

As I have said so many times before, Americans enjoy the safest, most affordable and most abundant food supply of any country in the world. That is due to the efforts of farmers in Missouri and across the Midwest. AFA is producing leaders who will help us maintain this position as a world leader in production agriculture.

I want to thank the leaders of AFA and its members for their commitment to agriculture. They understand why it is important we continue to support this vital industry. The U.S. food system is the largest industry in the U.S. and is the leading export sector of our economy. Few things are as important to America's future as the health and safety of our food system.

Agriculture is also one of the leading industries in Missouri; more than 14,000 jobs are directly created by agriculture. This number doesn't even include the thousands of jobs supporting this industry. Thankfully, AFA is there to help men and women who are interested in agriculture realize their potential in an exciting and vital industry.

Congratulations to AFA members and leadership on this landmark occasion. I look forward to working with you as an organization and as agriculture leaders in the future.●

100TH ANNIVERSARY OF TEA, SOUTH DAKOTA

● Mr. THUNE. Mr. President, today I recognize the city of Tea, which is celebrating its centennial this year.

The community of Tea began as a small German agricultural village originally named Byron. However, when a railroad was built between Sioux Falls and Yankton, a stop was added in the community and the residents decided to establish a local post office. The Postal Service advised the residents that the name "Byron" was already taken by several other locations and suggested that they come up with a new town name. At a town meeting, the residents had listed several possibilities when they decided to take a tea break. The name "Tea" was offered and eventually selected as the town's name. Now, 100 years later, the community of Tea continues to be a place where residents make everyone feel welcome.

It gives me great pleasure to rise with the citizens of Tea in celebrating their centennial anniversary and wish them continued success in the years to come.●
