the efforts of law enforcement, homeland security, and military officials to protect the Nation's Capital from crime and terrorism:

Mrs. MALONEY of New York. Mr. Chairman, I rise in strong support of H.R. 6842, the National Capital Security and Safety Act and in opposition of the Childers substitute. H.R. 6842 is a commonsense bill that requires the District of Columbia to revise its gun laws in order to comply with the recent decision of the Supreme Court in the case of District Columbia v. Heller within 6 months and does not violate Home Rule and the self governance of the District of Columbia.

Over 30 years ago, the District banned the ownership of handguns, making it among the stiffest bans in the Nation. Like many large metropolitan areas, gun violence contributes to the high crime rates in the District, but the ban has helped to reduce homicide rates. Instead of working to increase the number of guns in the District, we should be helping to stem the availability of these weapons and protecting District residents and visitors from the threat of violence. This Congress should not be dictating to the District of Columbia the laws that govern them when their own elected delegate over bill or its substitute.

The Childers substitute is dangerous. It both ignores the will of District residents and puts more guns on the street of our Nation's Capital. The Childers substitute repeals a ban on semi-automatic weapons and removes the ban on carrying these weapons in public, prohibits registration requirements for most guns, and drops criminal penalties for possessing an unregistered firearm.

Mr. Chairman, Congress must not strip the District of its power to regulate guns. We must not be reckless when it comes to protecting the citizens of D.C., our highest elected officials, and visitors to our Nation's Capital. I urge a vote in favor of the Norton bill and strongly urge a "no" vote on the Childers substitute which severely puts the safety of the District at risk.

H.R. 5840, THE INSURANCE INFOR-MATION ACT OF 2008, AND H.R. 5611, THE NATIONAL ASSOCIA-TION OF REGISTERED AGENTS AND BROKERS REFORM ACT OF 2008

HON. MICHELE BACHMANN

OF MINNESOTA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 18, 2008

Mrs. BACHMANN. Madam Speaker, I am pleased that the House is considering two important bills today—H.R. 5840, the Insurance Information Act of 2008, and H.R. 5611, the National Association of Registered Agents and Brokers Reform Act of 2008. Both these bills will streamline aspects of the insurance industry to help ensure more consistency for agents, brokers, and consumers alike.

H.R. 5840, the Insurance Information Act of 2008, creates a new Office of Insurance Information (OII) under the U.S. Treasury to advise the President and Congress on insurance issues. Currently, all 50 states regulate insurance in their own unique manner. The OII will serve as a hub for data collection and will help guide policymakers working to alleviate undue burdens throughout the insurance regulatory regime.

As the new agency responsible for investigating and reporting on insurance issues, the OII will also coordinate Federal policy on international insurance matters. In today's global marketplace, this will help American insurance companies obtain better access to foreign markets and strengthen their positions as leaders in offering insurance products both here and overseas.

Additionally, H.R. 5611, the National Association of Registered Agents and Brokers Reform Act of 2008, creates the National Association of Registered Agents and Brokers, NARAB. Established as a nonprofit corporation to facilitate the nationwide licensing of insurance agents and brokers, NARAB will supervise and discipline individuals who wish to practice in multiple states.

This new, voluntary tool, which gives agents and brokers the opportunity to be licensed by individual states under the current system, injects much-needed uniformity for those agents and brokers whose businesses stretch from state to state. Consumers will obtain better services and financial products for lower costs while agents and brokers will avoid many of the headaches they currently face due to the myriad of state licensing standards with which they must currently comply.

Madam Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support these measures.

EXPRESSING THE SENSE OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES REGARDING THE TERRORIST ATTACKS LAUNCHED AGAINST THE UNITED STATES ON SEPTEMBER 11. 2001

SPEECH OF

HON. CHRISTOPHER S. MURPHY

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 11, 2008

Mr. MURPHY of Connecticut. Madam Speaker, I rise to support of H. Res. 1420 which honors the 7th anniversary of the terrorist attacks on the World Trade Cener, the Pentagon, and United Airlines Flight 93. On September 11, 2001, nearly 3,000 people died and thousands of others were injured, scarring families and communities across the Nation. The tragic events of that day also challenged our long-held sense of national security and forever-changed our Nation.

In the time following September 11, we also saw the best of the human spirit in the face of unimaginable tragedy. Americans from all over the country banded together and responded to the barbaric attacks with an outpouring of support and commitment to the families of 9/11 and to each other. Everyday heroes from all 50 States, including at least 308 from Connecticut and 64 from the Fifth District alone, put their lives and health on the line and traveled to New York to assist in the rescue and recovery efforts at Ground Zero. Families who lost loved ones on that fateful day dedicated their lives to honoring those killed and making sure that, as a Nation, we never forget. The Fetchets, from New Canaan, Connecticut, are just one example-they lost their son Brad during the attacks on the World Trade Center towers, and rather than resigning to mourning, they channeled their grief into resolve, founding VOICES of September 11th, an organization dedicated to advocating for those affected by the events of September 11, 2001.

Seven years later, with energy and the economy on the forefront of everyone's minds, the lessons of 9/11 seem less immediate: but in reality, we should draw upon the strength and cooperation our Nation showed during that time to solve the economic and national security problems we face today, and to ensure that the needs of 9/11 families and workers are met. I am proud to say that in 2007 we worked together to pass legislation that requires the enactment of the recommendations of the bipartisan 9/11 Commission, making our Nation safer and more secure. As we work to ensure that the new law is fully implemented, we must also not forget the thousands of people who still struggle every single day as a result of the attacks. As we all know, the collapse of the World Trade Center towers released a dangerous cocktail of toxins, putting hundreds of area workers, residents, rescue and recovery workers, and others in the area around Ground Zero at risk. Numerous studies have documented that many of those exposed to the toxins have developed lower and upper respiratory, gastrointestinal, and mental health conditions. With staggering medical bills and the inability to work due to illness, many of the heroes of 9/11 are now in severe financial distress. The Federal Government has a moral obligation to provide them with the care they desperately need and deserve.

I offer my condolences to the families and loved ones of those who died during the attacks as well as my sympathy and commitment to those who are sick as a result. We must remain vigilant in the face of terrorism, and, Madam Speaker, we must always remember the events that occurred on that tragic day 7 years ago.

ALLOWING TAIWAN TO PARTICI-PATE IN UNITED NATIONS AC-TIVITIES

HON. SCOTT GARRETT

OF NEW JERSEY
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 18, 2008

Mr. GARRETT of New Jersey. Madam Speaker, when the United Nations General Assembly met earlier today, the Secretariat considered a request by several of Taiwan's diplomatic allies. These countries asked the United Nations to allow the Republic of China (Taiwan) and its 23 million citizens to have meaningful participation in the activities of the specialized agencies of the United Nations.

By excluding 23 million people from participation in UN-sponsored activities, the UN is effectively treating the people of Taiwan as less than equals when compared to citizens of other countries. The people of Taiwan enjoy the benefits of living in a country that has free elections, yet it is certainly unfair for them to be denied access to agencies such as the International Civil Aviation Organization.

In this global economy, no country and no people are an island. Information travels fast, epidemics spread equally fast. For instance, without membership in the World Health Organization, Taiwan is an overlooked area in the global epidemic surveillance network. Continued exclusion will only harm the international community.

Furthermore, Taiwan has the world's tenth largest shipping capacity, but it has no access to the meetings of the International Maritime Organization and can't acquire first-hand information. There are many other instances of the impracticalities of banning Taiwan's membership in the international society.

I am disappointed that the People's Republic of China again blocked Taiwan's request. Taiwan President Ma Ying-jeou has taken a number of steps to improve the relationship with Beijing, including permission of direct weekend charter flights between the mainland and the island. It is time for the People's Republic to reciprocate by granting Taiwan the ability to join certain UN agencies.

HONORING KAREN MANNING, MSN, RN, CNA, CRRN PRESIDENT OF THE ASSOCIATION OF REHABILI-TATION NURSES

HON. NIKI TSONGAS

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES Thursday, September 18, 2008

Ms. TSONGAS. Madam Speaker, today I pay tribute to Karen Manning, MSN, RN, CNA, CRRN, of Salem State College and president of the Association of Rehabilitation Nurses (ARN), a constituent from my congressional district. Ms. Manning will soon complete her year as the 2007–2008 national president of the ARN, a professional organization representing professional nurses who work to enhance the quality of life for those who are affected by physical disabilities or chronic illnesses. During her tenure as president at ARN, Ms. Manning has been a strong leader and advocate for rehabilitation nurses, as well as the patients ARN serves everyday.

Since 1974, ARN has been the leading source for the latest rehabilitation information, resources, professional development and career opportunities for rehabilitation nursing professionals. ARN members are nurses, with a broad range of clinical experience, dedicated to helping individuals affected by chronic illness or a physical disability adapt to their disabilities, achieve their greatest potential, and work toward productive, independent lives.

Presently, ARN comprises a nationwide network of more than 5,500 rehabilitation nurses who practice in many settings, including hospitals, rehabilitation facilities, home health agencies, subacute and long-term care facilities, and private companies.

A resident of Tewksbury, Massachusetts, Ms. Manning has earned her Bachelors of Science in Nursing from the University of Massachusetts Boston and her Masters of Science in Nursing, with a concentration in nursing management, from the University of Massachusetts Lowell in 1994. Ms. Manning is currently pursing her Doctorate degree in Education from Nova Southeastern University.

In addition to Ms. Manning's academic achievements, she has also authored chapters in both the Rehabilitation Nursing Core Curriculum and Safe Patient Handling and Movement in Rehabilitation—published in 2007 and 2008, respectively. She has presented numerous times on topics relating to current trends in rehabilitation, the future of nursing, and the future role of rehabilitation nurses.

Madam Speaker, I hope my colleagues will join me today in recognizing the outgoing president of the Association of Rehabilitation Nurses, Karen Manning, MSN, RN, CNA, CRRN, for her dedication and exemplary work in the field of rehabilitation nursing. We thank you Ms. Manning for your ongoing service to the healthcare profession.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CITIZENS TELEPHONE COMPANY AND LAFAYETTE COUNTY C-1 SCHOOL DISTRICT

HON. IKE SKELTON

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 18, 2008

Mr. SKELTON. Madam Speaker, let me take this opportunity to congratulate the Lafayette County C-1 School District on receiving a $37,000 grant and to commend the Citizens Telephone Company for their most generous contribution.

To celebrate the company's 100th anniversary of their first dial tone in Higginsville, MO., the Citizens Telephone Company awarded the Lafayette County C-1 School District a $37,000 check. This grant enables the school district to start offering new classes to Higginsville students that were not available before. Also, the grant establishes a "Distance Learning" Program. This allows students to communicate with teachers remotely, from different locations. Citizens Telephone Company has graciously provided monitors, cameras, and other devices to make this technology come to fruition. Now, students and teachers in the district can actually see and interact with each other from different locations.

Madam Speaker, I urge all Members of the House to join me in congratulating the school district and in commending the Citizens Telephone Company on its generosity.

SUNSET MEMORIAL

HON. TRENT FRANKS

OF ARIZONA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES Thursday, September 18, 2008

Mr. FRANKS of Arizona. Madam Speaker, I stand once again before this House with yet another Sunset Memorial.

It is September 18, 2008 in the land of the free and the home of the brave, and before the sunset today in America, almost 4,000 more defenseless unborn children were killed by abortion on demand. That's just today, Madam Speaker. That's more than the number of innocent lives lost on September 11 in this country, only it happens every day.

It has now been exactly 13,023 days since the tragedy called Roe v. Wade was first handed down. Since then, the very foundation of this Nation has been stained by the blood of almost 50 million of its own children. Some of them, Madam Speaker, cried and screamed as they died, but because it was amniotic fluid passing over the vocal cords instead of air, we couldn't hear them.

All of them had at least four things in common. First, they were each just little babies who had done nothing wrong to anyone, and each one of them died a nameless and lonely death. And each one of their mothers, whether she realizes it or not, will never be quite the same. And all the gifts that these children might have brought to humanity are now lost forever. Yet even in the glare of such tragedy, this generation still clings to a blind, invincible ignorance while history repeats itself and our own silent genocide mercilessly annihilates the most helpless of all victims, those yet unborn.

Madam Speaker, perhaps it's time for those of us in this Chamber to remind ourselves of why we are really all here. Thomas Jefferson said, "The care of human life and its happiness and not its destruction is the chief and only object of good government." The phrase in the 14th Amendment capsulizes our entire Constitution. It says, "No State shall deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law." Madam Speaker, protecting the lives of our innocent citizens and their constitutional rights is why we are all here.

The bedrock foundation of this Republic is the clarion declaration of the self-evident truth that all human beings are created equal and endowed by their Creator with the unalienable rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Every conflict and battle our Nation has ever faced can be traced to our commitment to this core, self-evident truth.

It has made us the beacon of hope for the entire world. Madam Speaker, it is who we are
