

days spent killing nearly 50 million unborn children in America is enough; and that this nation is great enough to find a better way than abortion on demand.

So tonight, Madam Speaker, may we each remind ourselves that our own days in this sunshine of life are numbered and that all too soon each of us will walk from these Chambers for the very last time.

And if it should be that this Congress is allowed to convene on yet another day to come, may that be the day when we hear the cries of the unborn at last. May that be the day we find the humanity, the courage, and the will to embrace together our human and our constitutional duty to protect the least of these, our tiny American brothers and sisters, from this murderous scourge upon our Nation called abortion on demand.

It is February 12, 2008—12,804 days since Roe v. Wade first stained the foundation of this nation with the blood of its own children—this, in the land of the free and the home of the brave.

INTRODUCTION OF LEGISLATION
AUTHORIZING THE SECRETARY OF COMMERCE TO SELL OR EX-CHANGE NATIONAL OCEANIC
AND ATMOSPHERIC ADMINISTRATION PROPERTY LOCATED IN NORFOLK, VA

HON. ROBERT C. "BOBBY" SCOTT

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 12, 2008

Mr. SCOTT of Virginia. Madam Speaker, I rise today to introduce legislation that would authorize the Secretary of Commerce to sell or exchange National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration property to/with the city of Norfolk, Virginia.

Over the last decade, the city of Norfolk has experienced tremendous economic growth. Downtown Norfolk has reemerged as the urban center of the Hampton Roads region through revitalization and new commercial and residential development. For several decades, NOAA has been an important Federal partner in downtown Norfolk's development. NOAA's Atlantic Marine Operations Center and NOAA's Chesapeake Bay office are both located in downtown Norfolk.

The bill that I am introducing today, along with my colleague Congresswoman THELMA DRAKE, would authorize the Secretary of Commerce to sell or exchange a small piece of underutilized NOAA property located at 538 Front Street in Norfolk, consisting of 3.78 acres, to the city of Norfolk. This land sale would allow Norfolk to continue its tremendous economic growth by developing the land for commercial and residential purposes. At the same time, the bill clearly states that NOAA may only sell or exchange the property if the Secretary of Commerce determines that the conveyance would be in the best interest of the Federal government. The bill does not delineate or support any particular agreement or contract; the details of any future agreement between NOAA and the city of Norfolk would have to be worked out. This legislation would simply permit that process to get started. In addition, any sale or exchange would have to have little to no impact on Federal revenue or the deficit. The bill requires that the property be sold at a value that is not less than the fair market value as determined by the Federal government. Furthermore, it authorizes NOAA to retain any proceeds from the sale or exchange.

Madam Speaker, I hope that this bill will be considered by the full House of Representatives soon. I believe this bipartisan, non-controversial legislation protects both the interests of the Federal government and the citizens of Norfolk. I urge my colleagues to support this measure when it comes before the full House.

TRIBUTE TO VADA SHEID

HON. MARION BERRY

OF ARKANSAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 12, 2008

Mr. BERRY. Madam Speaker, I rise here today to pay tribute to an outstanding citizen and dear friend. I am proud to recognize one of Arkansas greatest public servants Vada Sheid. Her recent death was a great loss for our community and our Nation.

Vada Sheid was the first woman to be elected to both the Arkansas House of Representatives and the Arkansas State Senate. Her career in public service, which also included positions in numerous county offices, boards, commissions and committees, spanned across five decades. Mrs. Sheid was instrumental in securing significant road improvements for north central Arkansas as well as the creation of Arkansas State University-Mountain Home.

Vada Webb was born on August 19, 1916, in Izard County. She grew up in Calico Rock and entered public service working at the Izard County welfare office when she was 19. Shortly after she married Carl Sheid in 1941 the couple moved to El Dorado and eventually settled in Mountain Home.

In 1958, Mrs. Sheid ran for Baxter County treasurer and lost. In 1960, she ran again, won, and served as treasurer through 1965. In 1966, she was elected to the State house of representatives and served four terms. She was only one of four women who served during the 1967–1968 term. In 1976, Mrs. Sheid was elected to the State senate and became the only woman to serve in both houses in Arkansas.

In 1987, Governor Bill Clinton appointed her to the State Police Commission. In 1992, after a resignation of the local State representative, Mrs. Sheid ran for office again and won, serving in the house again until 1995.

Her work to improve education and ASU Mountain Home earned her an honorary doctor of law degree from the college in 1998. Her dedication to serving the community is remembered by the Mountain Home Area Chamber of Commerce's Vada Sheid Lifetime Achievement Award, which is given to an individual who has made a significant contribution to the community.

On behalf of Congress, I extend my deepest sympathies to Mrs. Sheid's family and gratitude for the countless hours she spent serving others. She leaves a legacy of accomplishment in Arkansas as well as inspiring memories for all who knew her.

IN HONOR OF THE UNI-CAPITOL
WASHINGTON INTERNSHIP PRO-GRAM

HON. SAM FARR

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 12, 2008

Mr. FARR. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the Uni-Capitol Washington Internship Program. This program is a wonderful educational experience for both the intern who works in a congressional office, and for the office who receives an intern from the program. The program annually delivers some of Australia's best and brightest university students who have a passion for and commitment to civic engagement and public service to congressional offices for 2-month internships.

The Uni-Capitol Washington Internship Program began in 2000 and since its inception, I have been a proud participant. This year I welcomed a wonderful student-ambassador to my office, Stephanie Lyons, who has shared with us her experiences as a newcomer to Washington from the perspective of an Australian. Stephanie, who visits us from the University of Canberra, is a great example of the high quality students who are involved in this program. With a bachelor's degree in communication, specializing in public relations and political communication, Stephanie will this year commence her honors degree, drawing upon her experiences here in Washington as a research stimulus. Throughout her time in this office, she has had the chance to pursue her interests in the media and a range of issues, from foreign affairs, human rights, and diplomacy to science and the environment.

Over the past month, she has been an invaluable asset to this office. She has attended committee briefings, drafted constituent correspondence, and assisted my staff with research. Her Australian accent has garnered the attention of many of my constituents on tours and over the phone. She is often asked to share her experiences in Washington, DC.

Stephanie is one of several outstanding Australian interns. This year, a record 13 students from across Australia were matched with congressional offices. They were drawn from seven Australian universities in four different states and the Australian Capital Territory. The Uni-Capitol program gives its students practical experience and allows them to gain knowledge and understanding of the internal workings of the United States Government.

Including this current group, 81 Australian students will have interned in Washington since the program's inception 9 years ago. For creating the Uni-Washington program, credit must be given to its founder, Eric Federer. Eric is a former senior House and Senate congressional staffer who has worked to foster the exchange of ideas and knowledge between the U.S. and Australia through his efforts with the Uni-Capitol Washington Internship Program.

Madam Speaker, I strongly encourage my colleagues to seek international connections by participating in this rewarding program. It is truly heartening to see how much this program has grown over the years, and I look forward to its continued success. I ask my colleagues to join with me in recognizing the contributions of the Uni-Capitol Internship Program and, again, thank Stephanie Lyons for her participation and hard work.

HONORING PRESIDENT JOLENE
KOESTER

HON. BRAD SHERMAN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 12, 2008

Mr. SHERMAN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to an extraordinary public servant dedicated to promoting the intellectual, economic and cultural contributions of the San Fernando Valley, California State University, Northridge President Jolene Koester. This year, the Encino-Tarzana Hospital Charitable Foundation is honoring Dr. Koester with the Tree of Life Award for her educational and civic contributions.

As a visionary leader in the San Fernando Valley, Dr. Koester has transformed California State University, Northridge into one of the State's premier higher education institutions. CSUN is a vibrant, diverse and accessible university community of nearly 34,000 students and more than 4,000 faculty and staff. This year, CSUN will celebrate its 50th anniversary as the only public university located in Los Angeles' San Fernando Valley—home to about 1.8 million residents.

Dr. Koester began her appointment as the fourth president of California State University, Northridge on July 1, 2000. Prior to her appointment, Dr. Koester served as provost and vice president for Academic Affairs at California State University, Sacramento. She earned a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Minnesota, a Master of Arts in communication arts from the University of Wisconsin-Madison, and a Ph.D. in speech communication from Minnesota.

An active member of the community, Dr. Koester has served on the boards of directors for the Los Angeles Area Chamber of Commerce, the Economic Alliance of the San Fernando Valley, the Valley Industry & Commerce Association, the Southern California Biomedical Council, and the Los Angeles Economy & Jobs Committee. Dr. Koester is a recognized leader in higher education in the State of California, and has received numerous civic and business awards for her commitment to furthering the excellence of California State University, Northridge.

Dr. Koester was recently appointed as Chair-Elect of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities. As Chair-Elect of one of the country's most prestigious higher education advocacy organizations, she will have the unique opportunity to represent over three million students at 430 public colleges and universities. Moreover, she will advocate on behalf of the association in support of public policies extending higher education to underrepresented and first-generation college students throughout the country.

Madam Speaker, I wish to extend my heartfelt congratulations to Dr. Jolene Koester for receiving the Tree of Life Award from the Encino-Tarzana Hospital Charitable Foundation. Dr. Koester has exhibited strong leadership skills and a commitment to education that will benefit California State University, Northridge, the San Fernando Valley and the Los Angeles region for years to come.

HONORING SHANNON HARPS—ENVIRONMENTAL AND COMMUNITY ORGANIZER

HON. JAY INSLEE

OF WASHINGTON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 12, 2008

Mr. INSLEE. Madam Speaker, my colleague NORM DICKS and I would like to pay tribute in remembrance of Shannon Harps, one of Washington's finest young environmental advocates. She was killed on December 31, 2007 by an unknown assailant as she was returning to her Capitol Hill apartment in Seattle from the grocery store. Shannon's death is a tremendous loss to our community and the many issues to which she devoted her life. We join with Shannon's family, friends, and colleagues in the Sierra Club in mourning the loss of this wonderful person and fine community organizer. Though her life was cut short, she was able to make a large impact on the quality of the Northwest environment.

Shannon came from her home State of Ohio to Seattle, Washington in February 2004 to join the staff of the Northwest Office of the Sierra Club. This move joined two of Shannon's strongest desires—to work to protect our environment and to live in the Northwest where she could more vigorously pursue her strong love for the outdoors.

Shannon had a wonderful sense of humor and a style of working with people that immediately put them at ease and made it easy for them to join her in protecting our environment and quality of life. Shannon particularly enjoyed working with high school and college students to help them develop their interests and talents in working to create a better world. While Shannon's work was directly focused on protecting our environment, from wilderness to global warming, her values were deeply embedded in a strong sense of fairness and justice for all people.

In the four years that Shannon lived in Washington State she helped to protect some of our finest lands. Shannon worked with several groups in a local coalition effort with Congressman NORM DICKS to add key lands in the Carbon River drainage to Mt. Rainier National Park. She worked with Sierra Club volunteers and staff from the many groups to help move the Wild Sky Wilderness proposal through the various steps of its arduous journey through the congressional process. She was a leader in the State of Washington, and worked with colleagues around the country, to help thwart the various ill-considered efforts to open up America's Arctic Coastal Plain to oil and gas drilling. She was a lead organizer in the successful effort in 2006 to pass the Renewable Energy Portfolio Standard for Washington State assuring that Washington will be a leader in developing a clean energy future and creating good jobs. And, in the recent two years, much of her work focused on building relationships with local officials and creating public support so they too would endorse the Mayor's Climate Protection Agreement making sure we are stepping up to the challenge of global warming.

In her all-too-short life, she made contributions that benefited our community, State, and world. She lived her life as an example of living lightly on the planet, and engaged the people and world around her with grace, humor, kindness, and respect. Everyone who worked with her admired her style, tenacity, and sense of purpose, along with her sparkling smile and laugh.

Shannon loved living and working in the Northwest. She reveled in the outdoors and nothing made her happier than to participate in a competitive run or to hike the Northwest's high mountain trails. Her death is a loss for us all but her spirit still resides with all of those with whom she worked and walked the trails. We will remember her as we continue the struggle to protect our lands and environment and to create a more just and fair world for us all.

TRIBUTE TO CHIEF JOHN SMOOT

HON. SHELLEY MOORE CAPITO

OF WEST VIRGINIA—

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 12, 2008

Mrs. CAPITO. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life of Chief John Smoot who dedicated his life to serving and saving others. He died on January 20, 2008 after a long illness in Kanawha County, WV where he was a lifelong resident.

John served in the U.S. Army during World War II and continued his military service for 32 years in the Army Reserves and in the West Virginia National Guard. He also worked for DuPont Chemical and retired after 37 years of employment.

He is most remembered for his extraordinary service to the citizens of Kanawha County, through his 57 years of involvement with first responder services and 50 years as chief of the Cedar Grove Fire Department.

He was a champion of emergency services in Kanawha County and in the State of West Virginia. He created the Cedar Grove Ambulance Service and helped establish county wide ambulance services. He is also the original founder of the Kanawha County Fireman's Mutual Aid Association.

He is survived by his wife, Lois Robinson Smoot; his son, John R. Smoot; his grandsons, Jonathan and Cody, and his brother; George Smoot. Area fireman paid tribute to Chief Smoot by including trucks from all Kanawha County Fire Departments in the funeral procession.

Madam Speaker, I proudly ask you to join me in honoring the life of John R. Smoot, whose dedication and service is truly admirable. He will be sadly missed.

RECOGNITION OF MERCER AND MONROE COUNTIES AS BEST COMMUNITIES FOR YOUTH

HON. NICK J. RAHALL II

OF WEST VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 12, 2008

Mr. RAHALL. Madam Speaker, I rise today in recognition of two counties in my district, Mercer and Monroe, which have again received the honor as two of the Nation's "100 Best Communities for Youth 2008" by the Alliance for Youth. This is the third such award for Mercer County and the second award for Monroe County, both of whom were also honored last year.
