

Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania. He then served as a lieutenant commander in the U.S. Public Health Service at the National Cancer Institute and completed a one-year senior residency at Jackson Memorial Hospital in Miami. He joined the faculty of the University of Miami School of Medicine in 1966 and then moved to Mount Sinai Medical Center of Greater Miami, chairing its Department of Dermatology from 1972 to 1990.

While at Mt. Sinai, Dr. Frost sold a disposable instrument for skin biopsies to Miles Laboratory. He and his partner in that venture then purchased Key Pharmaceuticals, which was later sold to Schering-Plough for $600 million. Eager to explore the then-unglamorous world of generic drugs, Dr. Frost next founded IVAX Corporation, which became recognized for its consumer-directed research, development, manufacture, and marketing of pharmaceutical products worldwide. Since 1987, Dr. Frost has served as chairman of the board of directors and chief executive officer of IVAX; he also was president from 1991 to 1995. IVAX was recently acquired by TEVA Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. and, according to published reports, Dr. Frost will receive more than $1 billion of TEVA stock as a result of its sale.

Dr. Frost is a director of Northrop Grumman Corporation, Continucare Corporation, Cellular Technical Services Co., Inc., and Ladenburg Thalmann Financial Services Inc. He also is co-vice chairman of the American Stock Exchange's board of governors and a trustee of Scripps Research Institute and previously served as chairman of the board of directors of Key Pharmaceuticals, Inc., chairman of Whitman Education Group, Inc., and vice chairman of the board of directors of American Vaccine, Inc. In addition, Dr. Frost possesses significant fiscal experience with matters of government oversight.

Residents of Florida for over 40 years, Dr. and Mrs. Frost also have been ardent supporters of local community efforts. In addition to their commitment to the visual arts, the Frosts made a $33 million gift to the University of Miami for its school of music (now called the Phillip and Patricia Frost School of Music), one of the largest individual gifts the university ever has received. Dr. Frost serves as campaign co-chair of the fund-raising initiative "Momentum: The Campaign for the University of Miami," having previously served as chairman of its board of trustees, and co-chaired the successful launch of the Miami Art Museum's fund-raising campaign "Art for All People." He is a former member of the Florida International University (FIU) Foundation board and the FIU board of trustees. The Patricia & Phillip Frost Art Museum at FIU is so-named as a tribute to their longstanding support; likewise, the university presented Dr. Frost with an honorary degree in 1993 for his many contributions in medicine, business, and community service. He also was named the 2001 National Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year.

Since 1987, Phillip Frost has served as chairman of the board of directors and chief executive officer of Ivax Corporation, which was recently acquired by TEVA Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd.; he also was president of IVAX from 1991 to 1995. In addition, he was chairman of the Department of Dermatology at Mt. Sinai Medical Center of Greater Miami from 1972 to 1990.

Nationally recognized for his business acumen and creative enterprise, Dr. Frost has held leadership positions with numerous corporations and organizations. In addition to his management of the IVAX board of directors, he is chairman of the board of its subsidiary, IVAX Diagnostics, and director of Northrop Grumman Corporation, Contincare Corporation, Cellular Technical Services Co., Inc., and Ladenburg Thalmann Financial Services Inc. Dr. Frost also is co-vice chairman of the American Stock Exchange's board of governors, chairman of the board of trustees of the University of Miami, and a trustee of Scripps Research Institute. He previously served as chairman of the board of directors of Key Pharmaceuticals, Inc., chairman of Whitman Education Group, Inc., and vice chairman of the board of directors of American Vaccine, Inc.

Dr. Frost and his wife, Patricia, are ardent supporters of the arts. Sophisticated collectors of American abstract art, they gave their 113-piece collection to the Smithsonian American Art Museum in 1986. The Frost's $33 million gift to the University of Miami for its school of music (now called the Phillip and Patricia Frost School of Music) was one of the largest individual gifts the university has ever received, and the largest ever made to a university school of music in the United States. Dr. Frost also serves as chair of the fundraising initiative "Momentum: The Campaign for the University of Miami" and has served as chair of the Miami Art Museum's fundraising campaign "Art for All People." Additionally, he is a former member of the Florida International University (FIU) Foundation board and the FIU board of trustees. FIU's Patricia & Phillip Frost Art Museum is so-named as a tribute to their longstanding support; likewise, the university presented Dr. Frost with an honorary degree in 1993 for his many contributions in medicine, business, and community service. He also was named the 2001 National Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year.

A native of Philadelphia, Dr. Frost attended the University of Paris from 1955 to 1956. He received his B.A. from the University of Pennsylvania in 1957 and his M.D. from the Albert Einstein College of Medicine in New York in 1961, after which he completed his internship at New York's Montefiore Hospital and his residency in dermatology at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania. Following service as a lieutenant commander in the U.S. Public Health Service at the National Cancer Institute, Dr. Frost completed a one-year senior residency at Jackson Memorial Hospital in Miami. He joined the faculty of the University of Miami School of Medicine in 1966 prior his tenure at Mount Sinai Medical Center.

Mr. FRIST. In order to place the bills on the calendar under the provisions of rule XIV, I object to further proceeding en bloc.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Objection is heard. The bills will be placed on the calendar.

ORDERS FOR TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 2006

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it stand in adjournment until 9:45 on Tuesday, February 14. I further ask that following the prayer and the pledge, the morning hour be deemed to have expired, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, the time for the two leaders be reserved, and the Senate then resume consideration of the House message to accompany H.R. 4297, as under the previous order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, tomorrow the Senate will complete consideration of the pending motions to instruct the conferees on H.R. 4297, the tax relief bill, and send that bill to conference. We will have multiple votes starting close to 10 a.m. Senators should plan to stay around the floor for a series of up to 16 stacked votes in the morning. I truly hope that some of those will not be pushed to a rollcall vote and we would finish at a reasonable time.

Tomorrow afternoon, we will resume consideration of S. 852, the asbestos bill. There is a pending motion to waive the Budget Act that must be disposed of before we can move forward with the amendment process.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 9:45 A.M. TOMORROW

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, if this is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 9:58 p.m., adjourned until Tuesday, February 14, 2006, at 9:45 a.m.
