

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

TRIBUTE TO DR. JAMES B.
KLIEBENSTEIN

HON. TOM LATHAM

OF IOWA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 16, 2008

Mr. LATHAM. Madam Speaker, I rise to recognize Dr. James B. Kliebenstein, professor of Agricultural Economics at Iowa State University, on receiving the 2008 Distinguished Teaching Award from the American Agricultural Economics Association. I wish to express my appreciation for Dr. Kliebenstein's dedication and commitment to fostering the educational development and personal growth of Iowa students.

After obtaining a doctorate of Philosophy from University of Illinois-Urbana, Dr. Kliebenstein went on to work for Northwest Missouri State University, the Department of Agricultural Economics and the School of Veterinary Medicine at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, and University of Missouri-Columbia. For the past 22 years, Professor Kliebenstein has contributed his time and talents to improving youths' lives through education and mentoring at Iowa State University.

At Iowa State University, Dr. Kliebenstein currently teaches agriculture business courses and advises undergraduate and graduate students. His excellence in teaching is affirmed by the highly positive feedback from his students. For his Farm Planning and Organization class, Dr. Kliebenstein received a 100% approval rating from all of his students. Professor Kliebenstein also conducts research on agricultural production technologies and the costs and benefits of livestock production.

Dr. Kliebenstein has truly made a lasting impact on students, family, and faculty throughout his illustrious career, and his passion for teaching at Iowa State University is admirable. I consider it an honor to represent Dr. James B. Kliebenstein in the United States Congress, and I wish him the best of luck in future endeavors.

HONORING THE JOINT MANUFACTURING AND TECHNOLOGY CENTER AT ROCK ISLAND ARSENAL

HON. BRUCE L. BRALEY

OF IOWA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 16, 2008

Mr. BRALEY of Iowa. Madam Speaker, I rise today to thank and congratulate Colonel Craig Cotter and the dedicated working men and women at the Joint Manufacturing and Technology Center located at the Rock Island Arsenal federal campus.

Since 1862 the Rock Island Arsenal has been providing the supplies and equipment American soldiers need to protect this country.

Today the Joint Manufacturing and Technology Center (JMTC)—under the command of the Army Materiel Command—continues that proud tradition of meeting the needs of our Armed Forces.

JMTC's technological and manufacturing expertise has been essential to protecting our nation in the 21st Century. At no time was this fact more evident than when insurgents in Iraq began using improvised explosive devices to attack Humvees and other military vehicles. The Army needed an immediate solution and JMTC was the only manufacturing center ready and able to provide it. JMTC used their rapid-response design and manufacturing capacity to produce dozens of "up-armor kits" before final engineering was even complete. In a matter of days the first armor kits were designed, produced, and on their way to Iraq. To date, JMTC has produced thousands of armor kits and is poised to expand their armaments development into new titanium and lightweight composite materials.

JMTC is truly a center of industrial and technological excellence. In 2006 and 2007 they earned the Shingo Prize Public Sector Gold Medallion for the Forward Repair System, making JMTC the Army's only two time winner of this prestigious award. JMTC has also met high work standards with the M119 Towed Howitzer, gunner protection armor kit, shop equipment contact maintenance vehicle, and small arms parts program.

Madam Speaker, the women and men at JMTC are indispensable to our long-term national security. This facility is poised to develop the materials and technologies we will need to protect the United States for decades to come.

HONORING PASTOR DONALD BATTLE OF DIVINE FAITH MINISTRIES INTERNATIONAL

HON. DAVID SCOTT

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 16, 2008

Mr. SCOTT of Georgia. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor a spiritual and community leader in my district, Pastor Donald Battle of Divine Faith Ministries International, on the occasion of his 54th birthday.

Pastor Donald E. Battle and his wife of 34 years, Gwen, along with their three adult daughters, TaVondria, Jamie, and Christin, are all leaders of this life-changing body of believers. I am proud that the southern campus of Divine Faith Ministries International, along with Divine Faith's School of Biblical Studies, are both located in my district, the 13th Congressional District of Georgia.

Pastor Battle is a native of Birmingham, Alabama, where he met and married his high school sweetheart, Gwen. He served in the U.S. Army six years and served 15 years in Georgia law enforcement as a police detective for the City of Atlanta. Pastor Battle's ministry began in 1990 as Divine Faith Baptist Church with a group of 60 members. Today, Madam Speaker, Divine Faith Ministries International currently serves God with a membership of over 8,000. This explosive growth can be directly traced to the servant leadership of Pastor Battle and his family.

But Pastor Battle does not content himself with service in the church alone. A leader in the community, Pastor Battle has served in the Association of Christian Ministers of Clayton County, and guided the creation of the Clayton County Public Schools' Mentorship Forum. The forum includes business leaders, judicial system leaders, state and local elected officials and pastors who serve to mentor high school students. Pastor Battle also led the call for incorporating the faith community in the Clayton County youth offender program to allow churches to be involved in the juvenile offenders' community service program.

Other examples of Pastor Battle's unshakable commitment to the 13th District and the entire Atlanta area are Divine Faith Ministries International television broadcasts which reach thousands of homes weekly, a day care program—Divine Faith Ministries Christian Academy, and the Divine Faith Ministries School of Biblical Studies.

Again Madam Speaker, I am honored to recognize this great man on his birthday. His presence, his purpose and his commitment to service have blessed not only his family, his friends and his congregation, but undoubtedly the entire world as the effects of his ministry are felt in the hearts of thousands. Thank you for the opportunity to honor Pastor Donald Battle, his family and Divine Faith Ministries International.

HONORING RYAN DANIEL SALMON

HON. SAM GRAVES

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 16, 2008

Mr. GRAVES. Madam Speaker, I proudly pause to recognize, Ryan Daniel Salmon, a very special young man who has exemplified the finest qualities of citizenship and leadership by taking an active part in the Boy Scouts of America, Troop 376, and in earning the most prestigious award of Eagle Scout.

Ryan has been very active with his troop, participating in many scout activities. Over the many years Ryan has been involved with scouting, he has not only earned numerous merit badges, but also the respect of his family, peers, and community.

Madam Speaker, I proudly ask you to join me in commending Ryan Daniel Salmon for his accomplishments with the Boy Scouts of America and for his efforts put forth in achieving the highest distinction of Eagle Scout.

HONORING THE LIFE AND MUSIC OF THE LATE ISAAC HAYES

SPEECH OF

HON. STEVE COHEN

OF TENNESSEE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, September 15, 2008

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, Isaac Hayes made an indelible impact on the hearts, minds and souls of his fans that has sustained for generations. Dick Clark observed: "It's rare when an artist's talent can touch an entire generation of people. It's even rarer when that same influence affects several generations. Isaac made an imprint on the world of pop music unequaled by any other single performer."

Isaac Hayes hailed from humble beginnings in Covington, Tennessee. He spent his childhood and formative years in Memphis, years which shaped his future success as a songwriter, singer, and actor, graduating from Manassas High School. Undoubtedly, Isaac's influences can be attributed to his time spent in church singing gospel music with the Morning Stars, doo-wop with Sir Isaac & the Doo-Dads, the Teen Tones and the Ambassadors. Isaac Hayes became a soul music icon with his debut album, "Hot Buttered Soul," in 1969.

His signature single and album "The Theme From Shaft," came 2 years later winning an Academy Award for Best Original Song, the first Academy Award received by an African-American in a non-acting category, and two Grammys, one for composer of Best Original Score and one for Best Instrumental Arrangement with co-arranger Johnny Allen.

Isaac Hayes will also be mourned by his Stax records songwriting and production partner, David Porter, with whom he wrote over 200 songs, including many classic hits such as: "Soul Man," "When Something Is Wrong With My Baby," and "Hold on I'm Comin'," recorded by Sam and Dave, and "B-A-B-Y" made famous by Carla Thomas. The music created by Isaac and David embodies the funky, gritty and soulful Memphis sound and both gentlemen were both inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 2002.

Isaac Hayes was instrumental in staging the 1972 Wattstax concert performed at the Los Angeles Coliseum in the summer of 1972, an event that was a great source of pride for the African American Los Angeles community of Watts and which focused worldwide attention on issues of social and economic justice for that beleaguered community while also highlighting the great Memphis Stax sound.

Through his early days at Stax Records, his success as a recording artist, his record-breaking international performances and his career in film and television, Isaac Hayes, our hometown hero, always proudly referred to his Memphis roots. Isaac served as an ambassador of Memphis' spirit and soul and, like Moses, is irreplaceable.

Whereas Isaac Hayes started the Isaac Hayes Foundation, whose mission is to globally promote literacy, music education, nutritional education, and innovative programs to raise self-esteem among the underprivileged;

Whereas Isaac Hayes was strongly devoted to promoting literacy through the world and was named the international spokesman for the Applied Scholastics' World Literacy Crusade;

Whereas Isaac Hayes, through his Isaac Hayes Foundation, built an 8,000 square foot educational facility in Ghana, West Africa, and was a strong advocate for the education and well-being of the children of Ghana; In 1992, in recognition of his humanitarian work, he was crowned an honorary king of Ghana's Ada district.

Whereas Isaac Hayes donated thousands of dollars, through grants from his Isaac Hayes Foundation, to schools in Memphis, Nashville, and Washington, DC for the purpose of improving the musical education programs of those schools and for the purchase of musical instruments;

Today is a day of both great sadness and joy—sadness that Isaac has left us too soon and joy that we were fortunate enough to have known him. Isaac was a personal friend and a supporter in my re-election bid, actively participating in my campaign. I appreciate his talent, his contributions to his fellow man and his friendship. He rose from the most humble of beginnings to fame and wealth but he never forgot where he came from and he retained his love and respect for his fellow human beings. Being in the presence of Isaac made one want to be a better person, to do good. There will never be another like him.

EXPRESSING THE SENSE OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
REGARDING THE TERRORIST AT-TACKS LAUNCHED AGAINST THE UNITED STATES ON SEPTEMBER
11, 2001

SPEECH OF

HON. EDWARD J. MARKEY

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 11, 2008

Mr. MARKEY. Madam Speaker, Last week, our Nation commemorated the seventh anniversary of the most devastating attack on our country since Pearl Harbor. We remembered the victims and their families, and we also honored the heroism of the fire fighters, police officers, emergency workers and everyday Americans who rushed to help those caught in the almost unimaginable violence on that day.

The attack has left an indelible mark on our Nation. The two planes that were crashed into the World Trade Center towers took off from Boston's Logan Airport on that clear Tuesday morning.

Last week at Logan Airport, a new memorial was dedicated to the 147 men, women and children who perished on American Airlines Flight 11 and United Airlines Flight 175. I ask unanimous consent to insert in the RECORD a statement from Massachusetts Port Authority Chairman Dr. John Quelch on the occasion of the dedication of the 9/11 memorial at Logan Airport.

We will never forget the heroism of the Americans affected by the September 11th attacks.

REMARKS OF DR. JOHN A. QUELCH

For the past 7 years, there have already been two memorials at Logan Airport, dedicated to the 147 men, women and children who perished the morning of September 11, 2001 on American Airlines Flight 11 and United Airlines Flight 175.

One stands outside Gate 32 in American Airline's Terminal B. The other stands outside Gate 19 in United's Terminal C. Both memorials appeared spontaneously, raised by airport and airline employees without fanfare or ceremony. These two memorials are one and the same. And there is no grander memorial. That memorial is the flag of the United States of America.

The flags fly proudly to this day, and will likely fly forever. They symbolize the determination of this airport, this Nation, and the community assembled here to recover from that grievous wound.

Today, we dedicate a third memorial as a remembrance of that day and its impact on all of us. This memorial is accessible to all who come to this airport. And this memorial acknowledges each lost soul by name.

It is a simple tribute. A quiet place of reflection. Hopefully, a place for healing. And, with the passage of time, a place for learning and education, as well.

This memorial is first and foremost for you, the family members and friends of those who perished that sunny September morning. They never asked to make history, yet they did so in the saddest possible way.

The weight of September 11 also bore heavily on the entire Logan airport community who were devastated to learn that two of our flights—our flight 11, our flight 175—were instruments in the tragedy that unfolded. We at Massport and the entire Logan family hope that you—and we—will find comfort in this place. And in the years to come, we hope that many thousands of visitors—perhaps millions—will also come here to reflect, to heal and to learn.

Changing our own lives will be the greatest gift we can give to the departed. They surely expect more from us than to merely memorialize their names. They surely want us to do more, work harder, be better, to be inspired by remembering them.

So, for the sacrifice of those we honor here today, may this memorial therefore make us better fathers and mothers, sons and daughters.

For their sacrifice, may we be better custodians of the public trust, ever vigilant for the public safety.

For their sacrifice may we be better citizens and neighbors.

And in the morning, with the rising of the sun, and with the sounds of freedom in the sky, we shall remember them.

RECOGNIZING THE LIFE AND SERVICE OF THE LATE AUSTIN
J. "SONNY" SHELTONHON. MADELINE Z. BORDALLO

OF GUAM

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 16, 2008

Ms. BORDALLO. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the life and service of the late Austin J. "Sonny" Shelton, who passed away on September 7, 2008, after a long illness. Sonny was 59 years of age. Sonny was a member of the 19th Guam Legislature, from 1987 to 1989, where he served as the chairman of the Committee on Rules, vice chairman of the Committee on Energy, Utilities and Consumer Protection, secretary general to the Asian Pacific Parliamentarian's Union and as a member of the Association of Pacific Island Legislators.

In 1995, Sonny was appointed as the director of the Government of Guam's Department of Parks and Recreation and as the Guam Public Auditor from 1999 to 2000. In 2001 he served as the acting director of the Department of Administration.
