HON. SANDER M. LEVIN

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 19, 2007

Mr. LEVIN. Madam Speaker, it is with great pride and admiration that I rise to congratulate Florine Mark on being a recipient of the Jewish Community Center of Metropolitan Detroit's Jewish Community Boneh Kehillah Award. It is my privilege to applaud Ms. Mark as a deserving community member and friend for her many years of entrepreneurship, community service, and civil activism on a day when she is being acknowledged for her vast achievements.

As President and Chairman of the Board of The WW Group, Inc., Ms. Mark displays a keen business sense and devotion to promoting the physical and mental well-being of her fellow citizens, a commitment that she has worked diligently to nurture and expand for over 30 years.

In addition to her successful business career, Ms. Mark displays a devotion to the community at large and a gracious heart through her insight and support of local and national organizations on women's issues, healthy lifestyles, and the preservation of our rich cultural heritage. The American Heart Association, Detroit Institute for Children, Detroit Renaissance and Seeds of Peace are just a few of the many organizations that have benefited from her involvement.

Beyond her role as a business leader and pillar of the community, Ms. Mark is also the proud mother of 5 children and 19 grandchildren who share a bond of giving and receiving to each other, their neighbors and community.

I am honored to express my gratitude and admiration to Ms. Mark for the profound impact she has on the lives of men and women around the country and her impact on the Metro-Detroit Community. She truly exemplifies "Boneh Kehilla".

Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing Ms. Mark on this momentous occasion. May she know of our admiration and warmest wishes for continued success.

HOLOCAUST REMEMBRANCE DAY— YOM HASHOAH

HON. EDOLPHUS TOWNS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 19, 2007

Mr. TOWNS. Madam Speaker, I rise today to commemorate Yom HaShoah, Holocaust Remembrance Day. I join the Jewish communities of my district in Brooklyn, the entire American Jewish community, and the State of Israel in recognizing this barbaric chapter of world history.

Over 60 years ago, the Nazi regime in Germany began the wholesale slaughter of the European Jewry. This occurred with little public outrage in the United States and the international community. The world, as well as the American government under President Franklin Delano Roosevelt, refused to act to save European Jewry and that silence undoubtedly contributed to the death of six million Jews, a million of whom were children.

When we hear the number six million, we shudder. The enormity of that number is paralyzing. Merely trying to count to six million would take months. Imagining the Nazi death machine executing so many human beings is daunting. Particularly for those of us who have not survived the Holocaust, absorbing the reality of that destruction from survivors is so essential to passing on the history of the Holocaust.

The moving museums and heart wrenching memorials dedicated to the Holocaust across the United States are vital in educating today's youth about the horrors of the Holocaust, and I want to commend all organizations and groups that are committed to this important work. It is additionally critical that European countries preserve the glaring remnants of the Holocaust that still exist today. Whether they are death camps, mass gravesites, cemeteries, synagogues or other holy sites from pre-Holocaust Europe, European governments have an obligation to preserve those sites for future generations. Sadly, numerous European countries including Lithuania, Ukraine and Romania have on occasion shirked their responsibilities in this regard.

While we remember the absolute devastation the Holocaust wrought on the Jewish community, we also mark the strength of those who heroically resisted the Nazis including those who fought in the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising and at the Sobibor extermination camp.

I am privileged to represent a large but dwindling population of Holocaust survivors in my district. Many of these survivors rebuilt their lives with nothing more than the shirt on their back. Today, based on the strong foundations of those Holocaust survivors, the beautiful Jewish communities of Williamsburg, Midwood and Canarsie have flourished. These communities represent the best of Jewish life and have been instrumental in resurrecting religious life in the aftermath of the Holocaust by creating synagogues, yeshivas, and other religious institutions.

Madam Speaker, I would like to take this opportunity to recognize the efforts of organizations that have taken extraordinary steps in servicing and caring for the Holocaust survivor population in my district: The Metropolitan Council on Jewish Poverty; The United Jewish Organizations of Williamsburg; The Council of Jewish Organizations of Flatbush; The Jewish Community Council of Canarsie; The Conference of Jewish Material Claims Against Germany; Peasch Tikvah and all the Bikkur Cholim organizations. Their selfless work for Holocaust survivors continues to serve as an inspiration to me and I am honored to recognize their hard work.

Madam Speaker, I join my colleagues here today in remembering the Holocaust. Though there are still Holocaust deniers today, it is imperative that we never forget.

TRIBUTE TO MARK D. LERNER, VICE PRESIDENT OF THE AN- NETTE M. AND THEODORE N. LERNER FAMILY FOUNDATION

HON. CHRIS VAN HOLLEN

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 19, 2007

Mr. VAN HOLLEN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Mark D. Lerner, Vice President of The Annette M. and Theodore N. Lerner Family Foundation, who will receive the "Chadesh Yameinu" (which means 'renewing our days' in Hebrew) Award from the Charles E. Smith Jewish Day School of Rockville, Maryland, where Mr. Lerner has served as a board member and is a proud alumni parent. Mr. Lerner's vision of community service and his unwavering dedication to seeding tomorrow's leaders by supporting their education today made him an ideal recipient for this prestigious award.

Mark D. Lerner is a principal of Lerner Enterprises, the estate development, management, and investment company founded by his father, Theodore N. Lerner, more than 50 years ago. In 2006, along with his father and brothers-in-law, Mark became a principal owner of Major League Baseball's Washington Nationals, in large part because of a "family model" of ownership lauded by Major League Baseball as the ideal way to ensure continuity and growth, both for the team and for the greater Washington community. Mark believes in a vision of athletics as a catalyst for civic renewal and that vision extends to his many other professional business interests.

Mark's dedication to community service is illustrated by his impressive record of volunteerism and philanthropy, whether serving as a valued board member or participating in the daily life of institutions fighting for the causes he champions. As Vice President of The Annette M. and Theodore N. Lerner Family Foundation, he provides generous support to Jewish organizations in the fields of higher education, community-building, religious life, and tolerance. Pairing his investment in strengthening Jewish communal life with his passion for athletics, he has co-chaired the JCC Maccabi Games of Greater Washington and continues to seek out opportunities to foster community through sport.

Mark Lerner has displayed an unwavering commitment to the Charles E. Smith Jewish Day School throughout his years of involvement as a parent, alumni parent, and steadfast supporter. He chaired the Building Committee of Operation Excellence, the CESJDS campaign for the construction of the state-of-the-art Lower and Upper School campuses. Until recently, he also was a member of the Board of Directors and chaired the Building and Grounds Committee. His expertise in the area of real estate management has guided the school's expansion and ensured that its students are equipped to thrive in a space that nourishes their love of learning.

CESJDS honors a distinguished member of our community every year with the "Chadesh Yameinu" Award. With a name drawn from a Hebrew prayer that refers to "renewing our days," the Chadesh Yameinu Award expresses the school's appreciation for the recipient's contribution to the institution's continued vitality and, by extension, to the promise of a bright Jewish tomorrow.

Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in paying tribute to Mark D. Lerner, whose commitment to Jewish education and his leadership in community service and philanthropy serve as a shining example to future generations.

OF KENTUCKY

He has also served as a damage coordinator for the Edmonson County Department of Emergency Management.

SHAREHOLDER VOTE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION ACT

SPEECH OF

HON. JANICE D. SCHAKOWSKY

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, April 18, 2007

Ms. SCHAKOWSKY. Mr. Chairman, I rise today in strong support of H.R. 1257, the Shareholder Vote on Executive Compensation Act, which ensures that shareholders have a say in corporate executive compensation plans and golden parachute packages for executives who are negotiating the purchase or sale of the company.

For too long, executive compensation has been determined behind closed boardroom doors. The results have been that executives' pay has skyrocketed to the point of absurdity.

In 1991, the average large-company CEO received roughly 140 times the pay of an average worker. In 2003, the ratio was up to 500 to 1. It takes CEOs of the Nation's top companies the first two hours of the first workday of the new year to make $10,712. It takes a minimum wage worker 40 hours a week, 52 weeks a year to make the same. According to a report by Americans United for Change, those CEOs make $5,279 an hour, $10,982,000 a year, or 1,025 times more than their minimum wage employees.

These numbers are even more stunning when one considers that those salaries are not based on performance. As hearings held by Chairman FRANK have shown, even executives of companies that lose money, restate earnings, and face extensive regulatory scrutiny have received substantial compensation packages.

The Shareholder Vote on Executive Compensation Act would help hold board members accountable when setting executive pay by allowing shareholders to vote on whether they approve of the compensation packages or not. It would also give shareholders the right to vote on golden parachute packages that executives may negotiate for themselves when arranging the purchase or sale of the company.

Although these votes are non-binding, shareholders' voices will be heard. Executives and boards of directors will have to give weight to the shareholders' opinions when deciding on what the gold-plated packages of executives will look like. And, it will let executives know they are being watched when negotiating the selling price of a company while simultaneously negotiating an additional personal exit package.

A similar shareholder vote has been in practice in the United Kingdom since 2003 and is now used in Australia as well. The policy is credited with improving management/shareholder dialogue on executive compensation matters and increasing the use of long-term performance targets in incentive compensation. It was recently adopted voluntarily by Aflac, and according to Institutional Shareholder Services, is currently pending before 52 companies. I urge my colleagues to support H.R. 1257 and make it the norm for all U.S. companies.

CONGRATULATING THE EMPLOYEES OF HOLCIM IN THEODORE, AL ON RECEIVING THE 2006 COUNCIL OF STATE GOVERNMENTS ASSOCIATES AWARD FOR CORPORATE CITIZENSHIP

HON. JO BONNER

OF ALABAMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 19, 2007

Mr. BONNER. Madam Speaker, today I rise to honor the Holcim cement plant in Theodore, Alabama, for winning the Council of State Governments (CSG) Associates award for outstanding corporate citizenship.

The CSG Associates award recognizes those who have shown great dedication in service to their communities. The nominations for the award are submitted by state officials from across the country, and the CSG leadership then chooses a winner. The 156 employees of the Holcim Theodore plant were honored with this prestigious award for their service to the Theodore community—and surrounding areas—in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina.

There are two specific efforts of the employees of the Theodore plant that were highlighted by the award. First, Holcim played a key role in rebuilding the Bayou La Batre Rural Health Clinic. This clinic, serving mostly the less fortunate, was destroyed by Hurricane Katrina and then, only days before its reopening, was ravaged by a fire. With the help of other local industries, Holcim led fundraising efforts to rebuild the clinic, contributing $50,000 of the $120,000 raised.

Holcim also sponsored two students from Morehouse School of Medicine in Atlanta as temporary summer staff at the clinic.

Second, the CSG Associates recognized Holcim for its efforts towards rebuilding new homes in Theodore for those who were displaced by Hurricane Katrina. Joining with Habitat for Humanity, Holcim donated concrete for 11 new homes, while Holcim employees volunteered their time and effort to build the new homes.

Holcim's honors, however, do not stop with the CSG Associates award. They have received honors not only at the local level but
