

One of the historic preservationists who worked with Judge Becker to reopen the street in front of Independence Hall said of Judge Becker: "He was one step below the Supreme Court, but he's such an everyday man."

Proverbs 16:19 offers a maxim that fits Judge Becker to a tee: "Better it is to be of a humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud."

By his character, personality, and wisdom, Edward Roy Becker made anyone who knew him better for the experience.

The judiciary, the country, and yes, the Senate, are better because this good man walked and worked with us.

GLOBAL CLIMATE CHANGE

Mr. FEINGOLD. Mr. President, today the Senate Foreign Relations Committee took an important step on the issue of global climate change by passing a resolution, introduced by Chairman LUGAR and Ranking Member BIDEN, that expresses the need for the United States to address global warming through the negotiation of fair and effective international commitments. While it remains to be seen whether the full Senate will take up and pass the resolution, I am encouraged by the growing awareness in Congress of the need to face the facts on global climate change. Just last week, a report was released by a nonprofit group, Christian Aid, which suggests that climate change could lead to millions of deaths in Africa. In my role as chairman and ranking member of the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on African Affairs, I have paid significant attention to the challenges faced by the continent of Africa, and as we look to the future, we must address the consequences our global energy habits will have on less developed nations, in addition to the consequences on our own constituents. I applaud the leadership of Chairman LUGAR and Ranking Member BIDEN on Senate Resolution 312 and I hope that the Senate will move quickly to adopt it.

LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT ENHANCEMENT ACT OF 2005

Mr. SMITH. Mr. President, I rise today to speak about the need for hate crimes legislation. Each Congress, Senator KENNEDY and I introduce hate crimes legislation that would add new categories to current hate crimes law, sending a signal that violence of any kind is unacceptable in our society. Likewise, each Congress I have come to the floor to highlight a separate hate crime that has occurred in our country.

On June 9, 2005, Dwan Prince, a gay man, was attacked by his neighbor Steven Pomie near his Brooklyn, NY, home. During the attack, Pomie shouted antigay slurs as he punched and kicked Prince in the head until he was unconscious. According to police, Pomie knew that Prince was a gay man prior to the attack.

I believe that the Government's first duty is to defend its citizens, to defend them against the harms that come out of hate. The Local Law Enforcement Enhancement Act is a symbol that can become substance. I believe that by passing this legislation and changing current law, we can change hearts and minds as well.
