COMMEMORATING THE 40TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE LANDMARK CASE OF IN RE GAULT, ET AL

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to the consideration of S. Res. 194.

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. The clerk will report the resolution by title.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A resolution (S. Res. 194) commemorating the 40th anniversary of the landmark case In re Gault, et. al., in which the Supreme Court held that all children accused of delinquent acts and facing a proceeding in which their freedom may be curtailed have a right to counsel in the proceedings against them.

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the resolution.

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. President, this year marks the 40th anniversary of the landmark Supreme Court decision of In re Gault in 1967, in which the Court declared that children accused of delinquent acts have a constitutional right to counsel. Before that decision, children accused of delinquency had virtually no legal rights. They were at the mercy of a legal system that often led to unjust results. Gerald Gault’s experience illustrates the injustices that often took place.

When he was 15 years old, Gerald was accused of a delinquent act that involved making a nuisance phone call. He was swept up in a juvenile justice system that had almost no procedural
