

Award on June 9, 2008. This esteemed award praises exceptional community service by local broadcasters.

Since its inception in June 2006, KTVK's "Are You My Family" campaign has worked to find loving homes for some of Arizona's 10,000 foster children. In partnership with two local non-profits—Aid to Adoption of Special Kids and Fore Adoption Foundation—KTVK has thus far featured 64 children on its newscast and website. Of those, 38 have been matched with adoptive families—well over twice the rate at which these children are typically adopted.

Children discover newfound hope in KTVK's "Are You My Family" campaign. Children who are often forgotten in a system, in which their emotional needs may not be met, are paired with families that can provide the love and support they need. These foster families also provide the sense of security and belonging that allows these children to blossom fully into responsible and productive adults.

A strong community begins with strong families. I am proud of the work that KTVK has done to secure a bright future for Arizona's children. The "Are You My Family" campaign showcases KTVK's long tradition of commitment to public service and deep connection to the people that it serves.

Madam Speaker, please join me in recognizing KTVK's tireless dedication to bringing love and hope back into the lives of Arizona's foster children.

HONORING STATE CHAMPION WRESTLER ADAM PERRIN OF NORTH SCOTT HIGH SCHOOL

HON. BRUCE L. BRALEY

OF IOWA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 22, 2008

Mr. BRALEY of Iowa. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the outstanding results achieved by North Scott High School wrestler Adam Perrin. This winter Adam captured the Iowa Class 3A Individual Wrestling Championship in the 103 pound weight class.

Adam won a thrilling championship match. He defeated his final opponent in a 6-5 decision.

Madam Speaker, I am extremely proud of the accomplishments of Adam and the North Scott High School Wrestling team, both on and off the court. Perhaps Paul "Bear" Bryant, the late, great coach of the Alabama Crimson Tide football team says it best: "Show class, have pride, and display character. If you do, winning takes care of itself." This year, Adam Perrin and North Scott High School proved just that.

SERGEANT MATT MAUPIN

HON. JEAN SCHMIDT

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 22, 2008

Mrs. SCHMIDT. Madam Speaker, I rise today to read a poem written by Albert Carey Caswell about a subject that is near and dear to my heart. Staff Sergeant Matt Maupin was listed as missing in action for many years.

MISSING NO MORE: IN HONOR OF A FALLEN
HERO MISSING IN ACTION, MATT MAUPIN

M.I.A.
Mom and Dad . . .
I know that you're sad . . .
'Oh how you prayed for this day . . .
I'd be, Missing No More . . .
Mom and Dad, it's me . . .
It's your son Matt . . . you can be . . .
Both happy and sad . . .
But, it's over now . . . it's not bad . . .
That long . . . long . . . long wait . . .
You, don't have to lie awake . . .
Anymore . . . No more . . .
With every breath you take . . .
With a worry so great . . .
That burden upon you placed . . .
That pain and heartache, you endured . . .
All those sleepless nights, in wait . . . with such fright . . .
Wondering . . . and Wondering . . . what for?
Is he dead, or is he alive?

Will he ever survive? Or will my baby die?
It's for you mom and dad . . . and my family who I cry . . .
I Am Not Missing Anymore . . .
Yea, I know it's bittersweet . . .
The pain, which you now carry deep . . .
Missing, me now forever more . . .
But, take heart . . .
We are all going to die . . .
But, a life of honor and sacrifice . . .
Makes The Angels Cry . . .
And, Mother there are so many more . . .
Families, who will never know for sure . . .
All because they don't know, of their loved ones so . . .
Who with each waking breath, their pain ever grows . . . no rest . . .
Not knowing, so for sure . . .
Now, to my greatest of loves . . .
I have risen, high above . . . To Our Lord . . .
I'm an Angel, in The Army of Our Lord . . .
And, I will watch over you . . . day and night . . .
And I will win, this last battle . . . This Fight . . .
And you will hear me, in the breeze . . .
On a soft falling snow, you feel my heart at ease . . .
As my Angel's breath envelops you, to find peace . . .
I'm everywhere you are now, this you must believe . . .
So to you, this I so send . . .
The full comfort in so knowing . . .
We will see each other again . . .
And I hope that your hearts are glowing . . .
To you my love's in knowing . . .
It will only be a short time . . . when . . .
We are all together, again . . .
As In Heaven, we'll meet again . . .
So, Never Regret That Day . . .
When, your son Matt went away . . .
And, did what must be done . . .
For A Life Which Lives In The Light . . . In The Sun . . .
And Fights The Darkness . . .
Is but, a far . . . far better one . . . The Greatest of All Ones . . .
I'm Not Missing Anymore . . .

TRIBUTE TO DR. CARL V. PATTON

HON. JOHN LEWIS

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 22, 2008

Mr. LEWIS of Georgia. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Dr. Carl V. Patton, President of Georgia State University, who is retiring June 30 of this year.

For 16 years he has led Georgia State University in its transition from what was considered to be a commuter school into a vibrant research university which is home to more than 28,000 students representing every county in the State, every State in the Nation, and 160 countries.

President Patton not only wrote a best-selling book on public policy, he has practiced his beliefs, providing the leadership to create buildings, departments, knowledge, and solutions vital to our prosperity in the 21st century. As the University has grown physically, it has grown in stature as well. Among President Patton's many accomplishments:

He launched a university-wide planning effort that produced what is known as the "Main Street Master Plan", which increases the University's footprint in the downtown community and shapes the University's future growth.

He started the University's first comprehensive capital campaign, securing private funding sources to supplement state allocations for building projects.

Under Dr. Patton's leadership, Georgia State University has expanded its campus using a strategy of acquiring and rehabilitating buildings and, when necessary, constructing new buildings like the Student Center, the Recreation Center, the Aderhold Learning Center, the Rialto Theater, Haas-Howell and Standard Buildings, Robinson College of Business, Commerce Building, North Metro Center, student housing at the Village and the Lofts and now the University Commons. Students, faculty, and staff now occupy floor space from the old Fairlie-Poplar district to Grady Hospital. Residence halls full of students with dreams to change the world have replaced dilapidated structures empty of any economic hope. Old banks, tired office buildings, and moribund shells of department stores now bristle with the energy of a new commerce based on knowledge and preparing our young students to take on today's problems with tomorrow's solutions. Downtown Atlanta now is a living, vibrant area 24 hours a day thanks to the presence of thousands of students learning, living, and playing while placing more than $7 million a day into the local economy.

Instead of designing walls to keep the city and its urban ways separate from the campus, President Patton has insisted that the University fully integrate its research, teaching and service mission into the fabric of the urban environment of its downtown Atlanta home.

His vision has included a state-of-the-art urban science park. And, thanks in no small part to the support of this Congress, this science park will support research on the treatment of autism, obesity, and post-traumatic stress disorder. In addition to neuroscience research, Georgia State will employ the efforts of eminent scholars from biology, chemistry, computer science, physics, mathematics, and statistics to better understand the molecular basis of disease.

Finally, each of the six schools that are a part of Georgia State have grown and prospered during President Patton's tenure.

Georgia State has grown into one of this Nation's leading urban-serving research universities reflecting Dr. Patton's vision for a partnership between Atlanta and the University. That vision is best described by his words:

"It's not just us serving the city. It's not the city serving us. It's the idea of together building a city and a university that are second to none. Georgia State is a source of limitless potential that can be unleashed through a clear understanding of how we generate lasting value to our city, our State, and the Nation. Working with our community, we are able to determine our shared future."

Dr. Patton has lived his life in the way he hopes his students live theirs, tirelessly volunteering for service in his community through organizations like Central Atlanta Progress, the Rotary, and the Grady Memorial Hospital Corporation. His example and his hard work will not stop at retirement, however, as he plans to continue to live downtown and assist Georgia State in its future endeavors to raise capital and to expand its student body to tackle the tough issues of our times.

Madam Speaker, I am sure I speak for you and my colleagues in the House of Representatives when I say that Dr. Carl V. Patton is the kind of leader we need to set the right example for the future of our country and our students. He has served Georgia State University, the city of Atlanta, the State of Georgia,
