

Mr. BOEHNER. With all due respect, the minority in this House has a right to be heard.

Mr. HOYER. That's correct.

Mr. BOEHNER. No amendments, no substitutes, no motions to recommit. Last night, we get rid of all the Special Orders. At some point, the majority has an obligation to treat the minority with respect. It is not happening, and that's why we're going to continue to wage this fight to be heard on this floor and represent nearly half of the American people that we're here to represent.

□ 1830

Mr. HOYER. I thank the gentleman for his comments. I think my comments go as spoken. I expect you to continue to follow those actions which you think are necessary, but I did want to put you on notice because I don't want anything to happen that you're not on notice of.

Mr. HASTINGS of Washington. Will the gentleman yield?

Mr. HOYER. I yield to my friend.

Mr. HASTINGS of Washington. I thank the majority leader for yielding.

Under the rules of the House, the Members have the right to vote if they're in the well. You're certainly not suggesting that the presiding officer or the Speaker is going to not abide by that privilege that a Member has when they're in the well of the House.

Mr. HOYER. I don't want to shock anybody on this floor. My belief is that comity requires that, not the rules. I believe comity ought to be followed to that extent. But if your contention is that you can have 200 people stand in that aisle and one every 20 seconds come in and take 20 seconds to change their vote and submit it and the Speaker is hostage to the 199 people waiting to step into the aisle while they're standing there, the answer to your question is yes, I believe the Speaker has the authority under the good order of the House, and I believe the presiding officer has the absolute authority.

Mr. LINDER, who is sitting here, shut down a vote. I think he was within the rules. There were two people in the well. Now, that was changed—

Mr. LINDER. I would object.

Mr. HOYER. You object to the action or the assertion?

Mr. LINDER. Will the gentleman yield?

Mr. HOYER. I certainly will.

Mr. LINDER. As a matter of fact, I was in the Chair and I was accused of shutting down the vote while people were in the well seeking to vote. And the next day the C-SPAN tapes proved you were wrong and I was right. The people coming in to vote were not even not only in the well, they were not even on the floor. They were shouting "one more." But Dick Armey reviewed the tapes to critique me and concluded that you were wrong and I was right.

Mr. HOYER. Let me correct my statement. They were not in the well.

They were coming down the aisle. But I think the point is the same. Somebody was seeking to vote. Mr. LINDER decided the vote was over. I think Mr. LINDER acted within the rules.

I yield back the balance of my time.
