

up with an emergency room bill they cannot pay because they rushed their child to the hospital after a suicide attempt. Our service men and women returning from Iraq should not be handed a 1-800 number to treat a mental illness.

Passing this bill is both morally and economically right because delay not only affects individuals and families, but it also affects schools, businesses, and our communities. I urge my colleagues to join me in voting for this important bill. Today we can finally make mental health parity a reality.

TRIBUTE TO SUE BOSTON

HON. TOM LATHAM

OF IOWA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 25, 2008

Mr. LATHAM. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Sue Boston of Marshalltown, Iowa as the recipient of the Governor's Volunteer Award for her time spent volunteering in the Marshalltown Community School District.

The Governor's Volunteer Award program was established to honor and recognize volunteers for the commitment, service and time that they contribute to Iowa's government agencies and nonprofit organizations. Sue has volunteered with the Marshalltown Community School District for 20 years, contributing her time and talents to improving the lives of area students and the community as a whole.

I consider it a great honor to represent Sue Boston in the United States Congress, and I wish her the best as she continues to provide a positive impact on young people and her community in the years to come.

CONSOLIDATED SECURITY, DISASTER ASSISTANCE, AND CONTINUING APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2009

SPEECH OF

HON. BOB ETHERIDGE

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 24, 2008

Mr. ETHERIDGE. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of H.R. 2638, the Consolidated Security, Disaster Assistance, and Continuing Appropriations Act for 2009. This bill provides vital funding for our national security needs by including regular appropriations for the Department of Homeland Security, the Department of Defense, and the Department of Veterans Affairs. It also provides continuing funding for the regular operations of other areas of the Federal Government to prevent any interruption in vital services for our citizens.

As a veteran of the U.S. Army, I am proud that this bill keeps our commitments to our troops and their families, those who are serving in Iraq, Afghanistan, and other areas around the world and those who have served our Nation honorably in this war or previous times of strife.

H.R. 2638 provides $487.7 billion for our military needs. It addresses equipment shortfalls for our troops, improves training, and ensures that our military men and women, and their families, receive first class medical care.

The bill increases military pay by 3.9 percent, rejects the President's attempts to increase TRICARE fees, and continues our commitment to the well-being of our soldiers. It provides critical support to the people who support our troops, making $2.8 billion available for family advocacy, education, and daycare. It improves barracks and military hospitals with a $734 million increase over the President's request, ensuring our soldiers have quality facilities when they serve our Nation.

Like the House-passed Military Construction and Veterans Affairs Appropriations Act, H.R. 6599, this bill makes veterans a top priority. It includes a total of $47.6 billion for the Department of Veterans Affairs, more than 10 percent over last year's appropriation. $41 billion supports the Veterans Health Administration (VHA) and Veterans Medical Services, which expects to serve more than 5.8 million patients next year. To improve access to care for our veterans, particularly in rural areas without a VHA facility, the bill provides $200 million for fee-based providers where VHA services are not available. This bill also helps our soldiers returning today from Iraq and Afghanistan, increasing funding for traumatic brain injury and post traumatic stress disorder treatment, as well as supporting prosthetics and new prosthetic technology.

As the Representative of Fort Bragg, one of the largest United States Army bases in the country, I am pleased that this bill addresses the needs of our military installations. H.R. 2638 includes $25 billion for military construction. With a commitment of $8.8 billion, this bill addresses the costs of implementing the Base Realignment and Closure (BRAC), which is bringing unprecedented growth to Fort Bragg.

As a Member of the House Committee on Homeland Security, I am pleased that this bill makes investments in our security needs while cutting funding for low priority and poorly managed programs. It also demands long-needed oversight for contracting and procurement to ensure taxpayer funds are well spent. Homeland security begins with hometown security, and this bill provides $4.2 billion, nearly twice the funding requested by the President, for first responders who provide the first line of defense against disaster, whether natural or man-made. It provides funding for a record number of border patrol agents and other Customs and Border Protection (CBP) officers, enhancing our ability to enforce our laws and keep our borders secure. The bill pays for 4,361 new CBP personnel and 1,400 more detention beds for Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), and adds $1 billion for ICE's enforcement efforts and $775 million for border security fencing and technology. Overall it includes nearly $40 billion in funding to keep Americans secure and ensure that our Nation is prepared for every emergency.

H.R. 2638 provides additional money for Community Development Block Grants, Social Services Block Grants, and disaster relief to address the emerging needs of communities responding to recent natural disasters. It also provides an additional $2.5 billion over last year for Pell Grants to prevent cuts that were facing college students in the middle of the year.

This is not a perfect bill, and compromises needed to be made in order to ensure our Nation's vital priorities can be addressed. I am disappointed that H.R. 2638 does not include any restrictions on offshore drilling, ending 25 years of Congressional protection for our beaches and shorelines, and allowing oil rigs to be built just three miles from our coast. I am disappointed that this bill does not include a balanced energy strategy, like that in the House-passed H.R. 6899, the Comprehensive American Energy Security and Consumer Protection Act, to give states control over their coastlines and target drilling and exploration in the Outer Continental Shelf (OCS) beyond 50 miles of our coastlines. I am disappointed that this bill does not significantly address our desperate need for school construction and modernization, as our schools are bursting at the seams and our economy could use the new jobs it would create. I am disappointed that in this time of financial crisis, this bill does not address state shortfalls for Medicaid and other pressing needs. I look forward to working to address these shortfalls when the 111th Congress takes up appropriations for the rest of FY2009 in the new year.

I support H.R. 2638, the Consolidated Security, Disaster Assistance, and Continuing Appropriations Act for 2009, and I urge my colleagues to join me in voting for its passage.

RECOGNIZING THE HONORABLE BUD CRAMER AND THE HONORABLE TERRY EVERETT ON THEIR RETIREMENT FROM CONGRESS

SPEECH OF

HON. JO BONNER

OF ALABAMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 24, 2008

Mr. BONNER. Mr. Speaker, I respectfully request to include the accompanying articles in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD to supplement my remarks which were entered during the Special Order in honor of two Members of the Alabama Delegation who are retiring.

[From The Montgomery Advertiser, August 5, 2008]

CONGRESSMAN GARNERS PRAISE FOR LOCAL SUPPORT

(By Cosby Woodruff)

Congressman Terry Everett's support for Maxwell Air Force Base during his 16 years in Washington is one reason the River Region benefits from the base's $1.6 billion annual impact, said the head of the Montgomery Area Chamber of Commerce.

Chamber President Randy George said Everett's impact on the area goes far beyond Maxwell, but any discussion of the congressman's legacy must start with the military.

"You can't take that away from him," George said. "He has been a major player on Maxwell."

George said Maxwell is one of Montgomery's biggest economic engines, but the base contributes to the region in ways that can't be measured in dollars and cents.

"The societal impact to our area is at least as important," George said. "It makes us cosmopolitan."

Everett, who is retiring after eight terms in Congress, spoke to the chamber for the last time as a congressman Monday at its Eggs & Issues breakfast series.

His speech focused more on national politics than on local economics, but he did say sectors of Alabama's economy are poised for growth—and he pointed to the space industry as one area that could have an impact in years to come.

"We have never had a national discussion about what space means to our economy," he said. "Space is a $19 billion global industry growing at 22 percent a year."

He suggested the industry's impact on Alabama is limited only by the workers the state can supply.

"We need more young people interested in space, engineering and math," he said.

George pointed out Everett's contributions to the area that go beyond his commitment to the military.

"Downtown, he helped us get the money," George said, of the construction boom and renovations going on in Montgomery. "Much of that money came from federal grants that he has been very supportive of. He has been an advocate for the expansion of the airport."

Everett said he has supported the state's agriculture industry, what he called its biggest economic factor, in Congress.

He said he made sure those interests were protected in the recent farm bill.

George said the congressman has been a friend to the chamber and area businesses.

"Terry has been very responsive to the business community," he said. "We think he has done a great job."

TRIBUTE TO DR. STEVEN J. DeTERESA

HON. IKE SKELTON

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 25, 2008

Mr. SKELTON. Madam Speaker, it has come to my attention that Dr. Steven J. DeTeresa will soon complete his detail to the Committee on Armed Services of the United States House of Representatives.

Dr. DeTeresa was detailed from the Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory (LLNL) to the Committee on June 1, 2005. He received his Bachelor of Science and Master of Engineering in Biomedical Engineering from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute and his Master of Science and Ph.D. in Polymer Science and Engineering from the University of Massachusetts. Dr. DeTeresa worked as visiting scientist for the Institute Donegani in Novara and the University of Naples, Italy; as a research fellow for the University of Massachusetts; and in various research and project management positions at LLNL for the past 20 years.

Dr. DeTeresa has over thirty-five years experience in leadership positions and in conducting independent research and development projects for defense and commercial applications of materials. He is an expert in the mechanics of materials, structure-mechanical property relationships, fundamental aspects of aging and long-term behavior, process science, and failure analysis and modeling.

Dr. DeTeresa has made great contributions to the work of our committee, the Armed Forces of the United States, and the American people during the past three years. Dr. DeTeresa came to work for Congress voluntarily to help his country during a time of war. During his time here, he has been a scientific and technical advisor to the Chairman and to the Committee on Armed Services. He has conducted critically important work for the country on force protection issues such as vehicle and body armor, counter-IED or improvised explosive device technologies, and persistent surveillance technologies. He also has been an essential member of our Oversight and Investigations Subcommittee Staff.

On behalf of the House of Representatives and the Armed Services Committee, let me personally thank Dr. DeTeresa for his service to the Nation and to the men and women of our Armed Services. I wish the best for him, his wife Patti, and their children Catherine and Peter.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. CHARLES A. GONZALEZ

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 25, 2008

Mr. GONZALEZ. Madam Speaker, due to important business in my district, I was unable to be in Washington, DC, on September 22 and the morning of September 23.

Had I been present, I would have cast the following votes:

TRIBUTE TO THE WINNEBAGO SCOUT RESERVATION

HON. TOM LATHAM

OF IOWA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 25, 2008

Mr. LATHAM. Madam Speaker, I rise today to congratulate the Winnebago Scout Reservation on its 50th anniversary. The Winnebago Scout Reservation is located near Marble Rock, Iowa and serves over 4,500 people per year.

In 1954, the need for scouting programs exceeded the capacity of the 25 acre campsite, Camp Roosevelt, in Ventura, Iowa. The Winnebago Boy Scout Council decided to build a new camp with three sites being considered. With the promotion of the Marble Rock location by the local scout leader and Executive board member, Arnold Staudt, the 450 acre location in the Marble Rock area was selected as the new camp site.

The Winnebago Scout Reservation hosts many programs including Cub Scouts, Polar Bear Hunt, Spring Fling, Shooting Sports Weekend, and PALS. The camp also allows other public groups to reserve the grounds for their use.

Over the last 50 years, the Winnebago Scout Reservation has thrived at meeting the needs of area scouts and the surrounding community. I congratulate the Winnebago Scout Reservation on this historic anniversary. It is an honor to represent each scout member and the council staff in the United States Congress, and I wish the Winnebago Scout Reservation an equally storied future.

TRIBUTE TO CONGRESSMAN LOUIS STOKES ON THE 40TH ANNIVERSARY OF HIS ELECTION TO CONGRESS

HON. JESSE L. JACKSON, JR.

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 25, 2008

Mr. JACKSON of Illinois. I rise today to pay tribute to an extraordinary man, former Congressman Louis Stokes on the 40th anniversary of his election to the U.S. House of Representatives.

The Congressman's achievements and legacy continue to be celebrated through scholarship programs, building designations and many other initiatives that bear his name. In 1998, Howard University recognized Congressman Stokes with its designation of the Louis Stokes Health Services Library. On September 28, 2008, colleagues and friends will commemorate this important occasion at this state-of-the-art research facility on the University's campus in Washington, DC.

Congressman Stokes' historic election in 1968 marked the beginning of 30 years of distinguished service to the state of Ohio and the nation. His leadership as a founding member of the Congressional Black Caucus; a member of the powerful House Appropriations Committee; his chairmanship on the Select Committee on Assassinations; chair of the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence; chair of the House Ethics Committee; service on the Iran Contra panel; and the legislative proposals that he successfully authored throughout his tenure in Congress, earned Chairman Stokes the respect of his constituents and the admiration of his colleagues on both sides of the aisle.

I have had the privilege of following in Congressman Stokes' footsteps with my service on the House Appropriations Committee, specifically the Subcommittee on Labor, Health, and Human Services, and Education. On the Labor, Health and Education Subcommittee, Congressman Stokes drafted the blueprint to end health disparities. Congressman Stokes' pioneering efforts as the first African-American to serve on the Appropriations Committee can be seen today in JIM CLYBURN, CAROLYN CHEEKS-KILPATRICK, CHAKA FATTAH, SANFORD BISHOP, BARBARA LEE, and me.

Congressman Stokes, I congratulate you and thank you for your leadership.
