

Ellen Ackerman, Jim Ackerman, Steve Alexander, Terri Allaire, Adalberto Araiza, Larry Bahill, Bill Benedict, Dan Cavanagh, Ed Cerutti, Mike Crawford, Mimi Finch, Bruce Greenberg, Doug Kliman, Robert Nichols, Chris Palmenberg, Bob Parson, Larry Putman, Joe Sciabarra, Burney Starks, Bob Strain, Tim Timmins, Paul Weishaupt, and Jessica Woelbling.

I commend them for their commitment to this important nominating process and for their help in identifying the United States military leaders of the future.

HONORING THE REVEREND
BONITA GRUBBS FOR HER OUT-STANDING SERVICE TO THE COMMUNITY

HON. ROSA L. DeLAURO

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 19, 2008

Ms. DeLAURO. Madam Speaker, it is with great pleasure that I rise today to join family, friends, colleagues, and the New Haven community in extending recognizing my good friend, the Reverend Bonita Grubbs, as we gather to celebrate her 20th Anniversary as the Executive Director of Christian Community Action. It has been through her outstanding leadership and vision that Christian Community Action has grown into an invaluable resource for those most in need.

Christian Community Action is a non-profit ecumenical social service organization whose mission includes providing emergency food, housing, and support to New Haven's poor while encouraging them to attain self-sufficiency. Christian Community Action is also a vocal advocate for the most vulnerable of our citizens—working to change the systems that perpetuate poverty and injustice. For twenty of its thirty year history, Bonita has been at the helm of this institution where she has led the way in expanding its programs and services. She has a unique combination of compassion, generosity, and vision which has enabled her to ensure that this agency can continue to meet the changing needs of the poor.

More than just her professional contributions have made Bonita one of our most respected community leaders. She has served on the Boards of the Greater New Haven Community Loan Fund, the International Festival of Arts and currently serves on the Boards of the Hospital of Saint Raphael, Connecticut Voices for Children, the Connecticut Housing Coalition, Quinnipiac Bank and Trust, and the Connecticut Center for School Change. She has been a member of the Judicial Review Council for the State of Connecticut as well as president of the Connecticut Coalition to End Homelessness. Ordained to the Christian Ministry within the American Baptist Church in November of 1987, Bonita has also served as the Interim Pastor of the Christian Baptist Church in Hamden, Connecticut. Bonita understands the importance of being involved in one's community and has made an extraordinary effort to enrich the lives of those less fortunate.

Her work with Christian Community Action as well her myriad of volunteer efforts have changed the face of the New Haven community and brought much needed attention to the needs of the poor. Bonita knows that the prosperity of a community lies in the willingness of its members to give back and she has done much to strengthen the bonds of our community.

I must also take this opportunity to extend my heartfelt thanks to Bonita for her many years of special friendship. She has been a source of inspiration to me and so many others. I am honored to take this moment to stand and recognize the Reverend Bonita Grubbs for her 20 years of dedicated service to Christian Community Action and her outstanding contributions. Every community should be so fortunate as to have such an accomplished and devoted advocate, mentor, and friend.

UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION
EXTENSION ACT OF 2008

SPEECH OF

HON. CHRIS VAN HOLLEN

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 3, 2008

Mr. VAN HOLLEN. Madam Speaker, although am disappointed that White House opposition will prevent the House-passed $63 billion stimulus package from becoming law this year, we have at least reached bipartisan agreement on this seven week extension of unemployment benefits for our neighbors still looking for work in this struggling economy.

Today's unemployment report was not good: 159,000 jobs lost in September—the worst job loss in five years, on top of 600,000 jobs already lost in 2008. The Federal Unemployment Trust Fund currently has more than enough reserves to cover the cost of this extension, and nearly 800,000 workers will exhaust their benefits if this legislation isn't enacted into law. For their benefit, and the benefit of our economy, I urge my colleagues' support and yield back the balance of my time.

HONORING THOSE WHO FOUGHT
THE ANGEL ISLAND FIRE

HON. LYNN C. WOOLSEY

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 19, 2008

Ms. WOOLSEY. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the heroic firefighters who, with bravery and dedication, halted the fire that threatened to devastate Angel Island State Park, one of our Nation's unparalleled treasures, located in San Francisco Bay near Tiburon in Marin County, California.

Heroic firefighters across America brave flames and smoke to save lives and protect homes and property. Everyday these men and women risk their safety on our behalf.

On Sunday, October 12, 2008 flames threatened to swallow Angel Island, a renowned landmark that boasts a history dating back to the Civil War. In 1863, Angel Island was home to Camp Reynolds, which guarded the bay during the Civil War. The island later served as an immigration station, dubbed "The Ellis Island of the West". During the Cold War, the Nike missile site was located on Angel Island.

Many of these structures are truly windows into our past. In particular, I have worked with my colleagues and with concerned citizens such as the Angel Island Immigration Station Foundation to restore the immigration station. The stories of peoples' lives are literally written into its walls and have much to tell us about our own history and humanity.

When fire raged at Angel Island, threatening to devastate our Nation's jewel, 275 firefighters united forces to stop the fire and ultimately protect 120 historic buildings and 360 acres from destruction.

Days after the orange and red flames dissipated into a cloud of smoke, a crew of 100 dedicated firefighters remained on the island to complete their duties.

Successfully battling a major wildland fire is never the act of one person alone. Marin's fire agencies have an effective mutual aid agreement which brought skilled personnel and resources from agencies throughout the County with a shared objective—saving the Island's historical buildings and minimizing resource damage. Angel Island Park personnel were an instrumental part of the command structure and, with the help of the U.S. Coast Guard, quickly evacuated overnight campers to a safe location. As always, the air attack and support provided by crews and personnel from CAL FIRE gave firefighters the upper hand to ultimately bring the fire under control. This was an amazing example of inter-agency cooperation that was the key to a successful outcome.

Madam Speaker, I thank these leaders and their crews who saved a tremendous part of our history. They and their many colleagues across the country are truly our heroes. Thanks to their tireless and timely response to a looming threat, Angel Island, a beacon of history and environmental beauty, can continue to enrich the lives of visitors from around the world.

IN HONOR OF JOHANNA OROZCO

HON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 19, 2008

Mr. KUCINICH. Madam Speaker, I rise today in honor and recognition of Johanna Orozco. Her courage, personal strength and concern for others in the wake of unimaginable personal tragedy nearly two years ago at the young age of fifteen, has lifted her into the rare and inspiring platform as a champion of women's rights. Her activism has inspired people of all ages throughout our Greater Cleveland community, especially young women who are vulnerable to domestic violence.

Ms. Orozco did not only survive the vicious attack by her ex-boyfriend, she has reached out as an activist, speaking openly on high school and college campuses. She selflessly shares her own painful experience in order to educate and protect others from unhealthy relationships and domestic violence. Despite her near death, she battled to recover, rising a stronger and wiser individual. Through every painful phase of her rehabilitation and surgeries, Ms. Orozco reflects grace and dignity.

Madam Speaker and colleagues, please join me in honor and recognition of Johanna Orozco, who has transformed her personal tragedy into triumph. She has emerged with strength, determination and an optimistic view for her future. She continues to inspire those who have been privileged to meet and know her. I look forward to her future achievements. Johanna Orozco is a heroin among us, and our community will continue to support her as she recovers.

Madam Speaker and colleagues, please join me in honor and gratitude of Johanna Orozco, whose remarkable story and activism will forever have an impact on our community. May her courage continue to serve as an inspiration for us all.

HONORING LEE ANGELICH

HON. GEORGE RADANOVICH

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 19, 2008

Mr. RADANOVICH. Madam Speaker, I rise today, along with Congressman COSTA, to congratulate Lee Angelich upon his induction into the Fresno Athletic Hall of Fame. Mr. Angelich will be honored at the 50th anniversary enshrinement dinner of the Fresno Athletic Hall of Fame on Thursday, November 6, 2008.

Lee Angelich, the youngest of five boys, was born to a Serbian immigrant family and starred in track and field in high school and college. Mr. Angelich qualified for the State Finals his senior year at Shasta High School. In his two years at Sacramento Junior College, he led the Panthers to league and state titles and in 1941 he led them to a national title. Mr. Angelich placed second in the 120 high hurdles and fifth in the high jump at the national meet. He then went on to the University of California, where in 1943 he won Pacific Coast Conference titles in the 120 high and the 220 low hurdles, and finished fifth and sixth respectively in the same events at the NCAA Championships. In 1943, Mr. Angelich joined the Navy and served as an officer on the U.S.S. Rixey in the Pacific. After the war, he enrolled at California State University Fresno and placed third in the West Coast Relays in the 120 high hurdles.

After completing his education Mr. Angelich began coaching. As a coach he stressed fundamentals, defense and teamwork. He guided boys' teams at Kerman High, Porterville High and Fresno High to eight league championships and an overall record of 255–76 from 1947 to 1963. His Kerman team won the Central Section small schools championship, and his Fresno High teams won forty-eight straight games at home, second best in section history. Under Mr. Angelich, Fresno High won four consecutive North Yosemite League titles (1957–1960). He is one of the rare coaches to win central Section titles in two different sports, as Fresno High captured the boys' track-and-field championship in 1957. He became one of the winningest high school basketball coaches in central section history. Additionally, after turning down a chance to coach Greece's national men's basketball team in 1959, he organized and coached the Libyan national team that participated in the North African Games in 1961.

Madam Speaker, we rise today to commend and congratulate Lee Angelich upon his achievements and induction into the Fresno Athletic Hall of Fame. I invite my colleagues to join me in wishing Mr. Angelich congratulations on his many accomplishments.

HONORING AMANDA SCOTT

HON. JIM COSTA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 19, 2008

Mr. COSTA. Madam Speaker, I rise today, along with Congressman RADANOVICH, to congratulate Amanda Scott upon her induction into the Fresno Athletic Hall of Fame. Ms. Scott will be honored at the 50th anniversary enshrinement dinner at the Fresno Athletic Hall of Fame on Thursday, November 6, 2008.

Amanda Scott was born and raised in Clovis, California and graduated from Clovis High School. She went on to attend California State University, Fresno where she pitched for the Lady Bulldogs. In the championship game of the 1998 National Collegiate Athletic Association, NCAA, Softball World Series, Ms. Scott pitched a near perfect game against top-seeded Arizona in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. She led her team to a 1–0 victory over Arizona. She pitched seven innings, allowing three hits and she had six strike outs. At bat, she was three for three. The Bulldogs had captured their first NCAA Division 1 team championship in school history.

Ms. Scott's accolades do not stop there. She was the first four-time first-team All-American for CSU Fresno, she was named number two among CSU Fresno's "Greatest Athletes of the Twentieth Century", two-time Academic All-American, two-time Western Athletic Conference Female Athlete of the Year, member of the NCAA's twenty-fifth anniversary team, winner of an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship and was named "Most Valuable Player" of the 1998 Softball World Series.

Upon graduating from CSU Fresno she was the school's career leader in strikeouts (851), saves (110), Runs Batted In (212) and pitching appearances (155). Her career win-loss record is 106–18 and her batting average was .303 with thirty-one home runs. Her records are amazing, and her career continued to grow. Amanda Scott was at her best in the clutch when she was pitted against the best the sport had to offer; her face was a picture of resolve whether pitching or batting. She was a member of the 1998 U.S. team that won the World Championship and was an alternate on the gold-medal winning 2000 U.S. Olympic team. Ms. Scott starred in the National Pro Fastpitch league, and was named the "World Series Most Valuable Player" for the 2004 champion, the New York Juggernaut. Today, she is an assistant softball coach at the University of Illinois-Chicago and a television sports commentator.

Madam Speaker, I rise today to commend and congratulate Amanda Scott upon her achievements. I invite my colleagues to join me in wishing Ms. Scott many years of continued success.

TRIBUTE TO DR. JAMES CRAWFORD

HON. CAROLYN MCCARTHY

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 19, 2008

Mrs. MCCARTHY of New York. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize a talented pathologist, professor, and author, Dr. James Crawford. Dr. Crawford recently moved to Long Island, New York to serve as the Chair of the Department of Pathology and Laboratory Medicine at Long Island Jewish Hospital. His commitment to advocating for quality health care and the study of pathology deserves commendation.

Dr. Crawford will be stepping down at the end of December as Chair of the College of American Pathologists' Political Action Committee. Pathologists are laboratory physicians that play a key role in health care by diagnosing and characterizing diseases through examination of biopsies or bodily fluids.

Prior to accepting his new position at Long Island Jewish Hospital, Dr. Crawford served as Chair of the Pathology Department at the University of Florida, College of Medicine. A talented pathology professor, he has served as a faculty member at Brigham and Women's Hospital, Harvard Medical School, as well as the Yale University School of Medicine.

Dr. Crawford is a world expert in hepatic pathology and pathobiology who has served as the Senior Editor of three books, as well as authored over 170 original articles and book chapters. Dr. Crawford has also been an active supporter of early cancer screening tests, especially Pap tests. Through the years, Pap examinations have proven to be the most effective screening test for early detection of cervical cancer in women.

Dr. Crawford received his medical degree and PhD from Duke University. After completing medical school, he completed his Pathology Residency and Gastrointestinal Pathology Fellowship at Brigham and Women's Hospital, as well as a Fellowship in Hepatopathology at the Royal Free Hospital in London.

Although he will be stepping down as Chair of the College of American Pathologist's Political Action Committee, Dr. Crawford will continue to be a strong voice for promoting quality health care in his new position at Long Island Jewish Hospital. I urge my colleagues to join me in recognizing this outstanding physician, professor, and author for his strong commitment to pathology and patient care.

IN RECOGNITION OF MAYOR HEATHER FARGO

HON. DORIS O. MATSUI

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 19, 2008

Ms. MATSUI. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Heather Fargo's twenty years of service to the people of Sacramento as mayor, council member, and community activist. On November 20th, Mayor Fargo, family and friends will gather to recognize her outstanding work, and I ask all my colleagues to join me in honoring one of Sacramento's finest leaders.