental sensitivity data that has been collected by State and Federal agencies.

The Senate amendment does not contain a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision.

Section 605. Submerged oil removal

Section 605 of the House bill requires the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), in conjunction with the Coast Guard, to establish a submerged oil research program to research methods to detect, monitor and remove submerged oil and improve modeling capabilities to better predict the movement and behavior of submerged oil. The provision also requires the Coast Guard to carry out a demonstration project to demonstrate technologies and processes to detect and remove submerged oil from waterways including the Delaware River.

The Senate amendment does not contain a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision with an amendment to limit the scope of the submerged oil research program to the Delaware River and Delaware Bay region.

Title VII of the Oil Pollution Act establishes an Oil Pollution Research and Development Program and an Interagency Coordinating Committee on Oil Pollution Research to carry out the Program. The program established under this section would carry out specific research on the effects and persistence of submerged oil in addition to the research program that is carried out by the Committee. A large percentage of the oil that was released from the ATHOS I was or still remains submerged at the bottom of the river, and little work has been done to increase capabilities to predict the persistence of or vertical and horizontal movement of oil within the water column.

The conferees recommend that the efforts of the research program be focused on developing methods and technologies to remove or diminish the persistence of submerged oil that is currently found in the Delaware River. Further, the conferees recommend that the effort of the demonstration program be concentrated on evaluating methods and technologies of removing submerged oil of the type that was released into the Delaware River as a result of the grounding of the ATHOS I and under the conditions that are observed in the area of the Delaware River that was impacted by such oil.

Section 606. Assessment of oil spill costs

The House bill does not contain a comparable provision.

The Senate amendment does not contain a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute requires the Government Accountability Office to assess the costs of response activities and claim that resulted from oil spills into U.S. waters since January 1, 1990.

Section 607. Delaware River and Bay Oil Spill Advisory Committee

Section 606 of the House bill establishes an advisory committee composed of representatives from port authorities, shipping interests, oil refineries, labor, river pilots, environmental groups and the general public.

The Committee is tasked with developing recommendations for Congress on the prevention of and response to future oil spills on the Delaware River and Bay.

The Senate amendment does not contain a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision with an amendment to increase the membership of the advisory committee.

The conferees do not intend the advisory committee established under this section to, in any way, assume or duplicate the roles and responsibilities inherent to any existing advisory committees including the Mariners Advisory Committee for the Delaware River and Bay, as well as any committees established under the Oil Pollution Act of 1990 or under Chapter 701 of title 46, United States Code, nor do the conferees wish the advisory committee to duplicate the work of these other entities.

Section 608. Nontank vessels

The House bill does not contain a comparable provision.

Section 519 of the Senate amendment would clarify the applicability of section 701 of P.L. 108-293 (Coast Guard and Maritime Transportation Act of 2004) to nontank vessels within 12 nautical miles of the United States.

The Conference substitute adopts the Senate provision with a technical amendment.

TITLE VII—HURRICANE RESPONSE

Section 701. Homeowners assistance for Coast Guard personnel affected by Hurricanes Katrina or Rita

Section 213 of the House bill authorizes the Secretary to purchase the primary residences of Coast Guard personnel who were assigned to a facility in Louisiana, Mississippi, or Alabama prior to the landfall of Hurricane Katrina that were damaged or destroyed by the storm. Eligible personnel would receive up to 85 percent of fair market value or the amount of any outstanding mortgage, minus an amount of money received from insurance and would transfer to the Secretary all title and interest to the property. The authority to make such purchases is subject to the availability of appropriations.

The Senate amendment does not contain a comparable provision.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision with an amendment to make personnel assigned to facilities in the State of Texas and properties damaged as a result of Hurricane Rita eligible for reimbursement under this section.

The conferees believe that this provision recognizes the unique situation in which the men and women of the Coast Guard are placed. The Coast Guard was among the first on the scene after (and during) Hurricanes Katrina and Rita and rescued approximately 35,000 Americans. At the same time, members suffered great personal losses. Instead of going home to save personal items, they remained on duty.

Section 702. Temporary authorization to extend the duration of licenses, certificates of registry, and merchant mariners' documents

Section 420 of the House bill would authorize the Secretary through December 31, 2006 to temporarily extend the duration of a license or certificate of registry or merchant mariners' document issued for an individual for up to one year if the records of the individual are located at the Coast Guard facility in New Orleans that was damaged by Hurricane Katrina or the individual is a resident of Alabama, Mississippi, or Louisiana.

Section 705 of the Senate amendment contains a similar provision but authorizes extensions "when such action is deemed appropriate and necessary" and extends the authority to grant exemptions through September 30, 2007.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision with an amendment to permit the Secretary to provide an extension to a mariner whose records were damaged or lost as a result of Hurricane Katrina and provides that the authority to grant extensions will expire on April 1, 2007.

The conference adopts this provision to address the concerns of the Coast Guard and Gulf merchant mariners affected by Hurricanes Katrina and Rita. The extension will allow merchant mariners to continue working in the region to while the Coast Guard continues its efforts to recover documents that were held in the Regional Examination Center in New Orleans.

The conferees also direct the Coast Guard to expedite the processing of merchant mariner documents for new applicants from the Gulf Coast region. The dislocation of the local population due to Hurricanes Katrina and Rita left many Gulf Coast vessel operators without enough employees to meet the offshore repair workload. As the speed with which these repairs are made have a significant impact on U.S. energy supplies, the Coast Guard should make every effort to expedite the processing of merchant mariner documents for new applicants required to do this work.

Section 703. Temporary authorization to extend the duration of vessel certification of vessel certificates of inspection

Section 421 of the House bill authorizes the Secretary through December 31, 2006 to temporarily extend the duration or the validity of a certificate of inspection or a certificate of compliance for up to 6 months for a vessel inspected by a Coast Guard Marine Safety Office located in Alabama, Mississippi, or Louisiana.

Section 705 of the Senate amendment contains a similar provision except that it does not limit the application of the provision to vessels inspected by a Coast Guard Marine Safety Office located in Alabama, Mississippi, or Louisiana. Also, the Senate amendment extends authorization through September 30, 2007.

The Conference substitute adopts the House provision with an amendment to extend the authority through April 1, 2007.

Section 704. Preservation of leave lost due to Hurricane Katrina operations

The House bill does not contain a comparable provision.

Section 707 of the Senate amendment would preserve up to 90 days of accumulated leave that would otherwise be lost for Coast Guardsmen who were stationed in or assisted with operations in the areas that were affected by Hurricane Katrina. This section also provides that any leave in excess of 60 days that is preserved under this language will be lost if not used prior to the end of FY 2006.

The Conference substitute adopts the Senate provision.

The conference adopts this provision to rectify the inequity that would occur to certain Coast Guard personnel who worked in the region affected by hurricane Katrina and did not take accumulated leave.

Section 705. Report on impacts to Coast Guard

Section 214 of the House bill requires the Coast Guard to submit a report on the personnel and assets deployed to assist in the response to Hurricane Katrina and the costs incurred as a result of such response that are in addition to funds already appropriated for the Coast Guard for FY 2005.

THE PRESCRIPTION DRUG BENEFIT

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. FORTENBERRY). Under the Speaker's announced policy of January 4, 2005, the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. GINGREY) is recognized for 60 minutes as the designee of the majority leader.

Mr. GINGREY. Mr. Speaker, I am very happy, of course, to be here tonight to take this leadership hour and talk about something that is really near and dear to my heart but, more importantly, near and dear to the hearts of 41, 42 million seniors in this country who finally, because of the leadership of this Congress, the Republican leadership and this President, have delivered on a promise that was made years ago. And that delivery, I know a lot about them because as an OB/GYN physician before coming to Congress, I delivered 5,200 babies, but this may be the best delivery that I have ever been a part of, Mr. Speaker, and that is delivering, as I say, on a promise made by former Congresses and other Presidents over the 45-year history of the Medicare program, which was introduced in 1965 with no prescription drug benefit. And what we have done here is add part D, the "D" for "drugs" or, if you want, the "delivery" that we have finally provided to our American seniors.

This prescription drug benefit is a wonderful thing, and, of course, we are going to talk about that tonight. I have a number of my colleagues that have joined me, and we will be getting information from them, from their districts. We will be engaging in colloquy as we go through the hour, Mr. Speaker, talking about the success stories because we do not want to stand up here for an hour and expect people to take our word for this. I think it is very important, Mr. Speaker, that we hear from our seniors, whether they are from the 11th District of Georgia that I represent or whether they are from the gentlewoman's Virginia District, Representative THELMA DRAKE, who is here with us, and others.

But when we passed this bill in November of 2003 and the President signed it into law shortly thereafter in December, we had so much criticism from the other side of the aisle, it was really amazing. Of course, maybe I could understand the politics of it back then because we had finally delivered on a promise that maybe they had made and not delivered on. But we are into the sign-up period, and, in fact, May 15, after that date there is a penalty for late signing up, and yet the other side is still discouraging the 8 million that have not yet signed up. And that is, Mr. Speaker, I think just so disappointing.

I have heard for the last 1½ years the criticism from the Democrats about this program being nothing but a giveaway to the pharmaceutical industry, that the program was designed by them, that the government cannot negotiate price controls.

Well, I want to take a few minutes, Mr. Speaker, before yielding to my good friend from Virginia. Listen to this: on March 9, 2000, the Clinton
