STATEMENTS ON INTRODUCED BILLS AND JOINT RESOLUTIONS

By Mr. SPECTER (for himself, Mr. LEAHY, Ms. MURKOWSKI, Mr. SUNUNU, Mr. FEINGOLD, Mr. CRAIG, Mr. HAGEL, Mr. DURBIN, Mr. SALAZAR, Mrs. FEINSTEIN, Mr. OBAMA, and Mr. KERRY):

S. 2369. A bill to require a more reasonable period for delayed-notice search warrants, to provide enhanced judicial review of FISA orders and national security letters, to require an enhanced factual basis for a FISA order, and to create national security letter sunset provisions; to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. SPECTER. Mr. President, I have sought recognition to offer legislation which would amplify the PATRIOT Act, which we expect to be passed by the House of Representatives tomorrow, with these amendments to restore the provisions of the PATRIOT Act to the provisions of the Senate bill which was passed unanimously by the Judiciary Committee on which the Presiding Officer sits, as do I, and was then adopted by unanimous consent by the Senate.

The PATRIOT Act has had a complex procedural history where the House passed a version which was substantially different from the Senate version. Then we hammered out a conference report which, in my view, was an acceptable compromise. It did not have all of the provisions which I would have preferred. It did not have the provisions of the Senate bill. But in a bicameral legislature, we learn to work with the art of the possible. That was accommodation.

We worked closely with Chairman SENSENBRENNER in the House and crafted a bill which was acceptable. There were certain key concessions made to the Senate which I believed were important, perhaps indispensable, the leading one being the sunset provision which was finally established at 4 years. That had been the provision in the Senate bill. And by sunset, for anyone who may be watching on C-SPAN2, that is the provision which terminates the bill, and then it has to come back to Congress for reevaluation to see if we want to give the expanded powers to law enforcement officials. The House bill had 10 years; the Senate bill had 4 years. The House wanted a compromise at 7 years, and the Senate held fast. And the compromise was reached so we finally put a provision in at 4 years.

The PATRIOT Act was passed shortly after the terrible tragedies of 9/11, when the United States was victimized by a terrorist attack. It was an effort to give law enforcement officials more power to deal with terrorism. There is always a balance to be struck between civil liberties on the one hand and sufficient power for law enforcement on the other. There came into a coalition representatives of both extreme ends of the political spectrum, the so-called far left, the so-called far right, joining together with the insistence on more civil liberties. It seemed to me that the point was well taken.

The legislation I am introducing today, I introduce on behalf of myself, Senators LEAHY, MURKOWSKI, SUNUNU, FEINGOLD, CRAIG, HAGEL, DURBIN, SALAZAR, FEINSTEIN, OBAMA, and KERRY. The cosponsors are the four Republicans who did not vote for cloture when the bill was before the Senate. They had decided not to vote to cut off debate, which might have given us the leverage at that time to pass the conference report, but insisted on some modifications. With the leadership of Senator SUNUNU, those modifications have been enacted in a companion bill which is going to the House of Representatives for House action tomorrow. It is my expectation that the legislation will be passed. There is an enrolling ceremony set by the Speaker of the House and the majority leader for Wednesday morning, so that is a pretty good sign that we are en route to having the PATRIOT Act enacted.

I do not think that ought to be the ending point. That is why I am introducing this supplemental legislation today. What this legislation does is reinstate provisions of the original Senate-passed bill. For example, on the delayed notice search warrants, the
